93.264 NURSE FACULTY LOAN PROGRAM (NFLP)
NFLP
FEDERAL AGENCY:
Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Sections 846A (42 U.S.C. 297n-1) and Section 847(f) (42 U.S.C. 297o(f)) of the Public Health Service Act.

OBJECTIVES:
The Nurse Faculty Loan Program (NFLP) is a loan forgiveness program which aims to increase the number of qualified nursing faculty - Schools of Nursing that receive NFLP funding must provide loans to students enrolled in eligible advanced degree nursing programs (masters or doctoral) with coursework that uniquely prepares students to serve as full-time nurse faculty at accredited schools of nursing. NFLP student borrowers who complete these programs and secure post-graduate employment as nurse faculty receive forgiveness of up to 85% of the NFLP loan while serving as full-time nurse faculty at an accredited school of nursing.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Formula Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
NFLP grantees must establish a distinct NFLP loan fund for the purpose of making NFLP loans to eligible students enrolled in advanced degree nursing programs who are committed to become qualified nurse faculty and for the costs associated with collection of these loans. Institutions may award a maximum loan amount of $35,500 per student for an academic year to support the cost of tuition, fees, books, and other reasonable education expenses, not to exceed five years of NFLP loan support to a single student. Upon completion of the program and following graduation, an amount up to 85 percent of the loan (principal of and interest on) may be cancelled by the institution as follows: 20 percent upon completion of the first, second, and third years of full-time faculty employment in an accredited school of nursing; and 25 percent upon completion of the fourth year of full-time employment as faculty in an accredited school of nursing.

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligible applicants are accredited public or private collegiate schools of nursing or departments within an academic institution, that offer graduate degree nursing education programs (masters or doctoral) that include educator-focused coursework within the program of study that will prepare the graduate student to serve as nurse faculty. The school must be located in the 50 States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the U.S. Virgin Islands, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia, or the Republic of Palau. Funding priority is given to applicants with doctoral-level advanced degree nursing programs.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Eligible nursing students must: (1) be a citizen or national of the United States, or a lawful permanent resident of the United States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the U.S. Virgin Islands, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia, or the Republic of Palau; (2) be enrolled in an advanced degree program in nursing to become qualified nursing faculty; (3) not be in default on a Federal debt; and (4) maintain good academic standing.

93.265 COMPREHENSIVE GERIATRIC EDUCATION PROGRAM
(CGEP)
FEDERAL AGENCY:
Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Section 855 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 298).

OBJECTIVES:
To train and educate individuals in providing geriatric care for the elderly.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Grants are used to develop and implement, in coordination with programs under section 753, programs and initiatives to train and educate individuals in providing geriatric care for the elderly. Grants may be used to: provide training to individuals who will provide geriatric care for the elderly, develop and disseminate curricula relating to the treatment of the health problems of elderly individuals; train faculty members in geriatrics; provide continuing education to individuals who provide geriatric care; or establish traineeships for individuals who are preparing for advanced education nursing degrees in geriatric nursing, long-term care, geropsychiatric nursing or other nursing areas that specialize in the care for the elderly population. Funds may be used for salaries of personnel specifically employed for the project; consultant fees; supplies and equipment necessary to conduct the project; essential personnel travel expenses and other expenses related to the project.

Restricted uses: Indirect costs under training awards to organizations other than State, local or American Indian tribal governments will be budgeted and reimbursed at 8 percent of modified total direct costs rather than on the basis of a negotiated rate agreement, and are not subject to upward or downward adjustment.

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligible applicants are a school of nursing, a health care facility, a program leading to certification as a certified nurse assistant, a partnership of such a school and facility, or a partnership of such a program and facility. Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Government and Native American may apply if they are otherwise eligible.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Training is for individuals and faculty members who provide, or will provide, care for the elderly.

93.269 COMPLEX HUMANITARIAN EMERGENCY AND WAR-RELATED INJURY PUBLIC HEALTH ACTIVITIES

FEDERAL AGENCY:

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

Executive Order Sections 307 and 317(k)(2) of the Public Health Service Act, [42 U.S.C. Section 242l and 247b(k)(2)], as amended.

OBJECTIVES:

Not Applicable.
To bring public health and epidemiologic principles to the aid of populations affected by complex humanitarian emergencies. Work will focus on the following main program areas: (1) Providing technical assistance including rapid health and nutrition assessments, public health surveillance, epidemic investigations, disease prevention and control, program evaluation and emergency preparedness; (2) Developing, implementing and disseminating findings from operational research projects aimed at developing more effective public health interventions; (3) Designing, implementing, and evaluating training activities to strengthen the capacity of CDC, other U.S. government agencies, international and private voluntary organizations, other governments, and public health students; (4) Developing and disseminating guidelines on public health issues and technical areas; and (5) Planning and maintaining partnerships with strategic international, bilateral, and non-governmental relief organizations.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Grants and cooperative agreements may be made to eligible institutions for the support of projects related to domestic and international complex humanitarian emergencies and war-related injuries. The grants and cooperative agreements may be used for personnel, salaries, consultant costs, survey costs, training, equipment, supplies, travel, patient costs, miscellaneous items, and indirect costs.

Applicant Eligibility: The general public will benefit from the objectives of this program.

Beneficiary Eligibility: The general public will benefit from the objectives of this program.

Credentials/Documentation: Applicants should review the individual CDC Guidance documents issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications which must be submitted prior to or simultaneous with submission of an application package. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

93.270 VIRAL HEPATITIS PREVENTION AND CONTROL
Viral Hepatitis Prevention, Screening, Linkage to Care, and Education

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Program Descriptions

AUTHORIZATION:
Sections 301 and 317K(k)(2) of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. section 241 and 274b-15), as amended.

OBJECTIVES:
Program activities under this funding will allow for CDC to partner with multiple organizations to benefit individuals by substantially reducing viral hepatitis transmission, identifying those that are acutely and chronically infected, and linking infected individuals with treatment if appropriate. Specifically, the program activities may include but are not limited to:
1. Increasing the proportion of persons living with HCV and HBV who are aware of their infection and referred for prevention and clinical care services.
2. Expanding and improving efforts to develop and disseminate viral hepatitis training and educational materials targeting the public and private sector health care professionals to build capacity to assess, test and medically manage populations at risk for chronic HCV and HBV infection.
3. Supporting state and local health departments and other organizations in linking HCV infected persons to community health centers, clinics serving injection drug users, and other health organizations seeing individuals potentially infected with chronic viral hepatitis.
4. Increase the number of reported incidence cases being reported in state and local health departments.
5. Additional support will be provided for program monitoring, evaluation, capacity building, and technical assistance, along with support for acute and chronic viral hepatitis surveillance.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funds may be used for costs associated with establishing and maintaining a prevention and control program directed towards prevention of viral hepatitis infections and their manifestations. Recipients may only expend funds for reasonable policies, systems and program purposes including personnel, travel, supplies and services, such as reducing transmission of HAV, HBV and HCV, preventing and delaying the progress of chronic infection, as well as educating and training of the general public and health care providers. Recipients may not use funds for clinical care. Recipients may not generally use funding for the purchase of furniture or equipment. Any such proposed spending must be identified in the budget. The recipient must perform a substantial role in carrying out project objectives and not merely serve as a conduit for an award in another party or provider who is eligible.

Applicant Eligibility:
Applicants include State or local governments or their Bona Fide Agents, public and private nonprofit organizations, for profit organizations, small, minority, women-owned businesses, universities, colleges, research institutions, hospitals, community-based organizations, faith based organizations, Federally recognized Indian tribal governments, Indian tribes, and Indian tribal organizations. Additional guidance may be provided in individual program announcements.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
The individual will benefit from the objectives of this program as well as the community at large, and society from the savings realized from treating those who are infected with viral hepatitis.

CREDENTIALS/DOCUMENTATION:
No Credentials or documentation are required. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs."

An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. OMB Circular No. A-102 applies to this program. OMB Circular No. A-110 applies to this program. Applicants must download application forms from www.Grants.gov. Applications must be submitted electronically at www.Grants.gov. If an applicant does not have access to the Internet, or if they have difficulty accessing the forms on-line, contact the CDC Office of Grant Services Technical Information Management Section (OGS-TIMS) staff. For this, or further assistance, contact OGS-TIMS: Telephone (770) 488-2700, Email: ogsstim@cdc.gov.

Award Procedure:
Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Award (NoA) from the CDC Office of Grants Services. The NoA shall be the only binding, authorizing document between the recipient and CDC. The NoA will be signed by an authorized Grants Management Officer and emailed to the program director, and a hard copy mailed to the recipient fiscal officer identified in the application.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 120 to 180 days. Deadline for submission of applications will be between 30-60 days from date of publication.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Renewals will be based upon the conditions in the notice of funding opportunity (NOFO) and are subject to the availability of funds.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Project period is for 2-5 years with 12-month budget period. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Assistance is awarded through Notice of Grant Awards (NoAs) to funded applicants. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Award through a Notice of Grant Award.

Reports:
Program reports are due annually. Also see NOFO for additional information. Programs are required to report carryover funds annually through form SF-51. Progress reports are due and must outline how the grantee is meeting the objectives as outlined in the NOFO. A form SF-51 is required annually. Yes, as part of progress report, and rapid feedback reports are part of the process for monitoring.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. In addition, grants and cooperative agreements are subject to inspection and audits by DHHS and other Federal officials.

Records:
Financial records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other reports pertinent to the program shall be retained for a minimum of 3 years, or until completion and resolution of any audit in process or pending resolution. In all cases, records must be retained until resolution of any audit questions. Property records must be retained in accordance with 45 CFR 92.42.

EXAMPLES OF FUNDED PROJECTS:

Direct Category A funding: Viral Hepatitis.

Obligations:

(3) Research Project Grants provide support for clearly defined projects or a small group of related activities, and when appropriate, support of conferences; (2) Program Project Grants are for large-scale, broad-based programs of research, usually interdisciplinary, consisting of several projects with a common focus; (3) Small Grants are for small-scale exploratory and pilot studies or exploration of an unusual research opportunity; Small Grants are limited to $50,000 for direct costs for a period of up to 2 years; (4) Exploratory/Developmental Grants are limited for a period of up to 2 years, and a maximum of $275,000 for direct costs for the entire 2 year period. Funds may be used only for expenses directly related to the approved research project. STTR Phase I grants (normally of 1 year duration) are to determine the scientific, technical, and commercial merit and feasibility of the proposed cooperative effort that has potential for commercial application. Phase II funding is based on results of research initiated in Phase I and scientific and technical merit and commercial potential of Phase II application; (5) Alcohol Research Center Grants, and Alcohol Research Resource Centers provide long-term support for a concerted and multi-disciplinary research effort into the problems of alcohol use and alcoholism by coordinating the activities of investigators from biomedical, behavioral, and social science disciplines around a basic research theme. An alcohol research center is expected to realize its greater potential for contributing to the basic store of knowledge about alcohol and alcoholism and to become a significant regional and national resource; (6) Training and Research Career Development Awards - Mentored Research Scientist Development Awards (K01), Mentored Clinical Scientist Development Awards (K08), and Independent Scientist Awards (K02) provide support for individuals with research potential who need additional training and research experience to reach their full professional potential.

Preapplication Coordination:
Applicant Eligibility:
The program is subject to the provisions of 45 CFR Part 92 for State and local nonfederal consultants recruited nationwide. The amount of the award and $500,000 or more direct costs in any one year. Applications are reviewed by project grant application or any unsolicited new grant application requesting instructions, if not available at the applicant institution, may be obtained from Federal Awards. The standard application forms, as furnished by PHS, must be used by grant applicants. Application kits, containing the necessary forms and Federal Awards. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. The standard application forms, as furnished by PHS, must be used by grant applicants. Application kits, containing the necessary forms and instructions, if not available at the applicant institution, may be obtained from the NIH. Consultation on proposed projects is also available. Preapplication consultation with NIAAA staff is required before submission of a Program Project grant application or any unsolicited new grant application requesting $500,000 or more direct costs in any one year. Applications are reviewed by nonfederal consultants recruited nationwide. The amount of the award and period of support are determined on the basis of the merit of the project. This program is subject to the provisions of 45 CFR Part 92 for State and local governments and OMB Circular No. A-110 for nonprofit organizations. SBIR and STTR Grant Solicitations and SBIR Contract Solicitation may be obtained electronically through the NIH’s “Small Business Funding Opportunities” home page at www.nih.gov/grants/funding/sbir.htm on the World Wide Web. A limited number of hard copies of these publications are produced. Subject to availability, they may be obtained by contacting the NIH support services contractor: Telephone: (301) 206-9385; Fax: (301) 206-9722; E-mail: a2y@cu.nih.gov. The Solicitations include submission procedures, review considerations, and grant application or contract proposal forms. SBIR and STTR grant applications should be submitted to the Center for Scientific Review, 6701 Rockledge Drive, Room 1040 - MSC 7710, Bethesda, MD 20892-7710.

Award Procedure:
Research Grants in support of projects recommended for approval by the National Advisory Council on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism and approved for payment are awarded directly by the NIAAA to the applicant institution. All accepted SBIR/STTR applications are evaluated for scientific and technical merit by an appropriate scientific peer review panel and by a national advisory council or board. All applications receiving a priority score compete for available SBIR/STTR set-aside funds on the basis of scientific and technical merit and commercial potential of the proposed research, program relevance, and program balance among the areas of research.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 240 to 270 days from submission of application for grant support. SBIR/STTR applications about 7-1/2 months. AIDS related research applications about 6 months.

Appeals:
A principal investigator may appeal the substantive or procedural aspects of the review of his/her application by communicating with the staff of the Institute. A description of the NIH Peer Review Appeals procedures is available on the NIH home page: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-11-064.html.

Renewals:
Support is recommended for a specified project period, usually not in excess of 5 years. Prior to termination of a project period, the grantee may apply for renewal of support for a new project period. An application for renewal is processed as a competing request. Small Grants and Exploratory/Developmental Grants are not renewable, but grantees may apply for research project grants on the same topics.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Varies, but a project period is generally limited to 5 years or less. Grantee may apply for renewal of support on a non-competing basis. After the project period, continuation applications must be submitted on a non-competing basis for each year of approved support. Small Grants are limited to 2 years or less and are not renewable. Exploratory/Developmental Grants are limited to 3 years or less and are not renewable. Payments will be made either on a Monthly Cash Request System or under an Electronic Transfer System. Necessary instructions for the appropriate type of payment will be issued shortly after an award is made. SBIR: Normally, Phase I awards are for 6 months; normally, Phase II awards are for 2 years. STTR: Normally, Phase I awards are for 1 year; normally, Phase II awards are for 2 years. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Awards will be released electronically to applicant institution. Funds are released annually.

Reports:
Research Grants: Annual and final progress reports, including a description of results, positive and negative, and a list of any publications. Career Program: Awardee submits annual progress report. Termination notice, PHS 416-7, must be submitted upon completion of NRSA training. Reports are required after termination of National Research Service Awards to ascertain compliance with the service and payback provisions. A Financial Status Report must be submitted within 90 days after the close of each budget period for which an award has been issued. No expenditure reports are required. Any performance monitoring is required. No cash reports are required. Research Grants: Annual and final progress reports, including a description of results, positive and negative, and a list of any publications. Career Program: Awardee submits annual progress report. Termination notice, PHS 416-7, must be submitted upon completion of NRSA training. Reports are required after termination of National Research Service Awards to ascertain compliance with the service and payback provisions. A Financial Status Report must be submitted within 90 days after the close of each budget period for which an award has been issued. No expenditure reports are required. Annual progress reports are required as a part of the continuation application. A final expenditure report is required at the conclusion of the project. The NIAAA Program officers will monitor performance by evaluating the annual progress report.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. "In accordance with the provisions of OMB Circular No. A-133 (Revised, June 27, 2003), "Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations," nonfederal entities that expend financial assistance of $500,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or program-specific audit conducted for that year. Nonfederal entities that expend less than $500,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in Circular No. A-133." Records:
Grantees generally must retain financial and programmatic records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records that are required by the terms of a grant, or may reasonably be considered pertinent to a grant, for a period of 3 years from the date the annual FSR is submitted. For awards under SNAP (other than those to foreign organizations and Federal institutions), the 3-year retention period will be calculated from the date the FSR for the entire competitive segment is submitted. Those grantees must retain the records pertinent to the entire competitive segment for 3 years from the date the FSR is submitted to NIH. Foreign organizations and Federal institutions must retain records for 3 years from the date of submission of the annual FSR to NIH. See 45 CFR 74.53 and 92.42 for exceptions and qualifications to the 3-year retention requirement (e.g., if any litigation, claim, financial management review, or audit is started before the expiration of the 3-year period, the records must be retained until all litigation, claims, or audit findings involving the records have been resolved and final action taken). Those sections also specify the retention period for other types of grant-related records, including F&A cost proposals and property records. See 45 CFR 74.48 and 92.36 for record retention and access requirements for contracts under grants. In accordance with 45 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 74.53(e), the HHS Inspector General, the U.S. Comptroller General, or any of their duly authorized representatives have the right of timely and unrestricted access to any books, documents, papers, or other records of recipients that are pertinent to awards in order to make audits, examinations, exceptions, transcripts, and copies of such documents. This right also includes timely and reasonable access to a recipients personnel for the purpose of interview and discussion related to such documents. The rights of access are not limited to the required retention period, but shall last as long as records are retained.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:
The following considerations will be used in determining projects to be funded:

1. Scientific and technical merit of the proposal; (2) program balance; and (3) relevance to NIAAA priorities and public health issues. The following criteria will be used in considering the scientific and technical merit of SBIR/STTR Phase 1 grant applications: (1) The soundness and technical merit of the proposed approach; (2) the qualifications of the proposed principal investigator, supporting staff, and consultants; (3) the technological innovation, originality, or societal importance of the proposed research; (4) the potential of the proposed research for commercial application; (5) the appropriateness of the budget requested; (6) the adequacy and suitability of the facilities and research environment; and (7) where applicable, the adequacy of assurances detailing the proposed means for (a) safeguarding human of animal subjects, and/or (b) protecting against or minimizing any adverse effect on the environment.

Phase II grant applications will be reviewed based upon the following criteria: (1) The degree to which Phase I objectives were met and feasibility demonstrated; (2) the scientific and technical merit of the proposed approach for achieving the Phase II objectives; (3) the qualifications of the proposed principal investigator, supporting staff, and consultants; (4) the technological innovation, originality, or societal importance of the proposed research; (5) the potential of the proposed research for commercial application; (6) the reasonableness of the budget requested for the work proposed; (7) the adequacy and suitability of the facilities and research environment; and (8) where applicable, the adequacy of assurances detailing the proposed means for (a) safeguarding human or animal subjects, and/or (b) protecting against or minimizing any adverse effect on the environment.
93.275 SUBSTANCE ABUSE AND MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES-ACCESS TO RECOVERY

ATR I, ATR II, ATR III

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To implement voucher programs for substance abuse clinical treatment and recovery support services pursuant to sections 501 (d)(5) and 509 of Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. sections 290aa(d)(5) and 290bb-2). This program, called Access to Recovery (ATR), is to provide client choice among substance abuse clinical treatment and recovery support service providers, expand access to a comprehensive array of clinical treatment and recovery support options (including faith-based programmatic options), and increase substance abuse treatment capacity. Monitoring outcomes, tracking costs, and preventing waste, fraud and abuse to ensure accountability and effectiveness in the use of Federal funds are also important elements of the ATR program. Through the ATR grants, States, Territories, the District of Columbia and Tribal Organizations (hereinafter collectively referred to as “States”) will have flexibility in designing and implementing voucher programs to meet the needs of clients in the State. The key to successful implementation of the voucher programs supported by the ATR grants will be the relationship between the States and clients receiving services, to ensure that clients have a genuine, free, and independent choice among eligible providers. States are encouraged to support any mixture of clinical treatment and recovery support services that can be expected to achieve the program’s goal of achieving cost-effective, successful outcomes for the largest number of people.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Project Grants (Discretionary)

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funds (including direct costs and indirect costs) may be used only for expenses clearly related and necessary to carry out approved activities. Funds may be used for 15 percent administrative cost and 85 percent voucher. Also follow the policies and procedures that applies to the eligible entity. For ATRIII, No more than 20% of the grant award may be used for administrative purposes for all ATR grantees. The 20% administrative cap is based on a four year average. Funds may be used for 15 percent administrative costs and 85 percent voucher services.

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligibility for Access to Recovery (ATR) grants is limited to the immediate office of the Chief Executive (e.g., Governor) in the States, Territories, District of Columbia; or the head of a Tribal Organization. (A "Tribal Organization" means the recognized governing body of any Indian tribe or any legally established organization of Indians, including urban Indian health boards, inter-tribal councils, or regional Indian health boards, which is controlled, sanctioned, or chartered by the adult members of the Indian community to be served by such an organization.) The Chief Executive of the State, Territory, or District of Columbia, or the head of the Tribal Organization must sign the application. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Applications must comply with the following requirements, or they will be screened out and will not be reviewed: Use the Application for Federal Assistance SF-424 form; Application submission requirements in Section IV-V-3 of this document; and Formatting requirements provided in Section IV-2.4 of this document. Applicants also may download the required documents from the SAMHSA Web site at www.samhsa.gov. Includes the face page, budget forms, and checklist. Applicants must use the SF-424 application form. Applications not submitted on the SF-424 will be screened out and will not be reviewed.

Request for Applications (RFA)-Includes instructions for the grant application.

This document is the RFA.

Award Procedure:
None.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days.

Appeals:
None.

Renewals:
None.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program.

Matching requirements are not applicable to this program. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Applications will be accepted for a project period of 1 to 3 years with 12-month budget periods. Annual awards will be made subject to continued availability of funds and progress achieved. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: SAMHSA, Division of Grants Management 90 days after the end of each 12 month period and 90 days after the final 12 month budget period. SAMHSA monitors the grant program through Government Performance and Result Act (GPRA Government Project Officer), conference calls, site visits, and monthly and quarterly reports.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:
There is a 3-year records retention requirement; records shall be retained beyond the 3-year period if final audit has not been done or findings resolved.
Program Descriptions 2.329 October 2017

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Community coalitions, children, youth, and adults, those at-risk of substance abuse, and private nonprofit, and public community agencies.

Credentials/Documentation:
2 CFR 200/45 CFR Part 75 Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for HHS Awards. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. The Drug Free Community (DFC) is a collaborative initiative sponsored by Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP) and Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). Applications will be screened initially by ONDCP and SAMHSA to determine whether the applicant meets all the eligibility requirements. Applications submitted by eligible coalitions that meet all requirements will then be evaluated, scored, and rated by a peer review panel.

Award Procedure:
Upon approval by the Office of National Drug Control Policy and Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, a Notice of Award (NoA) signed by SAMHSA's Grants Management Officer is sent to the applicant agency. The NoA is the sole obligating document that allows the grantee to receive Federal funding for work on the grant project.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days. From 1 to 4 months.

Appeals:
None.

Renewals:
Other - Not Specified.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. Matching Requirements: Drug-Free Communities Support Program grants awarded under the Drug-Free Communities Act of 1997 do require a 100-150 percent cash or in-kind match depending on funding. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Under the Drug-Free Communities Act, awards will be made for one year. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:
Program reports are not applicable. Federal Cash Transaction Report (FCTR) is due quarterly by the Division of Payment Management. Under the Drug-Free Communities Support Grants biannual progress. Annual federal financial reports (SF-425) are required. Classification tool survey is due each year.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. These audits are due to the cognizant Federal agency not later than 9 months after the end of the grantee’s fiscal year.

Records:
Grantee must keep complete records on the disposition of funds, and records related to the grant must be retained for 3 years.

93.279 DRUG ABUSE AND ADDICTION RESEARCH PROGRAMS

FEDERAL AGENCY:
- National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
- To support basic and clinical neuroscience, biomedical, behavioral and social science, epidemiologic, health services and health disparity research. To develop new knowledge and approaches related to the prevention, diagnosis, treatment, etiology, and consequences of drug abuse and addiction, including HIV/AIDS. To support research training and research scientist development. To support dissemination of research findings. Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) legislation is intended to expand and improve the SBIR programs to emphasize and increase private sector commercialization of technology developed through Federal SBIR research and development; increase small business participation in Federal research and development; and foster and encourage participation of socially and economically disadvantaged small business concerns and women-owned small business concerns in the SBIR program. The legislation intends that the Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) program stimulate and foster scientific and technological innovation through cooperative research and development carried out between small business concerns and research institutions; foster technology transfer between small business concerns and research institutions; to increase private sector commercialization of innovations derived from Federal research and development; and foster and encourage participation of socially and economically disadvantaged small business concerns and women-owned small business concerns in technological innovation.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
- PROJECT GRANTS: TRAINING

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
- (1) Research project grants provide support for clearly defined projects or a small group of related research activities, and when appropriate, support of research conferences; (2) program project and center grants support large-scale, broad-based programs of research, usually interdisciplinary, consisting of several projects with a common focus; (3) small grants support newer, less experienced investigators, investigators at institutions without a well-developed research tradition and resources; the testing of new methods or techniques; small-scale exploratory and pilot studies, or exploration of an unusual research opportunity; (4) research training grants including fellowships and institutional training grants, career development grants and loan repayment contracts; (5) SBIR Phase I grants (of approximately 6-months' duration) are to establish the technical merit and feasibility of proposed research or research and development efforts to determine the quality of performance of the small business grantees. Phase II grants are for the continuation of the research initiated in Phase I and that are likely to result in commercially viable products or processes. STTR Phase I grants (normally of 1-year duration) are to determine the scientific, technical, and commercial merit and feasibility of the proposed cooperative effort that has potential for commercial application and the quality of performance of the small business concerns. Phase II funding is based on results of research initiated in Phase I and scientific and technical merit and commercial potential of the Phase II application.

Applicant Eligibility:
- For research grants the following organizations/institutions are eligible to apply: Public/State Controlled Institutions of Higher Education; Private Institutions of Higher Education: Hispanic-serving Institutions; Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs), Tribal Colleges and Universities (TCUs), and Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian Serving Institutions; Nonprofits with 501(c)(3) IRS Status (Other than Institutions of Higher Education); Nonprofits without 501(c)(3) IRS Status (Other than Institutions of Higher Education); Small Businesses; For-Profit Organizations (Other than Small Businesses); State Governments; Indian/Native American Tribal Governments (Federally Recognized); Indian/Native American Tribal Designated Organizations; County Governments; City or Township Governments; Special District Governments; Independent School Districts; Public Housing Authorities/Indian Housing Authorities; and Other(s): Eligible Agencies of the Federal Government, Faith-based or Community-based Organizations, U.S. Territory or Possession, Indian/Native American Tribal Governments (Other than Federally Recognized), Regional Organizations, and Non-domestic (non-U.S.) Entities (Foreign Organizations). Eligible Individuals: Any individual, or individuals (multiple PIs), with the skills, knowledge, and resources necessary to carry out the proposed research as the PI/PIs is invited to work with his/her organization to develop an application for support. Individuals from underrepresented racial and ethnic groups as well as individuals with disabilities are always encouraged to apply for NIH support. SBIR grants can be awarded only to domestic small businesses (entities that are independently owned and operated for profit, are not dominant in the field in which research is proposed, and have no more than 500 employees). Primary employment (more than one-half time) of the principal investigator must be with the small business at the time of award and during the conduct of the proposed project. In both Phase I and Phase II, the research and/or development must be performed in the U.S. and its possessions. To be eligible, an SBIR grant application must be approved for scientific merit and program relevance by a scientific review group and by a national advisory council. STTR grants can be awarded only to domestic small business concerns (entities that are independently owned and operated for profit, are not dominant in the field in which research is proposed and have no more than 500 employees) which "partner" with a research institution in cooperative research and development. At least 40 percent of the project is to be performed by the small business concern and at least 30 percent by the research institution. In both Phase I and Phase II, the research must be performed in the U.S. and its possessions. To be eligible for funding, a grant application must be approved for scientific and technological merit and feasibility; the quality of performance of the small business concern; and Phase II funding is based on results of research initiated in Phase I and scientific and technical merit and commercial potential of the Phase II application. technical merit and program relevance by a scientific review group and a national advisory council.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Public or private profit and nonprofit sponsored organizations and individuals, minority groups, small businesses, health professionals, students, trainees, scientists and general public.

Credentials/Documentation:
No Credentials or documentation are required. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. The National Institutes of Health is using www.grants.gov to accept electronic submission of applications. Applications are also available from the NIH web site at www.nih.gov. Information concerning NIDA and the types of research supported may be found at www.drugabuse.gov or www.nida.nih.gov. Consultation on a proposed project may also be obtained from NIDA. Applications are reviewed by primarily nonfederal consultants recruited nationwide. The amount of the award and period of support are determined on the basis of scientific merit of the project as well as financial and programmatic consideration. SBIR and STTR Grant Solicitations and SBIR/STTR Contract Solicitations may be obtained electronically through the NIH's "Small Business Funding Opportunities" home page at http://www.nih.gov/grants/funding/sbir.htm. The Solicitations include submission procedures, review considerations, and grant application or contract proposal forms.

Award Procedure:
Grants with which the National Advisory Council on Drug Abuse has concurred with the recommendations of the Scientific Review Groups and approved by NIDA for payment are awarded directly by NIDA to the applicant institution. SBIR/STTR applications are evaluated for scientific and technical merit by an appropriate scientific peer review panel and by the National Advisory Council. All applications receiving a priority score compete for available SBIR/STTR set-aside funds on the basis of scientific and technical merit and commercial potential of the proposed research, program relevance, and program balance among the areas of research.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 240 to 270 days from submission of grant application. For AIDS applications the range will not exceed 180 days from cited receipt dates. SBIR/STTR applications: About 225 days.

Appeals:

Renewals:
Support is recommended for a specified project period, usually not in excess of 5 years. Prior to termination of a project period, the grantee may apply for additional support via competing continuation application unless otherwise restricted.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Varies, but a project period is generally limited to 5 years or less. Grantee may apply for renewal of support on a competing basis unless otherwise restricted. Within the project period, continuation applications must be submitted on a non-competing basis for each year of approved support. Small grant support is limited to no more than 2 years. SBIR: Normally, Phase I awards are for 6 months; normally, Phase II awards are for 2 years. STTR: Normally, Phase I awards are for 1 year; normally, Phase II awards are for 2 years. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly.

Reports:
No program reports are required. No cash reports are required. Interim progress reports annually as part of a non-competing application for previously recommended support. Annual financial status report within 90 days after termination of annual grant and immediate and full reporting of any inventions. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. For nongovernmental grant recipients, audits are to be carried out in accordance with the provisions set forth in OMB Circular No. A-133. In addition, grants and cooperative agreements are subject to inspection and audits by DHHS and other Federal officials.

Records:
Records must be retained for at least 3 years; records shall be retained beyond the 3-year period if audit findings have not been resolved.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:
The following considerations will be used in determining projects to be funded: (1) Scientific and technical merit; (2) the feasibility of the research; (3) potential contribution to the national drug abuse problem; and (4) relevance to NIDA priorities. The following criteria will be used in considering the scientific and technical merit of SBIR/STTR Phase I grant applications: (1) The soundness and technical merit of the proposed approach; (2) the qualifications of the proposed principal investigator, supporting staff, and consultants; (3) the technological innovation of the proposed research; (4) the potential of the proposed research for commercial application; (5) the appropriateness of the budget requested; (6) the adequacy and suitability of the facilities and research environment; and (7) where applicable, the adequacy of assurances detailing the proposed means for (a) safeguarding human or animal subjects and/or (b) protecting against or minimizing any adverse effect on the environment. Phase II grant applications will be reviewed based upon the following criteria: (1) The degree to which the Phase I objectives were met and feasibility demonstrated; (2) the scientific and technical merit of the proposed approach for achieving the Phase II objectives; (3) the qualifications of the proposed principal investigator, supporting staff, and consultants; (4) the technology.

92.280 NATIONAL INSTITUTES OF HEALTH LOAN REPAYMENT PROGRAM FOR CLINICAL RESEARCHERS (NIH Clinical Research Loan Repayment Program; LRP-CR)
FEDERAL AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Public Health Service Act, Title IV, Part G, Section 487F, Public Law 106-505, 42 U.S.C 288-5A.

OBJECTIVES:
To attract and retain health professionals to clinical research careers by offering educational loan repayment for participants who agree by written contract to engage in clinical research in a qualifying nonprofit institution for a minimum of 2 years.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Direct Payments for Specified Use

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
To provide repayment of extant educational loans incurred by health professionals engaged in clinical research. Your research must be supported by a domestic nonprofit foundation, university, professional association, or other nonprofit institution, or a U.S. government agency (federal, state, or local). A domestic nonprofit institution, professional association, or institution is considered to be nonprofit if exempt from federal tax under the provisions of Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. 501). NIH grants and university salaries are considered eligible funding. Your primary employment must be with a nonprofit institution. Any employment or income outside of the nonprofit institution must be separate from your research and cannot represent a significant amount of your total income.

Recipients must agree by written contract to engage in such research, initially, for a minimum of 2 years; individuals who have conflicting service obligations may not participate in this program until those obligations are satisfied or have been deferred during the period of program service. Participants may apply for and the Secretary may grant extension contracts for one-year or two-year periods, as determined by the Secretary, if the individual continues to engage in qualifying research. Renewal applications are competitively reviewed and the submission of a renewal application does not assure the award of benefits. The maximum program benefit is $35,000 per year in loan repayments and $13,650 per year in Federal tax reimbursements. Recipients must have qualified educational debt in excess of 20 percent of their annual salary, which is referred to as their "debt threshold". Applicant Eligibility:
(1) A U.S. citizen, U.S. national, or permanent resident of the United States; (2) Have a Ph.D., M.D., D.O., D.D.S., D.M.D., D.P.M., Pharm.D., D.C., N.D., O.D. or equivalent doctoral degree from an accredited institution; (3) Have total qualifying educational loan debt equal to or in excess of 20 percent of their institutional base salary on the date of program eligibility (the effective date that a loan repayment contract has been executed by the Secretary of Health and Human Services or designee); (4) Conduct qualifying research supported by a domestic nonprofit foundation, nonprofit professional association, or other nonprofit institution, or a U.S. or other government agency (State or local); (5) Engage in qualified clinical research. Clinical research is patient-oriented clinical research conducted with human subjects, or research on the causes and consequences of disease in human populations involving material of human origin (such as tissue specimens and cognitive phenomena) for which an investigator or colleague directly interacts with human subjects in an outpatient or inpatient setting to clarify a problem in human physiology, pathophysiology or disease, or epidemiologic or behavioral studies, outcomes research or health services research, or developing new technologies, therapeutic interventions, or clinical trials; (6) Engage in qualified clinical research for at least 50 percent of their time, i.e., not less than 20 hours per week based on a 40 hour week; (7) Agree to conduct research for which funding is not prohibited by Federal law, regulation, or HHS/NIH policy, and in accordance with applicable Federal, State and local law (e.g., applicable human subject protection regulations); and (8) Sign and submit to the Secretary of Health and Human Services, at the time of application submission, a contract agreeing to engage in clinical research in a qualifying institution for a minimum of 2 years. Full-time employees of Federal Government agencies are ineligible to apply for LRP benefits. Part-time Federal employees who engage in qualifying research as part of their nonfederal duties for at least 20 hours per week based on a 40 hour week, and who are not compensated as a Federal employee for their research, are eligible to apply for loan repayment if they meet all other eligibility requirements. Beneficiary Eligibility: Health professionals who are interested in pursuing clinical research careers and who have unpaid educational loans will benefit from this program.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants electronically transmit the following documents to the NIH:
Applicant Information Statement, Biosketch, Personal Statement, Description of Research Activities, 3 Recommendations, Loan Information including current account statement(s) and promissory note(s) or disclosure statement(s), Assessment of Research Activities Statement (completed by the research supervisor), and Description of the Research Environment (completed by the research supervisor). Institutional Contacts electronically transmit a certification that:
(a) assures the applicant will be provided the necessary time and resources to engage in the research project for two years from the date a Loan Repayment Program Contract is executed; (b) assures that the applicant is or will be engaged in qualifying research for 50 percent of their time (or not less than 20 hours per week based on a 40 hour week); (c) certifies that the institution is nonprofit (exempt from tax under 26 USC 501), and (d) provides the applicant’s institutional base salary. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Applicants must access and submit the Loan Repayment Program application via the website www.lrp.nih.gov. Applications submitted to the NIH Division of Loan Repayment are first examined to determine if the basic eligibility requirements are satisfied. If these requirements are met, the application is forwarded to the NIH Center for Scientific Review for a determination regarding which NIH Institute or Center the application will be assigned to for review, scoring, and ranking.

Award Procedure:
The NIH Institutes and Centers approve or disapprove applications for participation in the Loan Repayment Program for Clinical Researchers. When an Institute or Center approves an application, the NIH Division of Loan Repayment notifies individuals of their award amount, provides a repayment schedule that covers the period of participation, and a Loan Repayment Program Contract is executed by an authorized representative of the Secretary, DHHS. If the approved research assignment changes, or if the employing

In evaluating the application, reviewers are directed to consider the following components as they relate to the likelihood that the applicant will continue in a research career: (1) potential of the applicant to pursue a career in research, and (2) quality of the overall environment to prepare the applicant for a research career.

93.281 MENTAL HEALTH RESEARCH CAREER/SCIENTIST DEVELOPMENT AWARDS

(Research Career/Scientist Development )

FEDERAL AGENCY:

National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

Public Health Service Act, Title III, Section 301, 42 U.S.C 241.

OBJECTIVES:

Prior to FY2013, this programs objectives included to provide support for research career development relating to causes, risk, diagnosis, genetics, development, epidemiology, prevention, treatment, and services use for mental illness, behavioral disorders, and HIV/AIDS; and relating to basic neuroscience and basic behavioral science research addressing basic and clinical research pertinent to mental disorders; in order to increase the number of individuals who are competing to advance research supported by the National Institute of Mental Health support, including women, individuals from underrepresented racial and ethnic minority groups, individuals with disabilities and individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds.

Starting in FY2013, the 93.242 Mental Health Research Grants CFDA program reflects the consolidation of NIMHs former CFDA numbers, 93.282 Mental Health National Research Service Awards for Research Training and 93.281 Mental Health Research Career/Scientist Development Awards into 93.242 Mental Health Research Grants.

This program will not be used to fund new projects. Please refer to 93.242 for new funding opportunities.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:

The NIH Institutes and Centers approve or disapprove applications for participation in the Clinical Research Loan Repayment Program. Applications that are on time, complete and eligible are referred to the appropriate NIH Institute or Center by the NIH Center for Scientific Review. The NIH Institutes and Centers convene panels comprised of non-NIH scientists to review, score and rank applications. In evaluating the application, reviewers are directed to consider the following components as they relate to the likelihood that the applicant will continue in a research career: (1) potential of the applicant to pursue a career in research, and (2) quality of the overall environment to prepare the applicant for a research career.

93.281 MENTAL HEALTH RESEARCH CAREER/SCIENTIST DEVELOPMENT AWARDS

(Research Career/Scientist Development )

FEDERAL AGENCY:

National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

Public Health Service Act, Title III, Section 301, 42 U.S.C 241.

OBJECTIVES:

Prior to FY2013, this programs objectives included to provide support for research career development relating to causes, risk, diagnosis, genetics, development, epidemiology, prevention, treatment, and services use for mental illness, behavioral disorders, and HIV/AIDS; and relating to basic neuroscience and basic behavioral science research addressing basic and clinical research pertinent to mental disorders; in order to increase the number of individuals who are competing to advance research supported by the National Institute of Mental Health support, including women, individuals from underrepresented racial and ethnic minority groups, individuals with disabilities and individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds.

Starting in FY2013, the 93.242 Mental Health Research Grants CFDA program reflects the consolidation of NIMHs former CFDA numbers, 93.282 Mental Health National Research Service Awards for Research Training and 93.281 Mental Health Research Career/Scientist Development Awards into 93.242 Mental Health Research Grants.

This program will not be used to fund new projects. Please refer to 93.242 for new funding opportunities.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Prior to FY2013, this programs aimed to provide Mentored Research Scientist Development Award (K01, MRSDA), Mentored Clinical Scientist Development Award (K08, MCSDA), and Mentored Quantitative Research Career Development Award (K25) support for individuals with research potential who need additional mentored development and/or experience in a productive research environment. Awards are available for up to 5 years of salary support (up to $90,000 per year) for the individual candidate, fringe benefits, and 8 percent F&A costs. Specialized training costs and limited research costs are allowable under justified circumstances. Mentored Patient-Oriented Research Career Development Award (K23) supports the career development of individuals who have made commitment to focus their research endeavors on patient-oriented research. Awards are available for three to five years up to $90,000 per year to help offset the full time salary requirement of the candidate. The NIH Pathway to Independence (PI) Award (K99/R00) provides up to 2 years of mentor support (K99) for a postdoctoral individual followed by up to 3 years of support after the awardee transitions to research independence (R00). K99/R00 awards are awards for up to 5 years of support. During the K99 phase, awards typically provide up to $50,000 per year for the salary of the individual candidate as well as fringe benefits, and 8 percent F&A costs. Specialized training costs and limited research costs are allowable under justified circumstances. Salary support for all mentored awards may be supplemented by the sponsoring institution from nonfederal funds. The Independent Scientist Award (K02, ISA) is for independent scientists whose careers are developing rapidly; the Mid-career Investigator Award in Patient-Oriented Research (K24) is for outstanding clinical scientists engaged in patient-oriented research. No specialized training costs are available; limited research costs for K24s and K02s in theoretical areas are available.

Starting in FY2013, the 93.242 Mental Health Research Grants CFDA program reflects the consolidation of NIMHs former CFDA numbers, 93.282 Mental Health National Research Service Awards for Research Training and 93.281 Mental Health Research Career/Scientist Development Awards into 93.242 Mental Health Research Grants.

This program will not be used to fund new projects. Please refer to 93.242 for new funding opportunities.

Applicant Eligibility:
Prior to FY2013, all awards in these series are made to appropriate domestic research centers, medical schools, departments of psychiatry, non-medical academic departments, psychiatric hospitals or hospitals with psychiatric services, community mental health centers, and biomedical research institutes on behalf of individuals who need the opportunity to realize research potential. Except for the NIH Pathway to Independence (PI) Award (K99/R00), the individuals must be citizens or nationals of the United States or have been lawfully admitted for permanent residence. The NIH Pathway to Independence (PI) Award (K99/R00) is open to both U.S. citizens and non-U.S. citizens. Individuals must qualify by scholastic degree and previous training and/or experience.

Starting in FY2013, the 93.242 Mental Health Research Grants CFDA program reflects the consolidation of NIMHs former CFDA numbers, 93.282 Mental Health National Research Service Awards for Research Training and 93.281 Mental Health Research Career/Scientist Development Awards into 93.242 Mental Health Research Grants.

This program will not be used to fund new projects. Please refer to 93.242 for new funding opportunities.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Public and private profit or nonprofit organizations will benefit.

Credentials/Documentation:
For other grantees, costs will be determined in accordance with HHS Regulation 45 CFR Part 74, Subpart Q. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 13272.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Applications must be prepared and submitted electronically using the SF-424 (Research & Related). Information about the SF-424 form may be found on http://grants.nih.gov/grants/funding/424/index.htm, but application packages should be accessed through the appropriate funding opportunity announcement, found either on the NIH Guide to Grants and Contracts (http://grants1.nih.gov/grants/guide/index.html) or through the Grants.gov website (http://www.grants.gov/). For further assistance, contact GrantsInfo, Telephone (301) 405-0714, Email: grantsInfo@nih.gov.

Information and instructions may be obtained from the program officials at the National Institute of Mental Health. Applications are reviewed by nonfederal consultants and recommended for support on the basis of merit. This program is subject to the provisions of OMB Circular No. A-21 for educational organizations and 45 CFR, Part 52.

Award Procedure:
All "K" Series awards are recommended for approval by the National Advisory Mental Health Council and those approved are awarded directly by NIMH to the applicant institution.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 240 to 270 days from submission of the application. Review of AIDS-related applications is expedited.

Appeals:
A principal investigator may question the substantive or procedural aspects of the review of his/her application by communicating with the staff of the Institute. A description of the NIH Peer Review Appeals procedure is available on the NIH home page at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-11-064.html.

Renewals:
K01, K08, K23, K25 awards are made for up to 5-year periods with no renewal. K02 and K24 awards are made for a 5-year period, renewable once (unless holder has held a previous K02 or K24 award). K99 awards are made for up to 2-year periods with no renewal.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Varies, with a project periods ranging from 1 to 5 years. Funding commitments are made annually. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: A formal notification in the form of a Notice of Award (NoA) will be provided to the application organization.

Reports:
No program reports are required. No cash reports are required. Reports must be submitted as follows: (1) interim progress reports annually as part of a non-competing application for previously recommended support; (2) terminal progress report within 90 days after end of project support; (3) annual financial status report within 90 days after termination of annual grant for some programs. In addition, immediate and full reporting of any inventions is required. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. In addition, grants and cooperative agreements are subject to inspection and audits by DHHS and other Federal government officials. Per the regulations, a for-profit (commercial) organization is subject to audit requirements for a non-Federal audit if, during its fiscal year, it expended $500,000 or more under HHS awards and at least one award is a HHS grant. For-profit organizations have two options regarding the type of audit that will satisfy the audit requirements either: 1. a financial related audit (as defined in the Government Auditing Standards, GPO Stock.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Prior to FY2013, this programs aimed to provide Individual fellowships to students seeking predoctoral or postdoctoral support for full-time research training or who are enrolled in an formal M.D./Ph.D. program. An institutional allowance will be provided to the sponsoring institution for each awardee. In addition, any domestic public or nonprofit institution may apply for an institutional research training grant in a specified area of research from which a number of stipend awards will be made to individuals selected by the training program director at the institution. Support is available for both predoctoral and postdoctoral trainees and will include an amount for institutional expenses.
Indirect costs may be requested at 8 percent of total direct costs, exclusive of tuition and related fees and expenditures for equipment, or actual indirect costs, whatever is less. Postdoctoral students receiving fellowships or stipend support under either individual or institutional grants for 12 months or less are obligated to pay back this support through an equivalent period of continued postdoctoral training or a period of health related research and/or teaching activities after the completion of their training. Postdoctoral individuals in their thirteenth and subsequent months of support will incur no further obligation, and such support will be considered acceptable postdoctoral payback service.
Research training support may not be used for internships or other clinical training.

CDC Investigations, Technical Assistance

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Public Health Service Act , Title 42, Section 243, 247b(k)(2).

OBJECTIVES:
To assist State and local health authorities and other health related organizations in controlling communicable diseases, chronic diseases and disorders, and other preventable health conditions. Investigations and evaluation of all methods of controlling or preventing disease and disability are carried out by providing epidemic aid, surveillance, technical assistance, consultation, and program support; and by providing leadership and coordination of joint national, State, and local efforts. STEPS: To enable communities to reduce the burden of chronic disease, including: preventing diabetes among populations with pre-diabetes; increasing the likelihood that persons with undiagnosed diabetes are diagnosed; reducing complications of diabetes; preventing overweight and obesity; reducing overweight and obesity; and reducing the complications of asthma. STEPS will achieve these outcomes by improving nutrition; increasing physical activity; preventing tobacco use and exposure, targeting adults who are diabetic or who live with persons with asthma; increasing tobacco cessation, targeting adults who are diabetic or who live with persons with asthma; increasing use of appropriate health care services; improving the quality of care; and increasing effective self-management of chronic diseases and associated risk factors. REACH - REACH U.S. supports community coalitions that design, implement, evaluate, and disseminate community-driven strategies to eliminate health disparities Racial and ethnic groups targeted include: African American/Black, American Indian/Alaska Native, Asian, Native Hawaiian/Other Pacific Islander, and Hispanic/Latino. Health priority areas include: breast and cervical cancer; cardiocvascular disease; diabetes mellitus; adult/older adult immunization, hepatitis B, and/or tuberculosis; asthma; and infant mortality.

Vulnerable Populations: The purpose of this program is to reduce morbidity, premature mortality, and eliminate health disparities associated with diabetes.

strengthens state oral health programs and public health core capacity and to reduce inequalities in the oral health of targeted populations. To improve state public health programs, including support for program leadership and staff, to monitor oral health risk factors, and for developing and evaluating prevention programs. To support evidence-based interventions to prevent oral disease, including community water fluoridation and school-based dental sealant programs. To identify and disseminate information on best practices for state and community oral health programs. To assess state programs and provide recommendations to address gaps and weaknesses. To collaborate in development of the National Oral Health Surveillance System and co-sponsor the annual National Oral Health Conference. To develop initiatives related to oral disease prevention and chronic disease and health promotion capacity. To improve and strengthen state oral health infrastructure by providing technical assistance to state health agencies and coalitions, developing and implementing a plan to advance the Surgeon General's National Call to Action to Promote Oral Health. To coordinate the dissemination of comprehensive oral disease prevention information and health promotion programmatic expertise among state and local agencies and public and private sector organizations in the United States. To develop and promote policies to address oral disease prevention for high-risk adults. To identify modifiable barriers to optimal care across diverse managed care settings. To promote public awareness and partnership, provide interstitial cystic (IC) education for the general public and for health care providers, and develop and enhance communication channels to allow for improved interaction and information sharing among those with IC, advocates for persons with IC and their families, those who provide care and services for persons with IC, researchers and public health scientists. To promote public awareness and partnerships, assess the impact and burden of cognitive impairment within states and nationally, describe the characteristics of expanded data on caregivers and care from a public health perspective, provide Alzheimer's disease and cognitive health education for the general public and health professionals, and develop and enhance communication channels to allow for improved interaction and information sharing about cognitive impairment and Alzheimer's disease.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
States, political subdivisions of States, local health authorities, and individuals or organizations with specialized health interests will benefit. Colleges, universities, private nonprofit and public nonprofit domestic organizations, research institutions, faith-based organizations, and managed care organizations for some specific programs such as Diabetes.

Credentialing/Documentation:
For other grantees, costs will be determined by HHS regulations 45 CFR 74, Subpart Q. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E. - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372. Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs. An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Forms and instructions are available in an interactive format on the CDC web site, at the following Internet address: www.cdc.gov/od/pgo/forminfo.htm. To apply for research funding opportunities, use application form PHS 398 (OMB number 0925-0001 rev. 5/2001. Submit the signed original and five copies of your application by mail or express delivery service to: Technical Information Management, CDC Procurement and Grants Office, 2920 Brandywine Road, Atlanta, GA 30341. State and local governments may use Form 5161. An original and two copies must be submitted. This program is subject to the provisions of 45 CFR Parts 74 or 92, as appropriate.

Award Procedure:
After review and approval, a notice of award is prepared and processed, along with appropriate notification to the public, initial award provides funds for first budget period (usually 12 months) and Notice of Award indicates support recommended for the remainder of project period, allocation of Federal funds by budget categories, and special conditions, if any. However, applicants are encouraged to call CDC for programmatic technical assistance prior to the development and submission of their assistance application.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days. About 120 days from receipt of application.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
If additional support is desired to continue a research project beyond the approved project period, an application for competing continuation must be submitted for review in the same manner as a new application. Projects are renewable for periods of 1 to 3 years.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Assistance is available for a 12-month budget period within project periods ranging from 1 to 5 years. After awards are issued, funds are released in accordance with the payment procedure established by the grantee institution with DHHS, which may be an Electronic Transfer System or a Monthly Cost Request System. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:
Financial status and progress reports are required annually. Upon completion of the project, final financial status and performance reports are required. Interim reporting requirements may be delineated in the FOA. Cash reports are not applicable. Progress reports are required annually. Interim reporting requirements may be delineated in the FOA. Financial status reports are required annually. Upon completion of the project, final financial status reports are required. Progress reports are required annually. Upon completion of the project, performance reports are required. Interim reporting requirements may be delineated in the FOA.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. In addition, grants and cooperative agreements are subject to inspection and audits by DHHS and other Federal government officials.

Records:
Financial records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records pertinent to the project must be kept readily available for review by personnel authorized to examine PHS grant accounts. Records must be maintained for a minimum of 3 years after the end of a budget period. If questions still remain, such as those raised as a result of an audit, records must be retained until completion or resolution of any audit in process or pending resolution. Property records must be retained in accordance with PHS Grants Policy Statement requirements.

Applicant Eligibility:

- Federal, state, tribal, and/or local governments;
- Nonprofit organizations;
- Individuals receiving services through an Indian health service program and who are regarded as an Indian by the community in which he lives as evidenced by such factors as tribal membership, enrollment, residence on tax exempt land, ownership or restricted property, active participation in tribal affairs or other relevant factors in keeping with general Bureau of Indian Affairs practices in the jurisdiction.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

- Individuals who are members of an eligible applicant tribe, band, or group or village and who may be regarded as within the scope of the Indian health and medical service program and who are regarded as an Indian by the community in which he lives as evidenced by such factors as tribal membership, enrollment, residence on tax exempt land, ownership or restricted property, active participation in tribal affairs or other relevant factors in keeping with general Bureau of Indian Affairs practices in the jurisdiction.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:

- Certifications of American Indian or Alaska descent are required for direct services. Provisions of cooperative agreement require tribal endorsement in the form of Resolution to sanction tribal participation. Costs will be determined in accordance with OMB Circular No. A-87 for State, local, and Indian tribal governments (and Circular No. A-122 for Nonprofit Organizations) implemented through applicable grant administration regulations 45 CFR, 74 for nonprofit organizations. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

- Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

- 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Standard application forms, as furnished by IHS and required by 45 CFR, 92, for State and local governments and 45 CFR, 74, for nonprofit organizations, must be used for this program. Injury Prevention Programs are processed and administered by IHS Headquarters. This program is subject to the provisions of 45 CFR 92 for Indian tribes and Part 74 for nonprofit organizations.

Award Procedure:

- Cooperative agreements are awarded on a competitive basis with processing and final approval by Indian Health Service Headquarters.

Deadlines:

- Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

- From 60 to 90 days. Grants are approved or disapproved within 90 days of receipt of grant applications by the Indian Health Service, program office.

Renewals:

- Renewal of multi-year cooperative agreements is on a year-to-year basis and requires the submission of continuation applications.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

- Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

- IHS Grants are usually 3 to 5 years for a project period. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly.

Reports:

- Program reports are not applicable. Grantees will be required to submit quarterly Federal Financial Report (SF-425 or FFR) to the Division of Payment Management Branch. Progress reports are required annually, semi-annually or quarterly depending on the time lines set by the IHS program. A final progress report is due 90 days after the end of each budget period and at the end of the final project period. Grantees will be required to submit quarterly Federal Financial Report (SF-425 or FFR) to the Division of Payment Management Branch. IHS grants are monitored by the Division of Grants Management for financial compliance and by the IHS Program Staff for programmatic compliance.
Audits: In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. In addition, grants and cooperative agreements are subject to inspection and audits by DHHS and other Federal government officials.

Records: HHS and the Comptroller General of the United States or any of their authorized representatives, shall have the right of access to any books, documents, papers, or other records of a grantee, subgrantee, contractor, or subcontractor, that are pertinent to the HHS grant in order to make audits, examinations, excerpts and transcripts. In accordance with 45 CFR 92.42, grantees are required to maintain grant records 3 years after they submit their final reports. If any litigation, claim, negotiation, audit or other action involving the records has been started before the expiration of the 3-year period, the records must be retained until completion of the action and resolution of all issues arising from it, or until the end of the regular 3-year period, whichever is later.

93.285 NATIONAL INSTITUTES OF HEALTH PEDIATRIC RESEARCH LOAN REPAYMENT PROGRAM
(NIH Pediatric Research Loan Repayment Program; PR-LRP)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To attract and retain health professionals to pediatric research careers by offering educational loan repayment for participants who agree by written contract to engage in pediatric research in a qualifying nonprofit institution for a minimum of 2 years.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
DIRECT PAYMENTS FOR A SPECIFIED USE

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
To provide repayment of extant educational loans incurred by health professionals engaged in pediatric research in a qualified nonprofit institution or Federal or other domestic government agency (State or local), and who are engaged in research that is supported by a nonprofit foundation, nonprofit professional association, or other nonprofit entity, or a Federal or other domestic government agency (State, local). Participants may apply for and the Secretary may grant extension contracts for one-year or two-year periods, as determined by the Secretary, if the individual continues to engage in qualifying research. Renewal applications are competitively reviewed and the submission of a renewal application does not assure the award of benefits. Maximum program benefit is $35,000 per year in loan repayments and $13,650 per year in Federal tax reimbursements, plus discretionary state and local tax reimbursements. Recipients must have qualified educational debt in excess of 20 percent of their annual salary, which is referred to as their “debt threshold.”

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligible applicants must: (1) be a U.S. citizen, U.S. national, or permanent resident of the United States; (2) have a Ph.D., M.D., D.O., D.D.S., D.M.D., D.P.M., Pharm.D., D.C., N.D., O.D. or equivalent doctoral degree from an accredited institution; (3) have total qualifying educational loan debt equal to or in excess of 20 percent of their institutional base salary on the date of program eligibility; (4) conduct qualifying research by a domestic nonprofit foundation, nonprofit professional association, or other nonprofit institution, or a U.S. or other government agency (Federal, State, or local); (5) engage in qualified pediatric research (research that is directly related to diseases, disorders, and other conditions in children); (6) engage in qualified pediatric research for at least 50 percent of their time, i.e., not less than 20 hours per week based on a 40 hour week; (7) agree to conduct research for which funding is not prohibited by Federal law, regulation, or HHS/NIH policy; and in accordance with applicable Federal, State and local law (e.g., applicable human subject protection regulations); and (8) sign and submit to the Secretary of Health and Human Services, at the time of application submission, a contract agreeing to engage in pediatric research in a qualifying institution for a minimum of 2 years. Full-time employees of Federal Government agencies are ineligible to apply for LRP benefits. Part-time Federal employees who engage in qualifying research as part of their non-Federal duties for at least 20 hours per week based on a 40 hour week, and who are not compensated as Federal employees for their research, are eligible to apply for loan repayment if they meet all other eligibility requirements.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Health professionals who are interested in pursuing pediatric research careers who have unpaid educational loans will benefit from this program.

93.286 DISCOVERY AND APPLIED RESEARCH FOR TECHNOLOGICAL INNOVATIONS TO IMPROVE HUMAN HEALTH

FEDERAL AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Public Health Service Act, Title IV, Section 401(b)(1) & 464z.

OBJECTIVES:
To support hypothesis-, design-, technology-, or device-driven research related to the discovery, design, development, validation, and application of technologies for biomedical imaging and bioengineering. The program includes biomaterials (biomimetics, bioprocessing, organogenesis, rehabilitation, tissue engineering, implant science, material science, interface science, physics and stress engineering), technology assessment of materials/devices), biosensors/biotransducers (technology development, technology assessment, development of algorithms, telemetry), nanotechnology (nanoscience, biomimetics, drug delivery systems, drug bioavailability, microarray/combinatorial technology, genetic engineering, computer science, technology assessment), bioinformatics (computer science, information science, mathematics, biomechanics, computational modeling and simulation, remote diagnosis and therapy), imaging device development, biomedical imaging technology development, image exploitation, contrast agents, informatics and computer sciences related to imaging, molecular and cellular imaging, bioelectronics/biometrics, organ and whole body imaging, screening for diseases and disorders, and imaging technology assessment and surgery (technique development and technology development).

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Research Grant funds may be used for salaries, consultation, equipment, travel and other usual costs, subject to Federal regulations applicable to the grant. Individual National Research Service Awards (NRSA) are made directly to individuals for research training in specified areas related to the mission of NIBIB. Institutional NRSA may be made to institutions to enable them to accept individuals for research training. Each individual who receives a NRSA postdoctoral fellowship or traineeship is obligated upon termination of the award to comply with certain service and payback provisions. Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) Phase I grants are to establish the technical merit and feasibility of a proposed research effort that may lead to a commercial product or process. Only Phase I awardees are eligible to apply for Phase II support. Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) Phase I grants are to determine the scientific, technical, and commercial merit and feasibility of the proposed cooperative effort that has potential for commercial application. Phase II funding is based on results of research initiated in Phase I and scientific and technical merit and commercial potential of the Phase II application. Indirect costs are paid at negotiated rates for most grant mechanisms. Exceptions are: conference grants (R13 and U13) receive no indirect costs; Training (T), Fellowship (F), and Career (K) awards receive an 8% indirect cost rate; R25 grants receive an 8% indirect cost rate; and SBIR/STTR grants are limited to a 40% indirect cost rate unless the grantee organization negotiates a higher rate.

Applicant Eligibility:
Any corporation, public or private institution or agency, or other legal entity, either nonprofit or for-profit, may apply for a research grant. An applicant for an individual NRSA must be a citizen of the United States or lawfully admitted for permanent residence. Those on temporary or student visas are not eligible.

The research must be performed in the United States or its possessions. To be eligible for funding, a grant application must be reviewed for scientific merit and program relevance by a scientific review group and a national advisory council. STTR grants may be awarded only to domestic small business concerns (entities that are independently owned and operated for profit, are not dominant in the field in which research is proposed and have no more than 500 employees) which "partner" with a research institution in cooperative research and development. At least 40 percent of the project is to be performed by the small business concern and at least 30 percent by the research institution. In both Phase I and Phase II, the research must be performed in the U.S. or its possessions. To be eligible for funding, a grant application must be approved for scientific merit and program relevance by a scientific review group and a national advisory council.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Any nonprofit or for-profit organization, company, or institution engaged in biomedical research.

Credentials/Documentation:

Credentails/Documentation: Each applicant for research projects must present a research plan and furnish evidence that scientific competence, experimental methods, facilities, equipment, and funds requested are appropriate to carry out the plan. Use of SF424 (R&R) Adobe Version B series or PHS 398 (Rev. 11/2007), and associated forms are required for all applications submitted to the NIH. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Application Forms SF424 and PHS 398 (Rev. 11/2007) are the standard forms. Application kits are available on-line at http://grants1.nih.gov/grants/oer.htm. Completed applications should be submitted via Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov) or to the Center for Scientific Review, National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, MD 20892. The standard application forms, as furnished by NIH and required by 45 CFR Part 92 for State and local governments, must be used for this program. The same application form will be used for all types of applications including training (NRSA), both individual and institutional, and SBIR/STTR. SBIR and STTR Grant Solicitations and SBIR Contract Solicitation may be obtained electronically through the NIH's "Small Business Funding Opportunities" home page at www.nih.gov/grants/funding/sbir.htm on the World Wide Web. SBIR and STTR grant applications should be submitted electronically through Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov) using the SF424 Research and Related (R&R) forms and the SF424 (R&R) SBIR/STTR Application Guide.

Award Procedure:
All applications for research or training are reviewed for scientific merit by an appropriate initial review group and then by a national advisory council. All applications favorably recommended compete for available funds on the basis of scientific merit and program emphasis. All accepted SBIR/STTR applications are evaluated for scientific and technical merit by an appropriate scientific peer review panel and by a national advisory council or board. All applications receiving a priority score compete for available SBIR/STTR set-aside funds on the basis of scientific and technical merit and commercial potential of the proposed research, program relevance, and program balance among the areas of research.

  CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:

  - The major elements in evaluating proposals include assessments of: (1) Significance: Does this study address an important problem? If the aims of the application are achieved, how will scientific knowledge be advanced? What will be the effect of the studies on the concepts or methods that drive this field? (2) Approach: Are the conceptual framework, design, methods, and analyses adequately developed, well-integrated, and appropriate to the aims of the project? Does the investigator acknowledge potential problem areas and consider alternative tactics? (3) Innovation: Does the project possess novel concepts, approaches or method? Are the aims original and innovative? Does the project challenge existing paradigms or develop new methodologies or technologies? (4) Investigator: Is the investigator appropriately trained and well suited to carry out this work? Is the work proposed appropriate to the experience level of the principal investigator and other researchers (if any)? (5) Environment: Does the scientific environment in which the work will be done contribute to the probability of success? Do the proposed experiments take advantage of unique features of the scientific environment or employ useful collaborative arrangements? Is there evidence of institutional support? (6) Appropriateness of the proposed budget and duration in relation to the proposed research; (7) the relevance and importance to announced program objectives; (8) the adequacy of plans to include both genders, minorities and their subgroups, and children as appropriate for the scientific goals of the research. Plans for the recruitment and retention of subjects will also be evaluated; (9) the

PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS:
Fiscal Year 2016: In FY 2016, the Council proposed a partnership with the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) to incorporate Presidential Active Lifestyle Award (PALA+) and Presidential Champions into the USDA SuperTracker interactive platform. Incorporation of the PALA+ and Presidential Champions programs into SuperTracker was completed in March 2017.

In FY 2016, the PCFSN exceeded its goal of implementing the I Can Do It, You Can Do It! (ICDI) program in 100 sites by 2018. ICDI also recruited and trained more than 200 stakeholders in schools and communities to help facilitate health promotion programs that serve people with disabilities.

The PCFSN continued to promote the Presidential Youth Fitness Program (PYFP), administered by the Council’s congressionally-chartered foundation, the National Foundation on Fitness, Sports, and Nutrition (NFFSN). PYFP provides a model for fitness education that includes a health-related fitness assessment, educational tools and recognition items to support a quality physical education curriculum.

In FY 2016, the Council promoted the release of the Dietary Guidelines for Americans to encourage the adoption of nutritious eating habits to reduce obesity and prevent chronic diseases like Type 2 diabetes, hypertension, and heart disease.

In honor of 60th Anniversary of the PCFSN, the Council launched the #0to60 initiative to inspire all Americans to lead a healthy, active lifestyle. Through the initiative, the Council engaged parents and caregivers, educators, partners and other audiences to celebrate and promote participation in physical activity programs, as well as setting and reaching their healthy eating goals. The Council worked with national and local partners to develop a strategy to cross-promote #0to60 messaging to diverse consumer audiences. Fiscal Year 2017: In FY 2017, the PCFSN continued to enhance and expand its physical activity and nutrition programs, including ICDI, PALA+, Presidential Champions, and Sports for All. In addition, the Council will focus on promoting its 60th Anniversary through the #0to60 public engagement campaign, to inspire Americans of all ages, backgrounds and abilities to be active and eat healthy every day. In addition, the Council will continue its promotion of the PYFP, administered by the NFFSN.

The Council continues to address health disparities and improve disability inclusion in physical activity and sports through the expansion and evaluation of its ICDI program. ICDI facilitates and encourages opportunities for all Americans, regardless of ability or age, to lead a healthy lifestyle that includes regular physical activity and good nutrition. The original goal of ICDI when it was established in 2013 was to facilitate access and opportunities for children and adults with disabilities in at least 100 sites across the nation by 2018, adding at least 20 sites each year.

In FY 2017, ICDI accomplishments included:
1) Establishing 131 ICDI sites in 36 states, impacting 400,000 individuals with disability and their families.
2) Securing a partnership with the HHS Office on Womens Health to leverage ICDI as a vehicle to engage more girls and women with disabilities in physical activity and sport opportunities, which will begin in FY 2018.

Also in FY 2017, PCFSN entered into a partnership with the U.S. Department of Agriculture Center for Nutrition Policy & Promotion to integrate the PALA+ and Presidential Champions programs into the SuperTracker physical activity and food tracking tool. SuperTracker impacts millions of registered users in all 50 U.S. states and territories, and provides the PCFSN with the opportunity to expand the tracking capabilities for both programs, provide a mobile-ready interface, and ensure compliance with Section 508, making each program more accessible and engaging to a greater number of Americans of all ages and abilities.

In collaboration with HHS Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion (ODPHP), the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and the National Institutes of Health, the PCFSN is co-leading the development of the second edition of the Physical Activity Guidelines for Americans (PAG), which is expected to be released at the end of CY 2018. The PAG is an essential resource for health professionals and policymakers. They serve as the primary, authoritative voice of the federal government for evidence-based strategies for the public, as well as healthcare providers, policymakers, communities, schools and other key stakeholders to promote physical activity and health lifestyles for Americans.

Additional information on the Council’s programs and initiatives can be found on the PCFSN website: www.fitness.gov. Fiscal Year 2018: In FY 2018, the PCFSN will advance HHS childhood obesity prevention priority, in particular, through the enhancement and promotion of new and existing physical activity and nutrition programs, including ICDI, PALA+, and Presidential Champions. In FY 2018, PCFSN will ramp up its efforts to educate, engage, and empower all Americans, especially youth in the school and community settings, to lead an active, healthy lifestyle. In addition, PCFSN will deploy its Council members as leaders in the fields of sport, fitness and nutrition to encourage all Americans to prioritize their health and to support efforts in communities across America to improve fitness and healthy eating opportunities for all children and families.

The PCFSN will continue to work with the ODPHP to lead the development of the second edition of the PAG. In addition to the coordination of the PAG Advisory Committee, the PCFSN will also implement and expand key programs and initiatives that support the PAG and promote the widespread adoption of the 2018 PAG when released. This effort will include a national outreach strategy to promote the recommendations of the 2018 PAG.

In FY 2018, in partnership with the HHS Office on Womens Health, the PCFSN will expand opportunities for women and girls with disability through ICDI. Activities will include:
1) Identifying and coordinating with national organizations that serve girls and women with and without disabilities to increase opportunities for girls and women with disabilities to participate in the ICDI program
2) Supporting strategic outreach and engagement via a communications campaign to promote the importance of equal access of opportunities for women and girls with disabilities in physical activity, fitness, and sports; increase the visibility of girls and women athletes with disability; share resources with stakeholders to simplify program implementation; and encourage all women and girls, with an emphasis on those with disability, to lead healthy, active lives.

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Office of the Secretary, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Section 1703(a) of the Public Health Service Act., 42 U.S.C. 300a et seq.

OBJECTIVES:
Phase I
1. Provide 1 year of financial and technical support to an existing wellness coalition to develop a strategic action plan and implementation plan to reduce gender-based health disparities in targeted communities.
2. Enhance collaborative working partnerships among health organizations, community based and faith based organizations, public and private academic institutions, hospitals, medical groups and practices.
3. Enhance consumer and provider awareness of gender-based health issues in the community.
4. Increase the capacity and strengthen infrastructure among local public health organizations to increase the coordination of services to better serve women and girls

Phase II
5. Provide up to 5 years of financial and technical support for implementation of the strategic action health plan.
6. To develop and implement a health intervention plan which will be sustained after OWH funding ends.
7. To use a public health systems approach to improve on two or more identified health issues affecting women and/or girls.
8. Improve surveillance/information systems that allow tracking of program progress on gender based morbidity/mortality rates at the grantee level.
9. Reduce the incidence and prevalence of adverse health outcomes among women girls in local communities.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funds may be used to implement evidence-based strategies to program objectives.

Phase II: to implement the approved strategic plan and evaluate the effectiveness of the program. Funds may not be used for construction, building alterations, equipment, printing, food, and medical treatment.

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligible applicants include public and private non-profit organizations (public and private academic institutions and hospitals); community-based and faith-based organizations, medical groups/practices and State, city, county, and local health departments, tribes and tribal organizations with expertise/experience in the proposed objectives. The applicant must be part of an existing coalition. At least a third of the partners should have demonstrated experience addressing gender differences through appropriate interventions, programs, or research related to the selected objectives.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Women and girls across the life span.

Credentials/Documentation:
No Credentials or documentation are required. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. All available grant opportunities are posted on www.grants.gov.

Award Procedure:
Applications will be screened upon receipt. Those that are judged to be ineligible will be returned to the applicant. Accepted applications will be reviewed for technical merit in accordance with PHS policies. Applications will be evaluated by a technical review panel composed of independent experts. Funding decisions will be made by the OWH and will take into consideration the recommendations of the review panel; program needs; stated preferences; and geographic location. Applicants approved and funded will be issued a Notice of Grant Award.

53.201 SURPLUS PROPERTY UTILIZATION
(Federal Real Property Assistance Program)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Program Support Center, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To convey or lease all surplus Federal real properties made available by the disposal agency which are needed and usable by eligible organizations and institutions to carry out health programs, including homeless assistance programs.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Sale, Exchange, or Donation of Property and Goods

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Real property must be used for eligible health purposes including research. It may consist of land with or without buildings and other improvements or buildings only. A discount of up to 100 percent based on the proposed program use is granted. This discount applied against the fair value of the property, is earned by approved use over a prescribed period of 30 years for land with or without improvements, and a lesser time for leased facilities and improvements which are transferred without land. Allowance of less than 100 percent requires payment of the difference in cash at the time of conveyance. Property must be used for the purpose for which conveyed, and may not be sold, leased, mortgaged, or encumbered without consent of the Department. Property must be used for the approved purpose for a specific period of time (i.e., 30 years); property can not be sold, encumbered, mortgaged, etc. without prior approval of office; grantee required to submit annual utilization reports; grantee must not discriminate in its use of the property; etc.

Applicant Eligibility:
States, their political subdivisions and instrumentalities; tax-supported public health institutions, and nonprofit institutions which (except for institutions which lease property to assist the homeless under Title V of Public Law 100-77) have been held exempt from taxation under Section 501 (c) (3) of the 1986 Internal Revenue Code.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Anyone attending, working with or for, or served by the eligible applicants. Examples of potentially eligible use programs are hospitals, public health clinics, water and sewer systems, institutions for the rehabilitation of mentally or physically disabled, health research institutions, homeless assistance facilities, and other institutions with basic health programs.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants must demonstrate current need for properties they request and the ability to carry out the proposed program. Applicants must also provide documentation of its authority to hold title to real property and evidence of tax-exempt status. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E – Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Notice of availability of surplus real property is sent by the U.S. General Services Administration or the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, to all known potentially interested institutions. When applying for real property, an informal pre-application conference either in person or by telephone is recommended. At that time, consultation and assistance are available to aid in the preparation of an application; but, only to address general application questions, not questions specific to a proposed program. Additionally, it is advisable that an applicant participate in a site tour of the property provided by the disposal agency. Applicants are required to submit factors for consideration of potential environmental impact, in accordance with the Environmental Questionnaire furnished with the application instructions. An environmental impact assessment is required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform
Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Applicants interested in acquiring Federal real properties must contact Real Property Management Services, REL, PSC, DHHS.

Award Procedure:
Real property is awarded to the applicant whose program(s) of use are determined to be in the highest public interest. Land (with or without improvements) is conveyed by quitclaim deed or lease; buildings for off-site removal are by agreement of sale.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Normally, approval or disapproval is made within 30 days after a completed application has been submitted for real property. Renewals:
Not Applicable.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Deed restrictions run for a period of 30 years and Agreements of Sale are normally for 5 years, after which the transferee has clear title to the property. Restrictions on leased property run for the period of the lease which will not extend beyond a total of a 20 year period. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Via deed or lease.

Reports:
Transferee is required to submit an annual utilization report on the operation and maintenance of the property. Cash reports are not applicable. Progress reports are only required on a case-by-case basis. Expenditure reports are not applicable. HHS program office conducts periodic site visits and requires the submittal of annual utilization report.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. The Department’s Audit agency makes audits of the headquarters operation and may make spot checks of the utilization by real property transferees.

Records:
Transferees of real property, who expend funds to rebuild, refurbish, or to otherwise improve property under restrictions, should maintain records of these costs in the event they wish to dispose of the property prior to termination of the restriction period.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:
All applications must establish eligibility of the institution, its programs, and the proposed use to meet the program needs. A public benefit allowance formula, uniformly applied, determines the respective benefits of each program. Basic allowance of 50 percent is allowed to institutions meeting the following:
(1) Proof of current need; (2) ability to operate and maintain; (3) suitability of facilities or adaptability for conversion; (4) requirement for utilization through period of restrictions; and (5) nondiscrimination because of race, color, sex, age, handicapped, or national origin. Additional allowances are made for tax support, accreditation, hardship, integrated research, outpatient services, public services, and training programs. For competing programs, the one showing the greatest public benefit is selected. Where property can be divided, as many compatible programs as possible are accommodated.

93.292 NATIONAL PUBLIC HEALTH IMPROVEMENT INITIATIVE
National Public Health Improvement Initiative (NPHII) - Capacity Building Assistance to Strengthen Public Health Infrastructure and Performance; CDC-RFA-CD10-1011

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Section 301(a) of the Public Health Service Act , 42 U.S.C. Sections 241, as amended.

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of the program is to provide support for accelerating public health accreditation readiness activities; to provide additional support for performance management and improvement practices; and, for the development, identification and dissemination of evidence-based policies and practices (i.e., best and promising practices.).

This program supports the Healthy People 2020 focus area of addressing Public Health Infrastructure (http://www.healthypeople.gov/hp2020/).

Cross-jurisdictional (state, local, tribal, territorial, regional, community, and border) collaborations are encouraged to increase the impact of limited resources, improve efficiency, and to leverage other related health reform efforts/projects.

Measurable outcomes of the program align with the following performance goals:
1) Increased efficiencies (saving time/money) of program services and/or operations,
2) Increased effectiveness (use of evidence-based policies and practices)
Improved health outcome is a example of increased effectiveness., and,
3) Increased readiness for applying to and achieving accreditation by the Public Health Accreditation Board PHAB. (More information on accreditation

Section 761(c) of the Public Health Servives Act (42 U.S.C. 294n), as amended by Section 5103 of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, Public Law 111-148.

OBJECTIVES:
To provide for the development of information describing and analyzing the health care workforce and workforce related issues in order to provide necessary information for decision-making regarding future directions in health professions in response to societal and professional needs. Grants under this CFDA number include the following: Health Workforce Research Centers -- to increase the amount of high quality, impartial, policy-relevant research on the health workforce and to assist decision-makers at the federal, state and local levels to better understand health workforce needs to ensure access to high quality, efficient health care.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funds can be used to provide for the collecting, analyzing, and reporting of data related to health workforce, including targeted information collection and research on high priority workforce questions, technical assistance to local and regional entities to support the development of a nonfederal analytic and research infrastructure related to health workforce-related issues, and program evaluation and assessment efforts.

Applicant Eligibility:
Those eligible to apply are: state or local governments, a state workforce investment board, public health or health professions schools, schools of medicine, schools of nursing, universities, academic health centers, community-based health facilities, and other appropriate public or private nonprofit entities, including faith based and community based organizations. Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Government and Native American Organizations may apply if they are otherwise eligible.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Those who will ultimately benefit from these grants are the local, state, and federal legislators, planners, and policy makers, as well as the public, who will receive the information needed to better understand health workforce issues and trends and to make evidenced-based health workforce decisions.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants should review the individual HRSA Notice of Funding Opportunity issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications which must be submitted with an application package. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. HRSA requires all applicants to apply electronically through Grants.gov.

All eligible, qualified applications will be forwarded to an objective review committee. Based on the advice of the objective review committee, the HRSA program official with delegated authority is responsible for final selection and funding decisions. Notification is made in writing by a Notice of Award.

Award Procedure:
Notification of award is made in writing (electronic) through a Notice of Award.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Approximately 120 - 180 days after receipt of applications.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Depending on Agency priorities and availability of funding, during the final budget year of the approved project period competing continuation applications may be solicited from interested applicants.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program.

Matching Requirements:
Some cooperative agreements may require a matching requirement for State and local studies; refer to the Notice of Funding Opportunity for specific information.

MOE requirements:
Not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Assistance is available for between 3 and 5 years. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Recipients draw down funds, as necessary, from the Payment Management System (PMS), centralized web based payment system for HHS awards.

Reports:
Both program and financial reports are required. The recipient is required to submit 4 or 5 reports each budget year, one for each research study or technical assistance initiative undertaken in that budget year. In addition, there are 4 rapid response projects for each center per budget year that are submitted as requested by the agency. Cash reports are not applicable. The recipient will be required to submit annual performance and progress reports. A Federal Financial Report (SF-425) is required according to the schedule in HRSAs Application Guide. A final report is due within 90 days after the project period ends. If applicable, the recipient must submit a Tangible Personal Property Report (SF-428) and any related forms within 90 days after the project period ends. New awards (Type 1) issued under this notice of funding opportunity are subject to the reporting requirements of the Federal Financial Accountability and Transparency Act (FFATA) of 2006 (Pub. L. 109-282), as amended by section 6202 of Public Law 110-252, and implemented by 2 CFR Part 170. Grant and cooperative agreement recipients must report information for each first-tier subaward of $25,000 or more in federal funds and executive total compensation for the recipients and subrecipients five most highly compensated executives as outlined in Appendix A to 2 CFR Part 170 (The FFATA details are available online at http://www.hrsa.gov/grants/ffata.html). Competing continuation recipients, etc. may be subject to this requirement and will be so notified in the Notice of Award. Expenditure reports are not applicable. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:
Procedures for assessing the technical merit of grant applications have been instituted to provide an objective review of applications and to assist the applicant in understanding the standards against which each application will be judged. Critical indicators have been developed for each review criterion to assist the applicant in presenting pertinent information related to that criterion and to provide the reviewer with a standard for evaluation. Competing applications are reviewed by nonfederal reviewers for technical merit recommendations using the following review criteria.

(1) The degree to which an applicant specializes in health workforce research.

An applicant will be considered as specializing in health workforce research through identification of its mission, health workforce research accomplishments, and dedicated staff to health workforce research; (2) The degree to which the applicant demonstrates state and national experience and accomplishments in health workforce issues and research that align with BHW's mission to improve the health of underserved and vulnerable populations by strengthening the health workforce and connecting skilled professionals to communities in need. Experience, accomplishments, and the potential impact of previous work could be demonstrated through past or currently funded research; publication of articles in peer-reviewed journals; presentations at national and international conferences and meetings; and publication of policy briefs, fact sheets, articles, blogs, etc. that are available in the public domain; (3) The degree to which the applicant has health workforce research experience relevant to the proposed research project. In terms of workforce discipline-specific studies, the applicant should demonstrate experience in conducting research on the given discipline. For example, for a proposed research project that focuses on a behavioral health workforce issue, the applicant should demonstrate experience in conducting research on behavioral health workforce; and (4) The degree to which the applicant's proposed research includes: a well-developed background statement, clearly stated research objectives, clearly stated project activities and methodology, and a well-developed, reasonable management plan that will enable the successful completion of the project.

93.301 SMALL RURAL HOSPITAL IMPROVEMENT GRANT PROGRAM

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Section 1820(g)(3)(F)(ii)(I) of Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395f-4 (g) (3), as amended by Section 3129 of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA), P.L. 111-148.

OBJECTIVES:
To support small rural hospitals in their quality improvement efforts and with adapting to changing payment systems through investments in hardware, software, and related trainings. This includes focusing on delivering value in care as well as activities related to improving Prospective Payment Systems (PPS).

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
All funds awarded are to be expended solely for carrying out the approved projects.

Applicant Eligibility:
The State Office of Rural Health (SORH) in each state will be the official awardee of record, as they will act as a fiscal intermediary for all hospitals within their state. Each SORH will be charged with organizing the distribution of funds to eligible hospitals. Only SORHs are eligible to apply for this grant. Federally-recognized Tribal Government and Native American Organizations are selected if they are eligible to apply.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Small rural hospitals must meet the following eligibility requirements in order to be eligible for SHIP funds:

Small is a facility with 49 or fewer available beds, as reported on the hospitals most recent Medicare Cost Report.

Rural area is either (a) being located outside of a Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA); (b) being located within a rural census tract of a MSA, as determined under the Goldsmith Modification or the Rural Urban Commuting Areas; or (c) being treated as if it is located in a rural area pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1395(d)(8)(E).

Hospital is a non-federal, short-term, general acute care facility. Hospitals may be for-profit or not-for-profit. All Critical Access Hospitals are eligible for the program. In addition, hospitals with fewer than 50 beds located in a designated rural area, designated by any state law or regulation, are eligible. Tribally operated hospitals under Titles I and V of P.L. 93-638 are eligible to the extent that such hospitals meet the above criteria.

Credentialed/Documentation:
Applicants should review the individual HRSA notice of funding opportunity issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications which must be submitted prior to or simultaneously with submission of an application package. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

92.304 RACIAL AND ETHNIC APPROACHES TO COMMUNITY HEALTH

REACH National Networks

FEDERAL AGENCY:

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

Sections 301(a) and 317(k)(2) of the Public Health Service Act (as amended) (42 U.S.C. Sections 241(e) and 247b(k)(2).

OBJECTIVES:

The purpose of this program is to fund National Networks to fund, manage, support, and monitor sub-recipients to address health disparities and implement evidence- and practice-based strategies that reduce health disparities for intervention population(s) experiencing high burden of disease or risk factors. The intervention population is the population within the selected geographic area that applicants will reach with proposed program activities. They are to contribute to the development and implementation of a community health action plan to address chronic disease health disparities.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Project funds may be used for costs associated with planning, organizing, conducting, implementing, managing, and coordinating all recipient requirements of the FOA. Applicants must adhere to all CDC guidelines regarding allowable and unallowable expenses and activities. CDC will have substantial involvement with the award recipient during performance of the funded activity. * Recipients may not use funds for research.

* Recipients may only expend funds for reasonable program purposes, including personnel, travel, supplies, and services, such as contractual.

* Recipients may not generally use HHS/CDC/ATSDR funding for the purchase of furniture or equipment. Any such proposed spending must be identified in the budget.

* The direct and primary recipient in a cooperative agreement program must perform a substantial role in carrying out project objectives and not merely serve as a conduit for an award to another party or provider who is ineligible.

* Reimbursement of pre-award costs is not allowed.

* If requesting indirect costs in the budget, a copy of the indirect cost rate agreement should be uploaded as a PDF file with Other Attachment Forms when submitting via Grants.gov.

* The recommended guidance for completing a detailed justified budget can be found on the CDC Web site, at the following Internet address: http://www.cdc.gov/od/pgo/funding/budgetguidelines.htm.

FY 2012 Appropriations Provision: HHS recipients must comply with all terms and conditions outlined in their grant award, including grant policy terms and conditions contained in applicable Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Grant Policy Statements, and requirements imposed by program statutes and regulations and HHS grant administration regulations, as applicable, as well as any requirements or limitations in any applicable appropriations acts.

* Recipients may not use funds for abortions in accordance with Executive Order 13535.

2. Are there restrictions upon the use of the assistance? If you select yes you must describe the restrictions.

Description:

* Applicants must adhere to all CDC guidelines regarding allowable and unallowable expenses and activities.

* In accordance with U.S. law, no Federal funds provided by CDC are permitted to be used by community grantees for lobbying or to influence, directly or indirectly, specific pieces of pending or proposed legislation at the federal, state, or local levels. The awardee should work with project officer to ensure activities adhere to federal guidelines, and federal dollars are not used to engage in unauthorized activities. Throughout all objectives and activities, the awardee should clarify that the work plan language clearly describes the role, nature, and purpose of the funded activities. This includes providing clear language focusing on the message (e.g., addressing the health risk/efffects, using evidence based strategies for increasing protections) when conducting public educational initiatives. In addition, language should be included for proper engagement of elected officials as documented in the federal guidelines. Additionally, awardees should consult appropriate legal counsel to ensure compliance with all rules, regulations, and restriction of any funding sources.

* Title 2 of the United States Code Section 1611 states that an organization described in Section 501(C)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code that engages in lobbying activities is no eligible to receive Federal funds constituting a grant, loan, or award.

* The awardee should refer to the AR-12 and CDC Guidance documents on Anti-Lobbying restrictions for more information on allowable and restricted activities.

* http://www.cdc.gov/od/pgo/funding/grants/additional_req.htm#AR12

APPLICANT ELIGIBILITY:

In continuation years, eligibility is limited to the six (6) existing original awardees:

* Asian and Pacific Islander American Health Forum

* Hidalgo Medical Services

* National Council of Young Mens Christian Association of the USA

* National REACH Coalition

* Regents of the University of California, Los Angeles

* University of Colorado Denver.

BENEFICIARY ELIGIBILITY:

The general public will benefit from the objectives of this program.

CREDENTIALS/DOCUMENTATION:

Applicants should document the need for assistance, state the objectives of the project, outline the method of operation, describe the evaluation procedures, and provide a budget with justification of funds. OMB Circular No. A-87 applies to this program. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

PREAPPLICATION COORDINATION:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES:

This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards.

AWARD PROCEDURE:
Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Award (NoA) from the CDC Procurement and Grants Office. The NoA shall be the only binding, authorizing document between the recipient and CDC. The NoA will be signed by an authorized Grants Management Officer and e-mailed to the program director. A hard copy of the NoA will be mailed to the recipient fiscal officer identified in the application. Any application awarded in response to this FOA will be subject to the DUNS, CCR Registration and Transparency Act requirements. Unsuccessful applicants will receive notification of the results of the application review by mail.

93.305 NATIONAL STATE BASED TOBACCO CONTROL PROGRAMS
National Tobacco Control Program

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services
AUTHORIZATION:
Section 303(a) of the Public Health Service Act [42 U.S.C. Section 241(a)].

OBJECTIVES:
This cooperative agreement program addresses tobacco use and secondhand smoke exposure in the United States and supports four National Tobacco Control Program goals to (1) Prevent initiation of tobacco use among youth and young adults; (2) Eliminate exposure to secondhand smoke; (3) Promote quitting among adults and youth; and (4) Identify and eliminate tobacco related disparities. Achievement of these goals will reduce chronic disease morbidity, mortality, and disability related to tobacco use and secondhand smoke exposure. This cooperative agreement program relates to Healthy People 2020 objectives in the topic area of Tobacco Use. In addition, this cooperative agreement program supports the Government Performance Results Modernization Act Long-term Objective 4.6: Reduce Death and Disability Due to Tobacco and the following measures: Tobacco Measure: 4.6 - Reduce death and disability due to tobacco use; 4.6.2 - Reduce per capita cigarette consumption in the U.S. per adult age 18+; 4.6.3 - Reduce the proportion of adults (age 18 and over) who are current cigarette smokers; 4.6.4 Increase the proportion of the U.S. population covered by comprehensive state and/or local laws making workplaces, restaurants, and bars 100% smoke free (no smoking allowed, no exceptions); 4.6.5 - Reduce the proportion of adolescents (grade 9-12) who are current cigarette smokers. Furthermore, this cooperative agreement program supports national public health priorities and strategic plans including: (1) Centers for Disease Controls Winnable Battles; (2) Department of Health and Human Services Ending the Tobacco Epidemic and Strategic Plan; (3) National Prevention Councils National Prevention Strategy; (4) Institute of Medicines, Ending the Tobacco Problem; and (5) numerous Surgeon General Reports.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Awardees may not use funds for research or clinical care, to provide direct cessation services or other direct services other than those through evidence-based quitline services; to purchase nicotine replacement therapy or other products used for cessation; to pay for inspection of tobacco retail establishments. Awardees may only expend funds for reasonable program purposes, including personnel, travel, supplies, and services, such as contractual. Awardees may only use federal funds for evidence-based tobacco control interventions and strategies. No federal funds from this cooperative agreement may be used to purchase K-12 school curriculum. In most cases, awardees may not use HHS/CDC/ATSDR funding for the purchase of furniture or equipment. Any such proposed spending must be clearly identified in the budget. Reimbursement of pre-award costs is not allowed. Awardees may not use funds for any kind of impermissible lobbying activity designed to influence proposed or pending legislation, appropriations, regulations, administrative actions, or Executive Orders (legislation and other orders). These restrictions include grass roots lobbying efforts and direct lobbying. Certain activities within the normal and recognized executive-legislative relationships within the executive branch of that government are permissible. See Additional Requirement (AR) 12 for further guidance on this prohibition. The direct and primary recipient in a cooperative agreement program must perform a substantial role in carrying out project outcomes and not merely serve as a conduit for an award to another party or provider who is ineligible.

Applicant Eligibility:
State departments of health are essential for coordinating the public health response to prevent tobacco use and protect the population from second hand smoke exposure. They have experience with implementing evidence-based interventions and strategies that use environment, policy, and system approaches that have the potential to reach large numbers of people in the state. State departments of health have experience working with an array of state and local governmental and non-governmental organizations to leverage resources that can support tobacco control efforts across a number of categorical programs and sectors. State departments of health are uniquely positioned to carry out the activities outlined in this funding opportunity announcement. State departments of health serve as the lead for tobacco control in every state. State departments of health have existing personnel who are able to provide technical assistance based on their area of expertise (e.g., environment, policy, and systems approaches, program planning, implementation, and evaluation, health communication, surveillance and epidemiology, partnership development) which conserves valuable resources. All this infrastructure and capacity can be integrated and employed by state departments of health to: Leverage partnerships to support the implementation of evidence-based interventions and strategies to prevent and control tobacco at the state and local levels; implement policy and programmatic strategies that cut across multiple chronic conditions and that leverage individual categorical efforts and create synergies and efficiencies across multiple state programmatic efforts also funded by CDC, given the high level of co-morbidities among people with chronic diseases and conditions (e.g., obesity, diabetes, hypertension, heart disease and stroke); utilize the public health resources and capacity unique to state departments of health to achieve a comprehensive state-based tobacco control program; develop models that integrate with other state departments of health chronic disease programs affecting similar populations; collect state-wide surveillance data on tobacco use, secondhand smoke exposure, and the populations most affected through data sources that are uniquely available to state departments of health.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
General Public would benefit.

Credentials/Documentation:
No Credentials or documentation are required. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, “Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs.” An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:

If an applicant does not have access to the Internet, or if they have difficulty accessing the forms online, contact the CDC Procurement and Grants Office, Technical Information Management Section (PGO-TIMS) staff. For this, or further technical assistance, contact PGO-TIMS: Telephone: 770-488-2700, email:PGOTIM@cdc.gov .

Award Procedure:
All applications submitted by the deadline that are complete and responsive to competitive funding opportunity announcement will undergo an objective review process, receive a written critique and be scored according to published review criteria. Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Award (NoA) from the CDC Procurement and Grants Office. The NoA shall be the only binding, authorizing document between the recipient and CDC. The NoA will be signed by an authorized CDC Grants Management Officer.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
- From 60 to 90 days. Range of Approval/Disapproval is 60–90 days from receipt of application.
- Appeals: Not Applicable.

Renewals:
From 120 to 180 days. Throughout the project period, CDCs commitment to continuation of awards will be conditioned on the availability of funds, evidence of satisfactory progress by the recipient (as documented in required reports, in documented technical assistance, and in other relevant documented activities), and the determination that continued funding is in the best interest of the federal government.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. Matching Requirements: Matching funds are required from non-federal sources in the amount of not less than $1 for each $4 federal funds awarded. The match must be from non-federal sources and can be all cash, in-kind, or a combination thereof. In-kind activities must support evidence-based interventions outlined in CDCs Best Practices for Comprehensive Tobacco Control Programs. The match must be for the total dollar amount requested.

The amount and source of the match is required in the budget narrative and justification section of the application. Responsiveness to match requirements will be a criterion used in evaluating the application. Cost sharing is encouraged if it helps to leverage federal and state resources, is responsive to stated CDC recipient activities, is advantageous to chronic disease prevention and health programs, supports the four National Tobacco Control Program goals, focuses on evidence-based interventions outlined in Best Practices, and does not compromise the integrity or the ability of the programs to accomplish proposed activities. Examples of cost sharing may include, but are not limited to, sharing 1) the cost of an FTE that can support the work of several projects across program content areas, 2) costs associated with data collection and analysis, 3) costs associated with various communication campaigns that can benefit multiple program areas, and 4) costs associated with working with diverse populations to modify risk factors or eliminate chronic disease-related disparities.

MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Financial assistance is available for a 12-month budget period and 60 month project period. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:
The reporting schedule will be based on the requirements listed in the funding opportunity announcement. An Annual Progress Report and Federal Financial Report (SF425) are due 90 days after the end of the budget period. A final progress report and final Federal Financial Report are due 90 days after the end of the project period. Cash reports are not applicable. An Annual Progress Report is due 90 days after the end of the budget period. The Annual Progress Report will describe successes, challenges, and progress toward program goals, objectives and performance measures. A Federal Financial Report is due 90 days after the end of the quarter in which budget period ends. Awardees will describe their activities and progress toward meeting goals, objectives, and performance measures in the progress reports submitted.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:
Financial records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records pertinent to the program shall be retained for a minimum of 3 years, or until completion and resolution of any audit in process or pending resolution. In all cases, records must be retained until resolution of any audit questions. Property records must be retained in accordance with 45 CFR 92.42.

Account Identification:
75-0943-0-1-551.

Obligations:
(1) Cooperative Agreements) FY 16 $52,621,579; FY 17 est $54,997,853; and FY 18 est $54,997,853.

Range and Average of Financial Assistance:
This CFDA will be used for a FY 15 FOA. There are no range or average of financial assistance.

TAFS Codes:
75-0943.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:
Phase I Review: All eligible applications will be initially reviewed for completeness by CDC's Procurement and Grants Office (PGO) staff. In addition, eligible applications will be jointly reviewed for responsiveness by the CDC NCCDPHP and PGO. Incomplete applications and applications that are non-responsive to the eligibility criteria will not advance to Phase II review. Applicants will be notified that the application did not meet eligibility and/or published submission requirements.

Phase II Review: An objective review panel will evaluate complete and responsive applications according to the criteria listed in the criteria section of the funding opportunity announcement. Applicants will be notified electronically if the applications did not meet eligibility and/or published submission requirements thirty (30) days after the completion of Phase II review.

Applications will be funded in order by score and rank determined by the review panel.

93.307 MINORITY HEALTH AND HEALTH DISPARITIES RESEARCH FEDERAL AGENCY: National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

OBJECTIVES:

To support basic, clinical, social, and behavioral research; promote research infrastructure and training; foster emerging programs; disseminate information; and reach out to minority and other health disparity communities. The National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities (NMHD) has established programs to pursue these goals: (1) The Centers of Excellence Program promotes research to improve minority health and/or reduce and eliminate health disparities; builds research capacity for minority health and health disparities research in academic institutions; encourages participation of health disparity groups and communities in biomedical and behavioral research and prevention and intervention activities; and brings together investigators from relevant disciplines in a manner that will enhance and extend the effectiveness of their research; (2) NMHD Research Endowment Program builds research capacity and infrastructure at eligible NMHD Centers of Excellence or eligible Section 736 health professions-schools (42 U.S.C. 293) to facilitate minority health and other health disparities research to close the disparity gap in the burden of illness and death experienced by racial and ethnic minority Americans and other health disparity populations; promotes a diverse and strong scientific, technological and engineering workforce; and emphasizes the recruitment and retention of underrepresented minorities and other socio-economically disadvantaged populations in the fields of biomedical and behavioral research and other areas of the scientific workforce; (3) The Centers of Excellence on Environmental Health Disparities Research to stimulate basic and applied research on environmental health disparities; (4) Minority Health and Health Disparities International Research Training Program (MHIRT) awards enable U.S. institutions to tailor short-term basic science, biomedical and behavioral mentored student international research training opportunities to address global issues related to understanding, reducing, and eliminating health disparities; (5) Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) Program increases private sector commercialization of innovations derived from Federal research and development; encourages small business participation in Federal research and development; and fosters and encourages participation of socially and economically disadvantaged small business concerns and women-owned small business concerns in technological innovation; (6) Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) Program stimulates and fosters scientific and technological innovation through cooperative research development carried out between small business concerns and research institutions; fosters technology transfer between small business concerns and research institutions; increases private sector commercialization of innovations derived from Federal research and development; and fosters and encourages participation of socially and economically disadvantaged small business concerns and women-owned small business concerns in technological innovation; (7) Health Disparities Research Project Grants (RPQ) support innovative projects to enhance our understanding of biological mechanisms, social, behavioral, and health services that can directly and demonstrably contribute to the improvement in minority health and the elimination of health disparities; (8) Health Disparities Research Cooperative Agreements that support Community-Based Participatory Research (CBPR) Initiatives for the development, implementation and evaluation of intervention research using CBPR principles and methods in targeting diseases of major public health importance in health disparity communities, and research to prevent HIV in diverse adolescent men who have sex with men; (9) Research Centers in Minority Institutions (RCMI) build capacity for basic biomedical and/or behavioral research by focusing on institutional resource development, such as supporting core research facilities and staff, purchasing advanced instrumentation, and laboratory renovations/alterations; (10) RCMI Infrastructure for Clinical and Translational Research (RCTR) supports the development of infrastructure required to conduct clinical and translational research by enhancement of, but is not limited to outpatient clinical resources, biostatistical support, core laboratories, and other capacity for patient-oriented research; (11) RCMI Translational Research Network (RTRN) supports a consortium of clinical and translational investigators from RCMI Centers, other academic health centers, providers, and community-based organizations to encourage sharing of resources and expertise in minority health and health disparities; (12) Clinical Research Education and Career Development (CRECD) Awards provide didactic training and mentored clinical research experiences to develop independent researchers who can lead clinical research studies, especially those addressing health disparities; (13) Resource-Related Minority Health and Health Disparities Research supports minority health and health disparities resource-related research in the priority areas of Bioinformatics Research, Global Health Research, Data Infrastructure and Dissemination, and Healthcare for Rural Populations Research; (14) NIH Research Conference Grant and NIH Research Conference Cooperative Agreement Programs support high-quality conferences that are relevant to the minority health and health disparities; (15) Transdisciplinary Collaborative Centers for Health Disparities Research comprise regional coalitions of academic institutions, community organizations, service providers and systems, government agencies and other stakeholders conducting coordinated research, implementation and dissemination activities that transcend customary approaches and silo organizational structures to address critical questions at multiple levels in innovative ways focused on priority research areas in minority health and health disparities; (16) Disparities Research and Education Advancing our Mission (DREAM) Career Transition Award supports mentored research experience in the NIH Intramural Research Program for early stage investigators in health disparities from extramural institutions and then facilitate the transition of their research programs to the independent stage of career development; (17) Ruth L. Kirschstein NRSA Individual Predoctoral Fellowship to Promote Diversity in Health Related Research; (18) NIH Pathway to Independence Award (K99/R00) which facilitates a timely transition from a mentored postdoctoral research position to a stable research position with independent NIH or other research support at an early career stage; and (19) NIH BD2K Enhancing Diversity in Biomedical Data Science Award (R25) which supports educational activities that enhance the diversity of the biomedical, behavioral and clinical research workforce.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE: PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Grants are intended to support the direct costs of a project in accordance with an approved budget, plus appropriate amount for indirect costs. Grantees must agree to administer the grant in accordance with the regulations and policies governing the research grants programs of the Public Health Service. Endowment grants: Some qualifying institutions may use income earned from a research endowment corpus to support institutions in their effort to support and add teaching programs in the biomedical and behavioral sciences and related areas, to improve facilities, to enhance student and faculty recruitment and retention, to develop instructional delivery systems and information technology in areas that will enhance minority health and other health disparities research. activities, and to establish endowed chairs and programs. Other qualifying institutions must use income earned from a research endowment corpus to increase the institutions investments in the recruitment and retention of underrepresented minority students and students from other health disparity populations that matriculate at such institutions. This includes activities such as increasing student recruitment and retention, creating merit-based and need-based scholarships, establishing or enhancing tutoring, providing counseling, and designing student service programs to improve academic success, and faculty recruitment and retention. SBIR grants: SBIR Phase I grants are to establish the technical merit and feasibility of a proposed research effort that may lead to a commercial product or process. SBIR Phase II grants are for the continuation of the research initiated in Phase I and are likely to result in commercial products or processes. Only Phase I awardees are eligible to apply for Phase II support. STTR grants: STTR Phase I grants are to determine the scientific, technical, and commercial merit and feasibility of the proposed cooperative effort that has potential for commercial application. STTR Phase II grants are to establish the technical merit and feasibility of a proposed Phase II application. See Program Announcements: PA-15-269 and PA-15-270. As specified in each of the program announcements. As specified in each of the program announcements.

Applicant Eligibility:

Individuals and public and private institutions, both non-profit and for-profit, who propose to establish, expand, and conduct research, promote or engage in research training, and outreach activities that contribute to improving minority health and/or eliminating health disparities. Endowment grants: Only NIMHD Centers of Excellence or Section 736 health professional schools (see 42 U.S.C. 293) with net endowment assets less than or equal to 50 percent of the national median of endowment funds at institutions that conduct similar biomedical research or training of health professionals are eligible for the research endowment awards. Applicants must have an NIMHD Center of Excellence Award or HRSA Centers of Excellence Award at the time of award of an NIMHD Research Endowment Grant. SBIR grants: Domestic small businesses (entities that are independently owned and operated for profit, are not dominant in the field in which the research is proposed, and have no more than 500 employees). Primary employment (more than one-half time) of the principal investigator must be with the small business at the time of award and during the conduct of the proposed project. Small business concerns must be at least 51 percent US owned by individuals and independently operated and/or at least 51 percent owned and controlled by another (one) for-profit business concern that is at least 51 percent owned and controlled by one or more individuals. The research must be performed on U.S. or its possessions. STTR grants: Domestic small businesses (entities that are independently owned and operated for profit, are not dominant in the field in which the research is proposed, and have no more than 500 employees) that "partner" with a research institution in cooperative research and development. At least 40 percent of the project is to be performed by the small business concern and at least 30 percent by the research institution.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Any non-profit or for-profit organization, company, or institution engaged in biomedical and behavioral research. Endowment grants: NIMHD Centers of Excellence or Section 736 institutions.

Credentials/Documentation:

Applicants must present a research plan and furnish evidence required for research grant applications, PHS 398, (Rev. 05/01) as specified in the application form. Costs will be determined in accordance with HHS Regulation 45 CFR 75, as applicable, and the NIH Grants Policy Statement (http://grants.nih.gov/grants/policy/nihpolicy/index.htm), which is a term and condition of all NIH grant awards. For-profit organizations costs are determined in accordance with Subpart 51.2 of the Federal Acquisition Regulations. Endowment grants: Requirements for the endowment application are specified in the application form (SF424 R&R). SBIR and STTR grants: Applicant organizations (small business concerns) must present a research plan that includes an idea that has the potential for commercialization, and furnish evidence that the scientific competence, experimental methods, facilities, equipment, and funds requested are appropriate to carry out the plan. To apply for SBIR Phase I and Phase II Grants, applicants must complete SF424 (R&R) Application for Electronic Submission. For general information on SF424 (R&R) Application and Electronic Submission, see these Web-sites: SF424 (R&R) Application and Electronic Submission Information: http://grants. nih.gov/grants/funding/424/index.htm. General information on Electronic Submission of Grant Applications: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/ElectronicReceipt/. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Applications for the various programs should be submitted to the NIH office that is responsible for the receipt of applications, and in such form and manner as the application prescribes. (All information pertaining to grants hereinafter, also apply to Endowment Grants unless otherwise noted). Research Grants: Applications must be prepared either electronically through Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov) using the SF 424 (Research and Research-Related) or on paper using the PHS 398 research grant application instructions and forms (Revised 9/2004, Interim Revision 4/2006). The PHS 398 is available at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/funding/phs398/phs398.html. The format is interactive. For NIH planned transition dates of mechanisms for electronic submission, see:

http://grants.nih.gov/grants/ElectronicReceipt/files/timeline_NIH_transitions.pdf. For further assistance contact Grants Info, Telephone (301) 435-0714, Email: GrantsInfo@nih.gov. NRSAs (Individual): Individuals must submit the application form, PHS Individual National Research Service Award (PHS 416-1, rev. 10/05), and include at least three letters of reference. If the applicant has been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence, the appropriate item should be checked on the Face Page of the application. Applicants who have applied for and have not yet been granted admission as a permanent resident should check the Permanent resident block on the Face Page of the PHS 416-1 application, and also write in the word "pending." A notarized statement documenting legal admission for permanent residence must be submitted prior to the issuance of an award. SBIR and STTR: The SF 424 (Research and Research-Related) application forms and the SF 424 SBIR/STTR Application Guide are used to apply for both SBIR and STTR grants, Phase I and Phase II. Application must be made electronically through grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov). For further assistance contact Grants Info, Telephone: (301) 435-0714, Email: GrantsInfo@nih.gov.

Award Procedure:

Each eligible application will be evaluated for scientific and technical merit by an appropriate Scientific Review Group in accordance with NIH policies and procedures. The National Advisory Council on Minority Health and Health Disparities (NACMHHD) will conduct the second-level review of the applications.

Deadlines:

Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

> 180 Days. Approximately 6 to 9 months. SBIR and STTR grants: Approximately 7 to 8 months.

Appeals:

A principal investigator or applicant may question the substantive or procedural aspects of the review of his/her application by communicating with NIMHD staff. A description of the NIH Peer Review Appeal procedures is available on the NIH home page http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-11-064.html.

Renewals:

Renewal of grant awards beyond the initial project period of support is contingent upon successful competition by the applicant and upon the appropriation of funds for this purpose.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:

- Website Address:
- Headquarters Office:
- Regional or Local Office:

The major elements in evaluating all new grant and renewal grant applications include assessments of the scientific merit and general significance of the proposed study and its objectives; the technical adequacy of the experimental design and approach; the competency of the proposed investigator or group to successfully pursue the project; the adequacy of the available and proposed facilities and resources; and the necessity of the budget components requested in relation to the proposed project and the relevance and importance to the announced program objectives. SBIR and STTR grants: For Phase I grant applications, the criteria used are the soundness and technical merit of the proposed approach; the qualifications of the proposed principal investigator, supporting staff, and consultants; the technological innovation of the proposed research; the potential of the proposed suitability of the facilities and research environment; and where applicable, the adequacy of assurances detailing the proposed means for safeguarding human or animal subjects and/or protecting against or minimizing any adverse effect on the environment. For Phase II grant applications, the criteria are the degree to which the Phase I objectives were met and feasibility demonstrated; the scientific and technical merit of the proposed approach for achieving the Phase II objectives; the qualifications of the proposed principal investigator, supporting staff and consultants; the technological innovation, originality, or societal importance of the proposed research; the potential of the proposed research for commercial application; the reasonableness of the budget requested for the work proposed; the adequacy and suitability of the facilities and research environment; and, where applicable, the adequacy of assurances detailing the proposed means for safeguarding human or animal subjects and/or protecting against or minimizing any adverse effect on the environment. All persons interested in any of the DHHS/NIMHD grant and/or contract program initiatives are strongly encouraged to carefully read the Request for Applications as they are announced annually in order to understand what is required for each unique program as well as meet each deadline in a timely manner.

93.308 NATIONAL INSTITUTE ON MINORITY HEALTH AND HEALTH DISPARITIES (NIMHD) EXTRAMURAL LOAN REPAYMENT PROGRAMS

NIMHD Loan Repayment Programs

FEDERAL AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
The mission of the National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities (NIMHD) is to lead scientific research to improve minority health and eliminate health disparities. To accomplish this, NIMHD 1) Plans, reviews, coordinates, and evaluates all minority health and health disparities research and activities of the National Institutes of Health; 2) Conducts and supports research in minority health and health disparities; 3) Promotes and supports the training of a diverse research workforce; 4) Translates and disseminates research information; 5) Fosters innovative collaborations and partnerships.

There are two separate types of loan repayment within NIMHD's Loan Repayment Program: (1) Extramural Loan Repayment Program for Health Disparities Research (LRP-HDR): recruits and retains qualified health professionals to research careers that focus on minority health disparities research or other health disparities research and the (2) Extramural Clinical Research Loan Repayment Program for Individuals from Disadvantaged Backgrounds (LRP-IDB), recruits and retains qualified health professionals from disadvantaged backgrounds to conduct clinical research.

The objective of these extramural loan repayment programs are to recruit and retain qualified health professionals including those from health disparity populations and those from disadvantaged backgrounds to conduct minority health disparities research, other health disparities research, and clinical research.

(1) Health Disparities Research may pertain to basic, clinical, or behavioral research on health disparity populations (including individual members and communities of such populations), that relate to health disparities, including the causes of such disparities and methods to prevent, diagnose, and treat such disparities.

(2) Clinical research consists of patient-oriented clinical research conducted with human subjects, or research on the causes and consequences of disease in human populations involving material of human origin (such as tissue specimens and cognitive phenomena) for which the investigator or colleague directly interacts with human subjects in an outpatient or inpatient setting to clarify a problem in human physiology, pathophysiology or disease, or...
An Individual from disadvantaged background means an individual who:

- disadvantaged background:

Eligible applicants must come from a disadvantaged background and adhere to the following guidelines relating to the definition of a disadvantaged background (LRP-IDB). There are additional requirements for the Extramural Clinical Research Loan Repayment Program (10) that is supported by a non-profit institution, foundation, professional society or entity, and certifies the applicant's annual institutional base salary. The Research supervisor or mentor of applicants to both NIMHD extramural LRP programs must submit the following documentation electronically: (1) Application Information Statement; (2) Biosketch; (3) Assessment of the Research Activities Statement submitted by the applicant; (4) Description of the Research Environment; and (5) Training or Mentoring Plan. Applicants must submit a certification of disadvantaged background [see Federal Register: April 24, 2009 (Volume 74, Number 78)].

Applicant Eligibility:
The following eligibility requirements apply to both: (1) Extramural Loan Repayment Program for Health Disparities Research (LRP-HDR); and (2) Extramural Clinical Loan Repayment Program for Individuals from Disadvantaged Backgrounds (LRP-IDB)

An applicant must:

1. be a United States citizen, national, or permanent resident;
2. have an M.D., Ph.D., Pharm.D., D.D.S., D.M.D., D.C., N.D., or equivalent doctoral degree from an accredited institution;
3. conduct research that is supported by a non-profit institution, foundation, professional society or U.S. government entity; (4) commit 50 percent or more of his/his time to clinical research; (5) have total qualifying educational debt greater than or equal to 20 percent of his/her institutional base salary at the time of award; (6) conduct research in accordance with applicable Federal, state and local law; (7) not be under any existing service obligations to Federal, State, or other entities, unless and until the existing service obligation is discharged or deferred during the period of program service; (8) not have Federal judgment liens against their property arising from a Federal debt from receiving Federal funds until all judgments have been paid in full or otherwise satisfied; (9) not be a full time employee of a Federal government agency; Part-time Federal employees who engage in qualifying research as part of their non-Federal duties are eligible to apply for loan repayment if they meet all other eligibility requirements; and (10) have the institution provide an assurance that the applicant will be engaged in qualifying research for 50 percent of his/her time, that the funding foundation, professional society, or institution is considered to be non-profit as provided under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. 501) or is a U.S. government entity (Federal, state or local); and (4) provides the applicant's institutional base salary. Requirements for the loan repayment application, OMB Approval No. 0925-0361, are specified in the electronic application form located at www.lrp.nih.gov. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. An application for participation in the program can be obtained from www.lrp.nih.gov and should be submitted to the NIH office, which is responsible for the receipt of applications, in such form and manner as the Secretary or the authorized designee may prescribe.

Award Procedure:
Each eligible application will be evaluated for scientific and technical merit by an appropriate Scientific Review Group in accordance with NIH policies and procedures. Awards will be made to meritorious applications, subject to the receipt of an appropriation and/or allocation of funds from the United States Congress, the NIH and/or NIMHD. All selections are subject to final approval by the Secretary or the authorized designee, the Director of NIMHD.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:
The major elements in evaluating applications/proposals include the assessment of the following: (1) personal statement; (2) proposed research project and its scientific merit (priority will be given to biomedical and behavioral researchers); (3) training plan and environment (which includes the research program, the facilities/environment, the mentor/advisor's training, the applicant's training); (4) loan debt ratio and any associated impediments that may affect the applicant's decision to pursue a research career; and (5) references.

93.310 TRANS-NIH RESEARCH SUPPORT
Common Fund Research Support

FEDERAL AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Public Health Service Act, Title IV, Section 402A, Public Law 109-482, 42 U.S.C. 282A.

OBJECTIVES:
To provide support for new initiatives designed to address major opportunities and gaps in biomedical research that no single NIH institute could address alone, but which the agency as a whole can pursue to stimulate the progress of biomedical research and to catalyze changes that will serve to transform new scientific knowledge into tangible benefits for public health. Information on recent and current initiatives is available at http://commonfund.nih.gov/.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
PROJECT GRANTS; TRAINING

USE AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
To support research and other projects that will accelerate fundamental biomedical discovery and translation of that knowledge into effective prevention strategies and new treatments.

Applicant Eligibility:
Awards can be made to domestic, public or private, for-profit or nonprofit organization, university, college, hospital, laboratory, or other institution, including State and local units of government, and individuals. Some initiatives will accept applications from foreign organizations. Additional details on eligibility are specified in the Common Fund Grants and Funding Opportunities funding announcement, listed at http://commonfund.nih.gov/.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Institutions as described above.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applications must be submitted in compliance with instructions provided with each initiative. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.
Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Prepare and submit applications according to instructions provided in the applicable Common Fund Grants and Funding Opportunities announcement, located at http://commonfund.nih.gov/.

Most awards made under this program are subject to 2 CFR 75 Public Welfare Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles and Audit Requirements for HHS Awards. The policies and procedures generally applicable to NIH grants are set forth in the NIH Grants Policy Statement (http://grants.nih.gov/grants/policy/nihgps/index.htm).

Some awards made under this program use "Other Transaction Authority" which are not subject to the same regulations as grants, contracts, and cooperative agreements.

Award Procedure:
Applications are reviewed for scientific and technical merit by a scientific review group and for program relevance by a national advisory council/board.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
The length of the review cycle is four to nine months.

Appeals:
A principal investigator may question the substantive or procedural aspects of the review of his/her application by communicating with the NIH Scientific/Research contact, as provided on an initiative. A description of the NIH Peer Review Appeal procedures is available on the NIH Web site at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/not97-232.html.

Renewals:
Renewal (competing continuation, type 2) applications to Common Fund programs are not accepted unless specifically accepted by NIH staff.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program.

MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Almost all awards are made for at least one year, with additional support (up to four more years) depending on the recommendation of the scientific review group, the national advisory council, successful annual performance, and availability of funds. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: drawn from established accounts.

Reports:
Annual progress reports and selected financial reports are required for continuing projects. Final progress reports, invention statements, and expenditure reports are required at the end of the projects. Cash reports are not applicable. Annual progress reports and selected financial reports are required for continuing projects. Final progress reports, invention statements, and expenditure reports are required at the end of the projects. Expenditure reports are not applicable. Performance monitoring is not applicable.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. Most awards made under this program are subject to the audit requirements of OMB 2 CFR 200, as implemented by 45 CFR 75, Subpart F, and in the NIH Grants Policy Statement (http://grants.nih.gov/grants/policy/nihgps/index.htm).

Some awards made under this program use "Other Transaction Authority" which are not subject to the same regulations as grants, contracts, and cooperative agreements.

Records:
Grantees generally must retain financial and programmatic records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records that are required by the terms of a grant, or may reasonably be considered pertinent to a grant, for a period of 3 years from the date the annual FSR is submitted. For awards under SNAP (other than those to foreign organizations and Federal institutions), the 3-year retention period will be calculated from the date the FSR for the entire competitive segment is submitted. Those grantees must retain the records pertinent to the entire competitive segment for 3 years from the date the FSR is submitted to NIH. Foreign organizations and Federal institutions must retain records for 3 years from the date of submission of the annual FSR to NIH. See 45 CFR 75 and 92.42 for exceptions and qualifications to the 3-year retention requirement (e.g., if any litigation, claim, financial management review, or audit is started before the expiration of the 3-year period, the records must be retained until all litigation, claims, or audit findings involving the records have been resolved and final action taken). Those sections also specify the retention period for other types of grant-related records, including F&A cost proposals and property records. See 45 CFR 75 and 92.36 for record retention and access requirements for contracts under grants. In accordance with 4 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 75, the HHS Inspector General, the U.S. Comptroller General, or any of their duly authorized representatives have the right of timely and unrestricted access to any books, documents, papers, or other records of recipients that are pertinent to awards in order to make audits, examinations, excerpts, transcripts, and copies of such documents. This right also includes timely and reasonable access to a recipients personnel for the purpose of interview and discussion related to such documents. The rights of access are not limited to the required retention period, but shall last as long as records are retained.

93.311 MOBILIZATION FOR HEALTH: NATIONAL PREVENTION PARTNERSHIP AWARDS

(NPPA)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Office of the Secretary, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Department of Health and Human Services, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Health, National Vaccine Program Office, Executive Order Section 1702(a) [42 U.S.C. 300a-1(a)] and Section 1703(a) and (c) [42 U.S.C. 300a-2(a) and (c)] of the Public Health Service Act, as amended.

OBJECTIVES:
The National Vaccine Program Office (NVPO) collaborates with federal partners to provide strategic direction for the coordination of the vaccine and immunization enterprise for the National Vaccine Plan (NVP) implementation

NVPO is looking to partner with an institution or organization to conduct research, monitoring or outcomes definition research related to vaccine safety.

The areas of research are specifically, but not limited to, predicting the safety profile of new vaccines during the early development stage, developing or modifying existing vaccines to improve their safety, conducting applied research that will have a direct impact on the current vaccine safety monitoring system, conducting research that will improve the safety profile of currently marketed vaccines, conducting research that will achieve consensus definitions of vaccine safety outcomes that could be utilized to collect consensus data in clinical research conducted globally.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
The assistance can be applied to improving vaccine safety knowledge, improving the monitoring of adverse events following immunization, or improving the way vaccine safety data are collected and analyzed in clinical trials. Examples of applicability are predicting the safety profile of new vaccines during the early development stage, developing or modifying existing vaccines to improve their safety, conducting applied research that will have a direct impact on the current vaccine safety monitoring system, conducting research that will improve the safety profile of currently marketed vaccines, conducting research that will achieve consensus definitions of vaccine safety outcomes that could be utilized to collect consensus data in clinical research conducted globally.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. To apply, access the application announcement thru www.grants.gov. Enter the CFDA# and follow the website instructions. Applications submitted after the deadlines will not be accepted for review. The submission deadline will not be extended. Applications which do not conform to the requirements of the grant announcement will not be accepted for review and will be returned to the applicant. Applications may only be submitted electronically via www.grants.gov. Any applications submitted via any other means of electronic communication, including facsimile or electronic mail, will not be accepted for review.

Award Procedure:

Applications will be screened on receipt. Those that are judged to be ineligible will be returned without comment. Accepted applications will be reviewed for technical merit in accordance with PHS policies. Applications will be evaluated by a technical review panel composed of experts. Final funding decisions will be determined by the OASH OWH, OHM, NVPO Office Director; taken into consideration are the recommendations of the review panel; program needs, stated preferences; geographic location; and recommendations of DHHS Regional Health Administrators. All applicants are notified in writing of actions taken on their applications. A Notice of Award is issued for those applications that are approved and funded.

Applicants are notified in writing of actions taken on their applications. A Notice of Award is issued for those applications that are approved and funded.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

CATEGOR A ($50,000 to $75,000) Funding (1 year, including a 12 month option to extend to 24 months)

CATEGOR B (not to exceed $500,000) Funding (3 year project period) Annual increments by budget period for Project A and B.

Grants may not exceed 3 years (subject to the availability of funds). Payments will be made either on a monthly cash request basis or under the Electronic Transfer System. Necessary instructions for the appropriate type of payment will be issued at the time an award is made. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: by letter of credit.

Reports:

See FOA. Each grantee will submit yearly program reports on progress to the project officer. Grantees must submit quarterly SF425 Federal Financial Reports to Payment Management Services due on one of the standard due dates on which cash reporting is required or at the end of a calendar quarter. The FFR is due 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter. Quarterly, Annual Progress and Final Report. A revised work plan must be submitted each year to indicate any service and/or partnership revisions. Grantees must submit quarterly SF425 Federal Financial Reports to the Office of Grants Management 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter and an annual FFR 90 days after the end of the budget period/project period end date. Reports are to be submitted electronically through GrantSolutions. A final performance report is due 90 days following the end of the project period.

93.312 CHILD DEVELOPMENT AND, SURVEILLANCE, RESEARCH AND PREVENTION

FEDERAL AGENCY:

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services.

AUTHORIZATION:

Sections 317 (k) (2) and 317 (c) of the Public Health Service Act [42 U.S.C. Sections 247b (k) (2) and 247b-4 as amended.

OBJECTIVES:

This funding supports State health agencies, universities, and public and private nonprofit organizations in planning, implementing, coordinating, or evaluating programs related to promoting optimal child health and development outcomes of all children by the detection, prevention, and management of factors that may lead to developmental delays or disorders, or increased morbidity, and by promoting optimal developmental practices within families and other systems that interact with youth. Programs may include the following activities:

1. Conducting epidemiologic research or surveillance in the area of child development, developmental disabilities, children mental health or neurobehavioral disorders such as Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) and Tourette Syndrome (TS) and related comorbidities;

2. Supporting the improvement of infant and child health and developmental outcomes by establishing resources for both professionals and the public regarding what is known about child development, ADHD and TS and related comorbidities;

3. Providing a national, State, or local platform in the area of child development, developmental disabilities, childrens mental health and neurobehavioral disorders prevention that focuses on improving early identification of and intervention for children with ADHD, TS, and other co-occurring conditions, so children and families can receive the services and support they need;

4. Conducting etiologic studies of child development, childrens mental health, and neurobehavioral disorders such as ADHD and TS using population based approaches to enhance existing research or surveillance programs to better address research questions, monitor changes in prevalence and contributing factors, and inform policy and program activities;

5. Employing epidemiological methods to set priorities, build capacity and direct health promotion interventions for persons with or at risk for developmental delays, developmental disabilities, mental disorders or neurobehavioral disorders;

6. Conducting population based research that describes comorbidities and associated burden of ADHD and TS disseminating data and health information;

7. Employing strategies to reduce racial/ethnic disparities in child development and in the identification of ADHD and TS and related comorbid conditions;

8. Fund and support a National Public Health Practice and Resource Center for Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder;

10. Fund and support projects that promote optimal child development and health for all children.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Projects may be used to strengthen, expand, build upon or enhance epidemiologic research, surveillance, health promotion, education, and prevention/intervention activities that contribute to the mission and activities of the National Center on Birth Defects and Developmental Disabilities, Division of Human Development and Disabilities. Funds may be used to improve and strengthen State and local public health infrastructure by providing technical assistance to other appropriate health agencies organizations, special groups or coalitions.

Funds may be used to support capacity building, program planning, development, implementation, evaluation, and surveillance for optimal child health and development outcomes, developmental disabilities, childrens mental health, and neurobehavioral disorders including Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder, Tourette syndrome, and other co-occurring conditions. Projects may include health promotion, education and training, prevention and intervention of Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder and Tourette syndrome. Funds may also be used to coordinate and the dissemination of prevention information to the general public, target populations, state, and local agencies, and public and private sector organizations in the United States. Funds may not be used for advocacy initiatives.

Funds May not be used for construction.

Program Descriptions

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

- Assistance is available for 12-month budget periods within project periods ranging from 1 to 5 years. After awards are issued, funds are released in accordance with the payment procedures established by the grantee institution with DHHS, which may be an Electronic Transfer System or a Monthly Cost Request System. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly.

Reports:
- Annual Progress Reports are submitted 90 days after the end of the budget period and covers budget period progress. Final Progress report which covers the project period is due 90 days after the end of the project period. Federal Financial Reports (FFR) is required 90 days after the end of each budget period. Semiannual or annual progress reports are required. Annual Progress reports and federal Financial Reports are required no later than 90 days after the end of each budget period. Final federal financial reports and performance reports are required 90 days after the end of a project period. The National Center on Birth Defects and Developmental Disabilities may propose on-site meetings, off-site or other processes for the exchange of information on progress toward objectives of collaborative activities. A plan of proposed activities is required annually. The reporting format and required report content details are specified in Notice of Funding Opportunity. Final federal financial reports and performance reports are required 90 days after the end of the project period. Cash reports are not applicable. Semiannual or annual progress reports are required.

Preapplication Coordination:
- Application coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
- 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. OMB Circular A-102 applies to this program. OMB Circular No. A-110 applies to this program. To apply for this Notice of Funding Opportunity, use application form PHS389 (OMB number 0925-0001 rev. 5/2001). Forms and instructions are available in an interactive format on the Grants.gov website. This program is subject to the provisions set forth in 45 CFR 92, for State and Local governments and OMB Circular No. A-110 for nonprofit organizations.

Award Procedure:
- After review and approval, a Notice of Award from the CDC Office of Grant Services (OGS) is prepared and signed by an authorized Grants Management Officer (GMO), and mailed to the recipient officer identified in the application, along with appropriate notification to the public. The initial award provides funds for the first budget period (usually 12 month) and Notice of Award indicates support recommended for the remainder of the project period, allocation of Federal funds by budget categories, and special conditions if any.
- Cooperative Agreement competitive and single eligibility awards are determined by an internal objective committee review process at CDC. Research project grant competitive awardees are determined by an external peer review. At such times, awards will be based on evaluation criteria set forth in the respective Program Announcement, the availability of funds, and such other significant factors as deemed necessary and appropriate by CDC. The notice of award will indicate financial support for the first budget year, allocations of Federal funds by budget category, and special conditions if any.

Deadlines:
- Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:
In general, applications are reviewed on the basis of scientific and technical merit, with attention given to such areas as (1) the degree to which the applicant satisfies the essential requirements and possesses other desired characteristics, such as depth, breadth, and merit of overall application relative to the types of projects proposed; (2) clarity of purpose and overall qualifications, adequacy and appropriateness of personnel to accomplish proposed prevention research projects and demonstration projects, and the nations health priorities and needs; (3) ability to generalize, translate and disseminate to State or local health departments, national regional, and local public health agencies and organizations; are reviewed based on evaluation criteria explicit in the respective Program Announcements. Applications must address demonstrated program need, the magnitude of the problem, the management work plan, collaborative associations, and the approach toward setting and meeting overall project objectives and time frames. These future competitive applications would also be evaluated on the capacity of the applicant to demonstrate effective collaborations with other agencies and data sources critical to preventing secondary conditions, identifying and addressing health promotion needs for persons with Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) and Tourette Syndrome (TS), denoting the capacity of the project to address minority and low income populations, Spanish speaking populations, co-occurring conditions, and offering sound proposals that reflect the understanding of the epidemiologic and surveillance research.

93.313 NIH OFFICE OF RESEARCH ON WOMEN'S HEALTH (NIH/ORWH)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
ORWH will identify projects on women's health that should be conducted or supported by national research institutes; identify multi-disciplinary research related to research on women’s health that should be conducted or supported; and promote coordination and collaboration among entities conducting research.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
To support research and other projects that will accelerate biomedical and behavioral discovery and translation of that knowledge into effective prevention strategies and new treatments. Awards are limited by availability of funds. Specific restrictions are outlined in each funding opportunity announcement.

Applicant Eligibility:
Awards can be made to domestic, public or private, non-profit or profit organization, university, hospital, laboratory, or other institution including state and local units of government and individuals. Some initiatives will accept applications from foreign organizations. Additional details on eligibility will be specified in the funding opportunity announcement.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
See information above.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applications must be submitted in compliance with instructions provided with each initiative. This program is excluded from coverage under OMB Circular A-87. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program.

Award Procedure:
Competitive peer reviewed applications are reviewed for scientific and technical merit by a scientific review group; and for program relevance by a national advisory council/board. Administrative supplements are reviewed for merit and relevance by NIH scientific staff.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 120 to 180 days.

Appeals:
A principal investigator may question the substantive or procedural aspects of his/her application by communication with the NIH scientific/research contact as provided in the initiative.

Renewals:
Administrative supplements are not renewable. Other programs may be renewable and applicants must review the funding opportunity announcement for further guidance.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Almost all awards are made for at least one year. Applicants should review to the specific funding opportunity announcement for further detail. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:
Program reports are not applicable. Cash reports are not applicable. Applicants must submit annual progress reports and selected financial reports. Final progress reports, invention statements and expenditure reports are required at the end of the project. Cash reports are not applicable. Expenditure reports are not applicable. Performance monitoring is not applicable. Expenditure reports are not applicable. Performance monitoring is not applicable.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:
Grantees must generally retain financial and programmatic records, supporting documents, statistical reports and all other records that are required by the terms of a grant or may reasonably be considered pertinent to a grant for a period of 3 years from the date the annual FSR is submitted. For awards under SNAP (other than those to foreign organizations and Federal institutions), the 3-year retention period will be calculated from the date the FSR is submitted. Those grantees must maintain the records pertinent to the entire competitive segment for 3 years from the date of submission of the annual FSR to NIH. Foreign organizations and Federal institutions must retain records for 3 years from the date of the annual FSR to NIH. See 45 CFR 75.361 for exceptions and qualifications to the 3-year retention requirement (e.g., if any litigation, claim, financial management review, or audit is started before the expiration of the 3-year period, the records must be retained until all litigation, claims or audit findings involving the records have been resolved and final action taken). Those sections also specify the retention period for other types of grant-related records, including F&A cost proposals and property records. In accordance with 45 CFR 75.364, the HHS Inspector General, the U.S. Comptroller General, or any of their duly authorized representatives have the right of timely and unrestricted access to any books, documents, papers, or other records of recipients that are pertinent to awards in order to make audits, examinations, excerpts, transcripts, and copies of such documents. This right also includes timely and reasonable access to a recipient’s personnel for the purpose of interview and discussion related to such documents. The rights of access are not limited to the required retention period, but shall last as long as records are retained.

93.314 EARLY HEARING DETECTION AND INTERVENTION INFORMATION SYSTEM (EHDI-IS) SURVEILLANCE PROGRAM

EHDI Information System

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services.

AUTHORIZATION:
Public Health Service Act, Sections 311, 317(k)(2), 317(C), and 399M(b).

OBJECTIVES:
The objective of this program is to assist EHDI programs in developing and maintaining a sustainable, centralized newborn hearing screening tracking and surveillance system capable of accurately identifying, matching, collecting, and reporting data on all occurrence births that is unduplicated and individually identifiable. Additionally, for those programs with fully developed EHDI information systems, program will enhance the electronic system capacity to collect data, and exchange data accurately, effectively, securely, and consistently between the EHDI-IS and Electronic Health Record Systems (HER-S).

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funds may be used to support to assist jurisdictional programs in developing and maintaining a sustainable, centralized EHDI Information Systems and to enhance electronic system capacity to collect data, ensure children receive recommended screening and follow-up services, and exchange data accurately, effectively, securely, and consistently between the EHDI-IS and Electronic Health Record Systems. Funds may be used to conduct applied research related to newborn and infant hearing screening, evaluation and intervention programs and systems. Funds may be used to ensure quality monitoring of newborn and infant hearing loss screening, evaluation, diagnosis, and intervention programs and systems. Funds may be used to provide technical assistance on data collection and management. Funds may be used to study the costs and effectiveness of newborn and infant hearing screening, evaluation and intervention programs and systems conducted by State-based programs. Funds may be used to identify the causes and risk factors for congenital hearing loss. Funds may be used to study the effectiveness of newborn and infant health screening, audiological and medical evaluations and intervention programs and systems by assessing the health, intellectual and social developmental, cognitive, and language status of these children at school age. Funds may be used to promote the sharing of data regarding early hearing loss with other monitoring programs. Funds may not be used for clinical care, purchase screening or diagnostic equipment, supplant funds available for screening, diagnosis, early intervention, or tracking for hearing lost or other disorders detected by newborn screening.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funds may be used to strengthen, expand, build upon or enhance research, surveillance, health promotion, education, and prevention/intervention activities that contribute to the mission and activities of the Division of Human Development and Disability. Funds may be used to improve and strengthen State and local public health infrastructure by providing technical assistance to other appropriate health agencies, organizations, special groups or coalitions. Funds may be used to support capacity building, program planning, development, implementation, evaluation, and surveillance for rare disorders and health outcomes, including related health promotion, education and training, and prevention/intervention. Funds may also be used to coordinate the dissemination of prevention information to the general public, target populations, state and local agencies, and public and private sector organizations in the United States. CDC will have substantial involvement with the award recipient during performance of the funded activity. Funds may not be used for direct curative or rehabilitative services. Seed Grants/Sub-Grants are not authorized under this program or included in Program authorizing legislation. As a result, the recipient is not permitted to fund seed grants or sub-grants. Recipient must issue proposed funding as a procurement requirement per the organizations established procedures.

Applicant Eligibility:
N/A.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
State: Local; Public nonprofit institution/organization; Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Governments; Individuals/Families affected by rare disorder/conditions; Private nonprofit institution/organizations, minority populations including Spanish speaking populations.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants should review the individual CDC Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO) document issued under this program for any required proof or certification that must be submitted prior to, or simultaneous with, submission of an application package. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Yes. All Notice of Funding Opportunity are published on www.grants.gov. Applicants must complete the Grants.gov registration process. Please see the following Grants.gov link for more information: http://www.grants.gov/applicants/get_registered.jsp. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Applicants must download the SF424 (R&R) application forms and SF424 (R&R) Application Guide for this requirement through Grants.gov/Apply. Only the forms package directly attached to a specific Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO) can be used. Applicants will not be able to use any other SF424 (R&R) forms (e.g., sample forms, forms from another NOFO) although some of the "Attachment" files may be useable for more than one FOA.

If an applicant does not have access to the Internet, or if they have difficulty accessing the forms online, contact the CDC Office of Grant Services, (770) 488-2700.

HHS/CDC Telecommunications for the hearing impaired: TTY 770-488-2783.

The standard application forms must be used for this program, as furnished by CDC and required by 45 CFR 92 for State and local governmental agencies, and by 45 CFR 74 for nongovernmental applicants. This program is subject to the provisions of 45 CFR 92 for State and local governments and 45 CFR 74 for nonprofit organizations.

Award Procedure:
Applications will be reviewed for completeness by the CDC Office of Grant Services (OGS) and for responsiveness by the National Center for Birth Defects and Developmental Disabilities (NCBDDD) and OGS. Incomplete applications and applications that are non-responsive to the eligibility criteria will not advance through the review process. Applicants will be notified the application did not meet submission requirements. Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Award (NOA) from the CDC Office of Grant Services. The NOA shall be the only binding, authorizing document between the recipient and CDC. The NOA will be signed by an authorized Grants Management Officer, and mailed to the recipient fiscal officer identified in the application. FOR RESEARCH GRANTS: Applications that are complete and responsive to the announcement will be evaluated for scientific and technical merit by an appropriate peer review group convened by NCBDDD in accordance with the review criteria stated below. All applications will undergo a selection process in which only those applications deemed to have the highest scientific merit, generally the top half of applications under review, will be discussed and assigned a priority score; receive a written critique; receive a second level of review by the Board of Scientific Counselors. FOR NON-RESEARCH GRANTS/COOPERATIVE AGREEMENTS: Applicants are required to provide measures of effectiveness that will demonstrate the accomplishment of the various identified objectives of the grant or cooperative agreement. Measures of effectiveness must relate to the performance goals stated in the "Purpose" section of the announcement. Measures must be objective and quantitative and must measure the intended outcome. The measures of effectiveness must be submitted with the application and will be an element of evaluation. An objective review panel will evaluate complete and responsive applications according to the criteria listed. The objective review process will follow the policy requirements as stated in the GPD 2.04, http://198.102.218.46/doc/gpd204.doc.

93.316 PUBLIC HEALTH PREPAREDNESS AND RESPONSE SCIENCE, RESEARCH, AND PRACTICE

Public Health Preparedness Science

FEDERAL AGENCY:

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

Public Health Service Act, Title 42, Part 247b, Section 317(k)(2).

OBJECTIVES:

The overall goal of this program is to conduct research and related public health preparedness and response (PHPPR) program activities to build the scientific evidence base for public health preparedness, response, and recovery (PHPRR). Scientific research that addresses PHPRR program priorities supports agency efforts to improve and enhance the nation’s health security. This program is intended to support this research, dissemination of research findings and products, translation of new science-based evidence to practice in the public health preparedness and response system, and the evaluation of effective application of science for improved practice as well as other programs, projects, or activities to advance preparedness science.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Cooperative Agreements; Project Grants (Contracts)

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Funds will be used to support public health preparedness and response science and research that may include: 1) conduct of applied interdisciplinary public health research designed to examine and strengthen the practices, functions, structure, capabilities, and performance of organizations involved in preparing for and responding to any and all potential public health threats and hazards; 2) develop, implement, and evaluate innovative strategies for disseminating and translating research findings, products, and knowledge for improving PHPRR systems, practices, and functions; 3) develop and execute proposals to implement evidence-based PHPRR practice interventions in conjunction with evaluation of the implementation and effectiveness of the intervention; 4) rapid response research that will inform ongoing response to and recovery from any disaster or public health emergency.

Recipients may only expend funds for reasonable public health preparedness, response, and recovery research, evaluation, dissemination, and translation activities, and program purposes, including personnel, travel, supplies, and services, such as contractual arrangements with practice partners, research partners, or consultants. Recipients may not use funds for clinical care. Recipients may not generally use funding for the purchase of furniture or equipment. Any such proposed spending must be identified in the budget. Funds may not be used for construction or renovation of buildings. The recipient must perform a substantial role in carrying out project objectives and not merely serve as a conduit for an award to another party or provider who is ineligible.

Applicant Eligibility:

Eligible applicants may include public and private nonprofit and for profit organizations and governments and their agencies, such as: public nonprofit organizations private nonprofit organizations, for-profit organizations, small, minority, women-owned businesses, universities, colleges, research institutions, hospitals, community-based organizations, faith-based organizations, Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Governments, Indian tribes, Indian tribal organizations, state and local governments or their bona fide agents (this includes the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, Guam, the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Republic of Palau), political subdivisions of states (in consultation with States).

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Eligible beneficiaries may include public and private nonprofit and for profit organizations and governments and their agencies, such as: public nonprofit organizations private nonprofit organizations, for-profit organizations, small, minority, women-owned businesses, universities, colleges, research institutions, hospitals, community-based organizations, faith-based organizations, Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Governments, Indian tribes, Indian tribal organizations, state and local governments or their bona fide agents (this includes the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, Guam, the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Republic of Palau), political subdivisions of states (in consultation with states).

Credentialed/Documentation:
Applicants should review the individual Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) funding opportunity announcement issued under this CFDA program for any proof of certifications which must be submitted prior to or simultaneous with submission of an application package. Applicants should document the need for assistance, state the objectives of the project, outline the method of operation, describe the evaluation procedures (where applicable) and provide a budget justification of funds requested. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Funding Opportunity Announcements for this program are posted on www.grants.gov, the official federal agency wide e-grant Web site. Application forms and instructions specific to each announcement are posted at that site. Organizations must submit applications via Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov/), the online portal to find and apply for grants across all Federal agencies. Applications must have a Dun and Bradstreet (D&B) Data Universal Numbering System number as the universal identifier when applying for Federal grants or cooperative agreements. The D&B number can be obtained by calling (866) 705-5711 or through the web site at http://www.dnb.com/us/

Award Procedure:
After review and approval of an application, as outlined in the FOA, successful applicants will receive a Notice of Grant Award (NGA) from the CDC Procurement and Grants Office. The NGA shall be the only binding, authorizing document between the recipient and CDC. The NGA will be signed by an authorized Grants Management Officer, and mailed to the recipient fiscal officer identified in the application.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Project periods are for 1 to 5 years with 12-month budget periods, as outlined in the FOA. Throughout the project period, CDC's commitment to continuation of awards will be conditioned on the availability of funds, evidence of satisfactory progress by the recipient (as documented in required reports), the determination that continued funding is in the best interest of the Federal Government, and any other specific considerations noted in the FOA.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Financial assistance is provided for 1 to 5 years with 12-month budget periods, subject to availability of funds and satisfactory progress of the grantee. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:
Equipment inventory (three months after end of project); invention statement (annual) and reprints and copies of resulting publications. Federal Financial Report cash transaction reports (FFR SF-425) must be filed in the Payment Management System (PMS) within 30 days of the end of each quarter. Interim progress report (annual); annual progress report, and final performance report (three months after end of project). Financial status reports (annual), no later than 90 days after the end of each specified period. Site visits performed as needed/required. Expenditure reports are not applicable. Bi-Annual and Annual.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. None.

Records:
Financial records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records pertinent to the grant program shall be retained for a minimum of 3 years, or until completion and resolution of any audit in process or pending resolution. In all cases records must be retained until resolution of any audit questions. Property records must be retained in accordance with PHS Grants Policy Statement requirements.

93.317 EMERGING INFECTIONS PROGRAMS

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services.

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of the Emerging Infections Programs (EIP) is to assist in local, state, and national efforts to prevent, control, and monitor the public health impact of infectious diseases. The EIP cooperative agreement was formed in 1995 as a key component of CDC’s national strategy to address and reduce emerging infectious disease (EID) threats. The EIP is a population-based network of state health agencies and their collaborators, including (but not limited to) academic institutions, local health departments, public health and clinical laboratories, infection control professionals, and healthcare providers. The network plays a critical role in conducting surveillance and applied epidemiologic and laboratory research, implementing and evaluating prevention and intervention projects, and responding quickly to new infectious disease issues. The unique strength of the EIP lies in the networks ability to quickly translate surveillance and research activities into informed policy and public health practice.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Recipients may only expend funds for reasonable program purposes, including personnel, travel, supplies, and services, such as contractual. Funding under this program will support activities that fall within the following general activities: (1) active surveillance; (2) applied public health epidemiologic and laboratory activities; (3) implementation and evaluation of pilot prevention/intervention projects; and (4) flexible response to public health emergencies. Activities: (1) address issues that the EIP network is particularly suited to investigate; (2) maintain sufficient flexibility for emergency response and new problems as they arise; (3) develop and evaluate public health interventions to inform public health policy and treatment guidelines; (4) incorporate training as a key function; and (5) prioritize projects that lead directly to the prevention of disease (http://wwwlink.cdc.gov/nccezid/depi/eip).

The full list of restrictions for this program are included in the published Funding Opportunity Announcement for this program. General restrictions that apply are as follows:

Awardees may not generally use HHS/CDC/ATSDR funding for the purchase of furniture or equipment. Any such proposed spending must be identified in the budget.

The direct and primary recipient in a cooperative agreement program must perform a substantial role in carrying out project objectives and not merely serve as a conduit for an award to another party or provider who is ineligible. Funds relating to the conduct of research will be restricted until the remainder of the project period, allocation of Federal funds by budget categories, and special conditions, if any.

Once competing applicants have been selected by the SEP review process for the first year of funding in the project period, those selected will be eligible to submit annual non-competitive continuation applications for each successive budget period of the project period.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days. Approval/disapproval information is typically provided to applicants within 90 to 120 days of the application due date.

 Allies:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Awards under this Program are typically issued for 1- to 5-year project periods. Renewals at the end of each project period are expected to be made available via publishing of a new/continuation FOA with a complete application and review/award process as described above. Annual renewals within an awarded multi-year project period are made via a non-competitive process and are subject to the availability of funding.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Financial assistance is available for a 12-month budget period within a 1- to 5-year project period. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:
Program reports are not applicable. No later than 10 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the recipients must submit a calendar quarter cash transaction report (SF-272 or top portion of the SF-425 Financial Report Form) to the Payment Management System (PMS). The reporting schedule will be based on the requirements listed in the EIP funding opportunity announcement. Funded applicants must provide CDC with an annual Interim Progress Report. Additionally, funded applicants must provide CDC with a Federal Financial Report (SF 425) no more than 90 days after the end of each budget period, and a final Performance and Federal Financial Report no more than 90 days after the end of the project period. All reports must be submitted to the Grants Management Specialist indicated in the NoA. Additional details regarding the reporting requirements for this program are included in the published Funding Opportunity Announcements. Federal Financial Reports (SF 425) are due no more than 90 days after the end of the budget period. Federal Financial Reports and Progress Reports are required per the reporting schedule listed in the EIP funding opportunity announcement.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:
Financial records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records pertinent to the grant program must be retained for a minimum of 3 years after the end of a budget period, or until completion and resolution of any audit in process or pending resolution. In all cases, records must be retained until resolution of any audit questions. Property records must be retained in accordance with 45 CFR 92.42.

An additional $18,092,700 was awarded under (PPHF) CFDA 93.521.

Range and Average of Financial Assistance:
Under this CFDA, awards typically range between $1.3M to $3M annually, with an average award of $2.4M.

TAFS Codes:
75.0949.

PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS:
Fiscal Year 2016: Only one grantee was awarded funds under this CFDA in FY 2016. Fiscal Year 2017: 11 applications were received for 2017. 10 awards were made. Fiscal Year 2018: No Current Data Available

REGULATIONS, GUIDELINES, AND LITERATURE:
Regulations governing this program are published in the specific Funding Opportunity Announcement and identified on the notices of award. Regulations are also published under 42 CFR 55b. EXAMPLES OF FUNDED PROJECTS:

Fiscal Year 2016: No Current Data Available Fiscal Year 2017: Activities for this program fall into the following general categories: (1) active surveillance; (2) applied public health epidemiologic and laboratory activities; (3) implementation and evaluation of pilot prevention/intervention projects; and (4) flexible response to public health emergencies. Activities: (1) address issues that the EIP network is particularly suited to investigate; (2) maintain sufficient flexibility for emergency response and new problems as they arise; (3) develop and evaluate public health interventions to inform public health policy and treatment guidelines; (4) incorporate training as a key function; and (5) prioritize projects that lead directly to the prevention of disease (http://wwwlink.cdc.gov/ncezid/dpe/default.htm).

Activities include conducting active, population-based surveillance and special studies for invasive bacterial diseases, foodborne pathogens, healthcare associated infections (HAIs), influenza, and many other infectious diseases.

Fiscal Year 2018: Same as 2017.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:
Applications are reviewed against specific Evaluation Criteria published in the Funding Opportunity Announcement for this program. Evaluation Criteria in the most recently published FOA include: (1) capacity to perform core functions of an EIP, (2) proposed operational plan for carrying out the specific objectives of the program, and (3) measures of effectiveness.

93.318 PROTECTING AND IMPROVING HEALTH GLOBALLY:
BUILDING AND STRENGTHENING PUBLIC HEALTH IMPACT, SYSTEMS, CAPACITY AND SECURITY

Global Health

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Public Health Service Act sections 301(a) and 307, as amended,42 U.S.C. 241 and 242.

OBJECTIVES:
CDC’s global health efforts are to assist Ministries of Health and other international partners to plan, manage effectively, and evaluate public health programs; achieve U.S. Government program and international organization goals to improve health, including disease eradication and elimination targets; expand CDC’s global health programs that focus on the leading causes of worldwide mortality, morbidity and disability, including chronic disease and injuries; generate and apply new knowledge to achieve health goals and; strengthen health systems and their impact.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Support the implementation of programs and activities focusing on protecting and improving health globally through regional, national, and local partnerships to develop, implement and strengthen public health surveillance, health information systems (including monitoring and evaluation), public health laboratory capacity, workforce development, as well as systems and capacities for the prevention, detection, response, and control of infectious and non-communicable diseases, injury prevention efforts and public health emergencies. Support must also be aimed at building upon existing public health infrastructure focusing on country priorities that are of mutual interest to CDC in order to strengthen regional and national partnerships, public health capacity, leadership, strategic collaboration and integrated health programming through national ministries of health, national public health networks and inter-sectorial co-operation and collaborations with other health organizations, academic institutions and community groups as appropriate to accomplish program activities. In addition, projects must also consider monitoring and evaluation of overall program performance and the progress of projects or activities. Recipients may not use funds for clinical care. Recipients may only expend funds for reasonable program purposes, including personnel, travel, supplies, and services, such as contractual. Awards may not generally use HHS/CDC/ATSDR funding for the purchase of furniture or equipment. Any such proposed spending must be identified in the budget. The direct and primary recipient in a cooperative agreement program must perform a substantial role in carrying out project objectives and not merely serve as a conduit for an award to another party or provider who is ineligible. Reimbursement of pre-award costs is not allowed.

Applicant Eligibility:
Dependent on the FOA, eligibility may range from open, competitive, limited, or single eligibility in accordance with authorizing legislation.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
This will benefit individuals worldwide, including in the U.S., through collaborations with national Ministries of Health and other organizations/institutions. This is only for non-research activities supported by CDC/ATSDR. For the definition of research, please see http://www.cdc.gov/od/science/quality/resources.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants should document the need for assistance, state objectives of the project, address the background, approach strategies and evaluation methods of the project/program, and provide a budget with justification of funds. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program.

Award Procedure:
Eligible applicants will be reviewed for completeness by CDC'S Procurement and Grants Office (PGO) staff. In addition, eligible applicants will be jointly reviewed for responsiveness by CDC and PGO. Incomplete applicants will be notified that the application did not meet eligibility and/or published submission requirements.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 60 to 90 days.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
From 60 to 90 days. Renewals will require a yearly continuation application based upon availability of funds and programmatic compliance.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Financial assistance is available for a 12 month budget period, within five-year project period. As specified in the Notice of Award: Lump sum upon completing program activities. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:
Per Funding Opportunity Announcement Part II: Reporting - No cash reports are required. Awardees must submit one report per year; ongoing performance measures data, administrative reports, and a final performance and financial report. The Annual Performance Report (due 120 days before the end of the budget period and serves as continuation application.) Preapproved budge tracking and reconciliation as part of Progress Report. Performance Measures (including outcomes) - Awardee must report on performance measures for each budget period and update measures, if needed.

Performance Measure Reporting: Awardee is required to submit performance measures at least annually. CDC may require more frequent reporting of performance measures. Performance measure reporting should be limited to the collection and reporting of data. No cash reports are required. No progress reports are required. No expenditure reports are required. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. In accordance with the provisions of OMB Circular No. A-133 (Revised, June 27, 2003), "Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations," nonfederal entities that expend financial assistance of $500,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a programs-specific audit conducted for that year. Nonfederal entities that expend less than $500,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in Circular No. A-133.

93.310 OUTREACH PROGRAMS TO REDUCE THE PREVALENCE OF OBESITY IN HIGH RISK RURAL AREAS

High Risk Obesity

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
This program is authorized under section 301(a) and 317(k) Public Health Service Act, 42 U.S. Code 241(a) and 247b(k).

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of this project is to assist Land-Grant institutions to conduct pilot programs through existing extension and outreach services to enhance and expand efforts to combat the prevalence of obesity in areas where the problem expands. The project will benefit individuals worldwide, including in the U.S., through collaborations with national Ministries of Health and other organizations/institutions. This is only for non-research activities supported by CDC/ATSDR. For the definition of research, please see http://www.cdc.gov/od/science/quality/resources.
Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula.
This program has no matching requirements.
Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Five Year Project Period. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.
Reports:
Semi-annual reports from each entity awarded a grant, cooperative agreement, or contract, summarizing the activities undertaken and identifying any sub-grants or sub-contracts awarded (including the purpose of the award and the identity of the recipient), to be posted not later than 30 days after the end of each 6-month period. No cash reports are required. Reporting provides continuous program monitoring and identifies successes and challenges that awardees encounter throughout the project period. Also, reporting is a requirement for awardees who want to apply for yearly continuation of funding.
Awardees must submit an Annual Performance Report via www.grants.gov 120 days before the end of each budget period. The report must not exceed 45 pages excluding administrative reporting; attachments are not allowed, but Web links are allowed. This report must include the following: performance measures, evaluation results, work plan, successes, challenges, CDC program support needs, and administrative reporting. The annual FFR form (SF-425) is required and must be submitted through eRA Commons within 90 days after each budget period ends. The report must include only those funds authorized and disbursed during the timeframe covered by the report. The final report must indicate the exact balance of unobligated funds, and may not reflect any unliquidated obligations. The final FFR expenditure data and the Payment Management Systems (PMS) cash transaction data must correspond; no discrepancies between the data sets are permitted. Failure to submit the required information by the due date may affect adversely the future funding of the project. If the information cannot be provided by the due date, awardees are required to submit a letter of explanation and include the date by which the information will be provided. Awardees must provide a more detailed evaluation and performance measurement plan within the first six months of the project. This more detailed plan must be developed by awardees as part of first-year project activities, with support from CDC. This more detailed plan must build on the elements stated in the initial plan, and must be no more than 25 pages. Awardees are required to submit performance measures annually as a minimum, and may require reporting more frequently. Performance measure reporting is limited to data collection. When funding is awarded initially, CDC programs will specify required reporting frequency, data fields, and format.
Audits:
Not Applicable.
Records:
Financial records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records pertinent to the project must be kept readily available for review by personnel authorized to examine PHS grant accounts. Records must be maintained for a minimum of 3 years after the end of a budget period. If questions still remain, such as those raised as a result of an audit, records must be retained until completion or resolution of any audit in process or pending resolution. Property records must be retained in accordance with PHS Grants Policy Statement requirements.

DIETARY SUPPLEMENT RESEARCH PROGRAM
FEDERAL AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
The NIH Office of Dietary Supplements will identify projects that should be conducted or supported by national research institutes; identify multi-disciplinary research related to dietary supplements that should be conducted or supported; and promote coordination and collaboration among entities conducting research.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements; Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
To support research and other projects that strengthen knowledge and understanding of dietary supplements and translation of that knowledge into effective prevention strategies. Awards are limited by availability of funds. Specific restrictions are outlined in each funding opportunity announcement.

Applicant Eligibility:
Awards can be made to domestic, public or private, non-profit or profit organization, institution of higher learning, university, hospital, laboratory, or other institution including state and local units of government and tribal entities. Some initiatives will accept applications from foreign organizations. Additional details on eligibility will be specified in the funding opportunity announcement.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Institutions as described above.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applications must be submitted in compliance with instructions provided with each initiative. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program.

Award Procedure:
Competitive peer reviewed applications are reviewed for scientific and technical merit by a scientific review group; and for program relevance by a national advisory council/board. Administrative supplements are reviewed for merit and relevance by NIH scientific staff.

Deadlines:
Not Applicable.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 120 to 180 days.

Appeals:
A principal investigator may question the substantive or procedural aspects of his/her application by communication with the NIH scientific/research contact as provided in the initiative.

Renewals:
Administrative supplements are not renewable. Other programs may be renewable and applicants must review the funding opportunity announcement for further guidance.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Almost all awards are made for at least one year. Applicants should refer to the specific funding opportunity announcement for further detail. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:
Applicants must submit annual progress reports and a final closeout progress report. A final invention statement and Certification is also required at the end of the project. SF425 cash reports must be submitted on a quarterly basis. Applicants must submit annual progress reports and a final closeout progress report. A final SF425 expenditure report is required at the end of the project. Progress reports will be monitored annually.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:
Grantees must generally retain financial and programmatic records, supporting documents, statistical reports and all other records that are required by the terms of a grant or may reasonably be considered pertinent to a grant for a period of 3 years from the date the annual FSR is submitted. For awards under SNAP (other than those to foreign organizations and Federal institutions), the 3-year retention period will be calculated from the date the FSR is submitted. Those grantees must maintain the records pertinent to the entire competitive segment for 3 years from the date of submission of the annual FSR to NIH. Foreign organizations and Federal institutions must retain records for 3 years from the date of the annual FSR to NIH. Office of Dietary Supplements will adhere to the requirements specified in 45 CFR 75, specifically:
75.361 - Retention requirements for records.
75.362 - Requests for transfer or records.
75.363 - Methods for collection, transmission and storage of information.
75.364 - Access to records.
75.365 - Restrictions on public access to records.

93.322 CSELS PARTNERSHIP: STRENGTHENING PUBLIC HEALTH LABORATORIES
Laboratory Leadership, Workforce Training and Management Development

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Public Health Service Act, Section 317(k)(2), 42 U.S.C 247b(k)(2) as amended.

OBJECTIVES:
The activities under this cooperative agreement are aligned with the following Healthy People 2020 overarching objectives: Global Health, Environmental Health, Food Safety, Immunizations and Infectious Diseases, Sexually Transmitted Diseases, HIV, Health Communication and Health Information Technology, Preparedness, Public Health Infrastructure, and Occupational Safety and Health.

The major objective is to enhance and strengthen the work and functionality of public health laboratories both domestically and abroad. The overarching goal is to improve several aspects of public health laboratories. These areas include the following: improving public health laboratory infrastructure, increasing the capacity through workforce development, promoting quality laboratory practices, expanding and improving health security, promoting and supporting informatics, and enhancing communication linkages.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Project funds may be used for costs associated with planning, organizing, conducting, and supporting public health laboratory infrastructure programs, and for the implementation of other program elements as described in Section 050 above.

The purpose of the program is to enhance the work of public health laboratories in the U.S. and abroad. The program aims to promote quality public health laboratory practice, improve public health laboratory infrastructure, strengthen the public health laboratory system, and to develop a well-trained public health laboratory workforce in the U.S. and globally. It also aims to ensure laboratory preparedness for emerging infectious diseases or other biologic and chemical public health threats, promote technology transfer to ensure up-to-date technologies for the testing laboratory, and enhance communication linkages between state and local public health laboratories and the clinical laboratory testing community. Improvement of public health laboratory infrastructure, state-of-the-art training for the nation's laboratories to be prepared in dealing with public health threats, improving laboratory leadership capabilities, enhancing inter-laboratory communications and provide programmatic and technical support to other focus areas including policy, emergency preparedness, global health, informatics and professional development. Project funds may be used for costs associated with planning, organizing, conducting, and supporting public health laboratory infrastructure programs, and for the implementation of other program elements as described in Section 050 above. There are restrictions to the use of funds on construction.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Applicants must have experience with enhancing and strengthening the work and functionality of public health laboratories both domestically and abroad. The overarching goal is to improve several aspects of public health laboratories. The nation's public is the ultimate recipient of benefits from this program.

Credentials/Documentation:
Costs will be determined in accordance with OMB Circular No. A-87 for State and local governments. For all other nonprofit grantees, cost will be determined in accordance with HHS Regulations 45 CFR 74 Subpart Q. For-profit organizations' costs are determined in accordance with the Federal Acquisition Regulations, 48 CFR 31. OMB Circular No. A-87 applies to this program. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. A letter of intent is required for this funding opportunity agreement.

To apply for this funding opportunity use application form PHS 5161. Application forms and instructions are available on www.grants.gov and/or the CDC web site, at the following Internet address: www.cdc.gov/od/pgo/forminfo.htm. If you do not have access to the Internet, or if you have difficulty accessing the forms on-line, you may contact the CDC Procurement and Grants Office Technical Information Management Section (PGO-TIM) staff at: 770-488-2700. Application forms can be mailed to you.

Award Procedure:
Applications will be evaluated for completeness and responsiveness by the agency program and CDC Procurement and Grants Office (PGO). CDC will not review incomplete and non-responsive applications. After review and approval, a notice of grant award (NoA) will be prepared and processed, along with appropriate notification to the public. Initial award provides funds for the first budget period (usually 12 months) and the NoA will indicate support recommended for the remainder of the project period, allocation of Federal funds by budget categories, and special conditions, if any.

In general, the review and selection process of complete and responsive applications to the FOA consists of determination of the scientific and technical merit by objective or peer review, availability of funds, and relevance of program priorities and the priorities of DHHS. Refer to the FOA for additional review criteria. The budget is not scored.

93.323 EPIDEMIOLOGY AND LABORATORY CAPACITY FOR INFECTIOUS DISEASES (ELC)

ELC FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services.

AUTHORIZATION:
Public Health Service Act Sections 301(a)[42 U.S.C. 241(a)] and 317(k)(2)[42 U.S.C. 247b(k)(2)].

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of this program is to protect the public health and safety of the American people by enhancing the capacity of public health agencies to effectively detect, respond, prevent and control known and emerging (or re-emerging) infectious diseases. This is accomplished by providing financial and technical resources to (1) strengthen epidemiologic capacity; (2) enhance laboratory capacity; (3) improve information systems; and (4) enhance collaboration among epidemiology, laboratory, and information systems components of public health departments. Activities may include those that enable a public health organization to establish and maintain a capable and qualified workforce, achieve modern and well-equipped public health laboratories, implement project funds may be used for costs associated with planning, organizing, and health information systems.

Federal Financial Assistance (FA) and Direct Assistance (DA) are authorized. Financial and technical resources are intended to be utilized for non-research activities that (1) strengthen epidemiologic capacity; (2) enhance laboratory capacity; (3) improve information systems; and (4) enhance collaboration among epidemiology, laboratory, and information systems components of public health departments. Activities may include those that enable a public health organization to establish and maintain a capable and qualified workforce, achieve modern and well-equipped public health laboratories, implement project funds may be used for costs associated with planning, organizing, and health information systems.

Federal Financial Assistance (FA) and Direct Assistance (DA) are authorized. Project funds may be used for costs associated with planning, organizing, and the implementation of other program elements to build public health epidemiology, laboratory, and health information systems capacity. Recipients may only expend funds for reasonable program purposes, including personnel, travel, supplies, and services (e.g., contractual support). Funds may not be used for research or clinical care. Generally, awardees may not use funds to purchase furniture. Other than for normal and recognized executive-legislative relationships, no funds may be used for (1) publicity or propaganda purposes, for the preparation, distribution, or use of any material designed to support or defeat the enactment of legislation before any legislative body, or (2) the salary or expenses of any grant or contract recipient, or agent acting for such recipient, related to any activity designed to influence the enactment of legislation, appropriations, regulations, administrative action, or Executive order proposed or pending before any legislative body. (See Additional Requirement (AR) 12 for detailed guidance on this prohibition and additional guidance on lobbying for CDC awardees). Funds awarded to grantees are fully discretionary and funding levels are determined each fiscal year.

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligible applicants consist of state, local, and U.S. territory/possession governments currently funded under CDC-RFA-C110-1012 or CDC-RFA-C1201. Specifically, these include: all 50 states, Washington, D.C., 5 largest local health departments (Chicago, Illinois; Houston, Texas; Los Angeles, California; New York City, New York; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania); the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; the Virgin Islands, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, Guam, the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Republic of Palau or their bona fide agents. Beneficiary Eligibility:
Direct beneficiaries include all 50 states, Washington, D.C., 5 largest local health departments (Chicago, Illinois; Houston, Texas; Los Angeles, California; New York City, New York; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania), the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, Guam, the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Republic of Palau or their bona fide agents.

Credentials/Documentation:
Allowable costs will be determined in accordance with OMB Circular No. A-87 for State, Local, and Indian Tribal governments. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372. "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Award Procedure:
Applications that are complete and responsive will be evaluated for scientific and technical merit and receive support. CDC will not review incomplete and non-responsive applications. Applications that are complete and responsive will undergo an objective review process, receive a written critique and be scored according to the published review criteria. Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Award (NOA) from the CDC Procurement and Grants Office. The NOA shall be the only binding, authorizing document between the recipient and CDC. The NOA will be signed by an authorized Grants Management Officer. Initial award provides funds for the first budget period (usually 12 months) and the NOA will indicate support recommended for the remainder of the project period, allocation of Federal funds by budget categories, and special conditions, if any.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days.

93.324 STATE HEALTH INSURANCE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

SHIP FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Community Living, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2014 (Public Law 113-76) Section 4360 of Public Law 101-508 (42 USC 1995b-4)
42 CFR Ch. IV Subpart E Beneficiary Counseling and Assistance Grants, Public Law 113-76.

Website Address:
Public Law 113-76.

OBJECTIVES:
To provide information, counseling, and assistance relating to obtaining adequate and appropriate health insurance coverage to individuals eligible to receive benefits under the Medicare program.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
A State shall submit a plan for a State-wide SHIP program. Such program shall
A) Establish or improve upon a health insurance information, counseling, and assistance program that provides counseling and assistance to eligible individuals in need of health insurance information, including:
   i) Information that may assist individuals in obtaining benefits and filing claims under titles XVIII and XIX of the Social Security Act;
   ii) Policy comparison information for Medicare supplemental policies (as described in section 1882(g)(1) of the Social Security Act) and information that may assist individuals in filing claims under Medicare supplemental policies;
   iii) Information regarding other types of health insurance benefits that the Secretary determines to be appropriate;
B) In conjunction with the health insurance information, counseling, and assistance program described in subparagraph (A), establish a system of referral to appropriate Federal or State departments or agencies for assistance with problems related to health insurance coverage (including legal problems), as determined by the Secretary;
C) Provide for a sufficient number of staff positions (including volunteer positions) necessary to provide the services of the health insurance information, counseling, and assistance program;
D) Provide assurances that staff members (including volunteer staff members) of the health insurance information, counseling, and assistance program have no conflict of interest in providing the counseling described in subparagraph (A); E) Provide for the collection and dissemination of timely and accurate health care information to staff members; F) Provide for training programs for staff members (including volunteer staff members); G) Provide for the coordination of the exchange of health insurance information between the staff of departments and agencies of the State government and the staff of the health insurance information, counseling, and assistance program; H) Make recommendations concerning consumer issues and complaints related to the provision of health care to agencies and departments of the State government and the Federal Government responsible for providing or regulating health insurance; I) Establish an outreach program to provide the health insurance information and counseling described in subparagraph (A) and the referrals described in subparagraph (B) to eligible individuals; and J) Demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Secretary, an ability to provide the counseling and assistance required under this section. Funds may not be used for construction and/or renovation of buildings, basic research (e.g. scientific or medical experiments), continuation of existing projects without expansion of existing services, and pre-award costs. For any available grant funds in excess of $10,000,000, distribution of grants will be at the discretion of ACL, and will be made according to the criteria communicated to the States via grant solicitation.

Applicant Eligibility:
Grants or cooperative agreements may be made to States and U.S. Territories with approved State regulatory programs under section 1882 of the Social Security Act.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Individuals eligible for Medicare benefits, including Part D drug benefits, and older persons eligible for benefits and services provided under Medicare, their families, and caregivers.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants must submit a signed commitment from the State to carry out the health insurance information, counseling, and assistance program as described in the funding announcement. Applicants should present written evidence of other agencies willingness to cooperate when the project involves collaborative efforts of the utilization of non-ACL facilities or services. OMB Circular No. A-87 applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards.

Award Procedure:
Application forms are submitted through a centralized depository and received by the awarding agency Administration for Community Living. Applicants generally apply under a program announcement indicating all the necessary application procedures to be followed.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 60 to 90 days.

Appeals:
No formal appeals procedures. If an application is disapproved, the reasons for the disapproval will be fully stated. In the case of solicited proposals, extensions may be allowed to prepare revisions which clarify various aspects of projects.

Renewals:
If a grant/cooperative agreement application is recommended for approval for 2 or more years, the award may be requested to annually submit a formal request for continuation accompanied by progress report which will be evaluated prior to a recommendation of continuation.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory Formula: Title 42 CFR, Chapter IV, Subpart E, Public Law 403.505. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Grants/cooperative agreements are generally funded on a 12 month basis, with support beyond the first year contingent upon acceptable evidence of satisfactory progress, continuing program relevance, and availability of funds. Method of awarding/releasing funds: Payment Management System. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: by letter of credit.

Reports:
The reporting cycle will be reflected in the Notice of Award. The ACL program progress report is due semi-annually from the start date of the award and is due within 30 days of the reporting period end date. The suggested content and format for these reports will be available to the grantees during post award administration.

A State that receives a SHIP grant shall, not later than 180 days after receiving such grant, and annually thereafter during the period of the grant, issue a report to the Secretary that includes information concerning:
1) The number of individuals served by the SHIP of such State;
2) An estimate of the amount of funds saved by the State, and by eligible individuals in the State, in the implementation of such program; and
3) The problems that eligible individuals in such State encounter in procuring adequate and appropriate health care coverage. Grantees are required to submit quarterly cash transaction reports (SF-425) to the Division of Payment Management. Semi-annual progress reports will be required. SF-425 Federal financial report will be required to report on expenditures. A final report will be due 90 days after the project period has ended. Interim reports for each budget period will be due as denoted in the award terms and conditions. Grantees will be expected to develop a quality assurance plan including performance indicators and a process for ongoing performance monitoring.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. In accordance with the provisions of Subpart F-Audit Requirements, under 45 CFR Part 75.500, nonfederal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Nonfederal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year. Except as noted in 45 CFR Part 75.500.

Records:
Proper accounting records, identifiable by project number and including all receipts and expenditures, must be maintained for 3 years from the submission date of the final FFR document. Subsequent to audit, they must be maintained until all questions are resolved.

DRUG REDUCTION GRANTS FOR DOMESTIC VICTIMS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
The DVHT Program has the following objectives: 1) Conduct community assessments with the goal to build capacity, create partnerships, and deliver comprehensive, quality services to domestic victims; 2) Develop, strengthen, and expand comprehensive victim-centered services and case management at the community level for domestic victims; 3) Address the immediate and long-term needs of domestic victims through a continuum of flexible housing supports, including emergency and transitional housing; 4) Identify, provide, or refer victims to behavioral health and substance abuse treatments services; and 5) Integrate survivor engagement in their case management and service delivery strategies for victims.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements; Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
The Domestic Victims of Human Trafficking (DVHT) program funds time-limited comprehensive case management services to domestic victims of trafficking. Eligible recipients for DVHT program services include United States citizens and lawful permanent residents in select states by leveraging existing systems, filling in service gaps, and building capacity of direct service providers. Under the DVHT Program, OTP requires a comprehensive case management approach that uses trauma-informed and victim-centered models. Comprehensive, quality services to domestic victims are provided, but are not limited to referrals, emergency assistance (such as food, clothing, and shelter), and support to gain access to housing, employability services, mental health screening and therapy, medical care, and some legal services. Health screening and medical care must include treatment for sexually transmitted infections, family planning services, and the full range of legally permissible gynecological and obstetric care, including, but not limited to, exams, tests, pre-natal services, and non-directive health-related counseling. Applicant Eligibility:
Eligible organizations include: state governments, tribes, units of local government, and non-profit, non-federal organizations that are victim services organizations. Victim service organizations include those who by nature of their current operations serve victims of sexual assault, sexual violence, domestic violence, human trafficking, and youth homelessness. Victim services organizations may also include faith-based organizations that are addressing human trafficking in their services. Individuals (including sole proprietorships) and foreign entities are not eligible.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Eligible recipients for DVHT program services include United States citizens and lawful permanent residents.

Credentials/Documentation:
Funding available under this catalog number is subject to requirements of 2 CFR 200 of the Uniform Guidance (effective January 1, 2016). HHS is required to review and consider information about applicants that is in the Federal Awarder Performance and Integrity Information System (FAPIIS). All applicants must have a DUNS number, register in the SAM, submit an application, and an active SAM registration. Documentation delineated in the Funding Opportunity Announcement must be submitted at the time of submission of an application for funding. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards apply to this program. Each application submitted under this program announcement will undergo a pre-review to determine if (1) the application was received by the closing date and submitted in accordance with the instructions in this announcement and (2) the applicant is eligible for funding.

Award Procedure:
Applications that pass the initial Administration for Children and Families (ACF) screening will be evaluated and rated by an independent review panel on the basis of specific criteria that are included Funding Opportunity Announcement. The evaluation criteria are designed to assess the quality of a proposed project and to determine likelihood of its success. Further, the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000, the National Security Presidential Directing on Combating Trafficking in Persons (NSPD-22), and the March 2012 Statement by the President on the Meeting of the Interagency Task Force to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons call for strengthened and effective coordination of U.S. government anti-trafficking efforts. To improve U.S. government coordination, the Trafficking Victims Protection Reauthorization Act of 2003 established the Senior Policy Operating Group (SPOG) and requires each department or agency represented on the SPOG to share all information with [the SPOG] regarding the department or agencies plans, before and after final agency decisions are made, on all matters relating to grants, grant policies, and other significant actions regarding the international trafficking in persons. 22 U.S.C. 7105(g)(4). Regulations implementing the Trafficking Victims Protection Act call on the SPOG to establish appropriate mechanisms to effect such information sharing. 22 C.F.R. 104.2. This program is exempt from E.O. 12372, which requires advance notification to Congress of awards.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days. Contact the Administration for Children and Families, Office of Grants Management or review the Funding Opportunity Announcement, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Appeals:
No appeals will be considered for applications classified as late. Further, the decision not award a grant, or award a grant at a particular funding level is discretionary and is not subject to appeal to any operating division or HHS official or board. (Section I-31 of the HHS Grants Policy Statement.

Renewals:
An applicant requesting additional funding for a period subsequent to that provided by a current award must compete with all other applications and must be developed as fully as though the applicant is applying for the first time.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula.
Matching Requirements: Percent: 25%. While this program has no statutory formula, there is a 25% matching requirement. The match may be met through cash or in-kind contributions. This program does not have MOE requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
The Federal share of a grant awarded under this paragraph may not exceed 75 percent of the total costs of the projects described in the application submitted by the grantee. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: Reimbursement based on actual expenses. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Method of awarding/releasing assistance: Reimbursement based on actual expenses.

Reports:
Performance progress reports are required on a semi-annual basis. Final program reports summarizing the activities and accomplishments of the project in relation to the approved goals and objectives are also required 90 days after the end of the project period. Federal Financial Reports (SF-425) are due on a semi-annual basis and a financial report is due to the HHS Division of Payment Management on a quarterly basis. Final financial reports are also required 90 days after the end of the project period. Performance monitoring will be conducted by desk monitoring and on-site visits. Additionally, recipients are expected to participate in cluster meetings, and other training and technical assistance opportunities. No cash reports are required. 93.328 NATIONAL IMPLEMENTATION AND DISSEMINATION FOR CHRONIC DISEASE PREVENTION

National Organizations

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
This program is authorized under sections 317(k)(2) of the Public Health Service Act, [42 U.S.C. Section 247b(k)(2)], as amended.

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of this three-year cooperative agreement or Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) is to support national organizations and their chapters/affiliates (sub-recipients) coalitions in implementing Socio-Ecological Model informed multi-level approaches (i.e., individual, interpersonal, organizational, community, societal) to improve communities health. This project builds upon the Division of Community Healths (DCH) history of working with national organizations to provide financial resources, guidance, training, tools, and other assistance to local organizations interested in creating communities where all people can achieve optimal health. This new FOA will allow awardees to implement multi-level strategies that address the greatest predictors of chronic disease (i.e. heart disease, stroke, diabetes, and obesity), namely tobacco use and exposure, poor nutrition, physical inactivity, and lack of access to prevention, risk reduction and chronic disease management opportunities. Additionally, awardees will work closely together to coordinate strategies and technical assistance to maximize their collective impact, increase national and local awareness of DCHs work, and ensure that identified communities.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Applicants must adhere to all CDC guidelines regarding allowable and unallowable expenses.

Applicant Eligibility:
1. Eligible Applicants:
This cooperative agreement is limited to national organizations (to include public and private nonprofit organizations) that serve communities across the nation. Category A and B organizations must demonstrate evidence of having members, affiliates and/or chapters within twenty-five (25) or more U.S. states and territories). Category A applicants must also demonstrate a minimum of five (5) years of experience and evidence with implementing community level improvements. For Category B, eligible organizations must demonstrate a minimum of five (5) years of experience in providing training and technical assistance that built communities capacity to implement local-level efforts. Category B applicants must also demonstrate experience in collaborating across multiple partners to deliver training and technical assistance.

Category A and B applicants must also provide supporting evidence (e.g., media reports, news/magazine articles, op-eds, community newsletters) as evidence of possessing the following desired characteristics: &amp;#61607; Have historical credibility and influence in their targeted communities (i.e., has developed and participated in community coalitions, events, and other activities Possess the demonstrated ability to influence a national dialogue. (i.e., the organization has the ability to garner the attention and participation of other national organizations and audiences). &amp;#61607; Have a demonstrated variety of existing communication platforms assistance: lump sum.

Reports:

Reporting provides continuous program monitoring and identities successes and challenges that awardees encounter throughout the project period. Also, reporting is a requirement for awardees who want to apply for yearly continuation of funding. Reporting helps CDC and awardees because it:

Helps target support to awardees, particularly for cooperative agreements;
Provides CDC with periodic data to monitor awardee progress towards meeting the FOA outcomes and overall performance;

Enables CDC to assess the overall effectiveness and influence of the FOA.

As described in the following text, awardees must submit an annual performance report, ongoing performance measures data, administrative reports, and a final performance and financial report. A detailed explanation of any additional reporting requirements will be provided in the Notice of Award to successful applicants.

a. Specific reporting requirements:

i. Awardee Evaluation and Performance Measurement Plan: Awardees must provide a more detailed evaluation and performance measurement plan within the first six months of the project. This more detailed plan must be developed by awardees as part of first-year project activities, with support from CDC. This more detailed plan must build on the elements stated in the initial plan, and must be no more than 25 pages. At a minimum, and in addition to the elements of the initial plan, this plan must:

* Indicate the frequency that evaluation and performance data are to be collected.
* Describe how data will be reported.
* Describe how evaluation findings will be used to ensure consistent quality and program improvement.
* Describe how evaluation and performance measurement will yield findings that will demonstrate the value of the FOA (e.g., effect on improving public health outcomes, effectiveness of FOA as it pertains to performance measurement, cost-effectiveness, or cost-benefit).
* Describe dissemination channels and audiences (including public dissemination).

Describe other information requested and as determined by the CDC program.

When developing evaluation and performance measurement plans, applicants are encouraged to use the Introduction to Program Evaluation for Public Health Programs: A Self-Study Guide, available at:

ii. Annual Performance Report: This report must not exceed 30 pages excluding administrative reporting; attachments are not allowed, but Web links are
Program Descriptions 2.394 October 2017

The awardee must submit the Annual Performance Report via www.grants.gov 120 days before the end of the budget period. In addition, the awardee must submit an annual Federal Financial Report within 90 days after the end of the calendar quarter in which the budget year ends.

This report must include the following:
Performance Measures (including outcomes)Awardees must report on performance measures for each budget period and update measures, if needed.
Evaluation ResultsAwardees must report evaluation results for the work completed to date (including any data about the effects of the program).
Work Plan Awardees must update work plan each budget period.

Successes
Awardees must report progress on completing activities outlined in the work plan.
Awardees must describe any additional successes (e.g., identified through evaluation results or lessons learned) achieved in the past year.
Awardees must describe success stories.

Challenges
Awardees must describe any challenges that might affect their ability to achieve annual and project-period outcomes, conduct performance measures, or complete the activities in the work plan.
Awardees must describe any additional challenges (e.g., identified through evaluation results or lessons learned) encountered in the past year.

CDC Program Support to Awardees
Awardees must report how CDC could help them overcome challenges to achieving annual and project-period outcomes and performance measures, and completing activities outlined in the work plan.

Administrative Reporting (No page limit)
SF-424A Budget Information-Non-Construction Programs.
Budget Narrative uses the format outlined in Content and Form of Application Submission, Budget Narrative section.

Indirect Cost-Rate Agreement.

For Year 2 and beyond of the award, awardees may request that unobligated funds be carried over to the next budget year.
The carryover request must:
Express a bona fide need for permission to use an unobligated balance;
Include a signed, dated, and accurate Federal Financial Report (FFR) for the budget period from which funds will be transferred (as much as 75% of unobligated balances); and Include a list of proposed activities, an itemized budget, and a narrative justification for those activities.

The awardee must submit the Annual Performance Report via www.grants.gov 120 days before the end of the budget period.

iii. Performance Measure Reporting: CDC programs must require awardees to submit performance measures annually as a minimum, and may require reporting more frequently. Performance measure reporting must be limited to data collection. When funding is awarded initially, CDC programs must specify required reporting frequency, data fields, and format.

iv. Federal Financial Reporting (FFR): The annual FFR form (SF-425) is required and must be submitted through eRA Commons within 90 days after each budget period ends. The report must include only those funds authorized and disbursed during the timeframe covered by the report. The final report must indicate the exact balance of unobligated funds, and may not reflect any unliquidated obligations. The final FFR expenditure data and the Payment Management Systems (PMS) cash transaction data must correspond; no discrepancies between the data sets are permitted. Failure to submit the required information by the due date may affect adversely the future funding of the project. If the information cannot be provided by the due date, awardees are required to submit a letter of explanation and include the date by which the information will be provided.

v. Final Performance and Financial Report: At the end of the project period, awardees must submit a final report including a final financial and performance report. This report is due 90 days after the project period ends. (Maximum of 40 pages).

At a minimum, this report must include:
Performance Measures (including outcomes)Awardees must report final performance data for all performance measures for the project period.
Evaluation ResultsAwardees must report final evaluation results for the project period.
Impact ResultsAwardees must describe the effects or results of the work completed over the project period, including success stories.
Additional forms as described in the Notice of Award, including Equipment Inventory Report and Final Invention Statement.

In addition, grantees must include the following information in their Final Performance Report:
Summary of successes, challenges, and lessons learned that can be shared with other central registries interested in establishing ECC methodology.
Awardees must email the report to the CDC PO and the GMS listed in the Agency Contacts section of the FOA. No cash reports are required. Reporting provides continuous program monitoring and identifies successes and challenges that awardees encounter throughout the project period. Also, reporting is a requirement for awardees who want to apply for yearly continuation of funding. Reporting helps CDC and awardees because it:
Helps target support to awardees, particularly for cooperative agreements;
Provides CDC with periodic data to monitor awardee progress towards meeting the FOA outcomes and overall performance;
Allows CDC to track performance measures and evaluation findings to validate continuous program improvement throughout the project period and to determine applicability of evidence-based approaches to different populations, settings, and contexts; and Enables CDC to assess the overall effectiveness and influence of the FOA.

As described in the following text, awardees must submit an annual performance report, ongoing performance measures data, administrative reports, and a final performance and financial report. A detailed explanation of any additional reporting requirements will be provided in the Notice of Award to successful applicants.

a. Specific reporting requirements:

i. Awardee Evaluation and Performance Measurement Plan: Awardees must provide a more detailed evaluation and performance measurement plan within the first six months of the project. - Awardees must email the report to the CDC PO and the GMS listed in the Agency Contacts section of the FOA. Federal Financial Reports are required 90 days after the end of the fiscal year.
- here to enter text. In addition to previously described reporting requirements the awardee will monitor performance as follows:
  - Performance Monitoring and Evaluation:
    - CDC may revise the existing requirements through an addendum to this notice, which could include additional requirements for evaluation and performance measurement. The Awardees Evaluation and Performance Measurement Plan will be comprised of three components:
    1. Tracking progress and completion of strategies. By using the CDC identified electronic performance monitoring and reporting system. Category A and B awardees will track overall progress on infrastructure and short-term outcome objectives, as well as, specific progress on activities on a quarterly basis.
    2. Measurement of Short-term Outcome. Using detailed guidance from CDC (provided post-award), Category A awardees will assist sub-recipients in setting targets and then monitor their progress towards these targets on the number of people who have access to healthier environments as a result of the implementation of each awardee strategy. This is known as Awardee Reach for each strategy. These targets will be ultimately rolled up into the relevant Short-term Outcome. In addition, Category A sub-recipients will also be required to track sub-awardee Reach and report this to CDC on a quarterly basis.

   a. Use ongoing performance monitoring data, along with any community health assessment data, for ongoing program improvement and midcourse corrections.
   b. Track overall progress on outcome objectives as well as specific progress on activities designed for vulnerable populations. Use performance monitoring and other available sources to document the steps taken to implement multi-level improvements by describing successes, barriers, and challenges.

Programming Description 2.395 October 2017
In addition, Awardees should adhere to the following guidance:

Sub-recipients of Category A are encouraged to use available data to measure intermediate-term outcomes, when possible. However, as mentioned above, due to lack of adequate, existing data in many communities, primary responsibility for measuring intermediate-term outcomes will rest in most cases with CDC.

- Communities with access to adequate data to measure intermediate-term outcomes might include: 1) counties with a large number of respondents to the Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System (BRFSS), 2) counties that conduct the Youth Risk Behavior Surveillance System (YRBSS), 3) school districts that routinely record the height and weight of students.

Category A awardees and sub-recipients should share their successes and lessons learned through the creation and dissemination of two (or more) success stories per year (one submitted every 6 months with the Interim and Annual Progress Report).

Category B awardees should prepare one (or more) unique dissemination documents created for stakeholders or the broader community based on the outcome evaluation of high impact strategies applied by Category A awardees and/or sub-recipients. Developed by the end of Year 3, this document may be briefing updates, reports, case studies, peer-reviewed manuscripts or use other formats.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

93.329 SKILLS TRAINING AND HEALTH WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT OF PARAPROFESSIONALS GRANT PROGRAM
Paraprofessionals Training Grant Program

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Title VII, Section 739 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 293c), (Educational Assistance in the Health Professions Regarding Individuals from Disadvantaged Backgrounds).

OBJECTIVES:
The objectives of the Skills Training and Health Workforce Development of Paraprofessionals Grant Program are to: 1) recruit, train, retain and expand the paraprofessional workforce to meet the employment needs of the community with a particular focus on primary care and team-based care; and 2) promote employment and a career ladder for those trained through career coaching and placement partnership with the community.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funds shall be used to recruit, train and retain individuals from underrepresented, disadvantaged, or rural backgrounds into health-related para-professions to work in primary care and other health care services settings.

Restricted Uses: Indirect costs under training awards to organizations other than State, local or American Indian tribal governments will be budgeted and reimbursed at 8 percent of modified total direct costs rather than on the basis of a negotiated rate agreement, and are not subject to upward or downward adjustment.

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligible applicants include accredited schools of medicine, allopathic medicine, osteopathic medicine, public health, dentistry, veterinary medicine, optometry, pharmacy, allied health, chiropractic, podiatric medicine, public and nonprofit private schools that offer graduate programs in behavioral and mental health, programs for the training of physician assistants, two-year community colleges, technical colleges, tribal colleges, and other public or private nonprofit health or educational entities. Each applicant must specifically state its eligibility information in the project abstract. Applicants that are not community colleges must partner with community colleges.

Eligible entities must be located within the fifty (50) states, the District of Columbia, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Commonwealth of Northern Mariana Islands, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Republic of Palau, Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Federated States of Micronesia. Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Government and Native American Organizations may apply if they are otherwise eligible.

Applicants are required to recruit educationally or economically disadvantaged students who express an interest in a) pursuing a health related paraprofessional certificate in an existing program, or b) individuals who are already practicing but want additional credentials to advance their employability. Eligible paraprofessional training programs are those that exist, can be successfully completed in 12 months or less, and assist in job placement.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Beneficiaries include individuals who a) meet the definition of either

Program Descriptions 2.398 October 2017

Beneficiary Eligibility:

A student receiving a stipend in the LPHSWE Program must be a citizen of the United States, a non-citizen national of the United States, or a foreign national who possesses a visa permitting permanent residence in the United States. Individuals on temporary or student visa are not eligible participants.

Credentialed/Documentation:

Applicants should review the individual HRSA Notice of Funding Opportunity announcement issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications which must be submitted with an application package. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, “Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs.” An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:

This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. HRSA requires all applicants to apply electronically through Grants.gov.

All eligible, qualified applications will be forwarded to an objective review committee. Based on the advice of the objective review committee, the HRSA program official with delegated authority is responsible for final selection and funding decisions. Notification is made in writing by a Notice of Award.

Award Procedure:

Notification of award is made in writing (electronic) by a Notice of Award.

Deadlines:

Renewals:

Depending on Agency priorities and availability of funding, during the final budget year of the approved project period competing continuation applications may be solicited from interested applicants.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program. This program has MOE requirements, see funding agency for further details. The recipient must agree to maintain non-federal funding for grant activities at a level which is not less than expenditures for such activities during the fiscal year prior to receiving the award.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

This funding opportunity provides support for a 3-year project period. Recipients draw down funds, as necessary, from the Payment Management System (PMS), the centralized web-based payment system for HHS awards. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:

Both program and financial reports are required. The recipient will be required to submit annual performance and progress reports. A Federal Financial Report (SF-425) is required according to the schedule in HRSAs Application Guide. A final report is due within 90 days after the project period ends. If applicable, the recipient must submit a Tangible Personal Property Report (SF-428) and any related forms within 90 days after the project period ends. New awards (Type 1) issued under this notice of funding opportunity are subject to the reporting requirements of the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act (FFATA) of 2006 (Pub. 93.331 PARTNERSHIPS TO IMPROVE COMMUNITY HEALTH (PICH)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
This program is authorized under sections 317(k)(2) of the Public Health Service Act, [42 U.S.C. Section 247b(k)(2)], as amended.

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of this funding is to support implementation of evidenced- and practice-based strategies that address previously-identified community gaps and needs within a defined jurisdiction in order to reduce the prevalence of chronic disease and related risk factors.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Applicants must adhere to all CDC guidelines regarding allowable and unallowable expenses. Restrictions that must be considered while planning the programs and writing the budget are:
- Awarded may not use funds for research.
- Awarded may not use funds for clinical care.
- Awarded may not use funds only for reasonable program purposes, including personnel, travel, supplies, and services.
- Generally, awarders may not use funds to purchase furniture or equipment.

Any such proposed spending must be clearly identified in the budget.
- Reimbursement of pre-award costs is not allowed.
- Other than for normal and recognized executive-legislative relationships, no funds may be used for:
  - publicity or propaganda purposes, for the preparation, distribution, or use of any material designed to support or defeat the enactment of legislation before any legislative body.
  - the salary or expenses of any grant or contract recipient, or agent acting for such recipient, related to any activity designed to influence the enactment of legislation, appropriations, regulation, administrative action, or Executive order proposed or pending before any legislative body.
- See Additional Requirement (AR) 12 for detailed guidance on this prohibition and additional guidance on lobbying for CDC awarders.

- The direct and primary recipient in a cooperative agreement program must perform a substantial role in carrying out project outcomes and not merely serve as a conduit for an award to another party or provider who is ineligible.

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligible applicants are considered responsive if providing:
1. Evidence of being a member of or working through a functioning multi-sector community coalition of organizations and agencies that are committed to improving the health of their community (of 2 or more years);
2. Documentation of how they have helped populations with high documented burdens of chronic diseases, conditions and risk factors (for example, a documented diabetes prevalence rate greater than 8.3% among the population);
3. Results of a community health needs assessment completed no earlier than May 1, 2011;
4. Description of how the organization has helped implement strategies to address chronic disease risk factors related to tobacco use or exposure; poor nutrition; physical inactivity; or limited access to opportunities for chronic disease prevention, risk reduction, or management through clinical and community linkages.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Anyone/General Public.

use methods and survey questions successfully used in other community health improvement programs.

- Report the results of this assessment to CDC.

- Outcome evaluation for an innovative strategy (if applicable). In order to expand the evidence base for effective community strategies, innovative intervention(s) may be implemented, and include outcome evaluation to determine intervention effectiveness. No more than 15% of the annual award can be used for innovative strategies. The evaluation methodology should be designed with sufficient rigor to measure impact on chronic disease risk factors or other relevant outcomes. This methodology should be described in the Outcome Evaluation Plan Template (Appendix B). CDC evaluation technical assistance liaisons will provide assistance with the finalization of the Outcome Evaluation Plan and the selection of common measures and metrics.

- Within 30 days after finalizing the CAP with the Project Officer, submit to CDC an outcome evaluation plan for any innovative strategies that meets the criteria described above and is directly tied to appropriate components of the CAP (refer to Evaluation Guide on Developing an Evaluation Plan available at: http://www.cdc.gov/dhdsp/state_programs/evaluation_guides/pdfs/evaluation_plan.pdf).

- The plan must include a logic model that illustrates the relationship between program activities and expected outcomes and reflects initiative priorities.

- The plan activities must be described on a timeline as they relate to proposed objectives in the CAP.

- The plan must include a methodological overview and a description of how the planned evaluation activities will:
  - &lt;#160;Target high impact goals,
  - &lt;#160;Assess impact on health disparities, and
  - &lt;#160;Ensure broad sharing of evaluation findings to the public, partners, and community leaders as appropriate. (See Communication and Dissemination with the Public, Partners, and Stakeholders, page 11).

- The plan may focus on particular geographic or physical settings, age groups, or priority populations experiencing a disproportionate burden of chronic disease and conditions.

- The plan must identify areas- and program-specific data sources to assess strategies outcomes, including as appropriate changes in proper nutrition, physical activity, exposure to second hand smoke, and risk reduction or chronic disease management through clinical and community linkages.

In addition, Awarders should adhere to the following guidelines:

- Awarders are encouraged to use available data to measure intermediate-term outcomes, when possible. However, as mentioned above, due to lack of adequate, existing data in many communities, primary responsibility for measuring intermediate-term outcomes will rest in most cases with CDC.

- Communities with access to adequate data to measure intermediate-term outcomes might include: 1) counties with a large number of respondents to the Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System (BRFSS), 2) counties that conduct the Youth Risk Behavior Surveillance System (YRBSS), 3) school districts that routinely record the height and weight of students.

- The awardee should share their successes and lessons learned through the creation and dissemination of two (or more) success stories per year (one submitted every 6 months with the Interim and Annual Progress Report). As stated previously, CDC recommends using its online success story application (http://www.cdc.gov/nncessphp/dch/success-stories/) to meet this requirement.

- Use the outcome evaluation to develop a project summary for community leaders by the end of Year 3. Awardees will work with CDC to identify the best format for a given effort.

Audits:

In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

- To assist consumers residing in a state with a State-based Marketplace that the Navigator is not funded to serve. (See Section VIII. 2, State Reference List) or in a state the Navigator does not serve. FFM-State Partnership Marketplace Navigators may provide these consumers with basic information about Marketplace, but should refer them to Navigators, the Marketplace Call Center, and other resources within the state where the consumer resides for more in-depth assistance.

- To expend funds related to any activity designed to influence the enactment of legislation, appropriations, regulation, administrative action, or Executive order proposed or pending before the Congress or any state government, state legislature or local legislature or legislative body.

- To fund staff retreats or promotional giveaways.

- To purchase gifts or gift cards, or promotional items that market or promote the products or services of a third party, that would be provided to any applicant or enrollee.

- To provide any assistance to consumers or to provide consumer education and outreach, prior to November 1, 2016.

- To provide certain types of assistance between November 1, 2016 and December 31, 2016 that are the responsibility of SBM assisters operating in Hawaii for the remainder of calendar year 2016. These assistance activities include, but are not limited to, assisting individual market consumers enrolled in coverage for plan years 2015 and/or 2016 through the SBM with questions about IRS Form 1095-A and providing outreach to these consumers about the Exchange-related components of the premium tax credit reconciliation process; assisting individual market consumers enrolled in plan year 2016 coverage through the SBM data matching issues and helping them with submitting documentation to HealthCare.gov and assisting them with the appeals process; assisting individual market consumers enrolled in plan year 2016 coverage through the SBM with questions about changes in circumstances; assisting individual market consumers enrolled in plan year 2016 coverage through the SBM with enrollment in coverage during a special enrollment period for coverage that would take effect before January 1, 2017; and assisting individual market consumers enrolled in plan year 2016 coverage through the SBM with questions about QHP premiums or QHP coverage.

- To assist consumers in Hawaii State-based SHOP or in any replacement for Hawaii State-based SHOP that might in the future be approved by HHS and administered by Hawaii pursuant to a waiver under Affordable Care Act section 1332. Funds are restricted from being used:

- To cover the costs to provide direct health care services to individuals.
To match any other Federal funds.

To provide services, equipment, or support that are the legal responsibility of another party under Federal or State law (such as vocational rehabilitation or education services) or under any civil rights laws. Such legal responsibilities include, but are not limited to, modifications of a workplace or other reasonable accommodations that are a specific obligation of the employer or other party.

To cover any pre-award costs.

To provide goods or services not allocable to the approved project.

To be used by local entities to satisfy state matching requirements.

To pay for construction.

To carry out services that are the responsibility of the Marketplace, such as eligibility determinations and transferring enrollment information for consumers to a QHP.

To pay for capital expenditures for improvements to land, buildings, or equipment which materially increase their value or useful life as a direct cost, except with the prior written approval of the Federal awarding agency.

To pay for the cost of independent research and development, including their proportionate share of indirect costs (unallowable in accordance with 45 CFR 75.476).

To use as profit to any award recipient even if the award recipient is a commercial organization, (unallowable in accordance with 45 CFR 75.216(b), except for grants awarded under the Small Business Innovative Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer Research (STTR) programs (15 U.S.C. 638). Profit is any amount in excess of allowable direct and indirect costs.

To carry out any functions already funded by HHS, including through federal Marketplace Establishment grants under section 1311(a) of the Affordable Care Act or through federal Consumer Assistance Program grants under section 2793 of the Public Health Service Act, including to make payments to recipients of funds provided to states under those authorities for activities that are funded under those authorities.

To assist consumers residing in a state with a State-based Marketplace that the Navigator is not funded to serve. (See Section VIII. 2, State Reference List) or in a state the Navigator does not serve. FFM/State Partnership Marketplace Navigators may provide these consumers with basic information about Marketplace, but should refer them to Navigators, the Marketplace Call Center, and other resources within the state where the consumer resides for more in-depth assistance.

To expend funds related to any activity designed to influence the enactment of legislation, appropriations, regulation, administrative action, or Executive order proposed or pending before the Congress or any state government, state legislature or local legislature or legislative body.

To fund staff retreats or promotional giveaways.

To purchase gifts or gift cards, or promotional items that market or promote the products or services of a third party, that would be provided to any applicant or enrollee.

To provide any assistance to consumers or to provide consumer education and outreach, prior to November 1, 2016.

To provide certain types of assistance between November 1, 2016 and December 31, 2016 that are the responsibility of SBM assisters operating in Hawaii for the remainder of calendar year 2016. These assistance activities include, but are not limited to, assisting individual market consumers enrolled in coverage for plan years 2015 and/or 2016 through the SBM with questions about changes in circumstances; assisting individual market consumers enrolled in plan year 2016 coverage through the SBM with questions about changes in circumstances; assisting individual market consumers enrolled in plan year 2016 coverage through the SBM with questions about changes in circumstances; assisting individual market consumers enrolled in plan year 2016 coverage through the SBM with questions about changes in circumstances; assisting individual market consumers enrolled in plan year 2016 coverage through the SBM with enrollment in coverage during a special enrollment period for coverage that would take effect before January 1, 2017; and assisting individual market consumers enrolled in plan year 2016 coverage through the SBM with questions about QHP premiums.

To assist consumers in Hawaii State-based SHOP or in any replacement for Hawaii State-based SHOP that might in the future be approved by HHS and administered by Hawaii pursuant to a waiver under Affordable Care Act section 1332.

Applicant Eligibility:

Funding through the cooperative agreement is open to individuals and private and public entities including community and consumer-focused nonprofit groups; trade, industry and professional associations; commercial fishing industry organizations; ranching and farming organizations; chambers of commerce; unions; resource partners of the Small Business Administration; licensed insurance agents and brokers; and other public or private entities. Other entities may include but are not limited to Indian Tribes, tribal organizations, urban Indian organizations, and State or local human services.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Beneficiaries must propose to serve consumers in the individual market FFM for Hawaii to be eligible to be served by applicants receiving funding through this cooperative agreement.

Credentials/Documentation:

Consistent with 45 C.F.R. 155.215(a)(1)(i), all applicants, individuals, entities and all members making up a consortium should submit a brief statement (one or two short paragraphs) within the Project Narrative attesting that they are not ineligible entities, including an attestation that no staff members have any of the prohibited relationships with health insurance or stop loss insurance issuers that are outlined above. As is explained in 45 C.F.R. 155.215 and the preamble language discussing that provision, some conflicts of interest would not be absolute bars to service as a Navigator, provided that the conflict of interest would not ultimately prevent the entity or individual from providing information and services in a fair, accurate, and impartial manner. In addition, in accordance with 45 C.F.R. 155.215(b)(1)(ii), successful applicants will be required to provide a written plan to remain free of conflicts of interest and to disclose to CMS, as operator of the FFM or State Partnership Marketplace, certain non-disqualifying conflicts of interest as specified in 45 C.F.R. 155.215(a)(1)(iv). 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. 1. All applicants must submit a required Letter of Intent by the due date noted in the FOA. 2. All applicants under this announcement must have an Employer Identification Number/Taxpayer Identification Number (EIN/TIN) to apply. Individuals may choose to provide their personal Social Security Numbers (SSNs) to apply via Grants.gov. Please note, the time needed to complete the EIN/TIN registration process is substantial, and applicants should therefore begin the process of obtaining an EIN/TIN immediately upon posting of this FOA to ensure this information is received in advance of application deadlines. 3. All applicants must have a Dun and Bradstreet (D&B) Data Universal Numbering System (DUNS) number in order to apply. The DUNS number is a nine-digit identification number that uniquely identifies business entities. Please note that individuals will have to provide an EIN or other TIN to receive a DUNS number. This number should mirror the one used to submit an application in Grants.gov. To obtain a DUNS number, access the following website: www.dunandbradstreet.com or call 1-866-705-5711. 4. The applicant must also register in the System for Award Management (SAM) database in order to be able to submit the application. Applicants are encouraged to register early, and must have their DUNS and EIN/TIN numbers in order to do so. Information about SAM is available at https://www.sams.gov/portal/public/SAM. The SAM registration process is a Points. The objective review panel may include federal reviewers and/or solicitation. This evaluation rubric will be used by qualified, unbiased experts.

10. When an AOR registers with Grants.gov to submit applications on behalf of an organization, that organizations E-Biz POC will receive an email notification. The email address provided in the profile will be the email used to send the notification from Grants.gov to the E-Biz POC with the AOR copied on the correspondence.

11. The E-Biz POC must then login to Grants.gov (using the organizations DUNS number for the username and the special password called M-PIN) and approve the AOR, thereby providing permission to submit applications.

12. AORs must wait one business day after successful registration in SAM before entering their profiles in Grants.gov. Applicants should complete this process as soon as possible after successful registration in SAM to ensure this step is completed in time to apply before application deadlines.

6. When an AOR registers with Grants.gov to submit applications on behalf of an organization, that organizations E-Biz POC will receive an email notification. The email address provided in the profile will be the email used to send the notification from Grants.gov to the E-Biz POC with the AOR copied on the correspondence.

7. The E-Biz POC must then login to Grants.gov (using the organizations DUNS number for the username and the special password called M-PIN) and approve the AOR, thereby providing permission to submit applications.

8. Any files uploaded or attached to the Grants.gov application must be PDF file format and must contain a valid file format extension in the filename. Even though Grants.gov allows applicants to attach any file formats as part of their application, CMS restricts this practice and only accepts PDF file formats. Any file submitted as part of the Grants.gov application that is not in a PDF file format, or contains password protection, will not be accepted for processing and will be excluded from the application during the review process. In addition, the use of compressed file formats such as ZIP, RAR, or Adobe Portfolio will not be accepted. The application must be submitted in a file format that can easily be copied and read by reviewers. It is recommended that scanned copies not be submitted through Grants.gov unless the applicant confirms the clarity of the documents. Pages cannot be reduced in size, resulting in multiple pages on a single sheet, to avoid exceeding the page limitation. All documents that do not conform to the above specifications will be excluded from the application materials during the review process.

9. After you electronically submit your application, you will receive an acknowledgement from http://www.grants.gov that contains a Grants.gov tracking number. HHS will retrieve your application package from Grants.gov. Please note, applicants may incur a time delay before they receive acknowledgment that the application has been accepted by the Grants.gov system. Applicants should not wait until the application deadline to apply because notification by Grants.gov that the application is incomplete may not be received until close to or after the application deadline, eliminating the opportunity to correct errors and resubmit the application. Applications submitted after the deadline, as a result of errors on the part of the applicant, will not be accepted.

10. After HHS retrieves your application package from Grants.gov, a return receipt will be emailed to the applicant contact. This will be in addition to the validation number provided by Grants.gov.

11. All grant applications must be submitted electronically and be received through http://www.grants.gov by 1:00 pm Eastern Daylight Time on the applicable due date.

12. All applications will receive an automatic time stamp upon submission and applicants will receive an email reply acknowledging the applications receipt.

Award Procedure:

Applications will be screened to determine eligibility for further review using the criteria detailed in Section III, Eligibility Information, of this solicitation. An evaluation rubric will be developed by HHS, which will consist of critical elements identified in Section V, Application Review Information, of this solicitation. This evaluation rubric will be used by qualified, unbiased experts in their review of all applications. Applicants will receive a score of up to 200 points. The objective review panel may include federal reviewers and/or non-federal reviewers.

The results of the objective review of applications by qualified experts will be used in conjunction with the other factors noted in the FOA (See Section II. 7, Factors Affecting Application Selection) to determine the technical merit of the applications and advise the approving HHS official. Final award decisions will be made by a HHS program official. In making these decisions, the HHS program official will take into consideration: the regulatory requirement that there be at least two types of Navigators in each Marketplace and that one of these Navigators be a community and consumer-focused nonprofit; populations the applicant expects to serve; ranking of the applicant based upon recommendations of the review panel; reviews for programmatic and grants management compliance, to include performance under a current Navigator award; pre-award business review; the reasonableness of the estimated cost to the government and anticipated results; and the likelihood the proposed cost will result in the benefits expected.

Successful applicants will receive one cooperative agreement award.

Unsuccessful applicants will be advised by letter or electronic mail (sent to the individual signing the application on behalf of the organization) that its application will not be held for further consideration or be funded. The decision not to award a grant, or to award a grant at a particular funding level, is discretionary and is not subject to appeal to any OPDIV or HHS official or board.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

Project period is 12 months from date of award. Funding will be awarded in 12 month increments based on funding availability. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/release: Once an award is made, the funds are posted in recipient accounts established in the Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Payment Management, Payment Management System (PMS). Grantees may then access their funds by using the PMS funds request process. Upon notification of award, recipients under this announcement will be able to drawdown funds for approved start-up costs. The remaining funds will be reimbursable upon meeting required milestones. Reports:

Awardees must agree to cooperate with any Federal evaluation of the program and must provide required weekly, monthly, quarterly, and final (at the end of the cooperative agreement period) reports in a form prescribed by CMS, as well as any additional reports as required. Reports will be submitted electronically. These reports will outline how cooperative agreement funds were used, describe program progress, describe any barriers encountered including how any potential conflicts of interest were mitigated and process for handling non-compliant staff or volunteers, describe how the program ensured access to culturally and linguistically appropriate services, and detail measurable outcomes to include how many staff and volunteers completed required training and became certified as Navigators and how many consumers were served. CMS will provide the format for program reporting and the technical assistance necessary to complete program reporting requirements. At
Audits:
Federal awards shall have a single or program specific audit conducted for that year in accordance with OMB Circular A-133. As explained under 75.501(b), For-profit subrecipient, since this part does not apply to for-profit subrecipients, the pass-through entity is responsible for establishing requirements, as necessary, to ensure compliance by for-profit subrecipients. The agreement with the for-profit subrecipient must describe applicable compliance requirements and the for-profit subrecipient's compliance responsibility. Methods to ensure compliance for Federal awards made to for-profit subrecipients may include preaward audits, monitoring during the agreement, and post-award audits. See also 75.352 Requirements for pass-through entities.

Commercial Organizations (including for-profit hospitals) have two options regarding audits, as outlined in 45 CFR 75.501 (see also 45 CFR 75.216).

Successful applicants are required to demonstrate that they will use cooperative agreement funds to, at a minimum, carry out all statutory and regulatory duties, as found in section 1311(i) of the Affordable Care Act, and 45 C.F.R. 155.210 and 155.215, of a Navigator for the entire length of the grant period, including: maintaining expertise in eligibility, enrollment, and program specifications; conducting public education activities to raise awareness about the Marketplace; providing information and services in a fair, accurate, and impartial manner; facilitating selection of a QHP; providing referrals to any applicable office of health insurance consumer assistance or ombudsman established under Section 2793 of the Public Health Service Act, or any other appropriate State agency or agencies, to address consumer grievances, questions, or complaints about their health plan, coverage, or a determination; providing information in a manner that is culturally and linguistically appropriate and accessible to individuals with disabilities consistent with the requirements set forth at 45 C.F.R. 155.215; and complying fully with the training and conflict of interest requirements set forth at 45 C.F.R. 155.215.

93.334 THE HEALTHY BRAIN INITIATIVE: TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO IMPLEMENT PUBLIC HEALTH ACTIONS RELATED TO COGNITIVE HEALTH, COGNITIVE IMPAIRMENT, AND CAREGIVING AT THE STATE AND LOCAL LEVELS

Healthy Brain Initiative

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services.

AUTHORIZATION:
Public Health Service Act, Sections 317(k) (2) 42 U.S.C. 242 and 247b-(k) (2).

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of the FOA is to implement public health actions through engagement of national partners and public health networks at national, state and local levels to apply public health strategies to promote cognitive health; address cognitive impairment, including Alzheimer’s disease; and support the needs of care partners (paid and unpaid persons providing care or assistance to someone with Alzheimer’s disease or related dementia). This will be accomplished through the provision of technical assistance and support in the following areas: 1) Using data and information to develop, examine, and deploy effective strategies, identify and address gaps in implementation, create and assess technical assistance tools, and monitor progress in achieving program goals; 2) Engaging in environmental approaches that promote inclusion of cognitive health, cognitive impairment and caregiving into community and workplace policies and plans; 3) Supporting health system strategies to improve early detection of cognitive impairment, including Alzheimer’s disease, and increasing awareness among health care providers about care partner health and role in care management; and 4) Facilitating the translation and dissemination of information and resources through public health networks.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
applicants must adhere to all CDC guidelines regarding allowable and unallowable expenses. Restrictions that must be considered while planning the programs and writing the budget are:
- Awarders may not use funds for research.
- Awarders may not use funds for clinical care.
- Awarders may use funds only for reasonable program purposes, including personnel, travel, supplies, and services.
- Generally, awarders may not use funds to purchase furniture or equipment.
Any such proposed spending must be clearly identified in the budget.
- Reimbursement of pre-award costs is not allowable.
- Other than for normal and recognized executive-legislative relationships, no funds may be used for:
  - publicity or propaganda purposes, for the preparation, distribution, or use of any material designed to support or defeat the enactment of legislation before any legislative body
  - the salary or expenses of any grant or contract recipient, or agent acting for such recipient, related to any activity designed to influence the enactment of legislation, appropriations, regulation, administrative action, or Executive order proposed or pending before any legislative body
  - Additional Requirement (AR) 12 pertaining to prohibition of lobbying for CDC awarders also applies to this FOA.
  - The direct and primary recipient in a cooperative agreement program must perform a substantial role in carrying out project outcomes and not merely serve as a conduit for an award to another party or provider who is ineligible.

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligible applicants are limited to national, non-profit professional public health or cognitive health/cognitive impairment mission organizations with experience and expertise providing technical assistance and support to governmental and non-governmental components of the public health system.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Anyone/General Public.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants should document the need for assistance, state the objectives of the project, outline the method of operation, describe the evaluation procedures, and provide a budget justification of funds. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards.

Award Procedure:
Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Award (NoA) from the CDC Procurement and Grants Office. The NoA shall be the only binding authorization document between the recipient and CDC. The NoA will be signed by an authorized Grants Management Officer and e-mailed to the program director. A hard copy of the NoA will be mailed to the recipient fiscal officer identified in the application. Any application awarded in response to this FOA will be subject to the DUNS, CCR Registration and Transparency Act requirements. Unsuccessful applicants will receive notification of the results of the application review by mail.

AUTHORIZATION:
Section 301 of the Public Health Service Act (as amended).

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of this program is to provide assistance to State and Territorial Health Departments to maintain and expand:
1) Specific health surveillance on the behaviors of the general adult population that contribute to the occurrences and prevention of chronic diseases, injuries, and other public health threats through the Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System (BRFSS), and
2) Collection, analysis, and dissemination of BRFSS data to State and Territorial Health Department categorical programs for their use in assessing trends, directing program planning, evaluating program priorities, developing policy, and targeting relevant population groups.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Applicants must adhere to all CDC guidelines regarding allowable and unallowable expenses. Recipients may not use funds for research. Recipients may not use funds for clinical care and pharmaceutical products. Recipients may only expend funds for reasonable program purposes, including personnel, supplies, and services, such as contractual.
Recipients may not generally use HHS/CDC/ATSDR funding for the purchase of furniture or equipment. Any such proposed spending must be identified in the budget.
Reimbursement of pre-award costs is not allowed.

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligible applicants are US State Health Departments and US Territories that have been funded under SO11-1101 and SO11-1102.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
BRFSS data is published on the CDC website and all of the above entities can access it.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants should provide a detailed work plan for meeting the objectives of the project, outline their method of operation, describe their evaluation procedures, and provide a budget with justification of funds requested. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, “Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs.” An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program.

Award Procedure:
Eligible applications will be jointly reviewed for responsiveness by the National Center for Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotion and the CDC Procurement and Grants Office. Incomplete applications and applications that are non-responsive will not advance through the review process. Recipients will be notified in writing of the results. A technical review panel within the Population Health Surveillance Branch, Division of Population Health, National Center for Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotion, CDC will evaluate complete and responsive applications according to the published review criteria. Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Award (NoA) from the CDC Procurement and Grants Office. The NoA shall be only binding, authorizing document between the recipient and the CDC. 93.341 ANALYSES, RESEARCH AND STUDIES TO ADDRESS THE IMPACT OF CMS PROGRAMS ON AMERICAN INDIAN/ALASKA NATIVE (AI/AN) BENEFICIARIES AND THE HEALTH CARE SYSTEM SERVING THESE BENEFICIARIES

FEDERAL AGENCY:

Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

The Social Security Act, Section 1110, codified at 42 U.S.C., Section 1310.

This authority permits the obligation of funding for CMS to enter into grants and cooperative arrangements with organizations and certain other entities in order to aid in improving the administration and effectiveness of programs carried out by the agency. For purposes of this award, CMS is accepting an application from the National Indian Health Board (NIHB) under a single-source cooperative agreement. Approval to award this cooperative agreement to NIHB under a single-source award was granted by the Chief Grants Management Officer, dated April 6, 2017.

OBJECTIVES:

To further CMS mission and goals related to providing high quality health care to the American Indian/Alaska Native (AI/AN) community by providing research and analysis to increase the understanding of, access to, and impact of CMS programs in Indian Country.

Congress authorized AI/ANs to have access to Medicare and Medicaid services when provided through Indian Health Service (IHS) facilities located in tribal communities and amended titles XVIII and XIX of the Social Security Act to permit IHS facilities to bill Medicare and Medicaid for services provided to eligible AI/ANs. This authority was later extended to tribal facilities. Congress has also provided authority for Indian health care programs and beneficiaries to participate in the Childrens Health Insurance program and the Health Insurance Marketplace.

These changes have created a direct relationship between CMS and the Indian Health Service. The research conducted under this cooperative agreement is needed to help improve administration of CMS programs given that CMS and IHS programs operate under different and sometimes competing authorities for CMS programs, the Social Security Act and for IHS programs, the Indian Health Care Improvement Act and the Indian Self Determination Education and Assistance Act, P.L. 93-638. To make CMS programs work with Indian health required to be submitted quarterly. An annual SF-425 for each budget period is also required to be submitted annually, and a final SF-425 is required at the end of the project period. ANA grantees are required to report project progress using the Objective Progress Report (OPR) (OMB No. 0970-0452, expiration date 06/30/2018) and the SF-425 on a semi-annual basis which are submitted electronically. In addition, grantees will be required to submit an Annual Data Report (ADR) (OMB No. 0970-0475, expiration date 03/31/2019) to report project data once a year and at the end of the project period. The SF-425 is also required to be submitted annually and at the end of the project period. ANA reviews grantees semiannual and annual reports to determine whether the grantee is meeting its project goal and objectives and completing activities identified in the Objective Work Plan (OWP) as well as to evaluate project effectiveness. If progress concerns are identified, ANA may require quarterly reports. In addition, ANA is required to describe and measure the impact of funded projects, their effectiveness in achieving stated goals, their impact on related programs, and when feasible, to obtain the views of persons participating in and served by funded projects. ANA carries out this requirement through review of grantee submitted reports and through the use of structured on-site interviews using a data collection tool (OMB No. 0970-0379, expiration date 07/31/2019). No expenditure reports are required. Performance monitoring is not applicable.

Audits:

In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. OBJECTIVES:

To further CMS mission and goals related to providing high quality health care to the American Indian/Alaska Native (AI/AN) community by providing research and analysis to increase the understanding of, access to, and impact of CMS programs in Indian Country.

Congress authorized AI/ANs to have access to Medicare and Medicaid services when provided through Indian Health Service (IHS) facilities located in tribal communities and amended titles XVIII and XIX of the Social Security Act to permit IHS facilities to bill Medicare and Medicaid for services provided to eligible AI/ANs. This authority was later extended to tribal facilities. These changes have created a direct relationship between CMS and the Indian Health Service. The research conducted under this cooperative agreement is needed to help improve administration of CMS programs given that CMS and IHS programs operate under different and sometimes competing authorities for CMS programs, the Social Security Act and for IHS programs, the Indian Health Care Improvement Act and the Indian Self Determination Education and Assistance Act, P.L. 93-638. To make CMS programs work with Indian health program authorities, a crucial first step is for CMS to understand the impact of its policies on Indian health care providers and tribal members so that the agency can provide the AI/AN community greater access to CMS programs in an effective and efficient manner.

The authority at Section 1110 of the Social Security Act permits CMS to enter into grants and cooperative arrangements with organizations and certain other entities in order to aid in improving administration and effectiveness of programs administered by the agency. To this end, the work conducted under this cooperative agreement will address the potential and actual impacts of CMS programs on AI/ANs and the health care system serving these beneficiaries. CMS understanding of the impact of its policies is vital to improving greater AI/AN access to and participation in CMS programs; improving and ensuring that appropriate health care payments and resources are provided to IHS, tribal, and urban Indian Health program providers; and contributing to overall improved health outcomes for Indian people. The information and activities produced or provided under the cooperative agreement will be used to develop culturally appropriate activities and strategies to improve how CMS program operate and are administered in Indian country.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

In recent years a number of statutory changes have been made to CMS programs and regulations have been developing to implement those changes. The assistance provided under this cooperative agreement will be used to:

a) assess the ongoing impact of CMS programs through an analysis of CMS regulations and CMS initiatives that have a potential impact or effect on IHS, Tribal and Urban Indian providers and AI/AN beneficiaries and use this information to monitor AI/AN participation in the CMS regulatory process to assess whether such participation contributes to the understanding of how CMS-related provisions in the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA) impact the financing and delivery of health care in the Indian health care system;

b) refine the inventory of AI/AN demographic, enrollment, and utilization data in order to develop strategies that make CMS data systems capable of reporting AI/AN enrollments, service utilization, health status and payment data from the Medicare, Medicaid and CHIP programs to facilitate program planning and evaluation; performance measurement, health status monitoring, and target enrollment efforts, identify gaps in data collection, propose and analyze approaches necessary to change and augment data collection systems and other information needed to support all reporting requirements under ACA, CHIPRA and ARRA, and propose reporting mechanisms and protocols for such reporting;

c) update and revise the CMS Tribal Technical Advisory Groups 2013-2018 Strategic Plan (which is used to guide the administration of CMS programs in Indian country) to incorporate legislative and regulatory changes resulting from the ACA; and

d) Provide research support on the use and effectiveness of the CMS tribal consultation policy so that the agency can be assured to get appropriate tribal input when developing policies that will have a substantial direct effect on tribes.

e) Evaluate the effectiveness of outreach and enrollment efforts to AI/AN beneficiaries in CMS programs by conducting training on the basics of CMS programs to enrollment assisters and Indian health provider third party resource staff, learning and sharing best practices to increase AI/AN enrollment, and developing AI/AN culturally appropriate outreach materials based on feedback from training and outreach efforts. Provide quarterly reports summarizing outreach trainings and enrollment events, compilation of best practices utilized and lessons learned, and analysis of and recommendations to improve outreach efforts in Indian Country.

Indirect Costs - If grantee requests indirect costs, an approved Indirect Cost Rate Agreement will be required to support those costs. The provisions of OMB Circular A-87 govern reimbursement of indirect costs under this funding opportunity announcement. OMB Circulars are available on line at: http://www.whitehouse.gov/omb/circulars

Direct Services - funds may not be used to provide individuals with services that are already funded through Medicare, Medicaid and/or CHIP. These services do not include expenses budgeted for provider and/or consumer task force member participation in conferences, provision of technical assistance, or attendance at technical assistance conferences sponsored by CMS or its national technical assistance providers for the benefit of awardees.

The applicants budget may not exceed a maximum funding level or project period of five years.

Reimbursement of Pre-Award Costs No funds awarded under this funding opportunity announcement may be used to reimburse pre-award costs.

Other Prohibited Uses of Funds

To match any other Federal funds.

To provide services, equipment, or supports that are the legal responsibility of another party under Federal or State law (e.g., vocational rehabilitation or education services) or under any civil rights laws. Such legal responsibilities include, but are not limited to, modifications of a workplace or other reasonable accommodations that are a specific obligation of the employer or other party.

To supplant existing state, local, or private funding of infrastructure or services, such as staff salaries, etc.

To be used by local entities to satisfy state matching requirements.

To pay for the use of specific components, devices, equipment, or personnel that are not integrated into the application.

To pay for construction or alteration and renovation of real property (A&R).

To pay for information technology (IT) equipment exceeding 10 percent of the total award. Any equipment, which includes IT, over $5,000 must be approved by CMS.

To pay states for the use of any of their data made available for this initiative.

Other limitations - A current recipient cannot be awarded a new, renewal, or competing continuation grant for any of the following reasons:

The current project is not progressing in a satisfactory manner;

The current project is not in compliance with program and financial reporting requirements;

The applicant has an outstanding delinquent Federal debt;

No award shall be made until the delinquent account is paid in full; or

A negotiated repayment schedule is established in at least one payment is received. Indirect Costs - If grantee requests indirect costs, an approved Indirect Cost Rate Agreement will be required to support those costs. The provisions of OMB Circular A-87 govern reimbursement of indirect costs under this funding opportunity announcement. OMB Circulars are available on line at: http://www.whitehouse.gov/omb/circulars

Direct Services - funds may not be used to provide individuals with services that are already funded through Medicare, Medicaid and/or CHIP. These services do not include expenses budgeted for provider and/or consumer task force member participation in conferences, provision of technical assistance, or attendance at technical assistance conferences sponsored by CMS or its national technical assistance providers for the benefit of awardees.

The applicants budget may not exceed a maximum funding level or project period of five years.

Reimbursement of Pre-Award Costs No funds awarded under this funding opportunity announcement may be used to reimburse pre-award costs.
Applicant Eligibility:

Applicant must have a Dun and Bradstreet (D&B) Data Universal Numbering System (DUNS) number. The DUNS number is a nine-digit identification number that uniquely identifies business entities. To obtain a DUNS number, access the following website: http://www.dnb.com or call 866-705-5711. This number should be entered in the block 8c (on the Form SF-424, Application for Federal Assistance). The organization name and address entered in block 8a and 8c should be exactly as given for the DUNS number. Applicant should obtain this DUNS number immediately to ensure all registration steps are completed in time.

Applicant must also register in the Central Contractor Registration (CCR) database in order to be able to submit the application. Applicant should begin the CCR registration process immediately to ensure that it does not impair ability to meet required submission deadlines.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

The primary beneficiaries of this effort are American Indians and Alaska Natives who are eligible for CMS programs to get them educated about and enrolled in CMS programs, as appropriate, ensure that Indian health care providers can participate and are enrolled in CMS programs and to reduce health disparities in tribal communities. By enrolling in CMS programs, AI/ANs benefit by having greater access to services that may not be provided by their local Indian health care providers, and tribal communities benefit through increased resources to their Indian health care programs.

The Federal government will benefit by obtaining information to help make more informed policies which will improve administration of CMS programs in tribal communities and thereby provide AI/ANs access to quality health care.

Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Governments and Native American Organizations would benefit because they can provide information and insight to help CMS understand the tribal provider and tribal beneficiary perspective so that CMS can make informed policies decisions that would permit CMS programs to be administered and operate effectively and efficiently in tribal communities and not conflict with legislative/regulatory authority under which the Indian Health Service programs operates.

Credentials/Documentation:

NIHB must submit its 501(c)(3) Nonprofit Certification as proof of nonprofit status. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. A complete application should consist of the following documents organized in the following sequence:

Cover letter
SF-424 Application for Federal Assistance
SF-424A Budget Information
A budget narrative not to exceed 15 single spaced pages
Abstract of project
A research project narrative that describes each of the five separate project objectives (the entire narrative not to exceed 40 single spaced pages)
SF424B Assurances
Health Board resolution
501(c)(3) Non-profit Certification
Resumes for all key personnel
Position descriptions
Disclosure of lobbying activities (SFLLL) (if not applicable, then annotate the form)
Copy of approved indirect cost (IDC) rate agreement (if applicable)
Documentation of current OMB A-133 required financial audit (if applicable)
Acceptable forms of documentation include: e-mail confirmation form Federal Audit Clearinghouse (FC) that audits were submitted; or Face sheets from audit reports. These can be found at: http://harvester.census.gov/sac/ or http://harvester.census.gov/sac/dss/en/entity.html?submit=Ret urn+tp+Entity+Search
Project Narrative:
Separate Project Narratives are required for each of the five projects: Each narrative should be a separate Word document that does not exceed 8 pages with consecutively numbered pages if the individual project narrative exceeds the page limits noted above, only the first 8 pages will be reviewed. The total number for pages submitted should not exceed 40 pages 8 pages for each of the five projects.

There are three parts to the narrative for each of the five projects:
Program Descriptions 2.416 October 2017

Award Procedure:

FOA or does not include the required forms will not be reviewed. Received late or that fails to meet the eligibility requirements as detailed in the funding opportunity announcement. An application that is NIHBs application will be reviewed to determine eligibility using the criteria detailed in the related budget category. The budget must clearly identify what funds will be administered directly by the lead agency and what will be subcontracted to other partners. The designated lead agency is solely responsible for the fiscal management of the project.

NIHB must supplement Budget Form SF424A with a Budget Narrative. The narrative must include a yearly breakdown of costs for the five-year grant period of performance. Specifically, the Budget Narrative should provide a detailed cost breakdown for each line item outlined in the SF 424A by year including a breakdown of costs for each activity/cost with the line item. The proportion of grant funding designed for each activity should be clearly outlined and justify the institutions readiness to receive funding through 2021 including complete explanations and justifications for the proposed grant activities. The budget must separate out funding that is administered directly by the awardee from any that will be subcontracted.

The following budget categories should be addressed (as applicable):
- Personnel
- (Note: none of the funds shall be used to pay the salary of an individual, through a grant or other extramural mechanism, at a rate in excess of Executive Level II ($179,700))
- Fringe benefits
- Contractual costs, including subcontracts
- Equipment
- Supplies
- Travel
- Indirect charges, Indirect costs shall be supported by an approved Indirect cost rate agreement.
- Other costs, including those not otherwise associated with training and education.

The Budget Narrative must outline the strategies and activities of the program, and provide cost breakdowns for any subcontracts that will be implemented to achieve anticipated outcomes. The Budget Narrative shall also clearly distinguish the funding source for any given activity/cost, as either Federal or Non-Federal. The applicant should pinpoint those costs funded through in kind contributions. Applicant must include detailed salary and fringe benefit costs for staff dedicated to the project through an in-kind contribution, to include yearly salary costs and the percentage of time dedicated to the project (for any given year).

The total budget should include both direct and indirect costs, if applicable.

Award Procedure:
The review process will include the following: NIHBs application will be reviewed to determine eligibility using the criteria detailed in the funding opportunity announcement. An application that is received late or that fails to meet the eligibility requirements as detailed in the FOA or does not include the required forms will not be reviewed.

An independent, objective review of the application will be conducted. The review panel will assess the application based on the review criteria to determine the merits of the application and the extent to which it furthers the purposes of the research program. The review panel comments and recommendations will be condensed into a summary statement that will assist CMS in making the award decision. CMS will use the information to judge the likelihood that the project will be successfully implemented and will have tangible, beneficial outcomes.

The applicant will receive written notification of the award decision. An award will be made to the successful applicant on or before September 29, 2017.

The successful applicant will receive an official Notice of Award (NOA) signed by the CMS Grants Management Officer, OAGM, that will set forth the amount of the award and other pertinent information, including any specific terms and conditions of the award required for the fulfillment of the grant. The NOA is a legal document issued to notify the grantee that the award has been approved and that funds are now available for draw down from the HHS Payment Management System (PMS). Any communication between CMS and an awardee prior to issuance of the NOA is not an authorization to begin implementation of a project.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Contact headquarters for approval information.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Renewals for FY 2017-2021 will be provided each of these fiscal years based on the availability of funding and grantees acceptable performance.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula.

Matching Requirements: Section 1110 of the Social Security Act requires cost sharing by the applicant. To comply with this requirement, CMS requires that the applicant provide cost sharing equal to at least one percent (1%) of the amount of the award. This cost sharing requirement may be satisfied through in-kind contributions.

This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
N/A. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly.

Reports:
The grantee must submit the following required reports through the period of performance: 1) quarterly progress reports, 2) annual report, and 3) final report. CMS will provide the format for these reports in the terms and conditions.

Research and analysis of impact of CMS Regulations/Initiatives on the Indian health care systemquarterly and annual reports to summarize the impacts of the CMS-related regulations and initiatives on provision of health care in the I/T/U system and AI/AN beneficiaries.

Data Research and Analysis Project-Prepare Medicare and MedicaidCHIP annual reports that include: findings from the analysis of the Medicare, Medicaid, and CHIP data; identifies gaps in data collection; identifies shortcomings in system interactions; proposes CMS/IHS/SSA data interface protocols; and makes specific recommendations on additional data systems improvements. No cash reports are required. In order for CMS to monitor the grantee efforts toward reaching the goals of the grant program, the grantee must agree to provide CMS with information it may require to assess the functioning and effectiveness of the program and to ensure that the grant monies are expended for the purposes for which they were awarded.

The grantee must submit the following required reports through the period of performance: 1) quarterly progress reports, 2) annual report, and 3) final report.
CMS will provide the format for these reports in the terms and conditions. Federal financial reporting—submit the SF-425 Federal Financial Report on an annual, semi-annual, or quarterly basis. More details are outlined in the Notice of Award Terms and Conditions.

Transparency Act Reporting Requirements report information for each first-tier sub-award of $25,000 or more in Federal funds and executive total compensation for the recipients and sub-recipients five most highly compensated executives as outlined in Appendix A and 2 CFR Part 170 (on line at www.fsrs.gov). A performance report is required quarterly and annually.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. Guidelines within OMB Circular No. A-133

Records:
The recipient must maintain expenditures and other financial records detailing the use of cooperative agreement funds and the progress reports for three years from the day on which the grantee submits the last financial status report for the grant period unless there is an open investigation in which case the records must be maintained during the duration of the investigation.

93.342 HEALTH PROFESSIONS STUDENT LOANS, INCLUDING PRIMARY CARE LOANS/LOANS FOR DISADVANTAGED STUDENTS

HPSL, PCL, LDS

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To increase educational opportunities by providing long-term, low-interest loans to students in need of financial assistance and in pursuit of a course of study in an approved health discipline.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Project Grants (to capitalize loan funds)

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funds on deposit can only be used for loans to eligible students pursuing a full-time course of study. The maximum amount a student may borrow is the cost of attendance (including tuition, other reasonable educational expenses and reasonable living expenses). Third and fourth year medical and osteopathic medicine students may be eligible for additional funding to repay earlier higher-interest educational loans. The interest rate is five percent.

To be eligible for a Primary Care Loan (PCL), students of allopathic medicine and osteopathic medicine must meet financial need criteria and agree to enter and complete a residency training program in primary health care not later than four years after the date on which the student graduates from such school. The PCL borrower must also practice primary health care for 10 years (including the years spent in residency training) or through the date in which the loan is repaid in full, whichever occurs first.

To be eligible for Loans for Disadvantaged Students (LDS) students must meet the Health Professions Student Loans (HPSL) criteria and also be from a disadvantaged background as defined by the Secretary. A school must be carrying out a program for recruiting and retaining students from disadvantaged backgrounds, including racial and ethnic minorities and carrying out a program for recruiting and retaining minority faculty to be eligible for LDS funds. In addition, the school must agree to ensure that adequate instruction regarding minority health issues is in the curricula of the school. Health clinics must provide services to a significant number of individuals who are from disadvantaged backgrounds, including members of minority groups and enter into arrangements with one or more such clinics for the purpose of providing students of the school with experience in clinical services to such individuals. Secondary educational institutions and undergraduate institutions of higher education must enter into arrangements with one or more such institutions for the purpose of carrying out programs regarding the educational preparation of disadvantaged students, including minority students, to enter the health professions and recruit such individuals into the health professions. These institutions should also establish a mentor program for assisting disadvantaged students, including minority students, toward completion of the educational requirements for degrees from the school.

Applicant Eligibility:
Any accredited public or other nonprofit private school of medicine, dentistry, osteopathic medicine, optometry, podiatry, pharmacy, or veterinary medicine which provides a course of study leading to a degree of Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine for PCL and LDS borrowers, Doctor of Dentistry (or an equivalent degree), Doctor of Optometry (or an equivalent degree), Doctor of Podiatric Medicine (or an equivalent degree), Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy (or an equivalent degree), Doctor of Pharmacy (or an equivalent degree), or Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (or an equivalent degree) for HPSP and LDS borrowers. Additionally, the school must be located in the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Northern Mariana Islands, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Republic of Palau, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, or the Federated States of Micronesia. Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Government and Native American Organizations may apply if they are otherwise eligible.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Student applicants must display financial need and be enrolled or accepted for enrollment in a health professions school to pursue a full-time course of study leading to a degree as specified above. Students must also be citizens, nationals or lawful permanent residents of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealths of Puerto Rico, the Northern Mariana Islands, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Republic of Palau, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, or the Federated States of Micronesia.

Credentials/Documentation:
Annual operating reports serve as the renewal application for current loan recipient institutions. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Students should apply at financial aid office of school of their choice for assistance in applying for a loan. The school then tabulates requests for financial aid and awards loans based on needs of students and available funds.

Schools can obtain new applications for this program from the Division of Health Careers and Financial Support by calling (301) 443-1173. Annual operating reports serve as the renewal application for current loan recipient institutions.

Award Procedure:
Notification is made in writing (electronic) by a Notice of Award. When Federal Capital Contribution funds are available for re-distribution, a Notice of Award is sent to the School’s Contact Person notifying the school of the amount of federal funds allocated for loans within program and discipline prior to the beginning of the academic year in which the award is to be utilized. Students are notified by the schools financial aid office of approval or disapproval of loans at times determined by schools.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Approximately 120 - 180 days after receipt of applications.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Applications are only required for new schools. Annual Operating Reports are required for renewals.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory Formula: Allotment of funds is based on statutory formula which takes into account the ratio each school's enrollment bears to the enrollments of all schools making application for funds, but never exceeds the schools request. Matching Requirements: 11% Matching Requirement. Under the Federal Capital Contribution method, a school must match the Federal Capital Contribution with an amount equal to one-ninth of the funds drawn down. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
The time required by a student to complete the necessary course of study leading to a degree and subject to the availability of funds. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Recipient institutions drawdown funds, as necessary, from the Payment Management System (PMS), the centralized web based payment system for HHS awards.

Reports:
Both program and financial reports are required. An Annual Operating Report (AOR) through electronic submission at http://grants.hrsa.gov must be submitted 45 days after the end of each budget period. Cash reports are not applicable. No progress reports are required. No expenditure reports are required. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:
Financial records must be kept until such time as agreed upon with the Secretary as specified in 42 CFR 57.215.

Recipients are required to maintain grant accounting records 3 years after the date they submit Annual Operating Report (AOR). If any litigation, claim, negotiation, audit or other action involving the award has been started before the expiration of the 3 year period, the records shall be retained until completion of the action and resolution of all issues which arise from it, or until the end of the regular 3 year period, whichever is later.

Account Identification:
75-0350-0-1-550.

Obligations:

Fiscal Year 2017: Awardee: Kaiser Foundation Hospitals
Project Award: $338,425
Description: This project focuses on adversomics. It aims to identify inherited, immunologic, and clinical factors that may predict the occurrence of febrile seizures after measles vaccination.
Awardee: Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center
Project Award: $250,000
Description: This project focuses on maternal immunization safety. It aims to validate the Global Alignment of Immunization Safety Assessment in pregnancy (GAIA) maternal and neonatal outcome definitions to standardize the evaluation of the safety of vaccines.
Awardee: The Rockefeller University
Project Award: $161,575
Description: This project focuses on precision medicine. It aims to analyze the genetic determinants of the immune response following yellow fever vaccination among individuals who experience serious adverse events. Fiscal Year 2018: unknown at this time.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
NCATS is all about getting more treatments to more patients more quickly.
Several thousand genetic diseases affect humans, of which only about 500 have any treatment. A novel drug, device or intervention can take 14 years and $2 billion to develop, with a failure rate exceeding 95%. NCATS is directly addressing this problem by discovering new technologies and other approaches that could greatly accelerate the process of developing and deploying solutions that can be used by all translational researchers. The Clinical and Translational Science Awards Program includes several activities to support and foster innovation in clinical and translational centers, methods, and training (UL1, KL2, TL1). The Trial Innovation Centers awards (U24) are intended to be lead centers of excellence in clinical trials and will facilitate the implementation of multi-site clinical studies by the CTSA Network. The Recruitment Innovation Centers (U24) aim to improve participant recruitment into clinical trials by using innovative means to assess the availability of potential participants and to enroll them in a timely manner. The Collaborative Innovation Awards aim to stimulate innovative collaborative research in the NCATS Clinical and Translational Science Award (CTSA) Program...Pre-application is required. The Office of Rare Disease Research (ORDR) supports a network of research consortia, each targeted to several related rare diseases (U54). ORDR also supports an extensive resource of information for the public on rare diseases. The Discovering New Therapeutic Uses for Existing Molecules (UH2/UH3) program focuses on repurposing existing therapies. Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) grants (R41, R44) and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) grants (R41, R42) support domestic small businesses engaged in research and development that has the potential for commercialization. The Tissue Chip program funds bioengineering devices to improve the process of predicting whether drugs will be safe or toxic in humans. Through Translator, NCATS will integrate existing biomedical data to help reveal new relationships within those data and also identify novel opportunities for research. The bioprinting program will generate high throughput screenable assay models of human tissues for drug discovery.

Applicant Eligibility:
None.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Biomedical investigators at any nonprofit or for-profit organization, company, or institution engaged in biomedical research.

Credentials/Documentation:
The required credentials of the applicant are described in the relevant Funding Opportunity Announcement. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

Award Procedure:
The initial review of applications from eligible institutions is conducted by committees comprised of authorities in various fields of biomedical research and science education, as appropriate. Each application is given a peer evaluation for merit. Recommendations for award are forwarded to the NCATS Advisory Council for the second level of review and recommendation for award.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
> 180 Days.

Appeals:
From 15 to 30 days. Principal investigators (P.I.) may question the substantive or procedural aspects of the review of their applications by communicating with the NCATS staff. A description of the NIH Peer Review Appeal procedures is available on the NIH home page http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-11-064.html.

Renewals:
> 180 Days. SBIR grants may be renewed.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
1 to 5 years. An Electronic Transfer System is used to transfer funds. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: by letter of credit.

Reports:
No report programs are required. No cash reports are required. Annual progress and financial status reports are required for all grants and cooperative agreements. Final performance and financial reports are required 90 days following the end of the project period. Annual progress and financial status reports are required for all grants and cooperative agreements... Annual performance review is required. Final performance and financial reports are required 90 days following the end of the project period.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend federal assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:
Grantees generally must retain financial and programmatic records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records that are required by the terms of a grant, or may reasonably be considered pertinent to a grant, for a period of 3 years from the date the annual FSR is submitted. For awards under SNAP (other than those to foreign organizations and Federal institutions), the 3-year retention period will be calculated from the date the FSR is submitted to NIH. Foreign organizations and Federal institutions must retain records for 3 years from the date of submission of the annual FSR to NIH. See 45 CFR 75 for exceptions and qualifications to the 3-year retention requirement (e.g., if any litigation, claim, financial management review, or audit is started before the expiration of the 3-year period, the records must be retained until all litigation, claims, or audit findings involving the records have been resolved and final action taken). Those sections also specify the retention period for other types of grant-related records, including F&A cost proposals and property records. See 45 CFR 75 for record retention and access requirements for contracts under grants. In accordance with 45 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 74.53(e), the HHS Inspector General, the U.S. Comptroller General, or any of their duly authorized representatives have the right of timely and unrestricted access to any books, documents, papers, or other records of recipients that are pertinent to awards in order to make audits, examinations, excerpts, transcripts, and copies of such documents. This right also includes timely and unrestricted access to a recipients personnel for the purpose of interview and discussion related to such documents. The rights of access are not limited to the required retention period, but shall last as long as records are retained.

93.351 RESEARCH INFRASTRUCTURE PROGRAMS
Comparative Medicine, Instrumentation, Research Infrastructure

FEDERAL AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
The Office of Research Infrastructure Programs (ORIP) is a program office in the Division of Program Coordination, Planning, and Strategic Initiatives (DPCPSI) dedicated to supporting research infrastructure and related research programs. ORIP consists of the Division of Comparative Medicine (DCM); and Division of Construction and Instruments (DCI).

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
The Division of Comparative Medicine (DCM) helps meet the needs of biomedical researchers for high-quality, disease-free animals and specialized animal research facilities. Additionally, DCM seeks to increase small business participation in federally supported research and development as well as the private-sector commercialization of technology developed with federal support and the biomedical workforce of scientist with a background in veterinary medicine. It does this through the federal government's Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) programs.

Division of Construction and Instruments: This Division supports programs to expand the Nations capacity for the conduct of biomedical research by offering grants for the acquisition of state-of-the-art biomedical research instrumentation and integrated instrument systems, and grants to renovate, improve, or modernize existing research facilities.

Applicant Eligibility:
Comparative Medicine: Institutions of higher education, hospitals, and other institutions and organizations, both nonprofit and for-profit, seeking to establish, continue, or enlarge programs consistent with the objectives of the program. Applicants for NRSA must be citizens of the United States or be admitted to the United States for permanent residency. Applicants must be nominated and sponsored by a public or private nonprofit institution with staff and facilities suitable for the proposed research training. Nonprofit domestic organizations may apply for the institutional NRSA. Research Career Development: Applications may be submitted on behalf of candidates by domestic, nonfederal organizations, public or private institutions of higher education.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Biomedical investigators at any nonprofit or for-profit organization, company, or institution engaged in biomedical research.

CREDENTIALS/DOCUMENTATION:
No Credentials or documentation are required. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Application forms may be obtained from the Division of Extramural Outreach and Information, 6701 Rockledge Drive, MSC 7910, Bethesda, MD 20892-7910, Telephone (301) 435-0714, e-mail: ASKNIH@odrockml.od.nih.gov . Completed applications should be submitted to the Center for Scientific Review, 6701 Rockledge Drive, MSC 7710, Bethesda, MD 20892-7710. The standard application forms PHS 398, (Rev. November 1998), as furnished by PHS and required by 45 CFR, Part 92 must be used for all programs. For filing NRSA individual fellowship award applications, Form 416-1 (Rev. October 1991) is needed.

Grants and cooperative agreements may be made to eligible institutions for the support of cancer research projects. The grants and cooperative agreements may be used for personnel, consultant costs, equipment, supplies, travel, patient costs, animals, alterations and renovations, miscellaneous items, and facilities and administrative costs (formerly known as indirect costs).

Applicant Eligibility:
The awardees will be a university, college, hospital, public agency, nonprofit research institution or for-profit organization that applies and receives a grant for support of research by a named principal investigator. To be eligible for funding, a grant application must be approved for scientific merit and program relevance by a scientific review group and a national advisory council.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Any nonprofit or for-profit organization, company, or institution engaged in biomedical research.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applications must be submitted in compliance with instructions provided with each initiative. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program.

Award Procedure:
Grants and cooperative agreements are funded based on scientific merit, program relevance, and program balance and are made annually. The initial grant award provides funds for the first budget period (usually 12 months) and letter Notice of Award indicates support recommended for the remainder of the project period, allocation of Federal funds by budget categories and special conditions, if any.

Deadlines:
Not Applicable.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Regular Grants: Approximately 10 months.

Applicants:
From 15 to 30 days. A principal investigator may question the substantive or procedural aspects of the review of his/her application by communicating with the staff of the Institute. A description of the NIH Peer Review Appeal procedures is available on the NIH home page www.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/not97-232.html.

Renewals:
From 30 to 60 days. Applications submitted for renewal are reviewed and selected for funding on a competitive basis.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Grants and Cooperative Agreements: Average 3 to 5 years, and a maximum of 5 years. Renewals may be awarded for additional periods of up to 5 years based on competitive peer review. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: by letter of credit.

Reports:
No program reports are required. No cash reports are required. Annual progress reports and selected financial reports are required for continuing projects. Final progress reports, invention statements, and expenditure reports are required at the end of the projects. Special reports may be requested by DHHS. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
No audits shall be made of grants and cooperative agreements.
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. Expenditures and other financial records, and also administrative records, must be retained for 3 years from the day on which the grantee submits the last expenditure report for the grant period.

Funding decisions are based on scientific merit (42 CFR 52b) and program relevance. Scientific merit review encompasses: the peer review criteria detailed in the specific funding announcement, as well as the significance, approach, and innovation of the proposed research; the competency of the principal investigator; the adequacy of the resources and environment; the requested budget and requested period of support; and, where applicable, the adequacy of the measures for protecting against adverse effects upon humans, animals, or the environment.

93.354 PUBLIC HEALTH EMERGENCY RESPONSE: COOPERATIVE AGREEMENT FOR EMERGENCY RESPONSE: PUBLIC HEALTH CRISIS RESPONSE
Public Health Crisis Response Awards

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
This cooperative agreement is authorized under the following statutory authorities: Sections 317(k)(2) and 307 of the Public Health Service Act; [42 U.S.C Sections 247b and 247b-2and 247b-3] as amended; Title IV Section 4002 of the Affordable Care Act, Prevention and Public Health Fund; Sections 307 and 317(k)(2) of the Public Health Service Act [42 USC 242(2) and 247(b)(2), as amended]. In addition, this program is authorized under sections 311 and 1703 of Public Health Service Act [42 USC 243 and 300 u-2, as amended] and Section 4002 of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, Public Law 111-148; 317(a) and 317(d) of the PHS Act, subject to available funding and other requirements and limitations; 317(a) of the Public Health Service Act, subject to available funding and other requirements and limitations.

OBJECTIVES:
The intent of this program is to fund state, local, and territorial public health departments for HHS Secretarial declared and non-declared public health emergencies having an overwhelming impact on jurisdictional resources. These emergencies require federal support to effectively respond to, manage, and address a significant public health threat. CDC seeks to enhance the Nations ability to rapidly mobilize and respond to specific public health crises or emergencies. In addition to immediate response activities, this program provides a mechanism to accelerate readiness for an impending infectious disease threat or other public health crises identified on the event horizon.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
This program is not intended to establish new public health emergency management programs, rather it is designed to support the surge needs of existing programs. In response to this FOA, applicants having an existing public health department which provides for their jurisdictions 10 essential public health services and having a pre-established and functioning public health emergency management program will describe the needs/gaps they may encounter during the initial phase of a public health emergency, and request funding for various categories of response activities. Upon occurrence of a particular public health emergency, CDC can then rapidly fund specific applicants to accelerate crisis response activities and specific categories/activities based on the particular situation. Applicants will need to be capable of activating new or surging current emergency response activities within a 2 day period. Funds may only be used for non-research activities.

Applicant Eligibility:
State government public health departments or their bona fide agents (N=50)
Local health departments or their bona fide agents (N=6) (city or county) consistent with PHEP and ELC awardees, which include: Chicago Department of Public Health, District of Columbia Department of Health, Houston Department of Health and Human Services, Los Angeles County Department of Health Services - Public Health, New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, and Philadelphia Department of Public Health

Territorial governments or their bona fide agents (N=8) in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the US Virgin Islands, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, Guam, the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Republic of Palau

Tribal Public Health Departments: (N=5) Federally recognized tribal governments meeting the core criteria outlined for all eligible applicants and that serve, through their own PH infrastructure, at least 50,000 people and have demonstrable PH capacity.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

93.355 CERTIFIED HEALTH IT SURVEILLANCE CAPACITY AND INFRASTRUCTURE IMPROVEMENT COOPERATIVE AGREEMENT PROGRAM

Surveillance Capacity Cooperative Agreement

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Office of the Secretary, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2017, Pub. L. No. 115-31, Division H, Title II.

OBJECTIVES:
The Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology (ONC) is the principal federal entity charged with coordination of nationwide efforts to implement and use the most advanced health information technology (health IT) and the electronic exchange of health information. Created in 2004 through Executive Order and legislatively mandated in the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (HITECH Act) of 2009, ONC is at the forefront of the federal governments health IT efforts. The ONC Health IT Certification Program, administered under section 3001(c)(5) of the Public Health Service Act, is a voluntary program that provides for the certification of health IT to standards, implementation specifications, and certification criteria adopted by the Secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS). In October 2015, ONC issued the 2015 Edition Health Information Technology (Health IT) Certification Criteria (2015 Edition), 2015 Edition Base Electronic Health Record (EHR) Definition, and ONC Health IT Certification Program Modifications Final Rule, 80 FR 62601 (October 16, 2015) (2015 Edition Final Rule), which included expanded the surveillance requirements for ONC-Authorized Certification Bodies (ONC-ACBs). The 2015 Edition Final Rule also established specific performance expectations for the surveillance of certified health IT in-the-field. Additionally, the 21st Century Cures Act (enacted in 2016) specified additional conditions of certification, including one focused on real world testing.
This Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) is aimed at improving the surveillance capacity and infrastructure that exists for health IT certified under the ONC Health IT Certification Program. Through this FOA, awardees are expected to improve the surveillance capacity and infrastructure that exists for health IT certified under the ONC Health IT Certification Program, with a particular focus on capabilities that are directly related to interoperability.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Contract, Subcontracts. Funds under this announcement cannot be used for the following purposes:

- To purchase or improve land, or to purchase, construct, or make permanent improvements to any building
- Any pre award costs. FY 17 Appropriations.

Applicant Eligibility:
The purpose of these cooperative agreements is to support ONCs mission to improve the surveillance capacity and infrastructure that exists for health IT certified under the ONC Health IT Certification Program, with a particular focus on capabilities that are directly related to interoperability.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
The purpose of this cooperative agreement is to advance the markets ability to electronically exchange health information through the use of certified health IT and to ensure that the products function in the production environment in the form and manner they are certified to. While the beneficiaries are ultimately the broader public at-large, the direct beneficiaries include those who work directly with certified health IT products.

Credentials/Documentation:
In order to be considered for this cooperative agreement, applicants will be required to provide credentials or documentation to demonstrate they have the following qualifications:

- Proof of International Organization for Standardization/International Electrotechnical Commission (ISO/IEC) 17065 Accreditation in good standing through the American National Standards Institute (ANSI)
- Three years minimum experience with the ONC Health IT Certification Program and certified health IT certified product surveillance
- An active mechanism to publicly list ONC health IT certificates and relevant surveillance results. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Applicants are expected to provide a Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) application that address all of the requirements as described in the FOA, a proposed timeline, budget proposal on how they intend to use the award money, all credentials and documentation as identified in (083), and a list of key personnel, including a CV.

Award Procedure:
The award review process will include award review panels comprised of subject matter experts and at least one federal employee. The awarding agency will inform all applicants in writing the status of their application (awarded, not awarded). Applicant awardees will be provided with the terms and conditions of their award, and will commence working with the awarding agency to implement their pilot. The awarding agency will provide oversight of the awards, including but not limited to quarterly reporting. These awards will be issued as Cooperative Agreements.

Deadlines:
Jul 31, 2017

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 30 to 60 days.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Renewals may be available if the applicant is able to successfully show progress towards achieving specified goals.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Assistance will be made available for the duration of the award period, and 90 days after for closeout. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Assistance will be provided upon achievement of milestones as outlined in the funding announcement.

Reports:
Awardees will be required to submit quarterly programmatic progress, annual programmatic progress, and a final report to ONC at the end of the period-of-performance. Semi Annual Federal Cash Transaction Reports are required to be submitted to the Office of Procurement and Grants, as well as quarterly cash transaction reports. Awardees will be required to submit written quarterly programmatic progress reports describing achievements and plans toward meeting specified goals. Yes, expenditure reports will be required as a part of awardees quarterly progress reports, as well as a final financial and reconciliation report of award expenditures as part of the program close-out report. Awardees will be required to submit written quarterly programmatic progress reports describing achievements and plans toward meeting specified goals, as well as a final financial and reconciliation report of award expenditures as part of the program close-out. The ONC Project Officer may conduct regular performance monitoring through phone calls and site visits as deemed necessary.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:
All cooperative agreement-related records, including cooperative agreement-related accreditations, are required to be maintained for no less than 3-years following the official close-out date of the program.

Account Identification:

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:

Proposals will be reviewed by a review panel comprised of no less than one (1) federal employee and subject matter experts (non-federal employees). Each proposal will receive a score based on strength and merit of their proposals based on the merit review criteria of Understanding the Requirements, Innovative Business and Technical Approach for Enhanced Surveillance, Operational Experience and Knowledge of Health IT Certification and Surveillance, and Reasonableness of Budget Narrative. A detailed list of merit review criteria in these areas are detailed in the funding opportunity announcement.

90.358 ADVANCED EDUCATION NURSING TRAINEESHIPS

AENT

FEDERAL AGENCY:

Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

Section 811(a)(2) of the Public Health Service Act, (42 U.S.C. 296j).

OBJECTIVES:

Grants are awarded to eligible institutions to increase the number of advanced practice nurses serving as primary care nurse practitioners or nurse midwives, with an emphasis on funding applicants who are prepared to meet the primary care needs of rural and underserved communities. This goal is accomplished by providing traineeship funds to schools of nursing that prepare graduates to practice in these communities; recipient institutions in turn disburse funds to students in the form of traineeship support.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Funds can be used to pay all or part of the costs of tuition, books/ebooks, and fees of the program of advanced nurse education, and reasonable living expenses in the form of stipends for the student during the period for which the traineeship is provided.

Restricted Uses: Books for library or personal use and trainee travel are not allowed. Student support through stipends, tuition, and fees is not eligible for support.

Indirect costs under training awards to organizations other than State, local or American Indian tribal governments will be budgeted and reimbursed at 8 percent of modified total direct costs rather than on the basis of a negotiated rate agreement, and are not subject to upward or downward adjustment.

Applicant Eligibility:

Eligible applicants are education programs that provide registered nurses with nurse practitioner and nurse-midwife education. Such programs may include schools of nursing, nursing centers, academic health centers, State or local governments, and other public or private nonprofit entities authorized by the Secretary to confer degrees to registered nurses for nurse practitioner and nurse-midwife education.

Federaely Recognized Indian Tribal Government and Native American Organizations may apply if otherwise eligible.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

The participating institutions select traineeship recipients. A recipient (student) must be enrolled in an advanced education nursing program in the recipient institution for preparation as a primary care nurse practitioner or nurse-midwife. The student/enrollee must be pursuing a master's or doctoral degree, a combined RN to master's degree, nurse-midwifery certificate in existence on November 12, 1998, or a post-graduate master's certificate. The student/enrollee must be a citizen of the United States, non-citizen national, or foreign national who possesses a visa permitting permanent residence in the United States. Individuals on temporary or student visas are not eligible to receive AENT support. The student/enrollee must maintain the predetermined academic standards of the institution and be prepared to sit for national nursing certification in the nursing specialty or field of study following graduation.

Credentials/Documentation:

Applicants should review the individual HRSA Notice of Funding Opportunity issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications which must be submitted with an application package. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. HRSA requires all applicants to apply electronically through Grants.gov.

All eligible, qualified applications will be forwarded to an objective review committee. Based on the advice of the objective review committee, the HRSA program official with delegated authority is responsible for final selection and funding decisions. Notification is made in writing by a Notice of Award.

Award Procedure:

Notification of award is made in writing (electronic) through a Notice of Award.

Deadlines:

Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

Approximately 120 -180 days after receipt of applications.

Appeals:

Not Applicable.

Renewals:

Not Applicable.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program.

Matching requirements are not applicable to this program.

This program has MOE requirements, see funding agency for further details.

The recipient must agree to maintain non-federal funding for grant activities at a level which is not less than expenditures for such activities during the fiscal year prior to receiving the award.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

This funding opportunity provides support for a one year project period. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Recipients draw down funds, as necessary, from the Payment Management System (PMS), the centralized web based payment system for HHS awards.

Reports:

Both program and financial reports are required. The recipient will be required to submit annual performance reports. A Federal Financial Report (SF-425) is required according to the schedule in HRSAs Application Guide. A Federal Financial Report (SF-425) is required according to the schedule in HRSAs Application Guide. A final report is due within 90 days after the project period ends. If applicable, the recipient must submit a Tangible Personal Property Report (SF-428) and any related forms within 90 days after the project period ends. New awards (Type 1) issued under this Notice of Funding Opportunity are subject to the reporting requirements of the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act (FFATA) of 2006 (Pub. L. 109-282), as amended by section 6202 of Public Law 110-252, and implemented by 2 CFR Part 170. Grant and cooperative agreement recipients must report information for each first-tier sub-award of $25,000 or more in federal funds and executive total... compensation for the recipients and sub-recipients five most highly compensated executives as outlined in Appendix A to 2 CFR Part 170 (The FFATA details are available online at http://www.hrsa.gov/grants/ffata.html). Competing continuation recipients may be subject to this requirement and will be so notified in the Notice of Award. No expenditure reports are required. Performance monitoring is not applicable.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:
Recipients are required to maintain grant accounting records 3 years from the date they submit the FFR. If any litigation, claim, negotiation, audit or other action involving the award has been started before the expiration of the 3 year period, the records shall be retained until completion of the action and resolution of all issues which arise from it, or until the end of the regular 3 year period, whichever is later.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:
Procedures for assessing the technical merit of grant applications have been instituted to provide an objective review of applications and to assist the applicant in understanding the standards against which each application will be judged. Critical indicators have been developed for each review criterion to assist the applicant in presenting pertinent information related to that criterion and to provide the reviewer with a standard for evaluation. Competing applications are reviewed by non-Federal expert consultant(s) for technical merit recommendations. Applications will be reviewed and evaluated against the following criteria: (1) Purpose and Need; (2) Response to Program Purpose; (3) Impact; (4) Organizational Information, Resources and Capabilities; and (5) Support Requested. See the most recent Notice of Funding Opportunity for detailed selection criteria.

93.359 NURSE EDUCATION, PRACTICE QUALITY AND RETENTION GRANTS
NEPQR

NEPQR - Interprofessional Collaborative Practice (IPCP)

NEPQR - Veterans Bachelor of Science in Nursing (VBSN)

NEPQR-IPCP: Behavioral Health Integration (BHI)

NEPQR BSN Practicums in Community Settings (BPCS)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Section 831 and 831A of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 296p and 42 U.S.C. 296p-1).

OBJECTIVES:
NEPQR:
The NEPQR program provides grant support for academic, service, and continuing education projects designed to enhance nursing education, improve the quality of patient care, increase nurse retention, and strengthen the nursing workforce. The NEPQR program has broad statutory authority to address the development and enhancement of the nursing workforce. The three priority areas defined in statute are (1) Education, (2) Practice, and (3) Retention.

NEPQR - Veterans Baccalaureate of Science in Nursing program (VBSN):
The Veterans Bachelor of Science in Nursing (VBSN) programs aim is to strengthen the quality of care and expand the nursing workforce through increased enrollment of veterans in baccalaureate nursing programs. The VBSN program supports the development and implementation of innovative practice models that enable veterans to earn baccalaureate nursing degrees. The program expands employment opportunities for veterans and prepares them to make the transition from their former military role to that of a civilian nurse.

NEPQR-IPCP: Behavioral Health Integration (BHI) program:
The NEPQR-IPCP: BHI program aims to expand the evidence-based practice of integrating behavioral health providers into nurse-led primary care teams in order to increase access to care, enhance care coordination and improve patient outcomes in vulnerable and/or underserved community-based settings.

NEPQR-BSN Practicums in Community Settings (BPCS) program:
The NEPQR-IPCP program aims to increase experiential training opportunities for senior-level BSN students with meaningful clinical experiences and training in medically underserved and rural communities. This experiential training will lead to increased competencies in primary care and ultimately improved distribution of the nursing workforce.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements; Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funds may be used for salaries of personnel specifically employed for the project; consultant fees; supplies and equipment necessary to conduct the project; essential travel expenses and other expenses related to the project.

Restricted Uses: Indirect costs under training awards to organizations other than State, local or American Indian tribal governments will be budgeted and reimbursed at 8 percent of modified total direct costs rather than on the basis of
Program Descriptions 2.432 October 2017

Award Procedure:

Application Procedures:
Preapplication Coordination:
Credentials/Documentation:

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Project participants, or students in the program, must be U.S. Citizens, non-citizen nationals, or foreign nationals who possess visas permitting permanent residence in the United States. Individuals on temporary student visas are not eligible.

VBSN Project Participants must be honorably or generally discharged service members or reservists, with prior medical training, who have not yet earned Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) degrees.

Credentails/Documentation:

Applicants should review the individual HRSA Notice of Funding Opportunity issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications which must be submitted with an application package. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. HRSA requires all applicants to apply electronically through Grants.gov.

All eligible, qualified applications will be forwarded to an objective review committee. Based on the advice of the objective review committee, the HRSA program official with delegated authority is responsible for final selection and funding decisions. Notification is made in writing by a Notice of Award.

Award Procedure:

Notification of award is made in writing (electronic) by a Notice of Award.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Approximately 120 - 180 days after receipt of applications.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Depending on Agency priorities and availability of funding, during the final budget year of the approved project period competing continuation applications may be solicited from interested applicants.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program. This program has MOE requirements, see funding agency for further details. The recipient must agree to maintain non-federal funding for grant activities at a level which is not less than expenditures for such activities during the fiscal year prior to receiving the award.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

NEPQR-Veterans Bachelor of Science in Nursing: This funding opportunity provides support for a 3-year project period.

NEPQR-IPCP: Behavioral Health Integration (BHI) program: This funding opportunity provides support for a 2-year project period.

NEPQR-IPCP program: This funding opportunity provides support for a 3-year project period.

NEPQR-BSN Practicums in Community Settings (BPCS) program: See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Recipients draw down funds, as necessary, from the Payment Management System (PMS). PMS is the centralized web based payment system for HHS awards.

Reports:
Both program and financial reports are required. The recipient will be required to submit annual performance and progress reports. Cash reports are not applicable. A Federal Financial Report (SF-425) is required according to the schedule in HRSAs Application Guide. A final report is due within 90 days after the project period ends. If applicable, the recipient must submit a Tangible Personal Property Report (SF-428) and any related forms within 90 days after the project period ends. New awards (Type 1) issued under this notice of funding opportunity are subject to the reporting requirements of the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act (FFATA) of 2006 (Pub. L. 109-282), as amended by section 6202 of Public Law 110-252, and implemented by 2 CFR Part 170. Grant and cooperative agreement recipients must report information for each first-tier subaward of $25,000 or more in federal funds and executive total compensation for the recipients and subrecipients five most highly compensated executives as outlined in Appendix A to 2 CFR Part 170 (The FFATA details are available online at http://www.hrsa.gov/grants/ffata.html). Competing continuation recipients may be subject to this requirement and will be so notified in the Notice of Award. Expenditure reports are not applicable. Performance monitoring is not applicable.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Recipients are required to maintain grant accounting records 3 years after the date they submit the Federal Financial Report (FFR). If any litigation, claim, negotiation, audit or other action involving the award has been started before the expiration of the 3 year period, the records shall be retained until completion of the action and resolution of all issues which arise from it, or until... the end of the regular 3 year period, whichever is later.

AUTHORIZATION:
Public Health Service Act, Title III, Section 319L; Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2010, Division D, Department of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2010.

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of this program is to coordinate the acceleration of countermeasure and product advanced research and development by(A) facilitating collaboration between the Department of Health and Human Services and other Federal agencies, relevant industries, academia, and other persons, with respect to such advanced research and development; (B) promoting countermeasure and product advanced research and development; (C) facilitating contacts between interested persons and the offices, employees authorized by the Secretary to advise such persons regarding requirements under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and under section 351 of the Public Health Service Act; and (D) promoting innovation to reduce the time and cost of countermeasure and product advanced research and development. The Public Health Service Act at 42 U.S.C. 247d-6a defines a qualified countermeasure as a drug (as that term is defined by section 321(g)(1) of title 21), biological product (as that term is defined by section 262(i) of this title), or device (as that term is defined by section 255(i) of title 21), that the Secretary determines to be a priority (consistent with sections 182(2) and 184(a) of title 6) to - (i) diagnose, mitigate, prevent, or treat harm from any biological agent (including organisms that cause an infectious disease) or toxin, chemical, radiological, or nuclear agent that may cause a public health emergency affecting national security; or (ii) diagnose, mitigate, prevent, or treat harm from a condition that may result in adverse health consequences or death and may be caused by administering a drug, biological product, or device that is used as described in this subparagraph.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements (Discretionary Grants); Project Grants (Discretionary)

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Support international in-country and domestic advanced development and industrialization of human pandemic influenza vaccine. Support activities related to the mitigation of the global shortage of influenza vaccines through awards and sub-awards to developing countries with the potential and capacity to manufacture various influenza vaccines. Basic research (e.g. scientific or medical experiments) is not allowable. 100% of funds are for discretionary activities.

Applicant Eligibility:
All types of entities are eligible, including highly qualified foreign nationals outside the United States either alone or in collaboration with American participants when such transactions may inure to the benefit of the American people. Applicants should review the individual funding opportunity announcements issued under this CFDA program.

Renewals:
Not Applicable.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Project periods are limited up to 60 months. Budget periods are limited up to 12 months. The following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Awardee is issued a Notice of Award, a legal document that informs the awardee that a grant award has been made. Awardee may draw down funds in advance of the incursion of an expenditure (up to three days) from the Payment Management System.

Reports:
Program reports are not applicable. Recipients must report cash transaction data via the Payment Management System (PMS) using the cash transaction data elements captured on the Federal Financial Report (FFR), Standard Form (SF) 425. Recipients will utilize the Transactions section of SF425 in lieu of the SF272. The FFR SF425 cash Transaction Report is due 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter. Grantees are required to submit semi-annual Program Progress Reports as well as final Program Progress Reports. Report formats and submission requirements are outlined in the funding opportunity announcement. ASPR requires cumulative financial reporting through consecutive funding periods on the SF269 FSR long form. The FRR SF425 was designed to replace the Financial Status Report SF269 and the Federal Cash Transactions Report SF272 with one comprehensive financial reporting form. Until HHS fully migrates to the SF425 FFR, recipients are still required to submit the SF269 Financial Status Report (FSR) semi-annually within 30 days after the first 6 month period and within 90 days of the budget period end date. Grantees are required to submit final Financial Status Reports (SF-269). Performance monitoring of awardees is completed by BARDA program staff.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

93.361 NURSING RESEARCH

FEDERAL AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Public Health Service Act, Section 301, 464, 487, 42 U.S.C 285q; Public Health Service Act, Public Law 99-158; Public Health Service Act, Public Law 102-564.

OBJECTIVES:
The mission of the National Institute of Nursing Research (NINR) is to promote and improve the health of individuals, families, and communities. To achieve this mission, NINR supports and conducts clinical and basic research and research training on health and illness, research that spans and integrates the behavioral and biological sciences, and that develops the scientific basis for clinical practice. From premature infants in neonatal intensive care units, to adolescents living with diabetes, to elderly cancer survivors coping with pain, nursing research develops the science to help people strengthen the quality of their lives. Nursing science transcends the boundaries of disease and research disciplines to better understand the experiences of individuals and families living with illness and to develop personalized approaches that maximize health and well-being for individuals at all stages of life, across diverse populations and settings. NINRs scientific programs are organized around four major focus areas: symptom science, wellness, self-management of chronic conditions, and the science of end-of-life and palliative care. The Institute also explores ways in which new innovations and technologies can contribute to advancing nursing science across these four areas. In addition, NINR has a longstanding and continuing commitment to developing the next generation of nurse scientists: those individuals and team members who will carry the field of nursing science into the future. NINRs research program in symptom science seeks a better understanding of the biological and behavioral aspects of symptoms, with the goal of developing and testing new interventions to reduce

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Research Grants: Funds may be used for salaries, consultation, equipment, travel and other usual costs, subject to Federal regulations applicable to the grant. National Research Service Awards (NRSAs) (Individual): Individual awards are made to institutions on behalf of the individual for research training in specified areas related to the mission of NINR. NRSAs (Institutional): Grants may be made to institutions to enable them to accept individuals for research training. Each individual who receives a NRSA postdoctoral fellowship on an NRSAs must comply with all applicable service and payback provisions. SBIR Phase I grants: (of approximately 6-months' duration) are to establish the technical merit and feasibility of a proposed research effort that may lead to a commercial product or process. STTR Phase I grants (normally of 1-year duration) are to determine the scientific, technical, and commercial merit and feasibility of the proposed cooperative effort that has potential for commercial application. Phase II funding is based on results of research conducted in Phase I and scientific and technical merit and commercial potential of Phase II application.

Applicant Eligibility:

Research Grants: Any corporation, public or private institution or agency, or other legal entity, either nonprofit or for-profit, may apply. NRSAs (Individual): An applicant must be a registered professional nurse with either a baccalaureate and/or a master's degree in nursing and must be a citizen of the United States or lawfully admitted for permanent residence. Those on temporary or student visas are not eligible. NRSAs (Institutional): An eligible institution must be capable of providing postdoctoral and/or postdoctoral research training opportunities for nurses. SBIR grants: can be awarded only to domestic small businesses (entities that are independently owned and operated for profit; are not dominant in the field in which research is being proposed; and have no more than 500 employees) that produce services or products. NRSAs (Institutional): The applicant organization must show the qualifications and experience of directing staff, the criteria to be used in selecting individuals for awards, and detailed budget justification for the amount of grant funds requested. Costs will be determined in accordance with 2 CFR, Part 220, Cost Principles for Educational Institutions. For-profit organizations' costs are determined in accordance with 48 CFR Subpart 31.2 of the Federal Acquisition Regulations. For other grantees, costs will be determined by HHS Regulations 45 CFR, Part 75. For SBIR and STTR grants, applicant organization (small business concern) must present in a research plan an idea that has potential for commercialization and furnish evidence that scientific competence, experimental methods, facilities, equipment, and funds requested are appropriate to carry out the plan. The SF 424 (Research and Research-Related) application forms and the SF 424 SBIR/STTR Application Guide are used to apply for both SBIR and STTR, Phase I and Phase II. Application is made electronically through Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov). 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Research Grants: Applications must be prepared electronically through Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov) using the SF 424 (Research and Research-Related) application form. The electronic application format is interactive. For assistance submitting an electronic application, contact GrantsInfo: Telephone (301) 435-0714, Email: GrantsInfo@nih.gov. NRSAs (Individual): Individuals must submit the SF 424 (Research and Research-Related) application form, and include at least three, but no more than five, letters of reference. Letters of reference must be submitted electronically through the NIH eRA Commons Submit Reference Letter website and not through Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov). Applicants who have lawfully been admitted to the United States for permanent residence must complete the appropriate section on the Face Page of the SF 424 (Research and Research-Related) application form. Applicants who have applied for and have not yet been granted admission as a permanent resident should check the Permanent resident block on the Face Page of this application form, and also write in the word "pending." A notarized statement documenting legal admission for permanent resident must be submitted prior to the issuance of an award. SBIR and STTR: The SF 424 (Research and Research-Related) application form and the SF 424 SBIR/STTR Application Guide are used to apply for both SBIR and STTR grants, Phase I and Phase II. Application forms must be submitted electronically through Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov). For further assistance contact GrantsInfo:

Conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 annually or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit.

In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend Federal assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Contracts:
Grantees generally must retain financial and programmatic records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records that are required by the terms of a grant, or may reasonably be considered pertinent to a grant, for a period of 3 years from the date the annual Federal Financial Report (FFR) is submitted. For awards under SNAP (other than those to foreign organizations and Federal institutions), the 3-year retention period will be calculated from the date the Final Status Report (FSR) for the entire competitive segment is submitted. Those grantees must retain the records pertinent to the entire competitive segment for 3 years from the date the FSR is submitted to NIH. Foreign organizations and Federal institutions must retain records for 3 years from the date of submission of the annual FSR to NIH. See 45 CFR Part 75.361 for exceptions and qualifications to the 3-year retention requirement (e.g., if any litigation, claim, financial management review, or audit is started before the expiration of the 3-year period, the records must be retained until all litigation, claims, or audit findings involving the records have been resolved and final action taken). Those sections also specify the retention period for other types of grant-related records, including F&A cost proposals and property records. See 45 CFR Part 75.361 and Part 75.364 for record retention and access requirements for contracts under grants.

In accordance with 45 CFR 75.364, the HHS Inspector General, the U.S. Comptroller General, or any of their duly authorized representatives have the right of timely and unrestricted access to any books, documents, papers, or other records of recipients that are pertinent to awards in order to make audits, examinations, excerpts, transcripts, and copies of such documents. This right also includes timely and reasonable access to a recipients personnel for the purpose of interview and discussion related to such documents. The rights of access are not limited to the required retention period, but shall last as long as records are retained.

If the strategy establish feasibility and will particularly risky aspects be managed? success presented? If the project is in the early stages of development, will the proposed? Are potential problems, alternative strategies, and benchmarks for improvement, or new application of theoretical concepts, approaches or methodologies, instrumentation, or interventions proposed? (4) Approach: Are the concepts, approaches or methodologies, instrumentation, or interventions novel to one field of research or novel in a broad sense? Is a refinement, a potential problems, alternative strategies, and benchmarks for success presented? If the project is in the early stages of development, will the strategy establish feasibility and will particularly risky aspects be managed? Have the investigators presented strategies to ensure a robust and unbiased approach, as appropriate for the work proposed? Are potential problems, alternative strategies, and benchmarks for success presented? If the project involves human subjects and/or NIH-defined clinical research, are the plans to address 1) the protection of human subjects from research risks, and 2) inclusion (or exclusion) of individuals on the basis of sex, race, and ethnicity, as well as the inclusion or exclusion of children, justified in terms of the scientific goals and research strategy proposed? (5) Environment: Will the scientific environment in which the work will be done contribute to the probability of success? Are the institutional support, equipment and other physical resources available to the investigators adequate for the project proposed? Will the project benefit from unique features of the scientific environment, subject populations, or collaborative arrangements? In addition to the above criteria, the following items will continue to be considered in the determination of scientific merit and the impact/priority score. Protections for Human Subjects: For research that involves human subjects but does not involve one of the six categories of research that are exempt under 45 CFR Part 46, the committee will evaluate: 1) the justification for the exemption, 2) human subjects involvement and characteristics, and 3) sources of materials. Inclusion of Women, Minorities, and Children: When the proposed project involves human subjects and/or NIH-defined clinical research, the committee will evaluate the proposed plans for the inclusion (or exclusion) of individuals on the basis of sex, race, and ethnicity, as well as the inclusion or exclusion of children to determine if it is justified in terms of the scientific goals and research strategy proposed. Vertebrate Animals: The committee will evaluate the involvement of live vertebrate animals as part of the scientific assessment according to the following criteria: 1) description of proposed procedures involving animals, including species, strains, ages, sex, and total number to be used; (2) justifications for the use of animals versus alternative models and for the appropriateness of the species proposed; (3) interventions to minimize discomfort, distress, pain and injury; and (4) justification for euthanasia method if not consistent with the AVMA Guidelines for the Euthanasia of Animals. Reviewers will assess the use of chimpanzees as they would any other application proposing the use of vertebrate animals. For additional information on review of the Vertebrate Animals section, please refer to the Worksheet for Review of the Vertebrate Animal Section. Biohazards: Reviewers will assess whether materials or procedures proposed are potentially hazardous to research personnel and/or the environment, and if needed, determine whether adequate protection is proposed. Resubmission: The committee will evaluate the application as now presented, taking into consideration the responses to comments from the previous scientific review group and changes made to the project. Renewal: The committee will consider the progress made in the last funding period. Revision: The committee will consider the appropriateness of the proposed expansion of the scope of the project. If the Revision application relates to a specific line of investigation presented in the original application that was not recommended for approval by the committee, then the committee will consider whether the responses to comments from the previous scientific review group are adequate and whether substantial changes are clearly evident. Applications compete for available funds with all other recommended applications. The following will be considered in making funding decisions: Scientific merit of the proposed project as determined by peer review; Availability of funds; Relevance of program priorities.

93.363 FLEXIBLE ALTERNATIVES FOR STATE TRANSFORMATION MODEL

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Social Security Act, section 1115A.

OBJECTIVES:
The Flexible Alternatives for State Transformation (FAST) Model will provide states with an opportunity to develop and implement payment reforms that are driven by state needs and enable local innovation to improve healthcare value and the health of populations. Through FAST, the Innovation Center will empower states to create transformative multi-payer models in which participating payers are aligned in how they incentivize healthcare value, quality, and outcomes. Together in partnership, states and CMS will support providers in their ongoing transformation to a value-based payment system. Awardee states will have the flexibility to determine, based on state and community needs, the specific parameters of the proposed model, including the incentive structure and population and/or geographic region included in the model.

FAST provides states with the flexibility to pursue comprehensive and sustainable payment reform through one of two tracks that best meets their needs:

A. Transformation Track Support states to launch a new multi-payer model with Medicare, Medicaid, and commercial payer participation. These models will meet the criteria outlined in the Innovation Center’s 2017 Guidance for Medicare Participation in a state-based multi-payer model, as well as criteria to become an Advanced Alternative Payment Model. States may request that
Program Descriptions 2.438 October 2017

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Funds will be used to refine the details of a state-based model and build state capacity to execute on that model, including investments in Data and Health IT, Metrics and Measurement, Stakeholder Engagement, Human Capital Development, Model Operations, and support negotiations with CMS for any needed new authorities (e.g., Medicaid state plan amendment, Medicaid waiver, Medicare FFS waiver, Medicaid Implementation Advance Planning Document Update).

Data and Health IT Awards may be used to fund technology, systems, and activities at the state, payer, and/or provider level to support SLIM health IT priorities: outcomes-focused service delivery, population health, and multi-payer models ready for Advanced APMs. Specific examples of systems and activities include:

Development of shared governance, financing, and policy agreements, including convening activities and other activities associated with development of signed agreements associated with such agreements.

Development and maintenance of multi-payer claims, clinical and non-clinical measurement reporting and analytics infrastructure, capability, and capacity. This could include a statewide multi-payer database or related data center costs.

Development and maintenance of multi-payer claims, clinical and non-clinical data extraction, transformation, aggregation, quality, use and dissemination capabilities, including health information exchange services and data exchange.

Development, implementation and operations of an alert notification system.

Identity management services, including Master Patient and/or Master Provider databases.

Consent management, including the building of a consent registry.

Analytics capabilities, including simulation and modeling of patient risk scores, predictive cost modeling, identification or prediction of gaps in care, and other functions that enhance clinical decision support.

Infrastructure to support patient attribution and provider directories.

Infrastructure to build or expand tele-health systems.

Security mechanisms.

Connections between behavioral health, public health, social services, and clinical data systems through shared health IT infrastructure.

Metrics and Measurement: Award funds may be used to support measure alignment, including to develop and implement multi-payer core measure set with benchmarks, data collection and reporting framework and processes, including convening and other activities associated with getting payers buy-in and commitment to measure alignment.

Stakeholder Engagement: Awards may fund stakeholder engagement activities such as:

Funding to facilitate consumer participation in state-level stakeholder efforts.

Develop and implement governance structures for multi-payer and multi-stakeholder work, including explicit data and health IT governance structures.

Increase provider readiness to participate in Advanced APMS (e.g., CEH and OME adoption and use; prepare providers to participate in a model that includes more than nominal financial risk.

Resources and activities to facilitate alignment on payment mechanisms, quality measures, data-sharing, and health IT infrastructure across payers.

Human Capital: In our experience working with states to launch multi-payer models, we have found that standing up state entities necessary for robust unique payment strategies, such as Maryland's Health Services Cost Review Commission or Vermont's Green Mountain Care Board, is essential to the success of the multi-payer model, but takes significant time and resources.

Award funds may support the following:

Build leadership skills, administrative capacity, and subject matter expertise, including health IT, related to the multi-payer model.

Develop state employee analytic and health IT capacity and capability.

Staff resources associated with obtaining any needed Medicaid waivers or State Plan Amendments to support state-designed multi-payer model.

Staff resources associated with finalizing financial, quality, access, and population health targets.

Build public health capacity to assume financial accountability for population health outcomes.

Prepare providers, payers, and Medicaid managed care organizations to participate in Advanced APMS, including downside risk (e.g., analytics support for providers, quality improvement program development, health IT infrastructure).

Staff resources associated with project management, including travel to SLIM trainings and conferences.

Contract support for state personnel in operationalizing multi-payer model, including health IT.

State agency personnel committed to developing and negotiating the terms of their state-designed multi-payer model with CMS.

100% FTE trained Federal grants management and administration staff to support SLIM, hired within first 3 months of award start.

Staff that can represent the Governors Office.

Staff and/or contractor support for developing and implementing alternative payment models (e.g., actuarial estimates, total cost of care benchmarking).

Not to pay for any community services (e.g., housing, food, violence intervention programs, and transportation).

To provide individuals with services that are already funded through any other source, including but not limited to Medicare, Medicaid, and CHIP.

To match any federal funds.

To provide services, equipment, or supports that are the legal responsibility of another party under Federal, State, or Tribal law (e.g., vocational rehabilitation or education services) or under any civil rights laws. Such legal responsibilities include, but are not limited to, modifications of a workplace or other reasonable accommodations that are a specific obligation of the employer or other party. To cover the costs to provide direct health care services to individuals.

To supplant existing State, local, or private funding of infrastructure or services, such as staff salaries, etc.

To be used by local entities to satisfy State matching requirements.

For specific components, devices, equipment, or personnel that are not integrated into the entire service delivery model proposal.

To provide goods or services not allocable to the approved project.

To pay for construction.

To pay for capital expenditures for improvements to land, buildings, or equipment which materially increase their value or useful life as a direct cost, except with the prior written approval of the Federal awarding agency.

To pay for the cost of independent research and development, including their proportionate share of indirect costs (which is unallowable in accordance with 45 CFR § 75.476).

To use as profit to any award recipient even if the award recipient is a commercial organization, (unallowable in accordance with 45 CFR §75.216(b)), except for grants awarded under the Small Business Innovative Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer Research (STTR) programs.
(15 U.S.C. 638). Profit is considered to be any amount in excess of allowable direct and indirect costs. To expend funds related to any activity designed to influence the enactment of legislation, Appropriations, regulation, administrative action, or Executive order proposed or pending before the Congress or any state government, state legislature or local legislature or legislative body. To lobby or advocate for changes in Federal and/or state law.

Applicant Eligibility:
State Governors Offices, United States Territories Governors Offices (American Samoa, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin islands), and the Mayors Office of the District of Columbia are eligible to apply, with the exception of states that have a current SIM award, current multi-payer agreement in place with CMS, and/or states that have a current Delivery System Reform Incentive Payment (DSRIP) waiver in place. Only one application from a Governor per state will be permitted. A state cannot receive multiple awards.

A state may propose that an outside organization focused on quality and state delivery system transformation, such as a non-profit affiliated with the states Department of Health/Medicaid single state agency or a public-private partnership supported by the Governors Office, receive and administer funds through a SLIM award. Under such an approach, the Governors Office must provide a justification for the request and an attestation that the state will actively participate in all activities described in its proposal.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) has worked to promote efficiency and quality of health care, particularly under value-based payment models in the Medicare program. CMS has invested in a number of initiatives to achieve these goals, including the Medicare Shared Savings Program, Comprehensive Primary Care (CPC) Initiative, Comprehensive Primary Care Plus (CPC+), Next Generation ACO Model, and Bundled Payments for Care Improvement (BPCI) Initiative. These efforts were bolstered by the 2015 Medicare Access and CHIP Reauthorization Act (MACRA), enacted into law by the 2015 legislation.

CMS has also recognized the importance of state flexibility, because states can accelerate healthcare transformation. The Innovation Center has invested in partnerships with states under several models, including the State Innovation Model (SIM). The SIM initiative tests the ability of state governments to use their policy and regulatory levers to accelerate health care transformation that results in better care, smarter spending, and healthier people.

This Funding Announcement for the Flexibility and Accountability in State Transformation Model FAST builds upon important lessons from the SIM Initiative, but is substantively different, providing direct federal investment in states to support innovative payment reforms that are driven by state needs, but is structured to give states more accountability to achieve milestones than has been present in SIM. States will be held accountable in two ways. First, grant funds will be released incrementally, contingent upon the states progress in achieving annual and quarterly milestones that demonstrate tangible progress in building the infrastructure and capacity needed to implement its proposed state-designed model at the conclusion of the FAST award period. Second, progression to Year 2 will be contingent upon a fundamental demonstration of the states commitment to the model beyond the FAST award period (e.g., evidence of future budget allocations to support the model, proposed legislation to ensure the state has necessary authorities to execute the model, submission of Medicaid SPA, etc.). We believe such investments will empower our state partners to design new approaches and to execute these strategies well, and will eventually lead to long term, sustainable improvements in quality and reductions in cost trends.

Credentials/Documentation:
Employer Identification Number: All applicants must have a valid Employer Identification Number (EIN) assigned by the Internal Revenue Service. Dun and Bradstreet (D&B) Data Universal Numbering System (DUNS number): All applicants must have a Dun and Bradstreet (D&B) Data Universal Numbering System (DUNS) number in order to apply. The DUNS number is a nine-digit identification number that uniquely identifies business entities. Obtaining a DUNS number is free. To obtain a DUNS number, access the following website: www.dandbradstreet.com or call 1-866-705-5711. See Section IV, Application and Submission Information, for more information on obtaining a DUNS number.

System for Award Management (SAM)
All applicants must register in the System for Award Management (SAM)* database (https://www.sam.gov/portal/public/SAM/) in order to be able to submit an application at http://www.grants.gov. In order to register, applicants must provide their DUNS and EIN numbers. Each year, organizations and entities, registered to apply for Federal grants through Grants.gov must renew their registration with SAM. Each year organizations and entities must renew their registration with SAM. Failure to renew SAM registration prior to application submission will prevent an applicant from successfully applying via Grants.gov. Similarly, failure to maintain an active SAM registration during the application review process can prevent CMS from issuing your agency an award under this program. Applicants should begin the SAM registration process as soon as possible after the announcement is posted to ensure that it does not impair your ability to meet required submission deadlines. Applicants must successfully register with SAM prior to submitting an application or registering in the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act Sub-award Reporting System (FSRS) as a prime awardee user; awardees may make sub-awards only to entities that have DUNS numbers.

Organizations must report executive compensation as part of the registration profile at https://www.sam.gov/portal/public/SAM/. Executive compensation must be included as part of the registration profile by the end of the month following the month in which this award is made, and annually thereafter (based on the reporting requirements of the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act (FFATA) of 2006 (Pub. L. 109-282), as amended by Section 6202 of Public Law 110-252 and implemented by 2 CFR Part 170). 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Applications will be submitted electronically through GrantSolutions in response to the Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA).

Application Materials:
Application materials will be available for download at http://www.grants.gov. Please note that HHS requires applications for all announcements to be submitted electronically through http://www.grants.gov. For assistance with http://www.grants.gov, contact support@grants.gov or 1-800-518-4726. At Grants.gov, applicants will be able to download a copy of the application packet, complete it off-line, and then upload and submit the application via the Grants.gov website.

Specific instructions for applications submitted via http://www.grants.gov:
You may access the electronic application for this project at http://www.grants.gov. You must search the downloadable application page by the CFDA number.

At the http://www.grants.gov website, you will find information about submitting an application electronically through the site, including the hours of operation. HHS strongly recommends that you do not wait until the application due date to begin the application process through http://www.grants.gov because of the time needed to complete the required registration steps.

The applicant must be registered in the System for Award Management (SAM) database in order to be able to submit the application. Applicants are encouraged to register early, and must have their DUNS and EIN/TIN numbers in order to do so.
Authorized Organizational Representative: The Authorized Organizational Representative (AOR) who will officially submit an application on behalf of the organization must register with Grants.gov for a username and password. AORs must complete a profile with Grants.gov using their organizations DUNS number to obtain their username and password at http://grants.gov/applicants/get_registered.jsp. AORs must wait one business day after successful registration in SAM before entering their profiles in Grants.gov. Applicants should complete this process as soon as possible after successful registration in SAM to ensure this step is completed in time to apply before application deadlines.

When an AOR registers with Grants.gov to submit applications on behalf of an organization, that organizations E-Biz POC will receive an email notification. The email address provided in the profile will be the email used to send the notification from Grants.gov to the E-Biz POC with the AOR copied on the correspondence.

The E-Biz POC must then login to Grants.gov (using the organizations DUNS number for the username and the special password called M-PIN) and approve the AOR, thereby providing permission to submit applications.

Any files uploaded or attached to the Grants.gov application must be PDF file format and must contain a valid file format extension in the filename. Even though Grants.gov allows applicants to attach any file formats as part of their application, CMS restricts this practice and only accepts PDF file formats. Any file submitted as part of the Grants.gov application that is not in a PDF file format, or contains password protection, will not be accepted for processing and will be excluded from the application during the review process. In addition, the use of compressed file formats such as ZIP, RAR, or Adobe Portfolio will not be accepted. The application must be submitted in a file format that can easily be copied and read by reviewers. It is recommended that scanned copies not be submitted through Grants.gov unless the applicant confirms the clarity of the documents. Pages cannot be reduced in size, resulting in multiple pages on a single sheet, to avoid exceeding the page limitation. All documents that do not conform to the above specifications will be excluded from the application materials during the review process.

After you electronically submit your application, you will receive an acknowledgement from Grants.gov that contains a Grants.gov tracking number. Although Grants.gov allows applicants to attach any file formats as part of their application, CMS will retrieve your application package from Grants.gov. Please note that applicants may incur a time delay before they receive acknowledgement that the application has been accepted by the Grants.gov system. Applicants should not wait until the application deadline to apply because notification by Grants.gov that the application is incomplete may not be received until close to or after the application deadline, eliminating the opportunity to correct errors and resubmit the application. Applications submitted after the deadline, as a result of errors on the part of the applicant, will not be accepted.

After CMS retrieves your application package from Grants.gov, a return receipt will be emailed to the applicant contact. This will be in addition to the validation number provided by Grants.gov.

Applications cannot be accepted through any email address. Full applications can only be accepted through http://www.grants.gov. Full applications cannot be received via paper mail, courier, or delivery service.

All grant applications must be submitted electronically and be received through http://www.grants.gov by 3:00 pm Eastern Daylight Time on the applicable due date. Applications not successfully submitted to Grants.gov by the due date and time will not be eligible for review. All applications will receive an automatic time stamp upon submission and applicants will receive an email reply acknowledging the applications receipt.

Please be aware of the following:

1) Search for the application package in Grants.gov by entering the CFDA number. This number is shown on the cover page of this announcement.
2) If you experience technical challenges while submitting your application electronically, please contact Grants.gov Support directly at: www.grants.gov/customersupport or (800) 518-4726. Customer Support is available to address questions 24 hours a day, 7 days a week (except on Federal holidays).
3) Upon contacting Grants.gov, obtain a tracking number as proof of contact. The tracking number is helpful if there are technical issues that cannot be resolved.

To be considered timely, applications must be received by the published deadline date. However, a general extension of a published application deadline that affects all State applicants or only those in a defined geographical area may be authorized by circumstances that affect the public at large, such as natural disasters (e.g., floods or hurricanes) or disruptions of electronic (e.g., application receipt services) or other services, such as a prolonged blackout. This statement does not apply to an individual entity having internet service problems. In order for there to be any consideration there must be an effect on the public at large.

Grants.gov complies with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. If an individual uses assistive technology and is unable to access any material on the site including forms contained within an application package, they can email the Grants.gov contact center at support@grants.gov or call 1-800-518-4726.

Form of Application Submission

The application must include all contents described below, in the order indicated, and conform to the following specifications:

- Use 8.5 x 11 letter-size pages (one side only) with 1 margins (top, bottom, and sides). Other paper sizes will not be accepted. This is particularly important because it is often not possible to reproduce copies in a size other than 8.5 x 11.
- All pages of the project and budget narratives must be paginated in a single sequence.
- Font size must be at least 12-point with an average of 14 characters per inch (CPI).
- The Project Narrative may be double-spaced.
- The Budget Narrative may be single-spaced and should follow the justifications and table formats provided in Appendix A, Guidance for Preparing a Budget Request and Narrative in Response to SF-424A.
- Tables included within any portion of the application should have a font size of at least 12-point with a 14 CPI and may be single spaced.
- The project abstract is restricted to a one-page summary which may be single-spaced.
- The application may not exceed 55 pages. Although tables are counted towards the page limitation, the additional required documentation, including Standard Forms and Project Abstract is excluded from the page limitation

The following standard forms are found in the Grants Application Package at www.grantsolutions.gov and must be completed with an electronic signature and submitted as part of the proposal:

- Project abstract summary
- SF-24: Official Application for Federal Assistance (see note below)
- SF-424A: Budget Information Non-Construction Programs
- SF-424B: Assurances-Non-Construction Programs
- SF-LLL: Disclosure of Lobbying Activities
- Project Site Location Form(s)

Award Procedure:

Applications will be screened for completeness and adherence to eligibility requirements for the track(s) have applied for: Transformation or Alignment. Applications received late or that fail to meet the eligibility requirements detailed in this solicitation or do not include the required forms will not be reviewed.

An objective review panel will determine the merits of the proposal and the extent to which the proposed model furthers the purpose of SLIM, in accordance with the information outlined in the FOA. The objective review program may include federal employees and/or non-federal employees. Applicants will be required to present their proposals to HHS leadership as part of the selection process. The purpose(s) of the presentation is (are) to:

- Determine the extent to which the proposed model furthers the purpose of SLM, in accordance with the information outlined in the FOA.
- Determine the level of commitment and investment by stakeholders.
- Assist CMS in its assessment of factors such as proposal feasibility, stakeholder engagement and state leadership.
- Assist CMS in understanding the number of individuals impacted by the proposal.

The states presentation must be led by a cabinet-level health official, such as a state Secretary of Health, and include providers and commercial payers who have committed to participate in the model. In the case of public-private partnership entities applying for a State-led Innovation Model award, senior leaders from the private and public sector, including senior leaders of the applicant entity, shall be present. Specifically, CMS expects applicants to address the criteria set forth in this FOA. CMS will also consider the number and nature of participation by stakeholders, including providers and payers, in the presentation. CMS may require further discussions with states regarding their proposals.

The result of the review processes described above will be used in conjunction with the other factors noted in the FOA to determine the technical merit of the application and advise the approving HHS official. Final award decision will be made by a HHS program official. In making this decision, the HHS program official will take into consideration: reviews for programmatic and grants management compliance; pre-award business and risk assessment review (see below for information); the reasonableness of the estimated cost to the federal government and anticipated results; and the likelihood the proposed cost will result in the benefits expected.

As noted in 45 CFR Part 75, CMS will do a review of risks posed by Applicant prior to award. In evaluating risks posed by Applicant, CMS will consider the below factors as part of the risk assessment (Applicant should review the factors in their entirety at http://www.ecfr.gov/cgi-bin/retrieveECFR?gp=g&SID=30572e7206947981e26dcf89370678&ty=HTML&h=L&x=PARTT&pa=p45.1.75#se45.1.75_1205, which includes:
- Financial stability;
- Quality of management systems and ability to meet the management standards prescribed in 45 CFR Part 75;
- History of performance (including, for prior recipients of Federal awards: timeliness of compliance with applicable reporting requirements, conformance to the terms and conditions of previous federal awards, extent to which previously awarded amounts will be expended prior to future awards);
- Reports and findings from audits performed under Subpart F of 45 CFR Part 75 and findings of any other available audits; and
- Applicants ability to effectively implement statutory, regulatory, and other requirements imposed on non-federal entities.

If successful, the Applicant will receive one cooperative agreement award. If unsuccessful, the Applicant will be advised by letter or electronic mail (sent to the AOR) that the application will not be held for further consideration or be funded. If an applicant is not selected for a SLIM Cohort 1 award, the applicant may apply for a later SLIM Cohort award.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Anticipated Notice of Award date is 90 days after application submission.

Appeals:
CMS reserves the right to approve or deny any or all proposals for funding. Note that section 1115A of the Social Security Act, which creates the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Innovation (CMMI). Section 1115A(d)(2) states that there is no administrative or judicial review of the selection of organizations, sites, or participants to test models.

Renewals:
N/A.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
The period of performance will be 24 months from the date of award with two 12 month budget periods. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/release. The period of performance will be 24 months from the date of award with two 12 month budget periods.

Reports:
Awardees must agree to cooperate with any federal evaluation of the model and performance results and provide required quarterly, annual, and final (at the end of the cooperative agreement period) reports in a form prescribed by CMS. Reports will be submitted electronically. These reports will include information on how cooperative agreement funds were used, describe project or model progress, and describe any barriers, delays, and measurable outcomes. CMS will provide the format for project and model reporting and technical assistance necessary to complete required report forms.

Quarterly progress reports are due within 30 days of the end of each calendar quarter. The annual (or final as applicable) progress reports are due 90 days following the end of each performance year.

Awardees must also agree to respond to requests that are necessary for the evaluation of the Model effort and provide data on key elements of Model performance and on results from the cooperative agreement activities. CMS will continue to make requests for data related to its evaluation beyond the end of the states performance period. The period for which CMS may continue to make such requests will be further clarified in the terms and conditions of award. The Federal Financial Report (FFR or Standard Form 425) has replaced the SF-269, SF-269A, SF-272, and SF-272A financial reporting forms. All grantees must utilize the FFR to report cash transaction data, expenditures, and any program income generated. Recipients must report on a quarterly basis cash transaction data via two separate systems: the Payment Management System (PMS) and GrantSolutions. As detailed above, award recipient must agree to cooperate with any federal evaluation of the model and performance results and provide required quarterly, annual, and final reports in a form prescribed by CMS. Reports will be submitted electronically. These reports will include information on how cooperative agreement funds were used, describe project or model progress, and describe any barriers, delays, and measurable outcomes. CMS will provide the format for project or model reporting and technical assistance necessary to complete required report forms. Successful applicant must also agree to respond to requests that are necessary for the evaluation of the Model efforts and provide data on key elements of model performance and on results from the cooperative agreement activities. As detailed above. Successful applicants must submit reports to Federal Funding Report and meet Payment Management System reporting requirements. HHS will have substantial involvement in this cooperative agreement award, as outlined below:

o Program Evaluation HHS will work with recipients to implement lessons learned.
- Project Officer and Monitoring A Project Officer(s) will be assigned to this cooperative agreement award to support and monitor Recipients throughout the period of performance. HHS Grants Management Officer(s), Grants Management Specialists, and Project Officer(s) will monitor, on a regular basis, progress of Recipients. This monitoring may be by phone, document review, on-site visit, meeting, and by other appropriate means, such as reviewing program progress reports and Federal Financial Reports (FFR or SF-425). This monitoring will help determine compliance with programmatic and financial requirements.
- Communication Project Officer will conduct progress report calls to collect updates on how the Model is being implemented, including the formation of the RHRC, Model operations, global budget administration, data analytics, technical assistance, and quality assurance, and other updates as needed.

93.364 NURSING STUDENT LOANS

NSL

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To increase educational opportunities by providing long-term, low-interest loans to students in need of financial assistance and in pursuit of a course of study in an approved nursing program.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
DIRECT LOANS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
The maximum amount a student may borrow is $3,300 for an academic year for each of the first two years, $5,200 for each of the final two years of a baccalaureate or graduate degree program, or the amount of the student's financial need, whichever is less. The total of all Nursing Student Loans to any student is limited to $177,000. Loans will be made to full and half-time nursing students enrolled after June 30, 2000 who are citizens, nationals, lawful permanent residents of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Northern Mariana Islands, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Republic of Palau, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Federated States of Micronesia. Funds are made to schools of nursing to capitalize loans.

Applicant Eligibility:
All accredited public and nonprofit private schools of nursing that prepare students for practice as registered or graduate nurses, and that do not discriminate against students because of race, color, origin, sex, or handicapping conditions, are eligible to apply for funds to be disbursed to qualified nursing students. Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Government and Native American Organizations may apply if they are otherwise eligible.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
The Nursing Student Loan Program provides financial assistance to nursing students who are citizens, nationals or lawful permanent residents of the United States or the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Northern Mariana Islands, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Republic of Palau, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Federated States of Micronesia.

Credentials/Documentation:
New applications for this program can be acquired from the Division of Health Careers and Financial Support by calling (301) 443-1173. Annual operating reports serve as the new year application for current NSL recipient institutions. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

OBJECTIVES:

To provide support for initiatives funded under the 21st Century Cures Act to support the BRAIN Initiatives aim of revolutionizing our understanding of the human brain. By accelerating the development and application of innovative technologies, researchers will be able to produce a revolutionary new dynamic picture of the brain that, for the first time, shows how individual cells and complex neural circuits interact in both time and space. Long desired by researchers seeking new ways to treat, cure, and even prevent brain disorders, this picture will fill major gaps in our current knowledge and provide unprecedented opportunities for exploring exactly how the brain enables the human body to record, process, utilize,

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Project Grants (Cooperative Agreements)

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Grants and cooperative agreements may be made to eligible institutions for the support of the BRAIN Initiative. The grants and cooperative agreements may be used for personnel, consultant costs, equipment, supplies, travel, patient costs, animals, alterations and renovations, miscellaneous items, and Facilities and Administrative Costs (formerly known as indirect costs).

Applicant Eligibility:

The awardee will be a university, college, hospital, public agency, nonprofit research institution or for-profit organization that applies and receives a grant for support of research by a named principal investigator. To be eligible for funding, a grant application must be approved for scientific merit and program relevance by a scientific review group and a national advisory council.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Any nonprofit or for-profit organization, company, or institution engaged in biomedical research.

Credentialed/Documentation:

Applications must be submitted in compliance with instructions provided with each initiative. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program.

Award Procedure:

Grants and cooperative agreements are funded based on scientific merit, program relevance, and program balance and are made annually. The initial grant award provides funds for the first budget period (usually 12 months) and letter Notice of Award indicates support recommended for the remainder of the project period, allocation of Federal funds by budget categories and special conditions, if any.

Deadlines:

Not Applicable.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

Regular Grants: Approximately 10 months.

Appeals:

A principal investigator may question the substantive or procedural aspects of the review of his/her application by communicating with the staff of the Institute. A description of the NIH Peer Review Appeal procedures is available on the NIH home page www.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/not97-232.html .

Renewals:

Applications submitted for renewal are reviewed and selected for funding on a competitive basis.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program.

OBJECTIVES:

The Division of Biomedical Technology supports research, development and access to sophisticated technologies at research centers nationwide which assist academic, nonprofit organizations in the development, use, and dissemination of innovative technologies useful for the advancement of biomedical science. Awards are provided under a variety of funding mechanisms composed of Biomedical Technology Resource (BTR) grants, Research Project Grants, Shared Instrumentation Grants (SIG), High End Instrumentation (HEI) Program and other mechanisms, such as Exploratory Grants to develop new technologies for biomedical research, Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) grants, and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) grants. The Division for Clinical Research Resources makes it possible to apply knowledge gained through basic research to the development of lifesaving drugs, devices, and therapies that protect the health of our nation's citizens by providing research infrastructure for clinical investigators. These specialized institutional resources are equipped to be flexible and responsive to changing scientific and economic environments and to unforeseen research challenges. The Division for Clinical Research Resources helps translate scientific knowledge into effective patient care through General Clinical Research Centers (GCRC), Research Career Development (K23, K24), Clinical Research Curriculum Award (CRCA, K30), Clinical Research-related activities, Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) grants and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) grants; and improves pre-college science education and the public's understanding of science through the Science Education Partnership Award (SEPA) Program. Additionally, a new consortium, funded through Clinical and Translational Science Awards (CTSA), will transform how clinical and translational research is conducted, ultimately enabling researchers to provide new treatments more efficiently and quickly to patients. The Division of Comparative Medicine supports research and resource projects, as well as centers that enable biomedical scientists to use high quality, disease-free animals effectively in research on human health problems. Support is also available for the development of a wide range of other research models, particularly marine invertebrates and lower vertebrates, and access to an array of important biological materials. These objectives are accomplished through activities of National Primate Research Centers (NPRC), Laboratory Animal Science (LAS), and Biological Models and Materials Research (BMMR). The Division of Research Infrastructure addresses the under representation of minority investigators; enhances the research environment at minority colleges and universities in the health sciences; broadens the geographic distribution of research grant funding to states with historically low NIH success rates; and improves biomedical research facilities through matching grants for construction and renovation. These objectives are accomplished through activities of the Research Centers in Minority Institutions (RCMI) program, the RCMI Clinical Research Infrastructure Initiative (RCRII), and the RCMI Clinical and Translational Science Awards (CTSA).
Program Descriptions

Preapplication Coordination:
Applicant Eligibility:

BTR Grants: Nonprofit health professional schools; other academic institutions; hospitals; State and local health agencies; and research organizations with programs in biomedical technology research located in the United States and its territories. SIG and HEI awards will be made to institutions only, not to individuals. GCRC and CTSAs grants: schools, research hospitals, and other institutions capable of carrying out well-designed studies in any preclinical or clinical science involving human beings as research subjects in conjunction with investigators funded through the National Institutes of Health (NIH) and other Federal agencies. Research Career Development: Applications may be submitted on behalf of candidates by domestic, nonfederal organizations, public or private institutions of higher education. Clinical Research Scholar Program Award: Applications will be accepted from domestic, nonprofit organizations, public and private institutions of higher education that have strong, well-established clinical research and training program. SEPA: Public and private for-profit and nonprofit institutions and museums. DCM: Institutions of higher education, hospitals, and other institutions and organizations, both nonprofit and for-profit, seeking to establish, continue, or enlarge programs consistent with the objectives of the program. Applicants for NRSA must be citizens of the United States or be admitted to the United States for permanent residency. Applicants must be nominated and sponsored by a public or private nonprofit institution with staff and facilities suitable for the proposed research training. Nonprofit Domestic organizations may apply for the institutional NRSA. RCMI: Institutions with more than 50 percent minority enrollment that award an M.D., D.D.S., D.V.M., or other doctoral degree in the health professions and/or a Ph.D. in the health-related sciences. This program is open only to institutions within the United States and its territories. RCRI: RCRI eligible institutions affiliated with medical schools. IDeA: Domestic public and private for-profit and nonprofit institutions in States in which the success rate for applications to the NIH has been historically low. RFIP and Animal Facilities Improvement: Except where otherwise prohibited by law, any nonprofit organization competent to carry out biomedical research.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Biomedical investigators at any nonprofit or for-profit organization, company, or institution engaged in biomedical research.

Credentials/Documentation:
SIG, HEI: A major user group of three or more investigators should be identified. Each major user must have NIH peer-reviewed research support at the time of the award. The application must show a clear need for the instrumentation by projects supported by multiple NIH research awards and demonstrate that these projects will require at least 75 percent of the total usage of the instrument. Applications for NRSA must be citizens of the United States or be admitted to the United States for permanent residency. Applicants must be nominated and sponsored by a public or private nonprofit institution with staff and facilities suitable for the proposed research training. Nonprofit domestic organizations may apply for the institutional NRSA. RCMI, RCRI, and CCRE: Applicants must certify eligibility (see Applicant Eligibility requirements). IDeA, and Animal Facilities Improvement: None. RFIP: Application should include a complete research program description (with staff curricula vitae), space requirements for projected program, an environmental summary of the impact of the proposed facility as detailed in Public Law 90-190, The National Environmental Policy Act, and listing of all relevant licenses, permits or other approvals required by State and local authorities. Costs will be determined in accordance with OMB Circular Nos. A-122, "Cost Principles for Nonprofit Organizations," and in the case of SIG & HEI No. A-87 for State and local governments or A-21 for Educational Institutions, and HHS Regulations 45 CFR, Part 74, Subpart Q, 2 CFR 200, Subpart E. - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Application forms may be obtained from the Division of Extramural Outreach and Information, 6701 Rockledge Drive, MSC 7910, Bethesda, MD 20892-7910. Telephone (301) 435-0714, e-mail: ASKNHI@odrockml.od.nih.gov . Completed applications should be submitted to the Center for Scientific Review, 6701 Rockledge Drive, MSC 7710, Bethesda, MD 20892-7710. The standard application forms PHS 398, (Rev. November 1998), as furnished by PHS and required by 45 CFR, Part 92, and OMB Circular No. A-110 must be used for all programs. For filing NRSA individual fellowship award applications, Form 416-1 (Rev. October 1991) is needed. CTSAs: Special instructions for preparing applications should be requested from the Division for Clinical Research Resources, One Democracy Plaza, 6701 Democracy Blvd., National Center for Research Resources, National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, MD 20892-4874. RFIP: Construction applications are to be submitted on a Standard Form 424, Application for Federal Assistance.

Award Procedure:
The initial review of applications from eligible investigators and institutions is reviewed by committees comprised of authorities in various fields of biomedical research and science education, as appropriate. Each application is given a peer evaluation for merit, and recommendations are forwarded to the National Advisory Research Resources Council for final review and recommendation.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
> 180 Days.

Appeals:
A principal investigator (P.I.) may question the substantive or procedural aspects of the review of their application by communicating with the NCRR staff. A description of the NIH Peer Review Appeal procedures is available on the NIH home page www.nih.gov/grants/guide/1997/97.11.21/n2.html .

Renewals:
K23, K24, SIG, HEI, Animal Facilities Improvement, and RFIP: None. All others may be renewed upon successful reapplication.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
All programs except for RFIP: 1 to 5 years. An Electronic Transfer System is used for transferring funds. RFIP: Construction must be completed within the time specified in grant award. The initial budget period is usually 2 years in length, although extensions may be requested. All funds must be obligated within 5 years from the date of award. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: All programs except for RFIP: 1 to 5 years. An Electronic Transfer System is used for transferring funds. RFIP: Construction must be completed within the time specified in grant award. The initial budget period is usually 2 years in length, although extensions may be requested. All funds must be obligated within 5 years from the date of award.

Reports:
No program reports are required. No cash reports are required. Annual progress and financial status reports are required for all grants. Final performance and financial reports are required 90 days following the end of the project period. Reports are required after termination of NRSA to ascertain compliance with the service and payback provisions. RFIP: The grantee is responsible for performance of the contractor. The contractor must be covered by performance and payment bonds. Annual progress and financial status reports are required for all grants. Final performance and financial reports are required 90 days following the end of the project period. Reports are required after termination of the project period. of NRSA to ascertain compliance with the service and payback provisions. RFIP: The grantee is responsible for performance of the contractor. The contractor must be covered by performance and payment bonds. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records: Grantees generally must retain financial and programmatic records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records that are required by the terms of a grant, or may reasonably be considered pertinent to a grant, for a period of 3 years from the date the annual FSR is submitted. For awards under SNAP (other than those to foreign organizations and Federal institutions), the 3-year retention period will be calculated from the date the FSR for the entire competitive segment is submitted. Those grantees must retain the records pertinent to the entire competitive segment for 3 years from the date the FSR is submitted to NIH. Foreign organizations and Federal institutions must retain records for 3 years from the date of submission of the annual FSR to NIH. See 45 CFR 74.53 and 92.42 for exceptions and qualifications to the 3-year retention requirement (e.g., if any litigation, claim, financial management review, or audit is started before the expiration of the 3-year period, the records must be retained until all litigation, claims, or audit findings involving the records have been resolved and final action taken). Those sections also specify the retention period for other types of grant-related records, including F&A cost proposals and property records. See 45 CFR 74.48 and 92.36 for record retention and access requirements for contracts under grants. In accordance with 45 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 74.53(c), the HHS Inspector General, the U.S. Comptroller General, or any of their duly authorized representatives have the right of timely and unrestricted access to any books, documents, papers, or other records of recipients that are pertinent to awards in order to make examinations, excerpts, transcripts, and copies of such documents. This right also includes timely and reasonable access to a recipients personnel for the purpose of interview and discussion related to such documents. The rights of access are not limited to the required retention period, but shall last as long as records are retained.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROJECTS:
The major elements in evaluating proposals include assessments of: (1) The scientific merit and general significance of the proposed study and its objectives; (2) the technical adequacy of the experimental design and approach; (3) the competency of the proposed investigator or group to successfully pursue the project; (4) the adequacy of the available and proposed facilities and resources; (5) the necessity of the budget components requested in relation to the proposed project; and (6) the relevance and importance to announced program objectives. RFIP: Factors considered in making awards include the merit of the proposal, the needs of the institution, with special consideration for institutions designated as centers of excellence, the commitment of the institution, the availability of funds, and the overall program priorities.

93.391 ACTIVITIES TO SUPPORT STATE, TRIBAL, LOCAL AND TERRITORIAL (STLT) HEALTH DEPARTMENT RESPONSE TO PUBLIC HEALTH OR HEALTHCARE CRISIS

CDC Partner Crisis Response NOFO

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Public Health Service Act, Title 42, Part 247b, Section 317, 42 U.S.C 317; Public Health Service Act, Title 42, Part 247a, Section 319, 42 U.S.C 319; Public Health Service Act, Title 42, Part 242l, Section 319, 42 U.S.C 319; Public Health Service Act, Title 42, Part 241, Section 307, 42 U.S.C 307; Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, Public Law 111-148; Public Health Service Act, Title 42, Part 243, Section 311, 42 U.S.C 311; Public Health Service Act, Title 42, Part 300b, Section 1703, 42 U.S.C 1703.

OBJECTIVES:
CDC will strengthen the U.S. public health systems response to public health or healthcare crises by providing specialized support to State, Tribal, Local and Territorial health departments (STLTs) when engaged in a response. Because STLTs vary widely in capacity and expertise - as well as in the demographics and disease burdens of the populations they serve - an emergency in any location is likely to reveal areas in which they need assistance to launch and sustain effective response activities.
The purpose of this NOFO is (1) to establish a pool of organizations capable of rapidly providing expertise to governmental public health entities involved in a response, and (2) to fund select awardees to provide that support, when required, based on CDC's determination of need. The role of the awardee will be to function as a rapid provider of information and/or resources, as well as a coordinator of the project management components involved. Awardees will primarily support public health departments, but may be engaged to support CDC programs also involved in the response.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE: Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS: Project funds will be used by non-governmental organizations (501c3s, 501c6s, public and private institutions of higher learning, and Native American tribal organizations) to provide emergency response assistance to State, Tribal, Local, and Territorial public health agencies and other components of the public health system. For the purposes of this program, other components of the public health system refers to specific professional constituencies (i.e., epidemiologists, community health nurses, health education and promotion specialists tribal health leaders, chronic disease directors, health information specialists, Medicaid/Medicare Directors, state/local public health financial officials, etc.) or key components of the public health system (i.e., community and neighborhood health centers, public health and primary care delivery systems, community and faith-based organizations, public health and accreditation boards, public health institutes, primary care residency programs, health insurance consortia, family/social services programs, maternal/child health associations, etc.). Recipients may only expend funds for reasonable program purposes, including personnel, travel, supplies (including training materials), and services, such as contractual. Applicants will be required to participate, comply, and cooperate with CDC for any reporting requirements stipulated by, or mandated for, the receipt of funding.

Applicant Eligibility:

Eligible applicants are limited to the following:

1. Nonprofits having a 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(6) status with the IRS, other than institutions of higher education.

2. Public and private institutions of higher education.

3. Native American tribal organizations (other than Federally-recognized tribal governments).

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Direct awards will be made to the non-governmental organizations described in the eligible applicant section. Beneficiaries of the support provided by those non-governmental organizations will include state health departments; tribal health organizations; local health departments; the District of Columbia; U.S. Territories; and other components of the public health system. The general public will also serve as beneficiaries.

Credentials/Documentation:

Applicants should review the individual Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) funding opportunity announcement issued under this CFDA program for any documentation, credentials or proof of certifications which must be submitted prior to or simultaneous with submission of an application package. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. tbd

Award Procedures:

Notification is made in writing through a Notice of Grant Award issued from the programs Office of Grants Services (OGS).

Deadlines:

Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

From 60 to 90 days. tbd.

Appeals:

Not Applicable.

Renewals:

Project periods are for 5 years with 12-month budget periods. Applications must be submitted in the same manner as a new application.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

This program has no statutory formula. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

This NOFO is designed to collect responsive proposals from eligible applicants and retain them as approved but unfunded (ABU) until a crisis occurs. The NOFO will only be funded upon occurrence of a particular public health or healthcare crisis. At that time, depending on the nature of the scenario, specific applicants and specific components of their applications will be selected for funding. These funding decisions will take into account various relevant factors such as geographic location, expectations of spread (e.g., with infectious disease-related emergencies), applicants capabilities, national priorities, impact of the emergency on an eligible jurisdiction, and target populations, etc. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:

Audits:

In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:

Grantees are required to maintain grant accounting records for a minimum of three years after the end of a grant period. If any litigation, claim, negotiation, audit or other action involving the record has been started before the expiration of the 3-year period, the records shall be retained until completion of the action and resolution of all issues which arise from it, or until the end of the regular 3-year period, whichever is later. More detailed information regarding retention requirements is provided in 45 CFR Part 75.

Account Identification:

75.0959.0-1.550.

Obligations:

(Salaries) FY 16 50; FY 17 Not Separately Identifiable; and FY 18 Not Separately Identifiable - Due to the nature of the issues that would trigger CDC to activate this NOFO as designed, it is difficult to project the total funding amount that would be made available. When and if CDC activates this NOFO, it is expected to be only for the time necessary to respond to the emergency at hand, and that long-term recovery needs (and/or emergencies that shift from an epidemic to an endemic nature) would be addressed by other NOFOS as appropriate.

Range and Average of Financial Assistance:

Due to the nature of the issues that would trigger CDC to activate this NOFO as designed, it is difficult to project the total funding amount that would be made available. When and if CDC activates this NOFO, it is expected to be only for the time necessary to respond to the emergency at hand, and that long-term recovery needs (and/or emergencies that shift from an epidemic to an endemic nature) would be addressed by other NOFOS as appropriate.

93.393 CANCER CAUSE AND PREVENTION RESEARCH
Cancer Cause and Prevention Research

FEDERAL AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To identify cancer risks and risk reduction strategies, to identify factors that cause cancer in man, and to discover and develop mechanisms for cancer prevention in man. Research programs include: (1) epidemiology; (2) chemical, physical and molecular carcinogenesis; (3) early detection biomarkers; (4) nutrition and bioactive food compounds; (5) immunology and vaccines; (6) field studies and statistics; (7) chemoprevention; (8) agent development; and (9) organ site studies. Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) program: To expand and improve the SBIR program; to increase private sector commercialization of innovations derived from Federal research and development; to increase small business participation in Federal research and development; and to foster and encourage participation in socially and economically disadvantaged small business concerns and women-owned small business concerns in technological innovation. Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) program: To stimulate and foster scientific and technological innovation through cooperative research and development carried out between small business concerns and research institutions; to foster technology transfer between small business concerns and research institutions; to increase private sector commercialization of innovations derived from Federal research and development and economically disadvantage small business concerns and women-owned small business concerns in technological innovation.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Cooperative Agreements; Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Grants and cooperative agreements may be made to eligible institutions for the support of cancer research projects. The grants and cooperative agreements may be used for personnel, consultant costs, equipment, supplies, travel, patient costs, animals, alterations and renovations, miscellaneous items, and indirect costs. Restrictions are imposed against the use of funds for entertainment, foreign travel (unless specifically authorized), office equipment, and other items not normally necessary for the effective prosecution of such research. SBIR Phase I grants (of approximately 6-months’ duration) are to establish the technical merit and feasibility of a proposed research effort that may lead to a commercial product or process. Phase II grants are for the continuation of the research initiated in Phase I, and that are likely to result in commercial products or processes. Only Phase I awardees are eligible to receive Phase II support. STTR Phase I grants (normally of 1-year duration) are to determine the scientific, technical, and commercial merit and feasibility of the proposed cooperative effort that has potential for commercial application. Phase II funding is based on results of research initiated in Phase I and scientific and technical merit and commercial potential of Phase II application. The SBIR Fast-Track Initiative provides additional assistance to applicants by expediting the decision and award of SBIR Phase II funding for scientifically meritorious applications for projects that have a high potential for commercialization. Fast-Track is a parallel review option whereby Phase I and Phase II projects are reviewed concurrently with the aim of reducing or eliminating the funding gap between Phase I and Phase II.

Applicant Eligibility:
The awardee will be a university, college, hospital, public agency, nonprofit research institution or for-profit organization that submits an application and receives a grant or cooperative agreement for support of research by a named principal investigator. SBIR grants can be awarded only to domestic small businesses (entities that are independently owned and operated for profit, are not dominant in the field in which research is proposed, and have no more than 500 employees); Primary employment (more than one-half time) of the principal investigator must be with the small business at the time of award and during the conduct of the proposed project. In both Phase I and Phase II, the research must be performed in the U.S. and its possessions. To be eligible for funding, a grant application must be approved for scientific merit and program relevance by a scientific review group and a national advisory council. STTR grants can be awarded only to domestic small business concern (entities that are independently owned and operated for profit, are not dominant in the field in which research is proposed and have no more than 500 employees) which "partner" with a research institution in cooperative research and development. At least 40 percent of the project is to be performed by the small business concern and at least 30 percent by the research institution. In both Phase I and Phase II, the research must be performed in the U.S. and its possessions. To be eligible for funding, a grant application must be approved for scientific merit and program relevance by a scientific review group and a national advisory council.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Any nonprofit or for-profit organization, company, or institution engaged in biomedical research on cancer.

Credentialed/Documentation:
For-profit organizations’ costs are determined in accordance with 48 CFR, Subpart 31.2 of the Federal Acquisition Regulations. For other grantees, costs will be determined in accordance with HHS Regulations 45 CFR, Part 75. For SBIR and STTR grants, the applicant organization (small business concern) must present in a research plan an idea that has potential for commercialization and furnish evidence that scientific competence, experimental methods, facilities, equipment, and funds requested are appropriate to carry out the plan. Grant form SF424(R&R) (version as specified in the FOA) is used to apply for SBIR Phase I and Phase II, and STTR Phase I and Phase II. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Depending on the grant mechanism, form PHS-398 (Rev. March 2016) or form SF424 (R&R) (version as specified as the FOA) is the standard application form. Both forms can be obtained online at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/forms.htm. SBIR and STTR Grant Solicitations and SBIR Contract Solicitations may be obtained electronically through the NIH's Small Business Funding Opportunities home

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:
The major elements in evaluating proposals include assessments of: (1) The scientific merit and general significance of the proposed study and its objectives; 2) the technical adequacy of the experimental design and approach; (3) the competency of the proposed investigator or group to successfully pursue the project; (4) the adequacy of the available and proposed facilities and resources; (5) the necessity of the budget components requested in relation to the proposed project; and (6) the relevance and importance to announced program objectives. The following criteria will be used in considering the scientific and technical merit of SBIR/STTR Phase I grant applications: (1) The soundness and technical merit of the proposed approach; (2) the qualifications of the proposed principal investigator, supporting staff, and consultants; (3) the technological innovation of the proposed research; (4) the potential of the proposed research for commercial application; (5) the appropriateness of the budget requested; (6) the adequacy and suitability of the facilities and research environment; and (7) where applicable, the adequacy of assurances detailing the proposed means for (a) safeguarding human or animal subjects, and/or (b) protecting against or minimizing any adverse effect on the environment. Phase II grant applications will be reviewed based upon the following criteria: (1) The degree to which the Phase I objectives were met and feasibility demonstrated; (2) the scientific and technical merit of the proposed approach for achieving the Phase II objectives; (3) the qualifications of the proposed principal investigator, supporting staff, and consultants; (4) the technological innovation, originality, or societal importance of the proposed research; (5) the potential of the proposed research for commercial application; (6) the reasonableness of the budget requested for the work proposed; (7) the adequacy and suitability of the facilities and research environment; and (8) where applicable, the adequacy of assurances detailing the proposed means for a) safeguarding human or animal subjects, and/or (b) protecting against or minimizing any adverse effect on the environment.

93.394 CANCER DETECTION AND DIAGNOSIS RESEARCH
FEDERAL AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To improve screening and early detection strategies and to develop accurate diagnostic techniques and methods for predicting the course of disease in cancer patients. Screening and Early Detection research includes development of strategies to decrease cancer mortality by finding tumors early when they are more amenable to treatment. Diagnosis research focuses on methods to determine the presence of a specific type of cancer; to predict its course and response to therapy, both a particular therapy or a class of agents; and to monitor the effect of the therapy and the appearance of disease recurrence. These methods include diagnostic imaging and direct analyses of specimens from tumor or other tissues. Support is also provided for establishing and maintaining resources of human tissue to facilitate research. Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) program: To expand and improve the SBIR program; to increase private sector commercialization of innovations derived from Federal research and development; to increase small business participation in Federal research and development; and to foster and encourage participation of socially and economically disadvantaged small business concerns and women-owned small business concerns in technological innovation. Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) program: To stimulate and foster scientific and technological innovation through cooperative research and development carried out between small business concerns and research institutions; to foster technology transfer between small business concerns and research institutions; to increase private sector commercialization of innovations derived from Federal research and development; and to foster and encourage participation of socially and economically disadvantaged small business concerns and women-owned small business concerns in technological innovation.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements; Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Grants and cooperative agreements may be made to eligible institutions for the support of cancer research projects. The grants and cooperative agreements may be used for personnel, consultants costs, equipment, supplies, travel, patient costs, animals, alterations and renovations, miscellaneous items, and indirect costs. SBIR Phase I grants (of approximately 6-months' duration) are to establish the technical merit and feasibility of a proposed research effort that may lead to a commercial product or process. Phase II grants are for the continuation of the research initiated in Phase I, and that are likely to result in commercial products or processes. Only Phase I awardees are eligible to receive Phase II support. STTR Phase I grants (normally of 1-year duration) are to determine the scientific, technical, and commercial merit and feasibility of the proposed cooperative effort that has potential for commercial application. Phase II funding is based on results of research initiated in Phase I and scientific and technical merit and commercial potential of Phase II application. The SBIR Fast-Track Initiative provides additional assistance to applicants by expediting the decision and award of SBIR Phase II funding for scientifically meritorious applications for projects that have a high potential for commercialization. Fast-Track is a parallel review option whereby Phase I and Phase II projects are reviewed concurrently with the aim of reducing or eliminating the funding gap between Phase I and Phase II.

Applicant Eligibility:
The awardee will be a university, college, hospital, public agency, nonprofit research institution or organization, unit of tribal government, or a for-profit organization that submits an application and receives a grant or cooperative agreement for support of research by a named principal investigator. SBIR grants can be awarded only to domestic small businesses (entities that are independently owned and operated for profit, are not dominant in the field in which research is proposed, and have no more than 500 employees). Primary employment (more than one-half time) of the principal investigator must be with the small business at the time of award and during the conduct of the proposed project. In both Phase I and Phase II, the research must be performed in the U.S. and its possessions. To be eligible for funding, a grant application must be approved for scientific merit and program relevance by a scientific review group and a national advisory council. STTR grants can be awarded only to domestic small business concerns (entities that are independently owned and operated for profit, are not dominant in the field in which research is proposed and have no more than 500 employees) which “partner” with a research institution in cooperative research and development. At least 40 percent of the project is to be performed by the small business concern and at least 30 percent by the research institution. In both Phase I and Phase II, the research must be performed in the U.S. and its possessions. To be eligible for funding, a grant application must be approved for scientific merit and program relevance by a scientific review group and a national advisory council.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Any nonprofit or for-profit organization, company, or institution engaged in biomedical research.

Credentials/Documentation:
For-profit organizations’ costs are determined in accordance with 48 CFR, Subpart 31.2 of the Federal Acquisition Regulations. For other grantees, costs will be determined in accordance with HHS Regulations 45 CFR, Part 75. For SBIR and STTR grants, applicant organization (small business concern) must present in a research plan an idea that has potential for commercialization and furnish evidence that scientific competence, experimental methods, facilities, equipment, and funds requested are appropriate to carry out the plan. Grant form SF424 is used to apply for SBIR Phase I and Phase II, respectively. Grant form SF424 is also used to apply for STTR Phase I and Phase II, respectively. See the website for more information on electronic submission of grants. http://grants.nih.gov/grants/funding/sbir.htm, 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. The NIH is in the process of a transition to fully electronic grant submission through Grants.gov (see http://era.nih.gov/ElectronicReceipt for details). Depending on the grant mechanism, either form PHS-398 (Rev. June 2009) or form SF424(R&R) (January 2010) is the standard form. Both can be obtained at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/forms.htm. SBIR and STTR Grant Solicitations and SBIR Contract Solicitation may be obtained electronically through the NIH's "Small Business Funding Opportunities" home page at www.nih.gov/grants/funding/sbir.htm on the World Wide Web. The Solicitations include submission procedures, review considerations, and grant application or contract proposal forms. All competing SBIR and STTR grant applications must be submitted electronically via Grants.gov. The following is a website address for NIH electronic submission of grant application information: http://era.nih.gov/ElectronicReceipt/index.htm.

Award Procedure:
Approved grants and cooperative agreements are funded based on scientific merit, program relevance, and program balance and are made annually. Initial award provides funds for the first budget period (usually 12 months) and Notice of Grant Award (Form PHS 1533) indicates support recommended for the remainder of the project period, allocation of Federal funds by budget... categories, and special conditions, if any. All accepted SBIR/STTR applications are evaluated for scientific and technical merit by an appropriate scientific peer review panel and by a national advisory council or board. All applications receiving a priority score compete for available SBIR/STTR set-aside funds on the basis of scientific and technical merit and commercial potential of the proposed research, program relevance, and program balance among the areas of research.

93.395 CANCER TREATMENT RESEARCH
Cancer Treatment Research
FEDERAL AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services
AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To develop the means to cure as many cancer patients as possible and to control the disease in those patients who are not cured. Cancer Treatment Research includes the development and evaluation of improved methods of cancer treatment through the support and performance of both fundamental and applied laboratory and clinical research. Research is supported in the discovery, development, and clinical testing of all modes of therapy including: surgery, radiotherapy, chemotherapy, and biological therapy including molecularly targeted therapies, both individually and in combination. In addition, research is carried out in areas of nutritional support, stem cell and bone marrow transplantation, image guided therapies and studies to reduce toxicity of cytotoxic therapies, and other methods of supportive care that may supplement and enhance primary treatment. Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) program: To expand and improve the SBIR program; to increase private sector commercialization of innovations derived from Federal research and development; to increase small business participation in Federal research and development; and to foster and encourage participation of socially and economically disadvantaged small businesses.
Beneficiary Eligibility: Any nonprofit or for-profit organization, company, or institution engaged in biomedical research.

Credentails/Documentation: For-profit organizations' costs are determined in accordance with 48 CFR, Subpart 31.202 of the Federal Acquisition Regulations. 93.396 CANCER BIOLOGY RESEARCH

FEDERAL AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To provide fundamental information on the cause and nature of cancer in people, with the expectation that this will result in better methods of prevention, detection and diagnosis, and treatment of neoplastic diseases. Cancer Biology Research includes the following research programs: cancer cell biology; cancer immunology, hematology and etiology; DNA and chromosomal aberrations; tumor biology and metastasis; and structural biology and molecular applications.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements: Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Grants and cooperative agreements may be made to eligible institutions for the support of cancer research projects. The grants and cooperative agreements may be used for personnel, consultant costs, equipment, supplies, travel, patient costs, animals, alterations and renovations, miscellaneous items, and Facilities and Administrative Costs (formerly known as indirect costs).

Applicant Eligibility:
The awardee will be a university, college, hospital, public agency, nonprofit research institution or for-profit organization that submits an application and receives a grant for support of research by a named principal investigator. To be eligible for funding, a grant application must be approved for scientific merit and program relevance by a scientific review panel and a national advisory council.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Any nonprofit or for-profit organization, company, or institution engaged in biomedical research.

Credentials/Documentation:
For-profit organizations’ costs are determined in accordance with Subpart 31.2 of the Federal Acquisition Regulations. For other grantees, costs will be determined in accordance with HHS Regulations 45 CFR Part 75. See the website for more information on the electronic submission of grants. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

CANCER BIOLOGY RESEARCH

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. The NIH is in the process of a transition to fully electronic grant submission through Grants.gov (see http://era.nih.gov/ElectronicReceipt for details). Depending on the grant mechanism, either form PHS-398 (Rev. June 2009) or form SF424(R&R) (January 2010) is the standard form. Both can be obtained at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/forms.htm. The standard application forms, as furnished by PHS must be used for this program. The following is a website address for NIH electronic submission of grant application information: http://era.nih.gov/ElectronicReceipt/index.htm.

Award Procedure:

Grants and cooperative agreements are funded based on scientific merit, program relevance, and program balance and are made annually. The initial grant award provides funds for the first budget period (usually 12 months) and letter Notice of Award indicates support recommended for the remainder of the project period, allocation of Federal funds by budget categories and special conditions, if any.

Deadline:

Aug 05, 2018 All Grants including renewals and supplements: April 5, August 5, December 5. Cooperative Agreements and contracts are usually submitted in response to a Request for Applications (RFAs) or a Request for Proposals (RFP). The receipt date is stipulated in the RFA or RFP. Note that for New Investigator and Early Stage Investigators applying for an R01 resubmission there are expedited review dates described in NOT-OD-11-057 (http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-11-057.html).

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

Regular Grants: Approximately 10 months.

Appeals:

A principal investigator may question the substantive or procedural aspects of the review of his/her application by communicating with the staff of the Institute. A description of the NIH Peer Review Appeal procedures is available on the NIH home page www.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/not97-232.html.

Renewals:

Applications submitted for renewal are reviewed and selected for funding on a competitive basis.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

Grants and Cooperative Agreements: Average 3 to 5 years, and a maximum of 5 years. Renewals may be awarded for additional periods of up to 5 years based on competitive peer review. Funding is provided through Monthly Demand Payment System or an Electronic Transfer System. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: by letter of credit.

Reports:

No program reports are required. No cash reports are required. Progress reports are required each year. Annual financial status report is required 90 days after the end of the budget period. Special reports may be requested by DHHS. Terminal reports are required 6 months after the end of a project. Expenditure reports are not applicable. Performance monitoring is not applicable.

Audits:

In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. In addition, grants and cooperative agreements are subject to inspection and audits by DHHS and other Federal government officials.

93.397 CANCER CENTERS SUPPORT GRANTS

Cancer Centers

FEDERAL AGENCY:

National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

and 28As-3; Public Law 99-500.

OBJECTIVES:
To provide an organizational focus and stimulus for the highest quality cancer research that effectively promotes interdisciplinary cancer research aimed toward the ultimate goal of reducing cancer incidence, mortality and morbidity. The Cancer Center Support Grant (CCSG) provides the resources and infrastructure to facilitate the coordination of interdisciplinary programs across a broad spectrum of research from basic laboratory research to clinical investigation to population science. The CCSG supports salaries for scientific leadership of the Center, shared resources for funded center investigators, certain administrative costs, planning and evaluation, and developmental funds for new recruitments and feasibility studies.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements; Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
In general, CCSGs do not support research projects directly but are used to enhance the ongoing cancer research and to strengthen the existing research base according to the "Policies and Guidelines Relating to the Cancer Center Support Grant."

Applicant Eligibility:
Any nonprofit institution within the United States with a peer-reviewed cancer research base of 4.0 million dollars in direct costs may apply for a Cancer Center Support Grant.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
University, college, public agency or research institution in the U.S.

Credentialed/Documentation:
The application requests documentation concerning the qualifications of the principal investigators and associates, pertinent budget information and justification Center support of this proposed grant. Methods to be utilized are outlined in the application materials. Costs will be determined in accordance with HHS Regulations 45 CFR, Part 75. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Method of Application: Form PHS-398 (Rev. June 2009) can be obtained from the grant.nih.gov/grants/forms.htm website (click on PHS-398). In addition, supplemental instructions for applications are contained in the Cancer Center Support Grant Guidelines.http://cancercenters.cancer.gov/grants_funding/index.html. Generally, the potential applicant should send a letter of intent to the National Cancer Institute, Office of Cancer Centers, submitting a CCSG application to the same address for review (see Guidelines for CCSGs). Completed applications should be submitted to the Center for Scientific Review, National Institutes of Health, 6701 Rockledge Drive, Bethesda, MD 20892.

Award Procedure:
Grants are funded based on scientific merit, program relevance, and program balance and are made annually. Initial award provides funds for the first budget period (usually 12 months) and Notice of Grant Award (Form PHS 1533) indicates support recommended for the remainder of the project period, allocation of Federal funds by budget categories and special conditions, if any.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Core Grants: Approximately 10 months.

Appeals:

Renewals:
Same procedure as new applications.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Up to 5 years of support may be requested. Grants may be awarded up to 5 years based on competitive peer review. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: by letter of credit.

Reports:
No program reports are required. No cash reports are required. Progress reports are required each year. An annual financial status report is requested 90 days after the end of the budget period. Special reports may be requested by DHHS. Terminal reports are required 90 days after the end of a project. No expenditure reports are required. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. In addition, grants and cooperative agreements are subject to inspection and audits by DHHS and other Federal officials.

Records:
Expenditures and other financial records must be retained for 3 years from the day on which the grantee submits the last financial status report for the report period.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:
The major elements in evaluating applications include the following: (1) An adequate base of established programs of high quality in laboratory and clinical cancer research; (2) research activity in a variety of disciplines, and evidence of high degree of interdisciplinary coordination, interaction and cooperation among center members; (3) appropriate and adequate organization and facilities for the conduct and evaluation of center activities; (4) a qualified director with adequate authority; and (5) an adequate commitment of the parent institution or institutions to the cancer center. The center should be recognized as a major element within the organizational structure.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
The Research Manpower program provides support for research training in all scientific fields related to cancer. The Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Awards (NRSA) for Individual Fellows, are made directly to individuals for research training in biomedical sciences areas. In addition, the National Institutes of Health (NIH) will award the Ruth L. Kirschstein NRSA Institutional Research Training grants to institutions, to enable them to make NRSA awards to individuals selected by them. Each individual who receives a postdoctoral NRSA is obligated, upon termination of the award, to comply with certain service and payback provisions. Cancer Education Grants are designed to promote education programs carried out by organizations engaged in health-related education, research, or training, located in the United States, its possessions, or territories. Various Career awards are designed to sponsor the development of independent scientists. Individual short-term support for students is available under the Cancer Education Program.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES:

1. Application:
   - Applications must be submitted each year. Each award has distinct application criteria. Completed applications should be submitted to the Center for Scientific Review, National Institutes of Health, 6701 Rockledge Drive, Room 1040, Bethesda, Maryland 20892-7710 (Bethesda, MD 20817 for express/courier service).

2. Award Notification:
   - A formal award notice will be sent to the applicant. A principal investigator (P.I.) may question the substantive or procedural aspects of the review of his/her application by communicating with the staff of the Institute. A description of the NIH Peer Review Appeal procedures is available under the Review Criteria section of the NIH Office of Extramural Research website at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/forms.html. Applications for Cancer Education and Career grants must be prepared using the PHS 398 Form. Refer to Section IV of the instructions titled Instructions For Preparing An NRSA Application. Applicants are advised to consult the "Submitting an Application" section of the Program Announcement, since each award has distinct application criteria. Completed applications should be submitted to the Center for Scientific Review, National Institutes of Health, 6701 Rockledge Drive, Room 1040, Bethesda, Maryland 20892-7710 (Bethesda, MD 20817 for express/courier service).

3. Appeal Procedure:
   - Applications are reviewed for scientific merit by an appropriate study section, committee, or advisory council. If recommended for approval and a decision to make award is made, a formal award notice will be sent to the applicant.

4. Deadlines:
   - Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

5. Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
   - Approximately 10 months.

6. Appeals:
   - A principal investigator (P.I.) may question the substantive or procedural aspects of the review of his/her application by communicating with the staff of the Institute. A description of the NIH Peer Review Appeal procedures is available under the Review Criteria section of the NIH Office of Extramural Research website at http://grants2.nih.gov/grants/policy/nihgps_2003/NIHGPS_Part3.htm.

RENEWALS:
Cancer Education Grants may be made for periods of up to 5 years and renewals may be submitted when appropriate. Research training grants may be renewed for additional project periods of 5 years. Only the following Career awards are renewable: K05 and K24 only a one-time renewal after a 5-year project period, and the K12 up to 5 years (Trainee 2-7 years).

FORMULA AND MATCHING REQUIREMENTS:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program.
are required each year. An annual financial status report is required 90 days after the end of the budget period. Special reports may be requested by the grantor. Terminal reports are required 6 months after the end of a project. No expenditure reports are required. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. 93.399 CANCER CONTROL
Cancer Control Grants,
FEDERAL AGENCY:
National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To reduce cancer risk, incidence, morbidity, and mortality and enhance quality of life in cancer survivors through an orderly sequence from research on interventions and their impact in defined populations to the broad, systematic application of the research results through dissemination and diffusion strategies. Primary emphasis is on the inclusion of cancer prevention and control intervention(s) in any proposed study. Cancer Prevention and Cancer Control research studies are classified into one of five phases: (1) Hypothesis development; (2) methods development and testing; (3) controlled intervention trials to establish cause-and-effect relationships; (4) research in defined populations; and (5) demonstration and implementation studies. Primary interests are in research on cancer control interventions in Phases 2 through 5, and on cancer prevention research in all phases. Cancer Prevention and Control programs include those in the following areas: (1) chemoprevention; (2) cancer communications; (3) nutrition, diet, and physical activity; (4) screening and early detection, including biomarker discovery, development and validation; (5) biobehavioral mechanisms; (6) tobacco control; (7) health disparities research; (8) supportive care and survivorship; (9) health services and outcomes research; and (10) surveillance research. Cancer Control uses Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) Programs to engage domestic small business concerns in federal research and development that has potential for commercialization. The goals of the SBIR & STTR Programs are to stimulate technological innovation, increase private-sector commercialization of federal research and development, increase small business participation in federally funded research and development, and foster participation by socially and economically disadvantaged small business concerns and women-owned small business concerns in technological innovation. The STTR Program requires the small business concern to formally collaborate with a research institution in Phase I and Phase II of the program.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Project Grants; Project Grants (Cooperative Agreements)

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Grants and cooperative agreements may be made to eligible institutions for the support of cancer research projects. The grants and cooperative agreements may be used for personnel, consultant costs, equipment, supplies, travel, patient care, foreign travel (unless specifically authorized), office equipment, and other costs. Restrictions are imposed against the use of funds for entertainment, animals, alterations and renovations, miscellaneous items, and indirect costs. Restrictions are imposed against the use of funds for entertainment, foreign travel (unless specifically authorized), office equipment, and other items not normally necessary for the effective prosecution of such research. SBIR Phase I grants (of approximately 6-months' duration) are to establish the technical merit, feasibility and commercial potential of a proposed research effort and to determine the quality of performance of the awardee. Phase II grants are for the continuation of the research initiated in Phase I and are likely to result in commercial products or processes. Only SBIR Phase I awardees are eligible to receive Phase II support. STTR Phase I grants (normally of 1-year duration) are to determine the scientific, technical, and commercial merit and feasibility of the proposed cooperative effort that has potential for commercial application. Phase II funding is based on results of research initiated in Phase I, and the scientific and technical merit and commercial potential of the proposed Phase II project. Only STTR Phase I awardees are eligible to receive Phase II support. The NIH Fast-Track mechanism provides additional assistance to applicants by expediting the decision and award of funding for scientifically meritorious applications for projects that have a high potential for

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Applicant Eligibility:

The awardee will be a university, college, hospital, public agency, nonprofit research institution or for-profit organization that submits an application and receives a grant or cooperative agreement for support of research by a named principal investigator. SBIR grants can be awarded only to domestic small businesses (entities that are independently owned and operated for profit, are not dominant in the field in which research is proposed, and have no more than 500 employees). Primary employment (more than one-half time) of the principal investigator must be with the small business at the time of award and for the duration of the project period. In both Phase I and Phase II, the research must be performed in the U.S. and its possessions. To be eligible for funding, a grant application must be approved for scientific merit, technical merit, and program relevance by a scientific review group and a national advisory council. STTR grants can be awarded only to domestic small business concern (entities that are independently owned and operated for profit, are not dominant in the field in which research is proposed and have no more than 500 employees) which "partner" with a research institution in cooperative research and development. At least 40 percent of the project is to be performed by the small business concern and at least 30 percent by the research institution. The Principal Investigator may be primarily employed by either the small business concern or the collaborating research institution at the time of award and for the duration of the project period. In both Phase I and Phase II, the research must be performed in the U.S. and its possessions. To be eligible for funding, a grant application must be approved for scientific merit, technical merit and program relevance by a scientific review group and a national advisory council.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Credentialed/Documentation:

For-profit organizations' costs are determined in accordance with 48 CFR, Subpart 31.2 of the Federal Acquisition Regulations. For other grantees, costs will be determined in accordance with IHS Regulations 45 CFR, Part 75. For SBIR and STTR grants, the applicant organization (small business concern) must present in a research plan an idea that has potential for commercialization and furnish evidence that scientific competence, experimental methods, facilities, equipment, and funds requested are appropriate to carry out the plan. Grant form SF424(R&R) (version as specified in the FOA) is used to apply for SBIR Phase I and Phase II, and STTR Phase I and Phase II. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Depending on the grant mechanism, either form PHS-398 (Rev. March 2016) or form SF424(R&R) (Version as specified in the FOA) is the standard application form. Both forms can be obtained online at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/forms.htm. The standard application forms, as furnished by DHHS. SBIR and STTR Grant Solicitations and SBIR Contract Solicitations may be obtained electronically through the NIH Small Business Funding Opportunities home page at https://sbir.nih.gov/funding. The Solicitations include submission procedures, review considerations, and grant application or contract proposal forms. All competing SBIR and STTR grant applications should be submitted electronically to the NIH via Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov/).

Award Procedure:

Grants and cooperative agreements are funded based on scientific merit, program relevance, and program balance and are made annually. Initial award provides funds for first budget period (usually 12 months) and Notice of Grant Award (Form PHS 1533) indicates support recommended for remainder of project period, allocation of Federal funds by budget categories, and special conditions, if any. All accepted SBIR/STTR applications are evaluated for scientific and technical merit by an appropriate scientific peer review panel and by a national advisory council or board. All applications receiving a priority score compete for available SBIR/STTR set-aside funds on the basis of scientific and technical merit and commercial potential of the proposed research, program relevance, and program balance among the areas of research.

Deadlines:

Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

Regular Grants: Approximately 10 months. SBIR/STTR: About 7-1/2 months.

Appeals:

A principal investigator (P.I.) may question the substantive or procedural aspects of the review of his/her application by communicating with the staff of the Institute. A description of the NIH Peer Review Appeal procedures is available online through the NIH home page at https://grants.nih.gov/grants/peer-review.htm.

93.413 THE STATE FLEXIBILITY TO STABILIZE THE MARKET GRANT PROGRAM
FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA), Section 1003
For all authorizations/amendments, you must supply the Act or the Executive Order in order to continue.

OBJECTIVES:
The State Flexibility to Stabilize the Market Grant Program will provide a funding source to enhance the role of states in the implementation and planning for several of the Federal market reforms and consumer protections under Part A of Title XXVII of the Public Health Service Act (PHS Act). The State Flexibility to Stabilize the Market Grants will provide states with the opportunity to ensure their laws, regulations, and procedures are in line with Federal requirements, and enhance the states ability to effectively regulate their respective health insurance markets through innovative measures that support the pre-selected market reforms and consumer protections under Part A of Title XXVII of the PHS Act.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Applicants may use grant funds for a variety of planning and implementation objectives related to the pre-selected market reforms and consumer protections under Part A of title XXVII of the PHS Act, including but not limited to implementing or enhancing policy form review, hiring or contracting with a clinician to review formularies, developing actuarial and economic analyses, and performing market scans of the respective states health insurance market to assess the current healthcare and coverage landscape. The Department of Health and Human Services funds for The State Flexibility to Stabilize the Market Grant Program may not be used for any of the following: cover the costs to provide direct services to individuals; to match any other Federal funds; provide services, equipment, or supports that are the legal responsibility of another party under Federal or State law (e.g., vocational rehabilitation or education services) or under any civil rights laws; supplant existing State, local, Tribal, or private funding of infrastructure or services such as staff salaries, etc.; provide goods or services not allocable to the approved budget; be used by local entities to satisfy state matching requirements; pay for construction; pay for capital expenditures for improvements to land, buildings, or equipment which materially increase their value or useful life as a direct cost, except with the prior written approval of the Federal awarding agency; pay for the cost of independent research and development, including their proportionate share of indirect costs (unallowable in accordance with 45 CFR 75.476); or to use as profit to any award recipient even if the award recipient is a commercial organization, (unallowable in accordance with 45 CFR 75.215(b)), except for grants awarded under the Small Business Innovative Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer Research (STTR) programs (15 U.S.C. 638). Profit is any amount in excess of allowable direct and indirect costs.

Applicant Eligibility:
This Funding Opportunity Announcement is open to all fifty States and the District of Columbia for planning and/or implementing one or more of the three pre-selected market reforms and consumer protections in Part A of title XXVII of the PHS Act. Only one application per state is permitted, except in a state in which there is more than one regulating entity, each with a primary responsibility over the regulation of a portion of the private health insurance market.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Grants to States (including the District of Columbia) for planning and/or implementing the market reforms and consumer protections in Part A of title XXVII of the PHS Act.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants should review the CMS funding opportunity announcement documents issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications which must be submitted prior to or simultaneously with submission of an application package. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Grant applications and required forms for this program can be obtained from Grants.gov. CMS requires all applicants to apply electronically through Grants.gov.

Award Procedure:
All qualified applications will be forwarded to an objective review committee. Based on the advice of the objective review committee, the CMS program official with delegated authority is responsible for final selection and funding decisions. Notification is made in writing by a Notice of Grant Award.

Deadlines:
Oct 27, 2017 to Dec 07, 2017 A Letter of Intent is mandatory and must be submitted by 5:00 pm Eastern Daylight Time on October 27, 2017. All grant applications must be submitted electronically and be received through http://www.grants.gov by 3:00 pm Eastern Daylight Time on December 7, 2017.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 30 to 60 days. From 30 to 60 days.

Reports:
Semi-Annual and Final programmatic reports are required in the Funding Opportunity Announcement. Federal Financial Reports (FFR) must be filed within 30 days of the end of each quarter. Failure to submit the report may result in the inability to access grant funds. Go to https://pms.psc.gov/grant_recipients/ffrinformation.html for additional information. Submit a quarterly electronic Federal Financial Report (FFR) Cash Transaction Report via the Payment Management System. The report identifies cash expenditures against the authorized funds for the grant. Required Semi-Annual and Final Progress Reports. Grantees must provide HHS with information such as, but not limited to, project status, implementation activities initiated, accomplishments, barriers, and lessons learned in order to ensure that funds are used for authorized purposes. Such performance includes submission of the states progress toward the milestones identified in its Work Plan. HHS reserves the right to restrict funds for activities related to unmet milestones. Recipients must submit annual expenditures information through submission of a Federal Financial Report (FFR). All recipients are required to report on expenditures at least annually. Performance monitoring is not applicable.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:
Grantees are required to maintain grant accounting records for 3 years after the date they submit the final Federal Financial Report (FFR). If any litigation, claim, negotiation, audit or other action involving the award has been started before the expiration of the 3-year period, the records shall be retained until completion of the action and resolution of all issues which arise from it, or until the end of the regular 3-year period, whichever is later.

93.423 1332 State Innovation Waivers
1332 Waiver Program

Federal Agency:
Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Human Services

Authorization:
The Affordable Care Act, Section 1332.

Objectives:
Under Section 1332 of the PPACA, states can apply for State Innovation Waivers and pursue innovative strategies to adapt many of the law’s requirements to suit the state’s specific needs. To receive approval, the state must demonstrate that a proposed waiver will provide access to quality health care that is at least as comprehensive and affordable as would be provided without the waiver, will provide coverage to at least a comparable number of residents of the state as would be provided coverage without a waiver, and will not increase the federal deficit. Before submitting its Section 1332 waiver application the state must also provide a public notice and comment period, including public hearings, sufficient to ensure a meaningful level of public input, and enact a law providing for implementation of the waiver. Under a Section 1332 waiver, a state may receive pass-through funding associated with the resulting reductions in federal spending on Marketplace financial assistance consistent with the statute.

Types of Assistance:
Cooperative Agreements

Uses and Use Restrictions:
Federal pass-through funding made available through Section 1332 must be used only to implement the waiver program. Pass-through funding is equivalent to the amount of premium tax credits (PTC) that would have been provided to individuals in a state under Section 36B of the Internal Revenue Code but will not be provided under the waiver program, while considering all federal revenue. Federal pass-through funding made available through Section 1332 must be used only to implement the waiver program. The pass-through funds cannot be obligated by the state prior to the waiver effective date. The state agrees to use the full amount of pass-through funding for purposes of implementing the states plan as approved by the Departments. To the extent any pass-through funding exceeds the amount necessary to implement the waiver program, the remaining funds must be rolled over and used for purposes of implement the states plan under the waiver. If the waiver is not extended or is suspended/terminated, unused pass-through funds will be returned to the Treasury promptly, and the state will comply with all the necessary steps to do so.

Applicant Eligibility:
This funding opportunity is only open to US States, Territories and Possessions.

REGULATIONS, GUIDELINES, AND LITERATURE:
Regulations governing the application process for State Innovation Waivers can be found at the Federal Register at 77 Fed. Reg. 11700 (Feb. 27, 2012). Among other things, these regulations provide guidance on how to apply for a waiver and what an application from a state must contain, including actuarial and economic analyses. The regulations detail public notice and comment requirements that a state must comply with before an application is submitted, including holding public hearings, in order to facilitate a meaningful level of public involvement, input, and transparency in the state application process. They also describe the Federal public notice and comment process that will occur after a completed application has been received. The regulations also describe the requirements for post-award reporting and the standards under which post-award monitoring will take place.
In December of 2015, the Departments of Health and Human Services and Treasury (Departments) released Federal Register guidance at 80 Fed. Reg. 11700 (December 16, 2015) that provided additional information on PPACA Section 1332s statutory requirements.
On May 11, 2017, Departments posted a 1332 waiver application checklist to help states as they develop and complete the required elements of their applications. This checklist follows a March 2017 letter from U.S. Health and Human Services Secretary Price to all states encouraging the use of innovative strategies to strengthen their health insurance markets.

NON-ACA/PPHF BUILDING CAPACITY OF THE PUBLIC HEALTH SYSTEM TO IMPROVE POPULATION HEALTH THROUGH NATIONAL NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS

CBA to Strengthen the Public Health Infrastructure and Performance

OBJECTIVES:

Improving the public health workforce (e.g., e-learning, other training, and fellowship programs); vital statistics systems (electronic birth and death registration); food and water borne disease identification and prevention, prevention of hospital acquired infections, electronic health record/IT systems, communications systems and processes (e.g. information syndication and social media capacity), and laboratory and epidemiologic capacity. Developing information systems to support adoption, implementation, enforcement, and/or evaluation of public health legislation, codes, rules, regulations, ordinances, and other policies.

Improving public health system development/redevelopment by building or re-engineering infrastructure to improve networking, coordination, standardization, and centralization of public health services to effectively and efficiently address priority health indicators.

Implementing best health care practices and conducting impact evaluation

Improving information and data system capacity through policy/communication for standardized data collection and analysis systems, information management technology, information dissemination, and meaningful data use and translation

Improving organizational capacity to effectively and efficiently use resources such as fiscal agents, and intermediaries, and Improving technical and program guidance and evaluation of preventive services to expand coverage for community and clinical preventive services. This includes technical consultation and promotion on the adoption and utilization of the recommendations from the Guide for Community Preventive Services.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Project funds will be used for costs associated with providing capacity building assistance to strengthen the infrastructure of State, Tribal, Local, and Territorial public health agencies and other components of the public health system. For the purposes of this program, other components of the public health system refers to specific professional constituencies (i.e., epidemiologists, community health nurses, health education and promotion specialists tribal health leaders, chronic disease directors, health information specialists, Medicaid/Medicare Directors, state/local public health financial officials, etc.) or key components of the public health system (i.e., community and neighborhood health centers, public health and primary care delivery systems, community and faith-based organizations, public health and accreditation boards, public health institutes, primary care residency programs, health insurance consortia, family/social services programs, maternal/child health associations, etc.). Recipients may only expend funds for reasonable program purposes, including personnel, travel, supplies (including training materials), and services, such as contractor.

Applicants will be required to participate, comply, and cooperate with CDC for any reporting requirements stipulated by, or mandated for, the receipt of funding. PPHF funding is intended to be used only in support of PPHF programs and projects.

Applicant Eligibility:

1. Eligible Applicants: Organizations with nonprofit 501(c)(3) or nonprofit 501(c)(6) IRS status (other than institutions of higher education).

2. Special Eligibility Requirements: The applicant organization must provide evidence of national scope of work and of public health charge or mission.

3. Justification for Less than Maximum Competition: The program leadership in the Office of State, Tribal, Local and Territorial Support (OSTLTS) determined that in order to achieve its strategic priorities for strengthening the public health infrastructure and advancing the quality of public health decision making, OSTLTS will need to expand its capacity building assistance (CBA) efforts through national, non-profit organizations with experience and expertise providing capacity building assistance to governmental and non-governmental components of the public health system.

Eligible applicants are limited to national, non-profit professional public health mission organizations with experience and expertise providing capacity building assistance (CBA) to governmental and non-governmental components...
Application Procedures:

Preapplication Coordination:

This expertise is necessary for the grantee to effectively and efficiently complete the related activities and achieve the program outcomes described in the funding opportunity announcement. Additionally, the following capacities will facilitate the completion of projects in the specified timeframe: infrastructure to organize, conduct work and disseminate key outcomes; communicate key information to organization members, stakeholders and the public health community on a regular basis; leverage a wide array of resources among organization members and the public health community to expediently achieve results in a cost-effective manner; interact with other public health organizations; and act as a networking hub to build the capacity of governmental and non-governmental components of the public health system.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Beneficiaries include state health departments; tribal health organizations; local health departments; the District of Columbia; U.S. Territories; and other components of the public health system. The general public will also serve as beneficiaries.

Credentials/Documentation:

The applicant organization must include evidence of national scope of work and public health role or mission. Articles of incorporation, board resolution or evidence of federally assigned 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(6) status designation by the IRS will be required.

The applicant organization must include evidence of national scope of work and public health role or mission. Articles of incorporation, board resolution or evidence of federally assigned 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(6) status designation by the IRS will be required.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact determination letter. This program is excluded from coverage under OMB Circular No. A-87 for non-profit non-governmental organizations.

Subpart E - Cost Principles.

This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. This program is excluded from coverage under OMB Circular No. A-110. Allowable costs will be determined in accordance with OMB Circular No. A-87 for non-profit non-governmental organizations.

If an applicant does not have access to the Internet, or if they have difficulty accessing the forms on-line, contact the CDC Procurement and Grants Office (PGO) staff. For this, or further assistance, contact PGO-TIMS: Telephone (770) 488-2700, Email: PGO-TIM@cdc.gov

Award Procedure:

1. Phase I Review: All eligible applications will be initially reviewed for completeness by CDC's Procurement and Grants Office (PGO) staff. In addition, eligible applications will be jointly reviewed for responsiveness by CDC/OSTLTS and PGO. Incomplete applications and applications that are non-responsive to the eligibility criteria will not advance to Phase II review. Applicants will be notified if the application did not meet eligibility and/or published submission requirements.

2. Phase II (Initial Base-Funding) Review: An objective review panel will review and prioritize applications according to the criteria listed in the Criteria section of the FOA. The applications will be compiled and reviewed according to the category for which applicants submitted their applications. Applicants will be notified electronically if the application did not meet eligibility and/or published submission requirements thirty (30) days after the completion of Phase II review.

3. Phase III Review: In addition, the following factors may affect the funding decision during Phase II (Initial Base-Funding Competition) Review:

a. Preference to avoid duplication of CBA services to the same target populations.

b. Preference may be given to the funding of applicants that propose to provide CBA services to target populations not served by higher ranking applicants.

c. Preference will be given to ensuring funding of organizations that provide CBA services to target populations not duplicated in other CDC funding mechanisms.

Final funding determinations will be based on application scores from the objective review panels and consideration for CDC's funding preferences.

4. Phase IV (Secondary CIO-Funding) Review: Applicants that are successful in Phase II (Initial Base-Funding) Review and are awarded funds will be eligible to participate in the Phase IV (Secondary CIO-Funding) Review for CDC-wide public health projects. Eligible awardees will receive an application packet detailing the Phase IV (Secondary CIO-Funding) application submission process upon receipt of the Phase II (Initial Base-Funding) Notice of Award. The awardees must submit stand-alone applications in response to a range of CBA projects that represent public health disciplinary areas and cross-cutting disciplines and/or topics. CIO-funded projects may also include limited CBA to international public health constituents where there is a benefit to U.S. public health efforts or to the U.S. public health system. The applications will be compiled and reviewed according to the Category and CIO project for which applicants submitted proposals. In the event a technical review is more efficient (i.e., there is one proposal submitted for a particular CIO project), the technical review will be held in place of an objective review.

Final funding determinations will be based on application scores from the objective review (and technical review) panels.

Deadlines:

Renewals:

Renewals will be based upon the conditions in the funding opportunity announcement and are subject to the availability funding under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

This program has no statutory formula. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

Financial assistance is available for a 12-month budget period within project periods ranging from one to five years. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:
a. Reporting: Reporting allows for continuous program monitoring and identifies successes and challenges that awardees encounter throughout the award. Reporting is also necessary for awardees to apply for yearly continuation of funding. In addition, reporting is helpful to CDC and awardees because:
- Helps target support to awardees, particularly for cooperative agreements.
- Provides CDC with periodic data to monitor awardee progress towards meeting the FOA outcomes and overall performance.
- Allows CDC to track performance measures and evaluation findings for continuous program improvement throughout the project period and to determine applicability of evidence-based approaches to different populations, settings, and contexts.
- Enables the assessment of the overall effectiveness and impact of the FOA.

As described below, awardees must submit one report per year; ongoing performance measures data, administrative reports, and a final performance and financial report. Below are the specific reporting requirements:

b. Annual Performance Report (due 120 days before the end of the budget period; serves as a continuation application). This report must not exceed 35 pages, excluding work plan and administrative reporting. Attachments are not permitted when submitting this report. This report must include the following:
- Performance Measures (including outcomes): Awardees must report on performance measures for each budget period and update measures, if needed.
- Evaluation Results: Awardees must report evaluation results for the work completed to date (including any impact data).
- Work Plan (maximum of 25 pages): Awardees should update the work plan each budget period.

Successes
- Awardees must report progress on completing activities outlined in the work plan.
- Awardees must describe any additional successes (e.g., identified through evaluation results or lessons learned) achieved in the past year.
- Awardees must describe success stories.

Challenges
- Awardees should describe any challenges that hinder achievement of both annual and project period outcomes, performance measures, or their ability to complete the activities in the work plan.
- Awardees must describe any additional challenges (e.g., identified through evaluation results or lessons learned) encountered in the past year.
- CDC Program Support to Awardees
- Awardees should describe how CDC could assist them in overcoming any challenges to achieve both annual and project period outcomes and performance measures, and complete activities outlined in the work plan.

Administrative Reporting (not subject to page limits)
- SF-424A Budget Information-Non-construction Programs
- Budget Narrative. Must use the format outlined in Section IV. Content and Form of Application Submission, Budget Narrative Section
- Indirect Cost Rate Agreement

During years 25, awardees may request up to 75% of their estimated unobligated funds to be carried forward into the next budget period.

The carryover request must:
- Express a bona fide need for permission to use an unobligated balance.
- Include a signed, dated, and accurate Federal Financial Report (FFR) for the budget period from which the fund will be transferred (can request up to 75% unobligated balances).
- Include a list of proposed activities, an itemized budget, and a narrative justification of those activities.

The applicant must submit the Annual Performance Report via www.grants.gov 120 days before the end of the budget period.

c. Performance Measure Reporting: CDC programs must require awardees to submit performance measures at least annually. CDC may require more frequent reporting of performance measures. Performance measure reporting should be limited to the collection and reporting of data. CDC programs should specify reporting frequency, required data fields, and format for awardees at the beginning of the award.

As indicated in the previous section, awardees will submit annual performance reports based on their selected program strategies and activities. These performance measures and the frequency of reporting will vary by project.

d. Federal Financial Reporting: The Annual Federal Financial Report (FFR) SF 425 is required and must be submitted through eRA Commons within 90 days after the end of each audit period. The FFR must include the exact balance of unobligated funds and may not reflect any un-liquidated obligations. There must be no discrepancies between the final FFR expenditure data and the Payment Management Systems (PMS) cash transaction data. Failure to submit the required information in a timely manner may adversely affect the future funding of this project. If the information cannot be provided by the due date, you are required to submit a letter explaining the reason and date by which the Grants Management Officer will receive the information.

e. Final Performance and Financial Report: At the end of the five-year project period, awardees should submit a final report to include a final financial and performance report. This report is due 90 days after the end of the project period and should not exceed 40 pages.

At a minimum, this report must include the following:
- Performance Measures (including outcomes): Awardees should report final performance data for all performance measures for the project period.
- Evaluation Results: Awardees should report final evaluation results for the project period.
- Impact/Results: Awardees should describe the impact/results of the work completed over the project period, including success stories.

The completed FFR (SF-425):

The report should be emailed to the CDC Project Officer and the GMS listed in Agency Contacts section of the FOA. Cash reports are not applicable.

Progress reports are not applicable. Expenditure reports are not applicable. Performance monitoring is not applicable.

Audits:

In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. In accordance with the provisions of OMB Circular No. A-133 (Revised, June 27, 2003), “Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations,” nonfederal entities that expend financial assistance of $500,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $500,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in Circular No. A-133. Records must be available for review or audit by appropriate officials of the Federal agency, pass-through entity, and General Accounting Office (GAO). The grantee is to also ensure that the sub-recipients receiving CDC funds also meet these requirements (if total Federal grant or grants funds received exceed $500,000). The grantee should include this requirement in all sub-recipient contracts.

Records:

Financial records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records pertinent to the program shall be retained for a minimum of 3 years, or until completion and resolution of any audit in process or pending resolution. In all cases, records must be retained until resolution of any audit questions.

Property records must be retained in accordance with 45 CFR 92.42.

93.432 ACL CENTERS FOR INDEPENDENT LIVING CILs

FEDERAL AGENCY:

Administration for Community Living, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, Title VII, Chapter 1, Part C., Title VII, Part C, Section 725.

OBJECTIVES:

To support a Statewide network of centers for independent living (centers or CILs) and provide financial assistance to centers that comply with the standards and assurances in section 725(b) and (c) of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (Rehabilitation Act) consistent with the design included in the State Plan for Independent Living for establishing a statewide network of centers. Centers are consumer-controlled, community-based, cross-disability, nonresidential, private nonprofit agencies that are operated in local communities by individuals with disabilities and provide an array of IL services that are designed to enhance independence and productivity of individuals with significant disabilities and to promote their full inclusion and integration into the mainstream of American society.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Project Grants (Discretionary)

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Federal funds awarded under this program, the CIL program, are used for the establishment and operation of centers for independent living which offer a wide range of independent living (IL) services. Services must include independent living core services which are (1) information and referral services, (2) independent living skills training, (3) peer counseling, including cross-disability peer counseling, (4) individual and systems advocacy and (5) services that (i) facilitate the transition of individuals with significant disabilities from nursing homes and other institutions to home and community-based residences, with the requisite supports and services; (ii) provide assistance to individuals with significant disabilities who are at risk of entering institutions so that the individuals may remain in the community; and (iii) facilitate the transition of youth who are individuals with significant disabilities, who were eligible for individualized education programs under section 64(c)(4) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (20 U.S.C. 1414(d)), and who have completed their secondary education or otherwise left school, to post-secondary life. As appropriate, IL services may include a combination of any other independent living services specified in Section 718 of the Rehabilitation Act. Section 721(b) of the Rehabilitation Act specifies that not less than 1.8 percent and not more than two percent of Federal funds appropriated for the CIL program must be reserved each fiscal year to provide training and technical assistance to centers for independent living and eligible agencies under grants, contract or cooperative agreements with entities who have experience in the operation of centers for independent living.

Applicant Eligibility:

Private non-profit organizations. An eligible agency under the CIL program is a consumer-controlled, community-based, cross-disability, nonresidential, private nonprofit agency or a state agency in states in which no eligible private nonprofit organization applies for a grant. A States allotment for IL Part C funds is determined according to a population-based formula. To the extent funds are available, the Rehabilitation Act requires the Administrator to make awards based on a statutory order of priorities to the extent funds are available:

1. The Administrator shall support existing centers for independent living, as described in subsection (c), that comply with the standards and assurances set forth in section 725, at the level of funding for the previous year.

2. The Administrator shall provide for a cost-of-living increase for such existing centers for independent living.

3. The Administrator shall fund new centers for independent living, as described in subsection (d), that comply with the standards and assurances set forth in section 725.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Individuals with significant disabilities as defined in section 7(21)(B) of the Rehabilitation Act. This refers to an individual with a severe physical or mental impairment whose ability to function independently in the family or community or whose ability to obtain, maintain, or advance in employment is substantially limited and for whom the delivery of independent living services will improve the ability to function, continue functioning, or move toward functioning independently in the family or community or to continue in employment, respectively.

Credentials/Documentation:

No Credentials or documentation are required. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

93.433 ACL NATIONAL INSTITUTE ON DISABILITY, INDEPENDENT LIVING, AND REHABILITATION RESEARCH (NIDILRR)

FEDERAL AGENCY:

Administration for Community Living, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

The Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title II, as amended, Title II.

OBJECTIVES:

To support and coordinate research and its utilization in order to improve the lives of people of all ages with physical and mental disabilities, especially persons with severe disabilities, through: (1) identifying and eliminating causes and consequences of disability; (2) maximizing the health, physical, and emotional status of persons with disabilities and their functional ability, self-sufficiency, self-development and personal autonomy; (3) preventing or minimizing personal and family, physical, mental, social, educational, vocational, and economic effects of disability; and (4) reducing and eliminating physical, social, educational, vocational, and environmental barriers to permit access to services and assistance and to use their abilities in daily life.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Grants, cooperative agreements, and contracts are awarded for research, demonstration, dissemination/utilization projects of national significance, and career training projects. All applications must meet standards of excellence in research and evaluation design. Fellowships support individual investigators in pursuing research in rehabilitation.

Applicant Eligibility:

States, public, private, or nonprofit agencies and organizations, institutions of higher education, and Indian tribes and tribal organizations are eligible for research projects and specialized research activities related to the rehabilitation of individuals with disabilities; fellowships may be awarded to individuals.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Individuals with disabilities may benefit directly or indirectly from research and other activities conducted by grantees, such as technical assistance and dissemination.

Credentials/Documentation:

Applicants should present written evidence of other agencies' willingness to cooperate when the project involves their acceptance or the utilization of their facilities or services. Costs will be determined in accordance with OMB Circular No. A-21 for educational institutions, OMB Circular No. A-87 for state and local governments, and OMB Circular A-122 for non-profit organizations. OMB Circular No. A-87 applies to this program. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. OMB Circular No. A-110 applies to this program. NIDRR long-range plan serves as the basis for program announcements that are published in Grants.gov or posted on the ACL website. Proposed priorities may also be published in the Federal Register and Requests for Proposals published in the Commerce Business Daily.

Award Procedure:

New awards are made based upon the results of a peer review process and subsequent review and approval of applications by staff within the Department. Official notice of approved applications is made through issuance of a Notice of Grant Award or an official letter of fellowship award. Grants and fellowships are awarded by the Secretary, Health and Human Services.

Deadlines:

Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

From 90 to 120 days. Ranges from 30 to 120 days. Generally, solicited grants, fellowships, and contracts will be acted upon within 120 days.

 Appeals:

Not Applicable.

Renewals:

Grantees must submit annual progress reports in order to receive continuation funding. Awards may be renewed annual for up to five years or to a lesser project period contingent upon the award specifications. Renewals are subject to the availability of appropriations.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

This program has no statutory formula. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

Funds are awarded in 12 month budget periods. Support beyond the first 12 month budget period is contingent upon evidence that the grantee has made substantial progress toward achieving the objectives and outcomes for a project, and availability of appropriations. Awards may be made for a maximum of five years. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released:

Electronic transfer.

Reports:

Annual reports of progress and annual expenditures are required on all projects. Comprehensive final reports are due 90 days after the end of the project. No performance monitoring is required; however, NIDRR has established an extensive system of performance monitoring involving is program officers in oversight of progress toward goals proposed in grant applications. These activities are designed to monitor for performance and research outcomes. No cash reports are required. No progress reports are required. No expenditure reports are required. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:

In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.505. In accordance with the provisions of Subpart F - Audit Requirements, under 45 CFR Part 75.500, nonfederal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Nonfederal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year. Except as noted in 45 CFR Part 75.500.

Records:

responsibility for the administration and provision of health services from the government to tribal leadership.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
DIRECT PAYMENTS FOR A SPECIFIED USE
USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Funds are for the tribes to provide the PFSAs transferred from the Indian Health Service (IHS). The funds are not available for construction unless specifically authorized by Congress. Tribes can reallocate funds within their budget from one line item to another without contract modifications. Tribes also receive administrative funds for the contracted programs.

Applicant Eligibility:
Any federally-recognized tribe that formally requests, through a governing body action, a resolution, to enter into a self-determination contract or contracts for the purpose of planning, conducting, and administering programs, or portions thereof, including construction programs, provided that the T/TO submits a contract proposal that conforms to the requirements contained in 25
CFR 900.9 may apply.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Indian tribes will benefit.

Credits/Documentation:
No Credentials or documentation are required. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
The Agency shall, within 30 days of receipt of a notice of intent to contract, provide the tribe pre-proposal technical assistance, if requested to do so. The Agency will also notify the tribe of the amount of funds available to contract, under 106(a) of the ISDA, and begin planning for the transfer of responsibilities and funding to the tribe. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform
Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. A tribe or tribal organization may submit a proposal for a self-determination contract or a proposal to amend or renew an existing contract. Unless there is a declination issue the Secretary shall within 90 days after receiving the proposal, approve the proposal and award a contract to the tribe. Declaration issues are: (A) The service to be rendered to the Indian beneficiaries of the particular program or function to be contracted will not be satisfactory; (B) adequate protection of trust resources is not assured; (C) the proposed project or function to be contracted for cannot be properly completed or maintained by the proposed contract; (D) the amount of funds proposed under the contract is in excess of the applicable funding level for the contract as determined under Section 106(a); or (E) the program, function, service, or activity (or portion thereof) that is the subject of the proposal is beyond the scope of programs, functions, services, or activities covered under paragraph
(1) because the proposal includes activities that cannot lawfully be carried out by the contractor.

Award Procedure:
The agency negotiation team and the representatives of the tribe shall develop the agenda for the contract negotiation session(s). The agency negotiation team should assure that any issues identified during the proposal review stage, together with any agency recommendations for overcoming these issues, are raised at the negotiations. Title I contracts are generally awarded at the area office level. They are awarded for a definite period of time (1 to 3 years) or may be designated as "mature" and awarded for a definite or indefinite period of time.

Deadlines:

Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application
deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 60 to 90 days.

Appeals:
Section 102 of the ISDA and Subpart L of the regulations are the basic sections covering the appeal procedures. Section 900.150 of 25 CFR lists the decisions a T/TO can appeal under Subpart L (25 CFR 900.150-169). The procedures here apply to those appeals. Also, 25 CFR Section 900.151 of the regulations describes appeals that are covered under Subpart N of the regulations and other appeals. The T/TO has three options in appealing a decision under 25 CFR 900-150. The T/TO can request an informal conference and/or can file a formal appeal. The T/TO also has the option of going directly to the Federal court at any time.

Renewals:
Annual funding agreements are renegotiated and renewed annually. Title I contracts may be designated as "mature" and awarded for a definite or indefinite period of time.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula.

Matching Requirements: A T/TO may use funds provided under a Title I contract to meet matching or close participation requirements under other Federal and nonfederal programs.

MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
n/a. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly.

Reports:
No reports are required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. Section 501 of the ISDA requires a T/TO to submit an annual "Single Audit Act" as required by Chapter 75 of Title
31 U.S.C. OMB Circular No. A-133, Audits of States, Local Governments and Nonprofit Organizations, revised June 24, 1997, rescinded circular No. A-128 and superseded the Prior version of A-133. Revised circular No. A-133 now applies to T/TO.

Applicant Eligibility:

- Applicants eligible to receive an award under this announcement are SDPI grant recipients. The applicant must be one of the following entities: IHS hospital or clinic, federally recognized Tribes, Title V Urban Indian Health Programs, or consortia of any of the above. A SDPI grant recipient can apply only once as a single entity or as part of consortium.

- An application submitted by consortium of SDPI grant recipients must be submitted by one of the SDPI grant recipients sanctioned as the principal applicant. A letter of support must be included in the application from each SDPI grantee the principle applicant is representing. The letter must specifically state that the principal applicant is officially representing that SDPI grantee in this application.

- Applicants for consortium who do not submit these letters of support at the time of the application receipt date will not be reviewed and are ineligible for the award. Smaller applicants are encouraged to apply as part of consortium, especially their diabetes registry is less than 250. Applicants are strongly encouraged to establish eligibility of their proposed applications prior to submission. Inquiries about eligibility should be addressed to Gordon Quam, SDPI Demonstration Projects Grant Project Officer, IHS Division of Diabetes Treatment and Prevention at 505-248-4182; email to diabetesprogram@ihs.gov.

- Applicants that are not SDPI grant recipients are not eligible. Non-profit tribal organizations or national/area health boards are not eligible, consistent with recent tribal consultation on this issue. Applications that do not meet these eligibility requirements will be returned to the applicant without further review.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

American Indians and Alaska Natives will be the ultimate beneficiaries of the funded demonstration projects through either prevention or direct treatment services.

Criteria/Documentation:

Costs will be determined in accordance with OMB Circular Circular No. A-122, "Cost Principles for Non-Profit Organizations," 2 CFR 200, Subpart E, Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.
to the applicant without further consideration. Applications will be evaluated for technical merit by appropriate peer review groups convened by the IHS National Diabetes Program in accordance with established criteria.

Award Procedure:
Applicants will only be eligible to receive one award for funding in one area (i.e. primary prevention of diabetes or prevention of cardiovascular disease in people with diabetes). Priorities for funding will be based on the technical merit of the application, the assessed potential of the applicant and the likelihood of the applicant to successfully implement the defined interventions. Awards will be made only to organizations with financial management systems and management capabilities that are acceptable under PHS Policy. Awards will be administered under the PHS Grants Policy Statement. Awards will be subject to the availability of funds and grants will be administered in accordance with applicable Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circulars, Department of Health and Human Services grant regulations at 45 CFR Parts 74 and 92, the Public Health Service Grants Policy Statement and other applicable IHS policies and procedures such as the regulations governing protection of human subjects at 45 CFR Part 46. Grants Management will not award a grant without an approved application in conformance with regulatory and policy requirements and which describes the purpose and scope of the project to be funded. When the application is approved for funding, the Grants Management Office will prepare a Notice of Grant Award with special terms and conditions binding upon the award and refer to all general terms applicable to the award.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 60 to 90 days. The anticipated date for the announcement of selectees is 60 days after the application due date.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
This funding was awarded as a cooperative agreement until FY 2015. No further renewals will be granted.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Assistance is available during the stated Project Periods. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly.

Reports:
Program reports are not applicable. Grantees will be required to submit quarterly Federal Financial Report (SF-425 or FFR) to the Division of Payment Management Branch. Progress reports are required annually, semi-annually or quarterly depending on the time lines set by the IHS program. A final progress report is due 90 days after the end of each budget period and at the end of the final project period. Grantees will be required to submit quarterly Federal Financial Report (SF-425 or FFR) to the Division of Payment Management Branch. IHS grants are monitored by the Division of Grants Management for financial compliance and by the IHS Program Staff for programmatic compliance.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. In addition, grants and cooperative agreements are subject to inspection and audits by DHHS and other Federal government officials.

Records:
All records of the grant must be retained for 3 years after submission of the final expenditure report. If questions remain, such as those resulting from an audit, pertinent records must be kept until the matter is resolved. The Secretary, the Inspector General of the Department of the Health and Human Services, and the Comptroller General of the United States or any of their authorized representatives shall have the right to access all records, report, books, document, papers or other records of the grantee, contractor, or subcontractor or of any entity pertinent to the DHHS grant in order to make audits, examinations, excerpts and transcripts.

93.444 TRIBAL SELF-GOVERNANCE PROGRAM: PLANNING AND NEGOTIATION COOPERATIVE AGREEMENT
(Tribal Self-Governance)
FEDERAL AGENCY:
Indian Health Service, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To enable Federally recognized Indian tribes to enter into agreements that would allow them to assume programs, services, functions, and activities (PSFA) (or portions thereof) that the IHS would otherwise provide for Indians because of their status as Indians. To accomplish this objective, the Indian Health Service (IHS) offers Planning and Negotiation Cooperative Agreements each year for: (1) additional tribes interested in participating in the IHS Tribal Self-Governance Program, and (2) existing Self-Governance Tribes that would like to plan for the assumption of new and/or expanded programs. The Planning Cooperative Agreements allow Tribes to gather information to determine the current types and extent of PSFA and funding levels available within its service areas and to plan for the types and extent of PSFA and funding to be made available to the tribe under a compact. The Negotiation Cooperative Agreements provide Tribes with additional funding to defray costs involved in and preparing to negotiate Self-Governance compacts pursuant to Title V of the ISDEAA.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funding transferred through a Planning or Negotiation Cooperative Agreement must be used to either: (1) establish and operate programs to provide planning and negotiation resources to Tribes interested in participating in the IHS Tribal Self-Governance Program, or (2) expand current Self-Governance activity.

Applicant Eligibility:
For Planning Cooperative Agreements, any Federally recognized tribe that (1) formally requests, through a governing body action, a Planning Cooperative Agreement for the purpose of preparing to enter the IHS Tribal Self-Governance Program and (2) has furnished organization-wide single audit reports as prescribed by Pub. L. 96-502, the Single Audit Act of 1984, as amended, for the previous three years that contain no uncorrected significant and material audit exceptions. See OMB Circular No. A-133 (June 27, 2003 and June 26, 2007). For Negotiation Cooperative Agreements, in addition to the two criteria listed above, applicants must have successfully completed the planning phase as described at 42 C.F.R. 137.20.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Federally recognized Indian tribes and tribal organizations (as defined in 25 U.S.C. 458aaa-(b)) may benefit.

Credentia l s/Document at ion:
No Credentials or documentation are required. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. The preferred method for receipt of applications is electronic submission through http://www.Grants.gov. However, should any technical problems arise regarding the submission, please contact Grants.gov Customer Support by telephone at (800) 518-4726 or by electronic mail at support@grants.gov. Customer Support is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week (except for Federal Holidays). If problems persist, please contact Paul Gettys, Division of Grants Management Systems Coordinator by telephone at (301) 443-2114 or by e-mail to Paul.Gettys@ihs.gov at least ten (10) days prior to the application deadline. To submit an application electronically, please use the Internet Website located at http://www.Grants.gov. Download a copy of the application package, on the Grants.gov website, complete it offline and then upload and submit the application via the Grants.gov site. An electronic copy of a grant application submitted by electronic mail to the IHS will not be accepted.

Award Procedure:
Cooperative agreements are made directly by the IHS to the Indian tribal applicants, based on results of an Objective Review process.

93.448 FOOD SAFETY AND SECURITY MONITORING PROJECT
FERN Grant Program
FEDERAL AGENCY:
Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health and Human Services
AUTHORIZATION:
OBJECTIVES:
To complement, develop and improve State, Indian Tribal, and local food safety and security testing programs for equipment, supplies, personnel, training, and facility upgrades to FERN microbiological, chemical, and radiological laboratories to establish additional reliable laboratory sample analysis capacity and analysis of surveillance samples.
TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements
USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
The FERN cooperative agreements are intended to target state, local, and tribal FERN laboratories to provide increased analytical capacity and expertise (including method validation) in the event of food outbreaks or other large-scale food emergency events requiring surge capacity testing of implicated food samples. These funds cannot be used to fund or conduct food inspections for food safety regulatory agencies. They may not be used for new building construction, however remodeling of existing facilities is allowed, provided that remodeling costs do not exceed 25% of the grant. Funding restrictions are noted in the Funding Opportunity Announcement and the Terms and Conditions of Award.
Applicant Eligibility:
These cooperative agreement and grants programs are only available to State, Local and Tribal government Food Emergency Response (FERN) laboratories.
Beneficiary Eligibility:
Successful programs will benefit the general population as more rapid and reliable food testing to enhance food safety efforts is developed. The FERN laboratory network will also benefit from better testing methods, equipment and training.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applications must present a project plan and provide evidence that their facilities, personnel and equipment are appropriate to carry out the plan. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs. " An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. The required application forms as referenced in the Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) and required by 45 CFR 72, and as posted in Grants.gov must be used for this program. The FOA may be published in the NIH Guide or Federal Register. All applications submitted for new, competing continuations or competing supplemental grants must complete the required applications forms through Grants.gov at http://www.grants.gov.

Award Procedure:
All accepted applications receive a programmatic and objective review. All approved and recommended applications will be scored and compete for available funds on the basis of score, programmatic/scientific merit and program relevance. Geographic distribution will be a consideration in the award selection process.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days. 90-120 days.

Appeals:
From 15 to 30 days.

Renewals:
From 90 to 120 days. The Funding Opportunity Announcement will indicate if "Renewals" are accepted. Procedures are the same as for new applications.

Matching requirements are not applicable to this program.
Matching requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
The length of support will depend on the nature of the project, program relevance and the availability of funds. For those projects with an expected duration of more than 1 year, future recommended support, up to five years will depend on: 1) performance during the preceding year and, 2) the availability of Federal funds. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Recommended and approved projects will receive a Notice of Grant Award electronically or in hard copy. Funds are made available through the Payment Management System (PMS).

Reports:
Program reports are required as stated in the Funding Opportunity Announcement and the Terms and Conditions of Award. Cash reports are not applicable. Progress Reports are required as stated in the Funding Opportunity Announcement and the Terms and Conditions of Award. Performance monitoring is conducted for that year. 93.452 HEALTH IMPROVEMENT FOR RE-ENTERING EX-OFFENDERS INITIATIVE (HIRE) HIV/AIDS

HIRE Program

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Office of the Secretary, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Public Health Service Act, as amended, Title XVII, Section 1707 (c)(1), 42 U.S.C. 300u et seq., 42 U.S.C. 300u et seq.

OBJECTIVES:
The HIRE Program seeks to improve the HIV/AIDS health outcomes of ex-offenders re-entering the mainstream population (Re-entry Population) by supporting community-based efforts to ensure their successful transition from state or federal incarceration back to their communities. It is expected that applicants will ensure that ex-offenders returning to their communities from incarceration or detention are sufficiently prepared to: maximize their chances for successful reintegration; seek to eliminate the structural and medical barriers to reintegration that are necessary to preserve public safety; acknowledge the roles that families and communities play in the reentry process and ensure that they are sufficiently prepared to take on those responsibilities; and collect the data needed from pre-release and post-release prison medical reports to better evaluate the effectiveness of the project and assist ex-offenders affected by HIV/AIDS.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funds are to be used to support projects or activities consistent with the mission of the Office of Minority Health of the U.S. Public Health Service, and that facilitate improvement in the HIV/AIDS health outcomes of ex-offenders re-entering the mainstream population. Funds are not to be used for the provision of health care treatment, for construction, or to supplant ongoing project activities. Grant funds may only be used to support activities outlined in the approved project plan. The allowability, allocability, reasonableness, and necessity of direct and indirect costs must be charged to HHS/OASH grants in accordance with Department regulations and policy effective at the time of the award. Current requirements are outlined at 45 CFR Part 75 Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for HHS Awards, 79 Federal Register 75871 (December 19, 2014).

Applicant Eligibility:
To qualify for funding, an applicant organization must: be located within one of the five targeted states with the highest incidence of inmates known to be infected with HIV or of inmates to have confirmed AIDS in state and federal prisons at year end 2008: Florida, New York, Texas, California, or Georgia. Furthermore, the organization must have a minimum of five years experience in: a) providing services to the re-entry population; and b) implementing HIV/AIDS-related health and support services. Additionally, the eligible organization must be: Private nonprofit community-based, minority-serving organization which addresses health, human or correctional services; or Public entity (local government) which addresses health, human or correctional services; or Tribal governmental entity which addresses health, human or correctional services; or Faith-based organization which provides comprehensive pre-release, transitional or reentry services.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
The HIRE Program places primary focus on the reentry populations in five targeted states, with special emphasis on the following reentry subpopulations: substance abusers, men who have sex with men, and individuals impacted by mental health disorders.

Credentia documentation:
Proof of nonprofit status, if applicable, is required as part of the application submission. OMB Circular No. A-87 applies to this program. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12272, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. OMB Circular No. A-102 applies to this program. OMB Circular No. A-110 applies to this program. To apply, access the announcement thru www.grants.gov. Enter the CFDA# and follow the website instructions. Applications submitted after the deadlines will not be accepted for review. The submission deadline will not be extended. Applications which do not conform to the requirements of the grant announcement will not be accepted for review and will be returned to the applicant. Applications may only be submitted electronically via www.grants.gov. Any applications submitted via any other means of electronic communication, including facsimile or electronic mail, will not be accepted for review.

Award Procedure:
Applications will be screened upon receipt. Those that are deemed to be ineligible will be returned to the applicant. Accepted applications will be evaluated by a technical review panel composed of independent experts. The final funding decision will be determined by the Agency Director, who will take into consideration the recommendations of the review panel; programmatic needs, stated preferences; geographic location; and recommendations of DHHS Regional Health Coordinators. All applicants will be notified in writing of actions taken on their applications. Applications that are approved and funded will be issued A Notice of Grant Award.

Deadline:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days.

Appeal:
Not Applicable.

Renewal:
180 Days. The grant will have a 4-year project period with 12-month budget periods.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Grants can have a project period not to exceed 4 years, with 12-month budget periods. Following the initial budget period, continued funding is subject to the availability of funds and satisfactory program performance. Payments will be made either on a monthly cash request basis or under a letter of credit. Necessary instructions regarding payment procedure will be provided at the time the Notice of Grant Award is issued. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: by letter of credit.

Reports:
Program progress reports are required quarterly. Grantees must submit quarterly SF425 Federal Financial Reports to Management. Services due on one of the standard due dates on which cash reporting is required or at the end of a calendar quarter. The FFR is due 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter. The annual APR form (SF-425) is required and must be submitted 90 days after the end of the calendar quarter in which the budget period ends. The report must include only those funds authorized and disbursed during the timeframe covered by the report. The final APR must indicate the exact balance of unobligated funds, and may not reflect any unliquidated obligations. There must be no discrepancies between the final FFR expenditure data and the Payment Management Systems (PMS) cash transaction data. Failure to submit the required information by the due date may adversely affect the future funding of the project. If the information cannot be provided by the due date, awardees are required to submit a letter of explanation to OGS and include the date by which the Grants Officer will receive information. A final performance report is due 90 days following the end of the project period.

Audits:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements. 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements.

Records:
HHS and the Comptroller General of the United States or any of their authorized representatives shall have the right of access to any books, documents, papers, or other records of a grantee, subgrantee, contractor, or subcontractor, which are pertinent to the HHS grant, in order to make audits, examinations, excerpts and transcripts. In accordance with 45 CFR Part 75.361 grantees are required to maintain grant accounting records 3 years after the end of a budget period. If any litigation, claim, negotiation, audit or other action involving the records has been started before the expiration of the 3-year period, the records shall be retained until completion of the action and resolution of all issues which arise from it, or until the end of the regular 3-year period, whichever is later.

PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS:
Fiscal Year 2016: Over 73,000 individuals participated in State AT Device Demonstrations conducted by AT programs. Over 54,000 AT devices were loaned on a short-term basis through Device Loan Programs. Close to 80,000 AT devices were re-utilized, saving consumers $31,000,000 by obtaining a gently used or refurbished AT device rather than a new one. 88 percent of recipients of State Financing-indicated an AT device could not be obtained without the assistance of the state financing activity. 93.465 TOBACCO PREVENTION AND CONTROL LEGAL TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE
Legal TA

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
This program is authorized under Section 307 of the Public Health Service Act, Comprehensive Smoking Education Act of 1984, and Comprehensive Smokeless Tobacco Health Education Act of 1986.

OBJECTIVES:
The awardee will provide legal technical assistance and consultation to OSH and NTCP grantees awardees on questions related to the identification, development, adoption, and implementation of evidence-based interventions and policies nationwide. This project will assure that all CDC-funded grantees awardees have access to legal technical assistance from tobacco prevention and control legal experts, as well as keep CDC informed of tobacco control-related legal issues that may affect NTCP goals and strategic planning.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements (Discretionary Grants)

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Assistance can be used to pay for employee salaries, overheads, travel costs, and other expenses directly related to achievement of the strategies and activities listed in the FOA towards the purpose of fulfilling obligations related to providing legal technical assistance to CDC and its awardees. Assistance cannot be used for lobbying, as outlined in CDC guidance and agency anti-lobbying restrictions (link). Additionally, assistance cannot be used for paying subcontractors or for staff training.

Applicant Eligibility:
In addition to the above list, legal centers are eligible for this FOA. Due to the strategies, activities and approaches required by this cooperative agreement, it is essential that the potential awardee has a) deep institutional knowledge specific to current and historical U.S. tobacco control issues, b) an experienced national organization with capacity to work at the national level in tobacco control legal TA, and c) does not have any present or historical links to the tobacco industry and should provide a statement to such effect.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
The immediate beneficiaries of the program include the federal government, state, local, territorial and Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Governments, as well as other CDC Office on Smoking and Health Awardees such as the National Networks, which include a range of non-profit organizations. The ultimate beneficiary of the program is the general public, as the program seeks to support population-wide environmental changes that help to transform the nation’s health and provide individuals with equitable opportunities to take charge of their health. Smokers are more likely to be in lower socioeconomic groups; tobacco control work is a proven strategy to reduce health inequities.

Credentials/Documentation:
Staff resumes/CVs including legal education and experience credentials; letters of recommendation/support. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards.

Award Procedure:
This FOA will undergo POGO review for completeness (Phase I review) and objective review by a review panel (Phase II) with points assigned to each of the requested criteria in the application. The proposer with the highest score will be awarded the Cooperative Agreement.

Deadlines:
Application:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 15 to 30 days. Within 30 days after Phase II review is complete.

Appeals:
None.

Renewals:
Not applicable.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
The period of time for this Funding Opportunity Announcement is for five years from the date of award.

The money awarded should be spent within one year of the end of the funding period. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Assistance will be awarded on an annual basis for the five years of the cooperative agreement.

Reports:
No reports are required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a

Office of the Secretary, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, Public Law 111-148 SEC. 10211 - 10214.

OBJECTIVES:

The Pregnancy Assistance Fund (PAF) grant program provides support for States and Tribes to develop and implement programs to improve the educational, health, and social outcomes for expectant and parenting teens, women, fathers, and their families. The PAF aims to strengthen access to and completion of education (secondary and postsecondary); improve child and maternal health outcomes; improve pregnancy planning and spacing and reduce the likelihood of repeat teen pregnancies; increase parenting skills for mothers, fathers, and families; strengthen co-parenting; decrease intimate partner violence; and raise awareness of available resources.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Providing support for expectant and parenting students in Institutions of Higher Education (IHE); Providing support for expectant and parenting teens, young adults, women, fathers and their families in high schools and community service centers; Improving services for pregnant or parenting women who are victims of domestic violence, sexual violence, sexual assault, and stalking; and/or Increasing public awareness and education of services available for expectant and parenting teens, young adults, women, fathers and their families. For purposes of this funding, the term expectant includes both women and men who are expecting a child. The term teens refers to both young men and women of high-school age and students refers to women and men enrolled in institutions of higher education. The term young adults refer to both men and women ages 20-24. Families include, but are not limited to spouses, partners, and children.

Applicant Eligibility:

Eligible applicants are from States, which include the District of Columbia, any commonwealth, possession, or other territory of the United States and any Federally-recognized Indian tribe, reservation or consortium or council (referred to as States or tribes), for the development and implementation of programs for expectant and parenting teens, women, fathers and their families.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

1. States, which include the District of Columbia, any commonwealth, possession, or other territory of the United States, and any Federally-recognized Indian Tribe, reservation, consortium or council
2. Education, Health, Non-profits, Community-based organizations, and entities within tribal communities.

CREDENTIALS/DOCUMENTATION:

The authorized representative from the State or tribe must apply for grant funds available through this announcement to assist expectant and parenting teens, women, fathers and their families.

Preapplication Coordination:

The Governor(s) of the State(s) in which the project is to be located is to be given 60 days in which to review and comment on applications for funding under this authority. An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in the State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. The announcement for this grant opportunity may be found on www.Grants.gov. The application forms and guidelines are available for online submission only. Submitted applications are screened upon receipt for completeness, responsiveness and conformance to the program announcement. Those applications judged to be unacceptable based on this initial screening will be returned. Applications may only be submitted electronically via the electronic submission mechanisms specified in the announcement (Grants.gov). Any application submitted via any other means of electronic communication, including facsimile or electronic mail, will not be accepted.

Award Procedure:

An independent review panel will evaluate applications that pass the screening and meet the responsiveness criteria if applicable. These reviewers are experts in their fields, and are drawn from academic institutions, non-profit organizations, state and local government, and Federal government agencies. Based on the Application Review Criteria as outlined under Section V, the reviewers will comment on and score the applications, focusing their comments and scoring decisions on the identified criteria. In addition to the independent review panel, Federal staff will review each application for programmatic, budgetary, and grants management compliance. Final award decisions will be made by the Director of the Office of Adolescent Health. All applicants are notified in writing of actions taken on their applications. A Notice of Award is issued for those applications that are approved and funded.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Each year of the approved project period, grantees are required to submit a noncompeting application, which includes a progress report for the current budget year, and work plan, budget and budget justification for the upcoming year. Specific guidance will be provided via Grant Solutions well in advance of the application due date.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program.

Matching Requirements: Percent: 25%. An eligible institution of higher education that receives funding shall contribute an amount from non-Federal funds equal to 25 percent of the amount of the funding provided. The non-Federal share may be in cash or in-kind, fairly evaluated, including services, facilities, supplies or equipment. The non-Federal contribution does not apply to eligible high schools and community service organizations.

Funds are made available for competitive grant awards under the authority of Sections 10211-10214 of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (Public Law 111-148; Affordable Act). This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Grants may not exceed 5 years (subject to the availability of funds). Payments will be made either on a monthly cash request basis or under the Electronic Transfer System. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Necessary instructions for the appropriate type of payment will be issued at the time an award is made. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly.

Reports:
Please see Notice of Award for detailed requirements. Grantees must submit quarterly SF425 Federal Financial Reports to Payment Management Services due on one of the standard due dates on which cash reporting is required or at the end of a calendar quarter. The FFR is due 90 days after the end of each calendar quarter. Noncompeting applications, which includes a progress report for the current budget year, work plan, and budget and budget justification for the upcoming year. Annual reports are due within 90 days of the close of the budget period. The Pregnancy Assistance Fund (PAF) grant program provides support for States and tribes to develop and implement programs to improve the educational, health, and social outcomes for expectant and parenting teens, women, fathers and their families. The PAF aims to strengthen access to and completion of education (secondary and postsecondary); improve child and maternal health outcomes; improve pregnancy planning and spacing and reduce the likelihood of repeat teen pregnancies; increase parenting skills for mothers, fathers, and families; strengthen co-parenting relationships and marriage where appropriate, increase positive paternal involvement; decrease intimate partner violence; and raise awareness of available resources.

For purposes of this funding, the term expectant includes both women and men who are expecting a child. The term teens refer to both young men and women of high-school age and students refers to women and men enrolled in institutions of higher education. The term young adults refer to both men and women age 20-24. Families include, but are not limited to spouses, partners, and children.

Applicants may apply for funding in one or more of the following categories: Category 1 Providing support for expectant and parenting students in Institutions of Higher Education (IHE); Category 2 Providing support for expectant and parenting teens, young adults, women, fathers and their families in high schools and community service centers; Category 3 - Improving services for pregnant and parenting women who are victims of domestic violence, sexual violence, sexual assault, and stalking; or Category 4 Increasing public awareness and education of services available for expectant and parenting teens, young adults, women, fathers and their families. OAH has two program priorities for this FOA: 1) proposals that seek to involve expectant and parenting fathers and 2) proposals that target young adults (ages 20-24). A signed letter from the authorized representative must accompany the application and should include documentation establishing the authorized representatives authority to apply for and administer the grant funds on behalf of the State or tribe. OAH will accept only one application per State or tribe. All qualified applications will be given equal considerations.

93.501 GRANTS FOR SCHOOL-BASED HEALTH CENTER CAPITAL EXPENDITURES (SBHCC)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010, Title IV, Section 4101, Public Law 111-148.

OBJECTIVES:
The goal of the program is to award funds made available to expand school-based health center capacity to provide primary health care services for school-aged children. This competitive funding opportunity is available for school-based health centers to address significant and pressing capital improvement needs, including: alteration, renovation, and the purchase of equipment.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
An eligible entity shall use funds provided under an awarded grant only for expenditures for facilities, equipment, or similar expenditures. No funds provided shall be used for expenditures for personnel or to provide health services. See above and notice of funding opportunity. See above and funding opportunity announcement.

Applicant Eligibility:
To be eligible for a grant under this subsection, an entity shall be a school-based health center or a sponsoring facility of a school-based health center as defined in section 2110(c)(9) of the Social Security Act (42 USC 1397jjc(9)).

A school-based health center is defined as a health clinic that:
1. Is located in or near a school facility of a school district or board of an Indian tribe or tribal organization;
2. Is organized through school, community, and health provider relationships;
3. Is administered by a sponsoring facility;
4. Provides through health professionals primary health services to children in accordance with State and local law, including laws relating to licensure and certification; and
5. Satisfies such other requirements as a State may establish for the operation of such a clinic.

A sponsoring facility includes any of the following:
1. A hospital
2. A public health department
3. A community health center
4. A non-profit health care agency
5. A school or school system
6. A program administered by the Indian Health Service or the Bureau of Indian Affairs or operated by an Indian tribe or a tribal organization.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
School-based health centers or a sponsoring facility of a school-based health center.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants should review the applicable HRSA notice of funding opportunity issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications which must be submitted prior to or simultaneous with submission of an application package. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
The National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), 42 U.S.C. 4321 (Public Law 91-190, Section 2, January 1, 1970, 83 Stat., 852), including Public Disclosure, Section 102 of NEPA, and E.O. 11514, requires Federal agencies to assess the environmental impacts of major Federal actions, including construction projects supported in whole or in part through Federal contracts, grants, subsidies, loans, or other forms of funding assistance. HRSA requires that applicants provide information on anticipated environmental impact as part of their applications. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372. An environmental impact statement is required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

93.504 FAMILY TO FAMILY HEALTH INFORMATION CENTERS

F2F HICs

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Social Security Act, Title V, Section 216 (P.L. 114-10), Social Security Act, Title V, Section 701(c), as amended by the Medicare Access and CHIP Reauthorization Act of 2015, Section 216 (P.L. 114-10).

OBJECTIVES:
To develop and support Family to Family Health Information Centers. The Family-to-Family Health Information Centers (1) assist families of children with disabilities or special health care needs to make informed choices about health care in order to promote good treatment decisions, cost-effectiveness, and improved health outcomes for such children; (2) provide information regarding the health care needs of, and resources available for, such children; (3) identify successful health delivery models for such children; (4) develop with representatives of health care providers, managed care organizations, health care purchasers, and appropriate State agencies, a model for collaboration between families of such children and health professionals; (5) provide training and guidance regarding caring for such children; (6) conduct outreach activities to the families of such children, health professionals, schools, and other appropriate entities and individuals; and (7) are staffed by such families who have expertise in Federal and State public and private health care systems; and by health professionals.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
All funds granted should be expended solely for carrying out the approved project in accordance with Section 501(c)(A) of the Social Security Act.

Restricted Uses: Indirect costs that are allowed for administrative costs incurred as a result of the project are limited to 8 percent of direct costs. Student support through stipends, tuition, and fees is not eligible for support.

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligible applicants include public and private entities, including an Indian tribe.
or tribal organization (as those terms are defined at 25 U.S.C. 450b); faith-based organizations, and community-based organizations. The law limits the size of eligible organizations to the 50 States and the District of Columbia. Although Tribes and tribal organizations may apply, they must meet all applicable requirements, including targeting of all children and youth with special health care needs (CYSHCN) across the State for services. Applicants must have experience related to the purpose of the program, the effort must be family-staffed/run, and the effort must have a focus on health for CYSHCN (as defined by the MCH Bureau). For example, if an applicant is a family organization with a history of funding that is condition-specific or related to education, mental health or developmental disabilities, as with any applicant, evidence of health for the broad CYSHCN population must be evident in their application. Applicants MUST demonstrate that they have EXISTING and effective fiduciary, administrative and management systems. If a different fiduciary agency is needed, such as a university, activities must still be family-staffed/run for the entire grant period.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Projects will benefit (1) public or private agencies, organizations and institutions engaged in activities for CYSHCN; (2) family members and children who receive services through the program; and (3) professionals and trainees who provide services to CYSHCN.

Credentialed/Documentation:
Applicants should review the individual HRSA notice of funding opportunity issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications which must be submitted prior to or simultaneous with submission of an application package. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Grant applications and required forms for this program can be obtained from Grants.gov. HRSA requires all applicants to apply electronically through Grants.gov.

All qualified applications will be forwarded to an objective review committee. Based on the advice of the objective review committee, the HRSA program official with delegated authority is responsible for final selection and funding decisions.

Award Procedure:
Notification is made in writing by a Notice of Award.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
After initial award, projects may be renewed annually up to the limit of the project period upon the submission and approval of a satisfactory continuation application.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program.

This program has no matching requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Competing and competing continuation grant applications are submitted for up to three (3) years of support. Funding is dependent on the availability of appropriated funds for the program in subsequent fiscal years, grantee satisfactory performance, and a decision that continued funding is in the best interest of the Federal government. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Grantees draw-down funds, as necessary, from the Payment Management System (PMS). PMS is the centralized web based payment system for HHS awards.

Reports:
The awardee will be required to submit performance and progress reports as well as status-federal financial reports (see the program announcement and notice of award for details for each required report). The Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting Program (MIECHV) is designed: (1) to strengthen and improve the programs and activities carried out under Title V; (2) to improve coordination of services for at-risk communities; and (3) to identify and provide comprehensive services to improve outcomes for families who reside in at-risk communities. The MIECHV Program was created to support voluntary, evidence-based home visiting services for at-risk pregnant women and parents with young children up to kindergarten entry. The program builds upon decades of scientific research that shows home visits conducted by a nurse, social worker, early childhood educator, or other trained professional during pregnancy and in the first years of a child’s life improves the lives of children and families. Home visiting helps prevent child abuse and neglect, supports positive parenting, improves maternal and child health, and promotes child development and school readiness.

Types of Assistance:
- Formula Grants
- Cost Principles applies to this program.
- Not Applicable.

Eligibility:

- Eligible families residing in communities in need of such services, as identified in a State needs assessment
- Low-income eligible families
- Eligible families who are pregnant women under age 21
- Eligible families with a history of child abuse or neglect or have had interactions with child welfare services
- Eligible families with a history of substance abuse or need substance abuse treatment
- Eligible families that have users of tobacco products in the home
- Eligible families that are or have children with low student achievement
- Eligible families with children with developmental delays or disabilities
- Eligible families who, or that include individuals serving or formerly serving in the Armed Forces, including those with members who have had multiple deployments outside the US
- Eligible family:
  - A woman who is pregnant, and the father of the child if available, or
  - A parent or primary caregiver of the child, including grandparents or other relatives and foster parents serving as the child's primary caregiver from birth until kindergarten entry, including a noncustodial parent with an ongoing relationship with, and at times provides physical care for the child.

Credentials/Documentation:

- Applicants should review the individual HRSA funding opportunity announcement issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications of education and/or training which must be submitted prior to or simultaneous with submission of an application package. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.
- Preregistration Coordination:
  - Preregistration coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, “Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs.” An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. HRSA requires all applicants to apply electronically through Grants.gov.

Award Procedure:
Formula Grants: All qualified applications will be reviewed internally by grants management officials (business and financial review) and program staff (technical review) for eligibility, completeness, accuracy, and compliance with the requirements outlined in this announcement. The HRSA program official with delegated authority is responsible for final selection and funding decisions.

Competitive Grants: All qualified applications will be forwarded to an independent objective review committee. Based on the advice of the independent objective review committee, the HRSA program official with delegated authority is responsible for final selection and funding decisions.

Notification is made in writing by an electronic Notice of Award.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 60-90 days. Contact the Headquarters or Regional Office as appropriate for application deadlines or view the specific funding opportunity announcement.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Formula funds are awarded on an annual basis.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory Formula: Formula funding is determined as follows:

i. The number of children under age five in families at or below 100 percent of the Federal poverty line in each state was obtained by using 2011 U.S. Census Bureau Small Area Income Poverty Estimate (SAIPE) data (available at http://www.census.gov/did/www/saipe/data/statecounty/data/2011.html).

ii. The percentage of children under age five in families at or below 100 percent of the Federal poverty line in the state, as compared to the number of such children nationally, was calculated.

iii. For each state, the percentage of children under age five in families at or below 100 percent of the Federal poverty line was multiplied by the total amount of funding available, (excluding the funding allocated for Puerto Rico, Guam, the Virgin Islands, the Northern Mariana Islands, and American Samoa. Because SAIPE data is not available for these jurisdictions, each was allocated a base amount of $1,000,000).

iv. This initial distribution, based on the percentage of children in poverty, was reviewed and proportionally modified to ensure a floor of the allocation provided in federal FY 2012 (excluding the funding provided for the Supporting Evidence Based Home Visiting Program). This program has no matching requirements.

This program has MOE requirements, see funding agency for further details. Funds provided to an eligible entity receiving a grant shall supplement, and not supplant, funds from other sources for early childhood home visiting programs or initiatives (per the Social Security Act, Title V, 511(f)). The awardee must agree to maintain non-Federal funding (State General Funds) for grant activities at a level which is not less than expenditures for such activities as of the most recently completed fiscal year.

For purposes of maintenance of effort/non-supplantation, home visiting is defined as an evidence-based program, implemented in response to findings from a needs assessment, that includes home visiting as a primary service delivery strategy (excluding programs with infrequent or supplemental home visiting), and is offered on a voluntary basis to pregnant women or children birth to age five targeting the participant outcomes in the legislation which include improved maternal and child health, prevention of child injuries, child abuse, or maltreatment, and reduction of emergency department visits, improvement in school readiness and achievement, reduction in crime or domestic violence, improvements in family economic self-sufficiency, and improvements in the coordination and referrals for other community resources and supports.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Funds awarded to an eligible entity for a fiscal year remain available for expenditure through the end of the second succeeding fiscal year after award. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Recipient drawdown funds, as necessary, from the Payment Management System (PMS). PMS is the centralized web based payment system for HHS awards.

Reports:
Performance Reports (DGIS Forms 1, 2, 4, and 6, Products and Publications. The HRSA MCHB Discretionary Grant Information System (DGIS) Forms 1, 2, 4 and 6, and Products and Publications reports are due within 120 days of the Notice of Award (NoA) issue date. For additional information about these forms, please visit: https://mchdata.hrsa.gov/dgisreports/AboutDGIS.aspx

Demographic, Service Utilization, and Benchmark Area-related Data Reporting (DGIS-HV Forms 1 and 2). Data for DGIS-HV Forms 1 and 2 (available online at http://mchb.hrsa.gov/programs/homevisiting/ta/resources/enrollschildreportform.pdf and http://mchb.hrsa.gov/programs/homevisiting/ta/resources/granteedefinedperformancemeasureform.pdf) must be submitted by October 30 of each fiscal year. Recipients will provide demographic, service utilization and benchmark area-related data into DGIS. The demographic and service utilization data report will include: an unduplicated count of enrollees; selected characteristics by race and ethnicity; socioeconomic data; other demographics; numbers of enrolled from priority populations; and, service utilization across all models. The benchmark data report will include an update of data collected for all constructs within each of the six benchmark areas. The benchmark data report will also provide the following information: the name of the benchmark and construct; the performance measure; the operational definition; the measurement tool utilized; rationale for the measure; the reporting period value; and, the definition of improvement.

Recipients are required to submit progress and financial reports on the status of the project using the Electronic Handbooks System (https://grants.hrsa.gov/webexternal/home.asp). Refer to the specific funding opportunity announcement for further information. Submit a quarterly electronic Federal Financial Transaction Report via the Payment Management System. The report identifies cash expenditures against the authorized funds for the grant. The Cash Transaction Reports must be filed within 30 days of the end of each quarter. Failure to submit the report may result in the inability to access award funds. Go to www.dpm.psc.gov for additional information. Successful applicants receiving funding will be required, within 90 days from the end of the project period, to electronically complete the program specific data forms. The requirement includes providing expenditure data for the final year of the project period, the project abstract and award summary data as well as final indicators/scores for the performance measures. The awardee will be required to submit performance and progress reports as well as status-federal financial reports (see the program announcement and notice of award for details for each required report). The awardee must submit a quarterly electronic Federal Financial Report (FFR) Cash Transaction Report via the Payment Management System within 30 days of the end of each calendar quarter. A Federal Financial Report (SF-425) according to the following schedule: http://www.hrsa.gov/grants/manage/technicalassistance/federalfinancialreport/schedule.pdf. A final report is due within 90 days after the project period ends. PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS:
Beneficiary Eligibility: These facilities and providers include skilled nursing facilities, nursing facilities, home health agencies, hospice care providers, long-term care hospitals, personal care service providers, adult day care providers, residential care providers, assisted living facilities, intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded (ICFs/MR) and other entities that provide long-term care services, as specified by each participating State.

Credentials/Documentation:
No Credentials or documentation are required. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Participating States must guarantee non-Federal funds to cover a portion of the cost to conduct the program in their State. CMS will provide a three-to-one match for these funds to each grantee up to a maximum of $3 million for newly applying states and $1.5 million for states that previously participated in the pilot program. The participating State must require fingerprint checks as part of the criminal background check for all direct patient access employees. The participating State must have a plan to implement the program (a) statewide and (b) in all long term care entities specified in Section 6201 of the ACA, although the State may phase-in the program over a multi-year period, and the phase-in may be accomplished by geographical location, provider type, or other factors determined by the State.

Award Procedure:
This is not a competitive grant. All applying States that provide an application that is scored by the Federal technical panel at 70.2 out of the possible 101 points or greater shall receive a grant. Applications that score below 70.2 points will not be considered as grants.

Funding for this program shall become effective upon CMS approval application. Grants will be awarded to every State that meets the qualifications and terms of agreement described in this solicitation. This includes providing a satisfactory application that meets all provisions of the Law and scores at least 70.2 points or greater (out of 101) from the Federal technical panel review. Grants may expect to begin receiving funds within 30 days from the Notice of Grant Award.

Deadlines:
Jun 01, 2010 to Jun 30, 2011: Deadline to apply under this solicitation is June 30, 2011. CMS continues to provide open solicitations to states to apply for funding under the program. Applications for the grant solicitation are accepted on a rolling basis and acted on every 30 days.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Not Applicable.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Not Applicable.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program.

Matching Requirements: Matching requirements as specified in Section 6201 (a) (5) of the Affordable Care Act.

(A) NEWLY PARTICIPATING STATES
(i) IN GENERAL. As part of the application submitted by a State under paragraph (1)(A)(ii), the State shall guarantee, with respect to the costs to be incurred by the State in carrying out the nationwide program, that the State will make available (directly or through donations from public or private entities) a particular amount of non-Federal contributions, as a condition of receiving the Federal match under clause (ii).
(ii) FEDERAL MATCH. The payment amount to each State that the Secretary enters into an agreement with under paragraph (1)(A) shall be 3 times the amount that the State guarantees to make available under clause (i), except that in no case may the payment amount exceed $3,000,000.

(B) PREVIOUSLY PARTICIPATING STATES
(i) IN GENERAL. As part of the application submitted by a State under paragraph (1)(B)(iii), the State shall guarantee, with respect to the costs to be incurred by the State in carrying out the nationwide program, that the State will make available (directly or through donations from public or private entities) a particular amount of non-Federal contributions, as a condition of receiving the Federal match under clause (ii).
(ii) FEDERAL MATCH. The payment amount to each State that the Secretary enters into an agreement with under paragraph (1)(B) shall be 3 times the amount that the State guarantees to make available under clause (i), except that in no case may the payment amount exceed $1,500,000.

This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Up to 36 months. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:
Grantees must also agree to respond to requests that are necessary for the evaluation of the National Background Check Program grant efforts to satisfy the statutory requirements for the Federal evaluation enumerated in Section 6201 of the ACA and provide data on key elements of their Background Check Program grant activities. This will include detailed information on the number of background checks requested by various providers, information gathered in the course of background checks, employment decisions made based on this information and their rationale, whether prospective employees challenge the results of adverse decisions and the outcomes of these challenges. It will also include cost accounting information of sufficient quality to allow reliable calculation of the costs of the various components of the background checks programs. Grantees must agree to fully cooperate with any Federal evaluation of the program and provide quarterly or semi-annually any required program progress and financial reports in a form prescribed by CMS (including the SF-269a, Financial Status Report forms). These reports will be designed to outline how grant funds were used and to describe program progress, as well as barriers and measurable outcomes. CMS will provide a format for reporting. Progress reports are not applicable. Expenditure reports are not applicable. Following the awarding of the grants, grantees must submit an operational protocol. The operational protocol must describe in detail the policies and procedures that the State will follow during the program period. The operational protocol should detail the responsibilities of the providers included in the program; the State government personnel and any additional responsible parties (e.g., contractors) involved in the program. Those who receive grant awards will be provided further detail as to the expected contents of the operational protocol prior to or during the first grantees meeting.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:
The criteria are as specified in Section 6201 (a) (1) of the Affordable Care Act:

(A) NEWLY PARTICIPATING STATES. The Secretary shall enter into agreements with each State:
(i) that the Secretary has not entered into an agreement with under subsection (c)(1) of such section 307:
(ii) that agrees to conduct background checks under the nationwide program on a Statewide basis; and
(iii) that submits an application to the Secretary containing such information and at such time as the Secretary may specify.

(B) CERTAIN PREVIOUSLY PARTICIPATING STATES. The Secretary shall enter into agreements with each State:
(i) that the Secretary has entered into an agreement with under such subsection (c)(1), but only in the case where such agreement did not require the State to conduct background checks under the program established under subsection (a) of such section 307 on a Statewide basis;
(ii) that agrees to conduct background checks under the nationwide program on a Statewide basis; and
(iii) that submits an application to the Secretary containing such information and at such time as the Secretary may specify.

93.507 PPHF NATIONAL PUBLIC HEALTH IMPROVEMENT INITIATIVE
FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Public Health Act and Prevention and Public Health Fund (PPHF), Section 301 and 317, 42 U.S.C 241 and 247b; Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act and Prevention and Public Health Fund (PPHF), Title IV, Section 4002, Public Law 111-148.

OBJECTIVES:
The National Public Health Improvement Initiative is part of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's larger effort to increase the performance management capacity of public health departments in order to ensure that public health goals are effectively and efficiently met. On March 30, 2010, President Obama signed into law the Affordable Care Act (ACA) (PL 111-148).

This legislation established a Prevention and Public Health Fund (Title IV, Section 4002) to provide for expanded and sustained national investment in prevention and public sector health care costs. ACA and the Prevention and Public Health Fund make improving public health a priority with investments to improve public health services, establish meaningful and measurable health indicators, and to achieve long-term improvement in health outcomes. The 5-year Strengthening Public Health Infrastructure for Improved Health Outcomes cooperative agreement program is designed to support innovative changes in key areas that improve the quality, effectiveness and efficiency of the public health infrastructure to better enable the delivery of public health services and programs as specified within ACA. In this continuation announcement, the CDC proposes to award approximately $33.7 million to fund 74 grantees using a formula. Eligible applicants are limited to current Awardees.

In this continuation funding is available to ALL current awardees to provide support for:
.accelerating public health accreditation readiness activities providing additional support for performance management and improvement practices, and
.developing, identifying and disseminating innovative and evidence-based policies and practices.

This program supports the Healthy People 2020 focus area of addressing Public Health Infrastructure (http://www.healthypeople.gov/hp2020/).

Cross-jurisdictional (state, local, tribal, territorial, regional, community, and border) collaborations are encouraged to increase the impact of limited resources, improve efficiency, and to leverage other related health reform efforts/projects.

Measurable outcomes of the program align with the following performance goals:
1) Increased efficiencies of program operations,
2) Increased use of evidence-based policies and practices, and,
3) Increased readiness for applying to and achieving accreditation by the Public Health Accreditation Board PHAB. (More information on accreditation activities can be found on the PHAB web site at http://www.phaboard.org/)

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Project funds may be used for costs associated with planning, organizing, and the implementation of other program elements to strengthen State, Tribal, Local, and Territorial public health core infrastructure. Recipients may only expend funds for reasonable program purposes, including personnel, travel, supplies, and services, such as contractual.

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligible applicants include all 50 states, Washington, D.C., 9 large local health departments supporting cities with populations of 1 million or more inhabitants (Chicago, Illinois; Dallas, Texas; Houston Texas; Los Angeles, California; New York City, New York; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Phoenix, Arizona; San Antonio, Texas; San Diego, California), 5 U.S. Territories 3 U.S. Affiliated Pacific Islands, and up to 7 federally-recognized tribes with an established public health departments structure (or their equivalent) that provide public health services to their tribal members or their bona fide agents.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
State health departments, large local health departments supporting cities with populations of 1 million or more inhabitants, the District of Columbia, U.S. Territories, tribal health organizations and the general public.

Credentials/Documentation:
2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Interagency Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:

If an applicant does not have access to the Internet, or if they have difficulty accessing the forms on-line, contact the CDC Procurement and Grants Office.
Technical Information Management Section (PGO-TIMS) staff. For this, or further assistance, contact PGO-TIMS: Telephone (770) 488-2700, Email: PGOTIM@cdc.gov

Award Procedure:
Applications that are complete and responsive will be evaluated for scientific and technical merit and receive support. CDC will not review incomplete and non-responsive applications. Applications that are complete and responsive will undergo objective review process, receive a written critique and be scored according to the published review criteria. Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Award (NOA) from the CDC Procurement and Grants Office. The NOA shall be the only binding, authorizing document between the recipient and CDC. The NOA will be signed by an authorized Grants Management Officer. Initial award provides funds for the first budget period (usually 12 months) and the NOA will indicate support recommended for the remainder of the project period, allocation of Federal funds by budget categories, and special conditions, if any.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Renewals will be based upon availability of funding under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Financial assistance is available for a 12-month budget period within project periods ranging from one to five years. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Program reports are not applicable. Cash reports are not applicable. Each funded applicant must provide an interim and annual progress report. The interim progress report is due no less than 90 days before the end of the specified budget period. The Interim Progress Report will serve as the non-competing continuation application. Semi-annual progress reports are also required. Financial Status Reports (SF 269) are required no more than 90 days after the end of the budget period. Final financial status and progress reports are required, no more than 90 days after the end of the project period. No later than 10 days after the end of each calendar quarter, starting with the quarter ending December 31, 2010 and reporting by January 10, 2010 the recipients must submit a calendar quarter cash transaction report (SF-272 or top portion of the SF-425 Financial Report Form) to the Payment Management System (PMS). Performance monitoring is not applicable.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. Records must be available for review or audit by appropriate officials of the Federal agency, pass-through entity, and General Accounting Office (GAO). The grantee is to also ensure that the sub-recipients receiving CDC funds also meet these requirements (if total Federal grant or grants funds received exceed $500,000). The grantee should include this requirement in all sub-recipient contracts.

Records:
Financial records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records pertinent to the grant program shall be retained for a minimum of 3 years, or until completion and resolution of any audit in process or pending resolution. In all cases records must be retained until resolution of any audit questions. Property records must be retained in accordance with 45 CFR 92.42.

93.508 AFFORDABLE CARE ACT (ACA) TRIBAL MATERNAL, INFANT, AND EARLY CHILDHOOD HOME VISITING PROGRAM
Tribal Home Visiting (HV) Program and Tribal Research Center for Early Childhood (TRCEC).

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
The Tribal Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting Program (TMIECHV), which is being administered by The Administration for Children and Families (ACF) Office of Early Childhood Development (ECD), Office of Child Care (OCC), in collaboration with the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA). Assistance is available to eligible Tribes (or consortium of Tribes), Tribal Organizations, and Urban Indian Organizations, to strengthen and improve maternal and child health programs, improve service coordination for at-risk communities, and identify and provide comprehensive evidence-based home visiting services to families who reside in at-risk communities.

The ACF, Office of Planning, Research and Evaluation (OPRE), in collaboration with HRSA, is administering the Tribal Research Center for Early Childhood (TRCEC), which will provide leadership and support to promote excellence in community-based participatory research and evaluation of ACF early childhood initiatives that serve Tribal communities (i.e., Home Visiting, Head Start, Early Head Start). The TRCEC is expected to engage in a variety of activities that are designed to identify and develop effective practices and systems for home visiting, Head Start, and Early Head Start programs in Tribal communities; to establish the culturally meaningful processes and outcomes of those programs; to build research capacity within Tribal communities; and to build the capacity of researchers to conduct research and evaluation in partnership with Tribal communities. TRCEC will provide leadership and support to promote excellence in community-based research and evaluation of Tribal MIECHV. Head Start, and EHS initiatives that serve AI/AN children and families. TRCEC is expected to engage in activities that support the identification and development of effective practices and systems for integrated services for Tribal MIECHV, Head Start, and EHS in tribal communities.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Assistance for the Tribal HV Program will be used to: conduct a needs assessment that considers community characteristics and the capacity and availability of existing home visiting programs and other supportive services; coordinate with other relevant local authorities; and involve community stakeholders as appropriate; collaborative planning efforts to address identified needs by developing capacity and infrastructure; providing high-quality, evidence-based home visiting services to pregnant women and families with young children aged birth to kindergarten entry; establishing, measuring, and reporting on progress toward meeting 36 performance measures in six legislatively-mandated benchmark areas; and conducting rigorous local evaluations that may include examining effectiveness of home visiting models in serving Tribal populations, adaptations of home visiting models for Tribal communities, or questions regarding implementation of infrastructure necessary to support evidence-based home visitation models in Tribal communities.

Consistent with statutory authority, Home Visiting funds for the TRCEC will be used for: (a) activities to promote excellence in research and evaluation of Tribal MIECHV programs in tribal communities; and (b) measurement development activities that will expand the evidence base around home visiting programs for AI/AN populations. Consistent with the relevant statutory authority, Head Start funds for the TRCEC will be used for research and evaluation activities to: (a) foster continuous improvement in the quality of the Head Start programs and in their effectiveness in enabling participating AI/AN children and their families to succeed in school and otherwise; and (b) develop, test, and disseminate new ideas based on existing scientifically valid research, for addressing the needs of AI/AN children and their families and communities. Costs of organized fundraising, including financial campaigns, endowment drives, solicitation of gifts and bequests, and similar expenses incurred solely to raise capital or obtain contributions, are unallowable. Costs of organized fundraising, including financial campaigns, endowment drives, solicitation of gifts and bequests, and similar expenses incurred solely to raise capital or obtain contributions, are unallowable.

Grant awards will not allow reimbursement of preaward costs.

Construction and purchase of real property are not allowable activities or expenditures under this grant award.

The statute requires that grantees supplement and not supplant funds from other HV initiatives.

Awards issued under this announcement are subject to the uniform administrative requirements and cost principles of 45 CFR Part 75.418 & 75.419 (Special Consideration for Institutions of Higher Education) and Appendix IX to Part 75 (Federal Awards to Hospitals) and 45 CFR Part 75.416 & 417 (Special Consideration for States, Local Governments and Indian Tribes).

An application funded with the release of Federal funds through a grant award, does not constitute, or imply, compliance with Federal regulations. Funded organizations are responsible for ensuring that their activities comply with all applicable Federal regulations.

Grantees are subject to the limitations set forth in 45 CFR Part 75.215 (b) (Prohibition against profit), which states that, Except for awards under the Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer Research (STTR) programs (15 U.S.C. 638), no HHS funds may be paid as profit to any recipient even if the recipient is a commercial organization. Profit is any amount in excess of allowable direct and indirect costs. The statute requires that grantees supplement and not supplant funds from other HV initiatives.

Grantees are also subject to the requirements of 45 CFR Part 87, Equal Treatment for Faith-Based Organizations: *Direct Federal grants, sub-award funds, or contracts under this ACF program shall not be used to support inherently religious activities such as religious instruction, worship, or proselytization. Therefore, organizations must take steps to separate, in time or location, their inherently religious activities from the services funded under this program. Regulations pertaining to the Equal Treatment for Faith-Based Organizations, which includes the prohibition against Federal funding of inherently religious activities, can be found at the HHS web site at: http://www.hhs.gov/fbci/waisgate21.pdf.

A faith-based organization receiving HHS funds retains its independence from Federal, State, and local governments, and may continue to carry out its mission, including the definition, practice, and expression of its religious beliefs. For example, a faith-based organization may use space in its facilities to provide secular programs or services funded with Federal funds without removing religious art, icons, scriptures, or other religious symbols. In addition, a faith-based organization that receives Federal funds retains its authority over its internal governance, and it may retain religious terms in its organization's name, select its board members on a religious basis, and include religious references in its organization's mission statements and other governing documents in accordance with all program requirements, statutes, and other applicable requirements governing the conduct of HHS funded activities. Additional information on "Understanding the Regulations Related to the Faith-Based and Community Initiative" can be found at: http://www.hhs.gov/fbci/regulations/index.html.
Beneficiary Eligibility:

- Until kindergarten entry, including a noncustodial parent with an ongoing treatment;
- For the Tribal HV program: each application will be screened to determine whether the requested amount exceeds the award ceiling. Applications that are designated as late or those with requests that exceed the award ceiling will be returned to the applicant with a notation that they were deemed non-responsive and will not be reviewed.

Applicant Eligibility:

- Only Tribes (or a consortium of Indian Tribes), Tribal Organizations, or Urban Indian Organizations, as defined by Section 4 of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act, Public Law 94-437, are eligible applicants for the Tribal HV Grant Program.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

- For the Tribal HV program:
  - Eligible families residing in at-risk American Indian/Alaskan Native communities in need of such services, as identified in a needs assessment;
  - Low-income eligible families;
  - Eligible families who are pregnant women under age 21;
  - Eligible families with a history of child abuse or neglect or have had interactions with child welfare services;
  - Eligible families with a history of substance abuse or need substance abuse treatment;
  - Eligible families that have users of tobacco products in the home;
  - Eligible families that are or have children with low student achievement;
  - Eligible families with children with developmental delays or disabilities; and
  - Eligible families who, or that include individuals serving or formerly serving in the Armed Forces, including those with members who have had multiple deployments outside the US.

Eligible family:

- A woman who is pregnant, and the father of the child if available, or
- A parent or primary caregiver of the child, including grandparents or other relatives and foster parents serving as the child’s primary caregiver from birth until kindergarten entry, including a noncustodial parent with an ongoing relationship with, and at times provides physical care for the child.

Credentials/Documentation:

- Applicants should review each of the individual funding opportunity announcements issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications, which must be submitted prior to or simultaneously with submission of an application package. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

- Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

- 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Applicants should review each of the individual funding opportunity announcements issued under this CFDA program for any additional application procedures, which must be followed when submitting an application package.

Award Procedure:

- (a) For the Tribal HV program: each application will be screened to determine whether it was received by the closing date and time and whether the requested amount exceeds the award ceiling. Applications that are designated as late or those with requests that exceed the award ceiling will be returned to the applicant with a notation that they were deemed non-responsive and will not be reviewed.

Results of the competitive objective review are taken into consideration by ACF in the selection of projects for funding; however, objective review scores and rankings are not binding and are one element of the decision-making process.

ACF may elect to not fund applicants with management or financial problems that would indicate an inability to successfully complete the proposed project. Applications may be funded in whole or in part. Successful applicants may be funded at an amount lower than that requested. ACF reserves the right to consider a preference to fund organizations serving emerging, underserved, or under-served populations, including those located in pockets of poverty, and to consider the geographic distribution of Federal funds in its funding decisions.

ACF may refuse funding for projects with what it regards as unreasonably high start-up costs for facilities or equipment, or for projects with unreasonably high operating costs. In addition, federal staff will conduct an administrative review of the applications and the results of the competitive review and will make recommendations for funding to the Director, Office of Child Care (OCC) With the results of the competitive review and information from federal staff, the Director of OCC, in consultation with Deputy Assistant Secretary and Inter-Departmental Liaison for Early Childhood Development, will make the final funding decisions.

For the TRCEC, grant awards are subject to the availability of Federal funds. Note that funds for the Tribal MIECHV are not appropriated for the full length of the specified project period.

The Federal share of project costs for any of the 12-month budget periods, inclusive of indirect costs will be from the Tribal MIECHV Program, Office of Child Care or Head Start research funds. Consistent with statutory authority, Home Visiting funds will be used for: (a) activities to promote excellence in research and evaluation of Tribal MIECHV programs in tribal communities; and (b) measurement development activities that will expand the evidence base around home visiting programs for AI/AN populations. Consistent with the relevant statutory authority, Child Care funds will be used for research and evaluation activities to: (a) support research on child care policy and practice, (b) examine the implications for policies across child care and other early childhood service settings, and (c) encourage research projects that address efforts of states, territories, tribes, and localities to coordinate early childhood programs, examine the challenges and opportunities for doing this, and investigate how coordination affects the services received by eligible families and children. Consistent with the relevant statutory authority, Head Start funds will be used for research and evaluation activities to: (a) foster continuous improvement in the quality of the Head Start programs and in their effectiveness in enabling participating AI/AN children and their families to succeed in school and otherwise; and (b) develop, test, and disseminate new ideas based on existing scientifically valid research, for addressing the needs of AI/AN children and their families and communities.

No grant award will be made under this announcement on the basis of an incomplete application. No grant award will be made to an applicant or sub-recipient that does not have active CCR registration (www.ccr.gov or 1-866-606-8220).

Each application will be screened to determine whether it was received by the closing date and time and whether the requested amount exceeds the award ceiling. Applications that are designated as late, or those with requests that exceed the award ceiling, will receive a screen-out letter noting that the application was deemed non-responsive and will not be considered for competitive review or funding. For those applications that have been deemed disqualified under the initial ACF screening, notice will be given of such determination by postal mail.

Applications competing for financial assistance will be reviewed and evaluated by objective review panels using the criteria described in the funding opportunity announcement. Each panel is made up of experts with knowledge and experience in the area under review. Generally, review panels are composed of three reviewers and one chairperson.

Results of the competitive objective review are taken into consideration by ACF in the selection of projects for funding; however, objective review scores and rankings are not binding. They are one element in the decision-making process.

Applications recommended for approval that were not funded under the competition because of the lack of available funds, may be held over by ACF and re-considered in a subsequent review cycle if a future competition under the program area is planned. These applications will be held over for a period of up to one year and will be re-competed for funding with all other competing applications in the next available review cycle. For those applications that have been deemed as approved but unfunded, notice will be given of such determination by postal mail.

Announcement of awards and the disposition of applications will be provided to applicants at a later date.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 60 to 90 days. For the the TRCEC, successful applicants will be notified through the issuance of a Financial Assistance Award (FAA) document that sets forth the amount of funds granted, the terms and conditions of the grant, the effective date of the grant, the budget period for which initial support will be given, the non-Federal share to be provided (if applicable), and the total project period for which support is contemplated. The FAA will be signed by the Grants Officer and transmitted via postal mail. Following the finalization of funding decisions, organizations whose applications will not be funded will be notified by letter, signed by the Program Office head.

Other correspondence announcing to a Principal Investigator or Project Director that an application was selected is not an authorization to begin performance. Costs incurred before receipt of a FAA are at the recipient's risk and may be reimbursed only to extent considered allowable as approved pre-award costs.

Renewals:

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
For the Tribal HV, grants (cooperative agreements) are generally awarded for a 5-year project period. In the first year of the project, grants will be awarded on a competitive basis. Pending successful completion of Year 1 activities, submission of a plan that meets requirements, and approval of this plan, applications will be considered on a noncompetitive continuation basis for Years 2-5 subject to availability of funds, satisfactory progress of the grantee, and a determination that continued funding would be in the best interest of the Federal Government. Grants will be awarded for 12-month budget periods with a 5-year project period.

Funds awarded to grantees under this program will be made available for expenditure through the end of the second succeeding fiscal year after award.

For the TRCEC, grants (cooperative agreements) are generally awarded with a project period of up to five years. The initial award will be for the first 12-month budget period. Budget requests for the second through fifth year of funding within the project period should be identified in the current application (on SF-424A), but such requests will be considered in subsequent years on a noncompetitive basis, subject to the applicant's eligibility status, the availability of funds, satisfactory progress of the grantee, and a determination that continued funding would be in the best interest of the Federal Government.

Reports:
Grantees under this announcement will be required to submit performance progress and financial reports periodically throughout the project period.

The frequency of required reporting is described in each funding opportunity announcement. Final reports may be submitted in hard copy to the Grants Management Office Contact identifiable postaward. Instructions on submission of reports electronically will be provided with award documents.

ACF grantees are required to submit the SF-PPR Cover Page. ACF Programs that utilize reporting forms or formats in addition to, or instead of, the SF-PPR have listed the reporting requirements.

Grant award documents will inform grantees of the appropriate performance progress report form or format to use. Grantees should consult their award documents to determine the appropriate performance progress report format required under their award. Performance progress reports are due 30 days after the end of the reporting period.

Final program performance reports are due 90 days after the close of the project period. The SF-PPR may be found at http://www.acf.hhs.gov/grants/grants_resources.html.

Further instructions will be provided, as necessary, with award terms and conditions that will address specific reporting periods and due dates on an award-by-award basis. Additional information on frequency of reporting is available on the ACF Funding Opportunities website at http://www.acf.hhs.gov/grants/msg_id423.html. Federal Financial Report (FFR) - Federal Cash Transaction Report. Progress reports are not applicable. As of February 1, 2011, the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) began the transition from use of the SF-269, Financial Status Report (Short Form or Long Form) to the use of the SF-425 Federal Financial Report for expenditure reporting. SF-269s will no longer be accepted for expenditure reports due after that date. If an SF-269 is submitted, the ACF will return it and require the recipient to complete the SF-425.

The transition strategy is allowing individual HHS Operating Divisions to select—from a limited number of options—the approach that best fits their programs and business process. This transition does not affect completion or submission of the cash reporting to the HHS Division of Payment Management’s Payment Management System (PMS). The primary features of this transition for recipients are that OPDIVs that previously required electronic submission of the SF-269 will receive the SF-425 expenditure reports electronically and, until further notice, OPDIVs that have been receiving expenditure reports in hard copy will continue to do so.

All expenditure reports will be due on one of the standard due dates by which cash reporting is required to be submitted to PMS OR at the end of a calendar quarter as determined by the Operating Division. As a result, a recipient that receives awards from more than one OPDIV may be subject to more than one approach, but will not be required to change its current means of submission or be subjected to more than eight standard due dates.

Beginning with budget periods which end from January 1 - March 31, 2011, and for all budget periods thereafter, all affected ACF grantees will be required to submit an SF-425 report as frequently as is required in the terms and conditions of their award using due dates for reports to PMS.

Further instructions will be provided, as necessary, with award terms and conditions that will address specific reporting periods and due dates on an award-by-award basis. Additional information on frequency of reporting is available on the ACF Funding Opportunities web site at http://www.acf.hhs.gov/grants/msg_sf425.html.

Awards issued as a result of this funding opportunity may be subject to the Transparency Act subaward and executive compensation reporting requirements of 2 C.F.R. Part 170. See ACF’s Award Term for Federal Financial Accountability and Transparency Act (FFATA) Subaward and Executive Compensation Reporting Requirement implementing this requirement and additional award applicability information. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. None.

93.513 AFFORDABLE CARE ACT (ACA) ADVANCED NURSING EDUCATION EXPANSION INITIATIVE

ACA ANEE

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Section 811 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 296j), as amended by the Affordable Care Act, Public Law 111-148.

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of the Advanced Nursing Education Expansion (ANEE) Initiative was to 1) increase the number of students enrolled full time in accredited primary care Nurse Practitioner and Nurse Midwifery programs, and 2) accelerate the graduation of part-time student in such programs by encouraging full-time enrollment.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
The grantee is responsible for the disbursement of grant funds to eligible students. Stipend grant funds may be used as follows:

1) ANEE grant funds are used to support stipends awarded under the terms of the Notice of Award.
2) Stipends for students cannot exceed $22,000 per year.
3) Full tuition and fees, reasonable living expenses and other educational costs are allowable costs.
4) Travel (including daily commuting costs) is not an allowable expense.
5) Indirect Costs (Facilities and Administrative - F&A Costs) are applicable to the ANEE Program.

Restricted Uses: Indirect costs under training awards to organizations other than State, local or American Indian tribal governments will be budgeted and reimbursed at 8 percent of modified total direct costs rather than on the basis of a negotiated rate agreement, and are not subject to upward or downward adjustment.

Student support through stipends, tuition, and fees is eligible for support. Personnel, staffing, consultant cost, equipment, travel and subcontracts are prohibited under this grant award. Furthermore, funding may not be used for fringe benefits.

Applicant Eligibility:
Applicants are eligible to apply if the following requirements are met: Eligible applicants are collegiate schools of nursing, academic health centers, and other private or public entities accredited by a national nursing accrediting agency recognized by the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Education that offers and has students enrolled in primary care nurse practitioner programs and/or a nurse-midwifery program. The nurse midwifery program must be accredited by the Accreditation Commission on Midwifery Education. Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Government and Native American Organizations may apply if they are otherwise eligible.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Project participants (students) must be U.S. Citizens, non-citizen nationals, or foreign nationals who possess visas permitting permanent residence in the United States. Individuals on temporary student visas are not eligible. Students must be enrolled full-time in a primary care nurse practitioner and/or nurse-midwifery program during the project period.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants should review the individual HRSA Notice of Funding Opportunity issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or accreditation which must be submitted with an application package. Recipients must include an accreditation documentation letter from a national nursing accrediting agency issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or accreditation which must be submitted with an application package. Recipients must include an accreditation documentation letter from a national nursing accrediting agency recognized by the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Education that offers and has students enrolled in primary care nurse practitioner programs and/or a nurse-midwifery program recognized by the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. HRSA requires all applicants to apply electronically through Grants.gov.

All eligible, qualified applications will be forwarded to an objective review committee. ### USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

- Funds were distributed, through a competitive application process, to academically affiliated accredited physician assistant education programs and may only be used to provide stipends, educational expenses, reasonable living expenses, and indirect costs to physician assistant students. Indirect costs under training awards to organizations other than State, Local or American Indian tribal governments will be budgeted and reimbursed at 8 percent of modified total direct costs rather than on the basis of a negotiated rate agreement, and are not subject to upward or downward adjustment.

- For more detailed selection criteria, see the most recent Notice of Funding Opportunity.
Funds may not be used for the following purposes: Personnel, staffing, fringe benefits, consultant cost, travel, equipment, supplies, subcontracts and other items.

Applicant Eligibility:

Eligible applicants include public or nonprofit academically affiliated physician assistant education programs whose purpose is to educate individuals that will be qualified to provide primary care medical services under the supervision of a physician. Applicants must be accredited by the Accreditation Review Commission on Education for the Physician Assistant (ARC-PA). Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Government and Native American Organizations may apply if they are otherwise eligible.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Newly enrolled, full time physician assistant students in an accredited physician assistant education program who intend to work or teach in a primary care discipline after graduation. Project participants (students) must be U.S. citizens, non-citizen nationals, or foreign nationals who possess visas permitting permanent residence in the United States. Individuals on temporary student visas are not eligible.

Credentials/Documentation:

Applications should review the individual HRSA Notice of Funding Opportunity issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications that must be submitted with an application package. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. HRSA requires all applicants to apply electronically through Grants.gov.

All eligible, qualified applications were forwarded to an objective review committee. 93.516 PUBLIC HEALTH TRAINING CENTERS PROGRAM

Regional Public Health Training Center (PHTC) and the National Coordinating Center for Public Health Training (NCCPHT) Programs

FEDERAL AGENCY:

Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

NCCPHT: Sections 765 and 765 (d) (9) of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 295 and 295a).

OBJECTIVES:

REGIONAL PUBLIC HEALTH TRAINING CENTER (PHTC):

The purpose of the Regional PHTC program is to improve the Nation’s public health system by strengthening the technical, scientific, managerial and leadership competencies of the current and future public health workforce through the provision of education, training and consultation services. The Regional PHTC Program together comprise a national program that serves all 50 states, the District of Columbia, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, and the six U.S. Pacific Jurisdictions. Ten regions are funded to ensure that the U.S. and its jurisdictions all have access to public health workforce education and training. The work of the Regional PHTCs will be accomplished through the provision of education, training, and consultation to State, local, and Tribal health department staff as a primary audience, particularly frontline public health workers and middle managers. The secondary audience includes staff from other parts of the public health system such as non-profit organizations, federally qualified health centers, accountable care organizations, and hospitals, among others.

NATIONAL COORDINATING CENTER FOR PUBLIC HEALTH TRAINING (NCCPHT):

The NCCPHT provides technical assistance and oversight to the Regional Public Health Training Centers to enhance their capacity and infrastructure. Among other activities, the National Coordinating Center for Public Health Training will develop a formal network across all regional centers, coordinate activities and enhance collaboration across the network, develop and implement a communications strategy to expand the reach of the Regional centers nationally, and lead the standardization and vetting of public health core competency continuing education courses across all regional centers. The NCCPHT will work with the Regional PHTCs to achieve economies of scale and reduce duplication of all training, including the development of cross-cutting course content.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Cooperative Agreements; Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Grant funds may support salaries, stipends, consultant costs, equipment, and travel as requested to develop and implement the program. Grant funds may not be used for construction, patient services, student tuition or international activities unless associated with a recognized territorial awardee. Grant funds may not be used to supplant training and education activities which should be provided as part of the mission of the awardee or sub-awardee institution. In addition, grant funds are not intended to supplant funds for educational efforts which should be supported by nonprofit private industry or other public agencies. Applicants are expected to leverage their resources to create enhanced training opportunities through partnerships and collaboration.

Indirect costs under training awards to organizations other than State, local or American Indian tribal governments will be budgeted and reimbursed at 8 percent of modified total direct costs rather than on the basis of a negotiated rate agreement, and are not subject to upward or downward adjustment.

Applicant Eligibility:

Accredited school of public health, or another public or nonprofit private institution accredited for the provision of graduate or specialized training in public health.

This program also includes a statutory funding preference for accredited schools of public health.

Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Government and Native American Organizations may apply if they are otherwise eligible.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Each trainee receiving stipend support must be a citizen of the United States, a non-citizen U.S. national, or a foreign national having in his or her possession a visa permitting permanent residence in the United States.

Credentials/Documentation:

Applicants should review the individual Notice of Funding Opportunity documents issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications which must be submitted with an application package. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. HRSA requires all applicants to apply electronically through Grants.gov.

All eligible, qualified applications will be forwarded to an objective review committee. Based on the advice of the objective review committee, the HRSA program official with delegated authority is responsible for final selection and funding decisions. Notification is made in writing by a Notice of Award.

Award Procedure:

Notification of award is made in writing (electronic) by a Notice of Award.

Deadlines:

Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

Approximately 120 - 180 days after receipt of applications.

Appeals:

Not Applicable.

Renewals:

Depending on Agency priorities and availability of funding, during the final budget year of the approved project period competing continuation applications may be solicited from interested applicants.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program.

Matching requirements are not applicable to this program.

This program has MOE requirements, see funding agency for further details. The recipient must agree to maintain non-federal funding for grant activities at a level which is no less than expenditures for such activities during the fiscal year prior to receiving the award.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

This funding opportunity provides support for a 4-year project period. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Recipients draw down funds, as necessary, from the Payment Management System (PMS).

93.521 THE AFFORDABLE CARE ACT: BUILDING EPIDEMIOLOGY, LABORATORY, AND HEALTH INFORMATION SYSTEMS CAPACITY IN THE EPIDEMIOLOGY AND LABORATORY CAPACITY FOR INFECTIOUS DISEASE (ELC) AND EMERGING INFECTIONS PROGRAM (EIP) COOPERATIVE AGREEMENTS; PPHF

ELC/EIP - Prevention and Public Health Fund and other Capacity-Building Activities

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PL 111-148), Title IV, Section 4002 (Prevention and Public Health Fund) for expanded and sustained national investment in prevention and public health programs. This program is funded in part by 2012 Prevention and Public Health Funds (PPHF-2012), Section 301 and 317, 42 U.S.C. 241 and 247b; Sections 301 and 317 of the Public Health Service Act (PHS Act), 42 U.S.C. 241 and 247b as amended; and Funding is appropriated under Affordable Care Act (PL 111-148), Title IV, Section 4002.
Program Descriptions

2.510 October 2017

Award Procedure:

The application procedures for the Prevention and Public Health Fund (PPHF) are as follows:

- Preapplication Coordination:
  - Applications must be submitted electronically via Grant Solutions. The NOA shall be the only binding, authorizing document between the recipient and CDC. The NOA will be signed by an authorized Grants Management Officer. Initial award provides funds for the first budget period (usually 12 months) and the NOA will indicate support recommended for the remainder of the project period, allocation of Federal funds by budget categories, and special conditions, if any.

- Deadlines:
  - Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

- Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
  - From 90 to 120 days. About 120 days from receipt of application.

- Appeals:
  - Not Applicable.

- Renewals:
  - Renewals will be based upon availability of funding under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

- Formula and Matching Requirements:
  - This program has no statutory formula.

- Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
  - Financial assistance is available for a 12-month budget period within project periods ranging from one to five years. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

- Reports:
  - Program reports are not applicable. No later than 10 days after the end of each quarter, the recipients must submit a calendar quarter cash transaction report (SF-272 or top portion of the SF-425 Financial Report Form) to the Payment Management System (PMS). The reporting schedule will be based on the requirements listed in the ELC and EIP funding opportunity announcements. Funded applicants must provide an interim and annual progress report. Federal Financial Reports (SF-425) and Final Progress Report due no more than 90 days after the end of the budget period. All reports must be submitted to the Grants Management Specialist indicated in the NOA.

- Audits:
  - Federal Financial Reports and Final Progress Reports are required, no more than 90 days after the end of the budget/project period.

- Budget Period:
  - In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. Records must be available for review or audit by appropriate officials of the Federal agency, pass-through entity, and General Accounting Office (GAO). The grantee is to also ensure that the sub-recipients receiving CDC funds also meet these requirements (if total Federal grant or grants funds received exceed $500,000). The grantee should include this requirement in all sub-recipient contracts.

- Records:
  - Financial records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records pertinent to the grant program shall be retained for a minimum of 3 years, or until completion and resolution of any audit in process or pending resolution. In all cases records must be retained until resolution of any audit questions. Property records must be retained in accordance with 45 CFR 92.42.

- Account Identification:
  - Federal awards will use the 13-Character Federal Award Identification Number (FAIN) to identify Federal awards. The FAIN will be 13 characters long, and will be used in place of the public number to ensure accurate financial reporting.

- TAFS Codes:

Objectives:

The Prevention and Public Health Fund (Title IV, Section 4002) was established under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act to provide for expanded and sustained national investment in prevention and public health programs to improve health and help restrain the rate of growth in private and public sector health care costs. The Epidemiology and Laboratory Capacity for Infectious Diseases (ELC) and Emerging Infections Program (EIP) cooperative agreements were formed in 1995 as key components of CDC's national strategy to address and reduce emerging infectious disease (EID) threats. The programs play a critical role in strengthening national infectious disease infrastructure by serving as collaborative platforms for state and local health departments, CDC programs, and academic and various other public health partners to improve the ability to detect and respond to EIDs and other public health threats. Specifically, the programs build epidemiology, laboratory, and information systems capacity, integrate epidemiology and laboratory practice, implement active surveillance, and conduct targeted research aimed at improving methods and informing national surveillance and response activities. Overall, additional funds from multiple sources including PPHF will allow ELC and EIP partner agencies to substantially address gaps in EID epidemiology and laboratory capacity (e.g. number and training level of epi and lab staff, efficient/functional information systems, etc.).

Types of Assistance:

Cooperative Agreements

Uses and Use Restrictions:

Project funds may be used for costs associated with planning, organizing, and the implementation of other program elements to build public health epidemiology, laboratory, and health information systems capacity. Recipients may only expend funds for reasonable program purposes, including personnel, travel, supplies, and services, such as contractual. Funds may not be used for clinical care.

Applicant Eligibility:

Eligible applicants include the current ELC and EIP grantees which consists of all U.S. states, 6 large local health departments (Los Angeles County, Philadelphia, New York City, Chicago, Houston, and the District of Columbia), U.S. territories (Puerto Rico, Guam, U.S. Virgin Islands) and other U.S. affiliates in the Pacific (American Samoa, the Republic of Palau, Federated States of Micronesia, Marshall Islands, Mariana Islands and American Samoa).

Beneficiary Eligibility:

State health departments, large local health departments, the District of Columbia, U.S. Territories, and the general public.

Credits/Documentation:

Allowable costs will be determined in accordance with OMB Circular No. A-87 for State, Local, and Indian Tribal governments. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Applications must be submitted electronically via Grant Solutions.

Award Procedure:

Applications that are complete and responsive will be evaluated for scientific and technical merit and receive support. CDC will not review incomplete and non-responsive applications. Applications that are complete and responsive will undergo an objective review process, receive a written critique and be scored according to the published review criteria. Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Award (NOA) from the CDC Procurement and Grants Office. The NOA shall be the only binding, authorizing document between the recipient and CDC.
OBJECTIVES:

This program will cover projects under two funding initiatives: 1) specific capacity building activities (CBA) under PPHF; and 2) CBA activities under an umbrella cooperative agreement for unique target populations. Applicant organizations will have the opportunity to compete for PPHF supported projects as well as high priority CDC projects. This program will assist state, tribal, local and U.S. territorial health departments, and other components of the public health system by making available to them capacity building assistance (including technical consultation, skills building/training, information, and technology transfer assistance) that will result in: systems and organizational efficiencies; a capable and qualified workforce; state-of-the-art information technology systems and integrated and standardized community and population data; improved planning, implementation and evaluation of evidence-based public health policies, laws, programs and services; results driven local and national public and private partnerships; and increased availability and accessibility of public health resources, such as publications, educational materials, syndicated website material, training curricula, assessments and evaluation tools, and other products for improvement of public health agencies and other agencies in the public health system. The overall goal of capacity building assistance is to ensure improvements in the public health infrastructure so that it is prepared for responding to both acute and chronic threats relating to the Nations health such as emerging infections, disparities in health status, and increases in chronic disease and injury rates. Capacity building assistance will focus on the provision of technical consultation, skills building/training, and information and technology transfer assistance to ensure successful planning, implementation, coordination and evaluation of the key areas for public health infrastructure investments. CBA may also be provided for CDC-funded projects which may include limited CBA to international public health agencies where there is a benefit to US public health efforts or to the US public health system. Investing in CBA is expected to help public health agencies and other public health components fulfill their mission of protecting and promoting health in their communities and effectively performing essential public health services. Some of the capacity building needs are in the following areas: Improving the public health workforce (e.g., e-learning, other training, and fellowship programs); vital statistics systems (electronic birth and death registration); food and water borne disease identification and prevention, prevention of hospital acquired infections, electronic health record/IT systems, communications systems and processes (e.g., information syndication and social media capacity), and laboratory and epidemiologic capacity. Developing information systems to support adoption, implementation, enforcement, and/or evaluation of public health legislation, codes, rules, regulations, ordinances, and other policies. Improving public health system development/redevelopment by building or re-engineering infrastructure to improve networking, coordination, standardization, and centralization of public health services to effectively and efficiently address priority health indicators. Implementing best health care practices and conducting impact evaluation. Improving information and data system capacity through policy/communication for standardized data collection and analysis systems, information management technology, information dissemination, and meaningful data use and translation. Improving organizational capacity to effectively and efficiently use resources such as fiscal agents, and intermediaries, and Improving technical and program guidance and evaluation of preventive services to expand coverage for community and clinical preventive services. This includes technical consultation and promotion on the adoption and utilization of the recommendations from the Guide for Community Preventive Services. TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Project funds will be used for costs associated with providing capacity building assistance to strengthen the infrastructure of State, Tribal, Local, and Territorial public health agencies and other components of the public health system. For the purposes of this program, other components of the public health system refers to specific professional constituencies (i.e., epidemiologists, community health nurses, health education and promotion specialists tribal health leaders, chronic disease directors, health information specialists, Medicaid/Medicare Directors, state/local public health financial officials, etc.) or key components of the public health system (i.e., community and neighborhood health centers, public health and primary care delivery systems, community and faith-based organizations, public health and accreditation boards, public health institutes,
Applicant Eligibility:
1. Eligible Applicants: Organizations with nonprofit 501(c)(3) or nonprofit 501(c)(6) IRS status (other than institutions of higher education).
2. Special Eligibility Requirements: The applicant organization must provide evidence of national scope of work and of public health charge or mission.
3. Justification for Less than Maximum Competitiveness:
The program leadership in the Office of State, Tribal, Local and Territorial Support (OSTLTS) determined that in order to achieve its strategic priorities for strengthening the public health infrastructure and advancing the quality of public health decision making, OSTLTS will need to expand its capacity building assistance (CBA) efforts through national, non-profit organizations with experience and expertise providing capacity building assistance to governmental and non-governmental components of the public health system.

Eligible applicants are limited to national, non-profit professional public health mission organizations with experience and expertise providing capacity building assistance (CBA) to governmental and non-governmental components of the public health system. The CDC is requesting the provision of capacity building assistance (CBA) to public health agencies and other public health entities across the United States and its territories in order to strengthen public health practice to improve health for all populations. These national public health mission organizations are the only entities positioned to effectively and efficiently execute on the expected capacity building outcomes, outputs, and activities outlined in the FOA. The characteristics that position these organizations are: 1) designated mission and experience working nationally, 2) demonstrated infrastructure, experience and expertise providing CBA, and 3) relationship to the public health system workforce across the United States and Territories.

Therefore, eligibility is limited to the above specified types of applicants/organizations that are expected to demonstrate significant experience and expertise providing capacity building assistance (CBA) to the target populations described in the attached OT13-1302 FOA. This expertise is necessary for the grantee to effectively and efficiently complete the related activities and achieve the program outcomes described in the funding opportunity announcement.

Additionally the following capacities will facilitate the completion of projects in the specified timeframe:
- Communicate key information to organization members, stakeholders and the public health community on a regular basis.
- Leverage a wide array of resources among organization members and the public health community to expediently achieve results in a cost-effective manner.
- Interact with other public health organizations; act as a networking hub to build the capacity of governmental and non-governmental components of the public health system.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Beneficiaries include state health departments; tribal health organizations; local health departments; the District of Columbia; U.S. Territories; and other components of the public health system. The general public will also serve as beneficiaries.

Credentials/Documentation:
The applicant organization must include evidence of national scope of work and of public health role or mission. Articles of incorporation, board resolution or by-laws are acceptable forms of evidence. The applicant must also provide evidence of federally assigned 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(6) status designation by submitting a copy of the current, valid Internal Revenue Service (IRS) determination letter. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Allowable costs will be determined in accordance with OMB Circular A-87 for non-profit non-governmental organizations. Applicants must download application forms from www.grants.gov, and completed applications must be submitted electronically at www.Grants.gov. If an applicant does not have access to the Internet or if they have difficulty accessing the forms on-line, contact the CDC Procurement and Grants Office Technical Information Management Section (PGO-TIMS) staff. For this, or further assistance, contact PGO-TIMS: Telephone (770) 488-2700, Email: PGO-TIMS@cdc.gov

Award Procedure:
1. Phase I Review: All eligible applications will be initially reviewed for completeness by CDC’s Procurement and Grants Office (PGO) staff. In addition, eligible applications will be jointly reviewed for responsiveness by CDC/OSTLTS and PGO. Incomplete applications and applications that are non-responsive to the eligibility criteria will not advance to Phase II review. Applicants will be notified if the application did not meet eligibility and/or published submission requirements.
2. Phase II (Initial Base-Funding) Review: An objective review panel will evaluate complete and responsive applications according to the criteria listed in the Criteria section of the FOA. The applications will be compiled and reviewed according to the category for which applicants submitted their applications. Applicants will be notified electronically if the application did not meet eligibility and/or published submission requirements thirty (30) days after the completion of Phase II review.
3. Phase III Review: In addition, the following factors may affect the funding decision during Phase II (Initial Base-Funding Competition) Review:
   a. Preference to avoid duplication of CBA services to the same target populations.
   b. Preference may be given to the funding of applicants that propose to provide CBA services to target populations not served by highly ranked applicants.
   c. Preference will be given to ensure funding of organizations that provide CBA services to target populations not duplicated in other CDC funding mechanisms. CDC will provide justification for any decision to fund outside of ranked order of scores. Final funding determinations will be based on application scores from the objective review panels and consideration for CDC’s funding preferences.
4. Phase IV (Secondary CIO-Funding) Review: Applicants that are successful in Phase II (Initial Base-Funding) Review and are awarded funds will be eligible to participate in the Phase IV (Secondary CIO-Funding) Review for CDC-wide public health projects. Eligible awardees will receive an application packet detailing the Phase IV (Secondary CIO-Funding) application submission process upon receipt of the Phase II (Initial Base-Funding) Notice of Award. The awardees must submit stand-alone applications in response to a range of CBA projects that represent public health disciplinary areas and cross-cutting disciplines and/or topics. CIO-funded projects may also include limited CBA to international public health constituents where there is a benefit to U.S. public health efforts or to the U.S. public health system.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 30 to 60 days.
Renewals:
Renewals will be based upon the conditions in the funding announcement and are subject to the availability of CIO discretionary and programmatic funding, and funding under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Financial assistance is available for a 12-month budget period within project periods ranging from one to five years. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:
a. Annual Performance Report (due 120 days before the end of the budget period; serves as a continuation application). This report must not exceed 35 pages, excluding work plan and administrative reporting. Attachments are not permitted when submitting this report. This report must include the following:
   Performance Measures (including outcomes): Awardees must report on performance measures for each budget period and update measures, if needed. Evaluation Results: Awardees must report evaluation results for the work completed to date (including any impact data). Work Plan (maximum of 25 pages): Awardees should update the work plan each budget period. Successes: Awardees must report progress on completing activities outlined in the work plan. Challenges: Awardees must describe any additional successes (e.g., identified through evaluation results or lessons learned) achieved in the past year. Awardees must describe success stories.

b. Annual Performance Report (due 120 days before the end of the budget period; serves as a continuation application). This report must not exceed 35 pages, excluding work plan and administrative reporting. Attachments are not permitted when submitting this report. This report must include the following:
   Performance Measures (including outcomes): Awardees must report on performance measures for each budget period and update measures, if needed. Evaluation Results: Awardees must report evaluation results for the work completed to date (including any impact data). Work Plan (maximum of 25 pages): Awardees should update the work plan each budget period. Successes: Awardees must report progress on completing activities outlined in the work plan. Challenges: Awardees must describe any additional successes (e.g., identified through evaluation results or lessons learned) achieved in the past year. Awardees must describe success stories.

The carryover request must:
Express a bona fide need for permission to use an unobligated balance. Include a signed, dated, and accurate Federal Financial Report (FFR) for the budget period from which the fund will be transferred (can request up to 75% unobligated balances). Include a list of proposed activities, an itemized budget, and a narrative justification of those activities.

The applicant must submit the Annual Performance Report via www.grants.gov 120 days before the end of the budget period.

c. Performance Measure Reporting: CDC programs must require awardees to submit performance measures at least annually. CDC may require more frequent reporting of performance measures. Performance measure reporting should be limited to the collection and reporting of data. CDC programs should specify reporting frequency, required data fields, and format for awardees at the beginning of the award.

As indicated in the previous section, awardees will submit annual performance reports based on their selected program strategies and activities. These performance measures and the frequency of reporting will vary by project.

d. Financial Federal Reporting: The Annual Federal Financial Report (FFR) SF 425 is required and must be submitted through eRA Commons within 90 days after the end of each budget period. The FFR should only include those funds authorized and disbursed during the timeframe covered by the report. The final FFR must indicate the exact balance of unobligated funds and may not reflect any unliquidated obligations. There must be no discrepancies between the final FFR expenditure data and the Payment Management Systems (PMS) cash transaction data. Failure to submit the required information in a timely manner may adversely affect the future funding of this project. If the information cannot be provided by the due date, you are required to submit a letter explaining the reason and date by which the Grants Management Officer will receive the information.

e. Final Performance and Financial Report: At the end of the five-year project period, awardees must submit a final report to include a final financial and performance report. This report is due 90 days after the end of the project period and should not exceed 40 pages.

At a minimum, this report must include the following:
   Performance Measures (including outcomes): Awardees should report final performance data for all performance measures for the project period. Evaluation results: Awardees should report final evaluation results for the project period. Impact/Results: Awardees should describe the impact/results of the work completed over the project period, including success stories. The completed FFR (SF-425).

The report should be emailed to the CDC Project Officer and the GMS listed in Agency Contacts section of the FOA.

Reporting Requirements under Section 203 of the 2012 Enacted Appropriations Bill for the Prevention and Public Health Fund, Public Law 112-5:

This award requires the recipient to complete projects or activities which are funded under the 2013 Prevention and Public Health Fund (PPHF) and to report on use of PPHF funds provided through this award. Information from these reports will be made available to the public.

Recipients awarded a grant, cooperative agreement, or contract from such funds with a value of $25,000 or more shall produce reports on a semi-annual basis with a reporting cycle of January 1 - June 30 and July 1 - December 31; and email such reports (in 508 compliant format) to the CDC website (template and point of contact to be provided after award) no later than 20 calendar days after the end of each reporting period (i.e. July 20 and January 20, respectively).
Recipient reports shall reference the notice of award number and title of the grant or cooperative agreement, and include a summary of the activities undertaken and identify any sub-grants or sub-contracts awarded (including the purpose of the award and the identity of the sub-recipient).

Note: Recipients that were previously financed solely by PPHF funds and are now financed solely by a source other than PPHF do not need to adhere to the reporting and tracking requirements for the continuation portion of the project. Grantees that do not have FY13 PPHF funding do not need to adhere to the PPHF reporting requirements for FY13. However, grantees still need to adhere to PPHF reporting requirements for the PPHF funding from FY12. No later than 10 days after the end of each calendar quarter, starting with the quarter ending December 31, 2012 and reporting by January 10, 2013, the recipients must submit a calendar quarter cash transaction report (SF-272 or top portion of the SF-425 Financial Report Form) to the Payment Management System (PMS). CDC programs must require awardees to submit performance measures at least annually. CDC may require more frequent reporting of performance measures. Performance measure reporting should be limited to the collection and reporting of data. CDC programs should specify reporting frequency, required data fields, and format for awardees at the beginning of the award. As indicated in the previous section, awardees will submit annual performance reports based on their selected program strategies and activities. These performance measures and the frequency of reporting will vary by project. At the end of the five-year project period, awardees shall submit a final report to include a final financial and performance report. This report is due 90 days after the end of the project period and should not exceed 40 pages. At a minimum, this report must include the following: Performance Measures (including outcomes): Awardees should report final performance data for all performance measures for the project period. Evaluation results: Awardees should report final evaluation results for the project period. Impact/Results: Awardees should describe the impact/results of the work completed over the project period, including success stories.

The completed FFR (SF-425). The report should be emailed to the CDC Project Officer and the GMS listed in Agency Contacts section of the FOA. Grantees will be monitored by project officers to ensure accomplishment of approved objectives and activities (including development and dissemination of deliverables, and number of training and technical assistance episodes delivered), and for capacity building outcomes such as adoption of best practices by state, tribal, local and territorial health departments and increases in the implementation and evaluation of public health infrastructure investments.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.305. Records must be available for review or audit by appropriate officials of the Federal agency, pass-through entity, and General Accounting Office (GAO). The grantee is to also ensure that the sub-recipients receiving CDC funds also meet these requirements (if total Federal grant or grants funds received exceed $500,000). The grantee should include this requirement in all sub-recipient contracts.

Records:
Financial records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records pertinent to the program shall be retained for a minimum of 3 years, or until completion and resolution of any audit in process or pending resolution. In all cases, records must be retained until resolution of any audit questions. Property records must be retained in accordance with 45 CFR 92.42.

Account Identification:
75-0943-0-1-551.

Obligations:
(Cooperative Agreements) FY 16 $11,356,472; FY 17 est $15,000,000; and FY 18 est $0 - This CFDA program represents the PPHF-funded portion of cooperative agreement CDC-RFA-OT13-1302. CFDA number 93.424 reflects the Non-PPHF portion of funding awarded to this vehicle. The sum of funding for these two CFDA equals the total actual or estimated funding for this vehicle in a given FY.

Range and Average of Financial Assistance:
The floor of individual award range is $4 million for Category A, $1 million for Category B and $100,000 for Category C. The approximate average award ranges for the 12-month budget period are up to $9 million for Category A, up to $2.5 million for Category B and up to $1 million for Category C.

93.528 NATIONAL FORUM FOR STATE AND TERRITORIAL CHIEF EXECUTIVES National Forum

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Section 311(a) of the Public Health Service Act, as amended.

OBJECTIVES:
The National Forum cooperative agreement aligns state and federal efforts by providing opportunities for state and territorial decision-makers to collaborate on the development and implementation of innovative strategies and best practices related to health workforce issues, health systems, and access to healthcare. The purpose of the National Forum is to convene high level decision makers representing state/territorial governors, their policy advisors, and state, federal, health and human services providers, as well as private sector interests around issues of importance to state and territorial governments. As such, HRSA support of the National Forum program will assist governors and key policy staff to develop and implement innovative solutions to challenges facing the health care safety net at the state and national level. This will further HRSA’s goals for enhancing service to the safety net population and supporting sustainability of programs.

The three core functions of the Cooperative Agreement are: 1) facilitate collaboration among states, territories, federal partners and other key stakeholders to achieve common goals; 2) encourage integration of public health practice, primary care delivery systems and public health infrastructures; and 3) disseminate best practices and lessons learned to other states, territories and key stakeholders through various formats and mechanisms.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
This cooperative agreement will provide assistance to the National Forum to carry out initiatives that support states and territories efforts that align with the purpose of the National Forum. The cooperative agreement also leverages limited IHS and HRSA resources to support cohesiveness with regional and national health and human services initiatives.

Program expectations: The National Forum program will assist governors and key policy staff to develop and implement innovative solutions to governance and policy development in their jurisdictions. As such, the award recipient will be expected to facilitate partnerships across the state to include local government entities, stakeholders in various regions and across health care systems and health professional disciplines. The National Forum shall include initiatives where success is measurable and significant, the results are reproducible, the efforts are sustainable, and the approach cost effective. The full amount will be used to cover the activities described in the Notice of Funding Opportunity. The full amount will be used to cover the activities described in the funding opportunity announcement.

Applicant Eligibility:
Nonprofit, bi-partisan or nonpartisan organization that represents governors and their staff of a broad cross section of states, the Commonwealths of the Northern Mariana Islands and Puerto Rico, and the U.S. flag territories of American Samoa, Guam, the U.S. Virgin Islands are eligible to apply.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
See eligible beneficiaries listed above.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants should review the individual HRSA funding opportunity announcement issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications which must be submitted prior to or simultaneously with submission of an application package. Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. HRSA requires all applicants to apply electronically through Grants.gov.

Award Procedure:
All qualified applications will be forwarded to an objective review committee. Based on the advice of the objective review committee, the HRSA program official with delegated authority is responsible for final selection and funding decisions. Notification is made in writing by a Notice of Award.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Funding beyond the first year is dependent on the availability of appropriated funds for the National Forum in subsequent fiscal years, awardee satisfactory performance, and a decision that continued funding is in the best interest of the Federal government.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program. This program has no matching requirements. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
The project period is for up to three years. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Awardees draw down funds, as necessary, from the Payment Management System (PMS). PMS is the centralized web based payment system for HHS awards. 93.529 PRE-EXISTING CONDITION INSURANCE PROGRAM (PCIP)
FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Patient Protection and Affordability Care Act, Section 1101.

OBJECTIVES:
The Patient Protection and Affordability Care Act, was enacted on March 23, 2010. The Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act Public Law 111-152, was enacted on March 30, 2010. Collectively, these laws are known as the "Affordable Care Act." Section 1101 of the Affordable Care Act requires that the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) establish, either directly or through contracts with States or nonprofit private entities, a temporary high risk health insurance program to provide access to coverage for uninsured Americans with pre-existing conditions. (Hereafter, we generally refer to this program as the Pre-Existing Condition Insurance Plan program, or PCIP program, to avoid confusion with the existing State high risk pool programs, which will continue to operate separately.) The PCIP program remained in place from the time of its establishment until April 30, 2014.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Direct Payments for Specified Use

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Eligibility and enrollment rules for the Federal and state-operated PCIP programs can be found at www.healthcare.gov or below as set forth in text from our Interim Final Regulation (IFR).

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Eligibility and enrollment rules for the Federal and state-operated PCIP programs can be found at www.healthcare.gov or below as set forth in text from our Interim Final Regulation (IFR).

B. Eligibility and Enrollment (Subpart C, Sec. 152.14 Through Sec. 152.15 of the PCIP IFR (45 CFR Part 152).

Section 1101(d) of the Affordable Care Act provides the basic eligibility criteria for the PCIP program, which are set forth under Sec. 152.14. In addition, consistent with the Secretary's general authority under section 1101(c)(2)(D) of the Act to establish requirements for a PCIP, we set forth enrollment and disenrollment requirements in Sec. 152.15.

In general, under section 1101(d) of the Affordable Care Act and subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of Sec. 152.14(a) of this interim final rule, an individual is eligible to enroll in a PCIP if he or she: (1) is a citizen or national of the United States or is lawfully present in the United States as determined in accordance with section 1411 of the Affordable Care Act; (2) has not been covered under creditable coverage, as defined in section 2701(c)(1) of the Public Health Service Act as of the date of enactment, during the 6-month period prior to the date on which he or she is applying for coverage through the PCIP; and (3) has a pre-existing condition, as determined in a manner consistent with guidance issued by the Secretary. We further provide in Sec. 152.14(a)(4) that an individual must be a resident of a State that falls within the service area of a PCIP. Additional detail found in the IFR.

Therefore, this program is not subject to the single audit. However, the program may be included in a single audit for other (non-THCGME) federal grant funding that a THCGME awardee may also receive. DHHS, or any other authorized Federal agency, may conduct an audit to determine whether the applicant has complied with all governing laws and regulations in its application for funding. Any and all information submitted to DHHS by an applicant or participating THC during or after the award of funds is subject to review in an audit. The THCGME statute provides for a reconciliation process at the end of each budget period, through which overpayments may be recouped and underpayments may be adjusted. (See section 340H (f) of the Public Health Service Act.) The reconciliation process is based on the number of resident FTEs reported by a THC for the academic year. The FTE number determines the final amount payable to the THC for the budget period.

Records:
Recipients are required to maintain grant accounting records 3 years after the end of the program. If any litigation, claim, negotiation, audit or other action involving the award has been started before the expiration of the 3-year period, the records shall be retained until completion of the action and resolution of all issues which arise from it, or until the end of the regular 3-year period, whichever is later.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Payments are for direct and indirect expenses for expansion of existing or establishment of new residency training programs in qualified teaching health centers. This is a formula-based grant payment program, with funds awarded to all eligible entities. THCs must meet all of the eligibility criteria before being considered for program funds and must be training residents during the year for which they are applying for funding. Application review is conducted at HRSA and an independent assessment of residents count is conducted by fiscal intermediaries.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:

The use of and use restrictions are as follows: Recipients may only expend funds for the purchase of furniture or equipment. Any such proposed spending must be identified in the budget. Recipients may not use funds for clinical care. Recipients may not serve as a conduit for an award to another party or provider who is ineligible.

Applicant Eligibility:

Applications may be submitted by State or local governments or their Bona Fide Agents (this includes the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, Guam, the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Republic of Palau). Eligible applicants also include public and private nonprofit organizations, for profit organizations, small, minority, women-owned businesses, universities, colleges, research institutions, hospitals, community-based organizations, faith-based organizations, Federally recognized Indian tribal governments, Indian tribes, and Indian tribal organizations. Additional guidance may be provided in individual program announcements.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

The general public will benefit from the objectives of this program.

Credentias/Documentation:

Applicants must document the need for assistance, state the objectives of the project, outline the method of operation, describe the evaluation procedures and provide a budget justification for funds requested. Costs for nonprofit recipients will be determined in accordance with HHS Regulations, 45 CFR Part 74, Subpart Q. This program is excluded from coverage under OMB Circular No. A-87. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:

Executive Order 12372 may apply to the Community Transformation Grants, but does not apply to the National Dissemination Support for Community Transformation Grants. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program.

Award Procedure:

Applicable to both programs - An objective review panel will evaluate complete and responsive applications according to the evaluation criteria listed in funding opportunity announcement. Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Award (NOA) from the CDC Procurement and Grants Office. The NOA shall be the only binding, authorizing document between the recipient and CDC. The NOA will be signed by an authorized Grants Management Officer.

Deadlines:

Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

From 120 to 180 days.

Appeals:

This program is authorized under Sections 317, 317(k)(2), 318 and 318B of the Public health Service Act (42 U.S.C. Sections 247b, 247b(k)(2) and 247c), as amended; and the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PL 111-148), Title IV, Sections 4002, (Prevention and Public Health Fund) for expanded and sustained national investment in prevention and public health programs.

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of the program is to support a network of sites that provide surveillance and data collection on new vaccine use, the impact of new and upcoming vaccines and other immunoprophylaxis, new vaccine policies / policies under consideration, through enhanced inpatient and Emergency Department(ED) surveillance, applied epidemiologic research, and investigator-initiated investigations. Measurable outcomes of the program will be in alignment with the following performance goal for NCIRD. Outcomes:
1) To evaluate the impact of new or upcoming vaccines and other immunoprophylaxis, and new vaccine policies on disease in site populations.
2) To evaluate the impact of new vaccines and new vaccine policies / policies under consideration on administration of vaccines. 3) To understand the burden of vaccine preventable diseases (VPDs) or potentially VPDs in the population.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Affordable Care Act (Public Law 111-148) Section 2707.
OBJECTIVES:
Section 2707(a). The purpose of this program is for the Secretary of Health and Human Services (in this section referred to as the Secretary) to establish a demonstration project under which an eligible State (as described in subsection (c)) shall provide payment under the State Medicaid plan under title XIX of the Social Security Act to an institution for mental diseases (IMDs) that is not publicly owned or operated and that is subject to the requirements of section 1867 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395dd) or the provision of medical assistance available under such plan to individuals who have attained age 21, but have not attained age 65; (2) are eligible for medical assistance under such plan; and (3) require such medical assistance to stabilize a psychiatric emergency medical condition. To conduct a 3-year Medicaid demonstration project participating States would be allowed to provide payment to (IMDs) of 17 or more beds for services provided to Medicaid beneficiaries who are the ages of 21 through 64, and who are in need of medical assistance to stabilize a psychiatric emergency medical condition.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Direct Payments for Specified Use

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
The statute permits States selected to participate in the demonstration to provide payment to private (IMDs) of 17 or more beds for services provided to Medicaid beneficiaries who are the ages of 21 through 64, and who are in need of medical assistance to stabilize a psychiatric emergency medical condition. States will receive only federal matching funds for Medicaid payments made under the demonstration. Funds shall be allocated to eligible States on the basis of criteria, including a States application and the availability of funds, as determined by the Secretary. Funding under the demonstration is intended to be used only for Medicaid payment for services specified under Section 2707.

In addition, In no case may the aggregate amount of payments made by the Secretary to eligible States under this section exceed $75,000,000; or payments be provided by the Secretary under this section after December 31, 2015.

Applicant Eligibility:
State Medicaid Agencies.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Medicaid eligibles (who are retroactively enrolled) and enrolled Medicaid beneficiaries who are the ages of 21 through 64, and who are in need of medical assistance to stabilize a psychiatric emergency medical condition.

Credentials/Documentation:
Yes, applicants should review the solicitation mailed directly to the State Medicaid Directors for any required proof of certifications which must be submitted prior to or simultaneously with submission of an application package. This program is excluded from coverage under OMB Circular No. A-87. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. b) STABILIZATION REVIEW A State shall specify in its application described in subsection (c)(1) establish a mechanism for how it will ensure that institutions participating in the demonstration will determine whether or not such individuals have been stabilized (as defined in subsection (b)(5)). This mechanism shall commence before the third day of the inpatient stay. States participating in the demonstration project may manage the provision of services for the stabilization of medical emergency conditions through utilization review, authorization, or management practices, or the application of medical necessity and appropriateness criteria applicable to behavioral health. States will be given 60 days to respond with their application. Applications will be reviewed by a panel of experts and panel results forwarded to the Administrator for final selection.

Award Procedure:
Applications will be reviewed and the results forwarded to the CMS Administrator for final selection. The selected States will be notified of approval status.

Deadlines:

93.539 PPHF CAPACITY BUILDING ASSISTANCE TO STRENGTHEN PUBLIC HEALTH IMMUNIZATION INFRASTRUCTURE AND PERFORMANCE FINANCED IN PART BY PREVENTION AND PUBLIC HEALTH FUNDS
Prevention and Public Health Fund (Affordable Care Act) - Immunization Program

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
This program is authorized under Section 317 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. Sections 247b), as amended; and the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PL 111-148), Title IV, Sections 4002, (Prevention and Public Health Fund) for expanded and sustained national investment in prevention and public health programs. This program is funded in part by 2012 Prevention and Public Health Funds (PPHF-2012).

OBJECTIVES:
Program activities under this funding will support efforts to transition immunization programs supported by Section 317 funding to the healthcare environment being transformed by the Affordable Care Act (ACA). Section 317 grantees manage the public health force that implements and supports immunization practices in the public and private sectors. Additionally, the importance of monitoring the effectiveness and impact of vaccines is critical for maintaining an immunization program that is scientifically and programmatically sound. The specific objectives may include but are not limited to: 1. Enhance interoperability between electronic health records and immunization information systems and reception of Health Level 7 (HL7) standard messages into IIS. 2. Develop a vaccine ordering module in an immunization information system that interfaces with CDC’s VTrckS vaccine ordering and management system. 3. Develop and/or implement strategic plans for billing for immunization services in health department clinics to enable programs to increase program revenue, reach additional populations, provide recommended vaccines that are not currently offered, and address under-vaccinated populations. 4. Plan and implement adult immunization programs to improve adult immunization rates by establishing collaborations with employers and pharmacies and other healthcare entities to expand adult vaccination activities. 5. Enhance the sustainability of school-located vaccination (SLV) to make SLV programs successful, efficient, and sustainable through new technologies and innovative systems and third-party payer billing to recover program costs. 6. Increase Human Papillomavirus (HPV) vaccination coverage rates among adolescents.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Project funds may be used for costs associated with planning, organizing, conducting, and supporting immunization programs directed toward vaccine-preventable diseases, and for the implementation of other program elements as described in Section 050 above and through CDC allowable and unallowable expenses. See above.

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligibility is limited to existing grantees under the Immunization Program (CFDA 93.268) which includes all 50 U.S. states, the District of Columbia, local health departments (Chicago, Houston, New York City, Philadelphia, San Antonio) and U.S. territories (Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, Guam, Federated States of Micronesia, Republic of the Marshall Islands, Republic of Palau). Private individuals, private nonprofit agencies, and Indian tribes are not eligible.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Any U.S. state, political subdivision and U.S. territories (as described above), and other public entities will benefit.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants should document the need for assistance, state the objectives of the project, outline the method of operation, describe the evaluation procedures, and provide a budget with justification of funds. Costs will be determined in accordance with 2 CFR 225 (OMB Circular No. A-87) for state and local governments. OMB Circular No. A-87 applies to this program. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Pre-application coordination is not required. 93.540 AFFORDABLE CARE ACT STREAMLINED SURVEILLANCE FOR VENTILATOR-ASSOCIATED PNEUMONIA: REDUCING BURDEN AND DEMONSTRATING PREVENTABILITY; AND PREVENTION AND PUBLIC HEALTH FUND

FEDERAL AGENCY:

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

This program is authorized under Sections 317, 317(k)(2), 318 and 318B of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. Sections 247b, 247b(k)(2) and 247c), as amended; and the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PL 111-148), Title IV, Sections 4002, (Prevention and Public Health Fund) for expanded and sustained national investment in prevention and public health programs, IV U.S.C 4002.

OBJECTIVES:

Ventilator-associated pneumonia (VAP) is one of the most common and deadly healthcare-associated infections (HAIs). Program activities under this funding will facilitate a study to demonstrate the utility and relevance of sVAP and promote acceptance of sVAP within the critical care community. Implementation of a new, reliable, valid, clinically credible and potentially automatable VAP surveillance definition will provide the foundation for national surveillance and prevention efforts and for pay-for-reporting and pay-for-performance programs, leading to improved patient safety and fewer complications for patients needing mechanical ventilation. Specifically, the objectives of this project are to: 1. Implement prospective sVAP surveillance in 9 acute-care hospitals currently conducting VAP surveillance using existing

93.542 HEALTH PROMOTION AND DISEASE PREVENTION RESEARCH CENTERS: PHF - AFFORDABLE CARE ACT PROJECTS

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Executive Order This program is authorized under Section 4002 of the ACA, Prevention and Public Health Fund, Section 1706 of the PHS Act, 42 U.S.C. 300u-5, and Section 317(k)(2) of the PHS Act, 42 U.S.C. 247b(k)(2).

OBJECTIVES:
To: (1) To maintain, and operate academic-based centers for high-quality research and demonstration with respect to health promotion and disease prevention; (2) to establish linkages, where applicable, between ongoing, basic research in a wide array of fields and applied research in disease prevention and health promotion; (3) to bring the knowledge and expertise of academic health centers to bear on practical public health problems; (4) to field test and rigorously evaluate more cost-effective methods and strategies for preventing unnecessary illness and promoting good health; (5) to shorten the time lag between the development of new and proven effective disease prevention and health promotion techniques and their widespread application, and; (6) to involve the community in the development, conduct, and implementation of prevention research. Prevention Research Centers will: (1) focus on the major causes of death and disability, with an emphasis on underserved and vulnerable populations; (2) improve public health practice through community-based participatory research, and (3) design, test, disseminate, or translate effective public health programs at the state and community level. Funding will support key elements of (1) infrastructure and administration, (2) community engagement and partnerships, (3) communication and dissemination, (4) training and education, (5) evaluation, (6) a community-based participatory core research project, and -- for some Prevention Research Centers, (7) special interest projects (SIPS).

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funds may be used for cost associated with planning, data collection, organizing, and the implementation of program elements related to the objectives identified in 505 above. Recipients may only expend funds for reasonable program purposes, including personnel, travel, supplies, and services, as contractual. Recipients may not use funds for clinical care. The recipient must perform a substantial role in carrying out project objectives and not merely serve as a conduit for an award to another party or provider who is ineligible to apply for funding.

Applicant Eligibility:
Only applicants who have applied for and have been selected as Prevention Research Centers under CDC Program Announcement DP-14-001 are eligible to apply for the annual continuation funding for the core award and Special Interest Project (SIPS) awards. Funding is limited to Prevention Research Centers under CDC Program Announcement PA DP-14-001 because they are uniquely positioned to perform, oversee, and coordinate community-based participatory research that promotes the field of prevention research due to their established relationships with community partners.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Academic health centers, scientist/researchers, operational public health programs, targeted high-risk groups, selected demonstration areas, and the general public.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants must have applied for and been selected as Prevention Research Centers under CDC Program Announcement DP-14-001. Applicants must document the need for assistance, state the objectives of the proposed project, outline the method of operation, describe the evaluation procedures and provide a budget justification for funds requested. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Application Procedure: The CDC Procurement and Grants Office (PGO) will provide a Prevention Research Center (PRC) Program Guidance document to eligibility applicants entitled How to Prepare the PRC Non-Competing Continuation Application and Progress Report. Applicants must manually submit an annual continuation application to POG by the deadline provided in the Program Guidance document. If the applicant has difficulty, contact the CDC Procurement and Grants Office Technical Information Management Section (PGO-TIMS) staff. For this, or further assistance, contact PGO-TIMS: Telephone (770) 488-2700, Email: PGOTIM@cdc.gov.

Award Procedure:
CDC will not review incomplete and non-responsive continuation applications for core awards and Special Interest Projects (SIPS) awards. Applications that are complete and responsive will be evaluated for scientific and technical merit by the CDC Scientific Collaborator for the project, the CDC Project Officer for the Prevention Research Center, and a Scientific Program Official within the CDC Extramural Research Program Office. Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Grant Award (NGA) from the CDC Procurement and Grants Office. The NGA shall be the only binding, authorizing document between the recipient and CDC. The NGA will be signed by an authorized Grants Management Officer. The award will provide funds for the budget period of 12 months and the NGA will indicate allocation of Federal funds by budget categories and special conditions, if any. The project period for continuation funding is 12 months.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days. None.

Appeals:

Beneficiary Eligibility:

In order to be eligible to receive reimbursements under the ERRP, a plan sponsor must have submitted and completed an application to the ERRP Center on or before May 5, 2011. If approved, both the sponsor, and early retirees and their spouses, surviving spouses and their dependents are direct or indirect beneficiaries of the program. The purpose of the reimbursement is to make health benefits more affordable for plan participants, or so that health benefits are accessible to more Americans than they would otherwise be without this program.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Direct Payments for Specified Use

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

ERRP regulation specifies the only permissible ways in which sponsors may use the proceeds under this program. They permissible ways are: (1) To reduce the health benefit premiums or health benefit costs; or (2) To reduce health benefit premiums, copayments, deductibles, coinsurance, or other out-of-pocket costs, or any combination of these costs, for plan participants, or (3) To reduce any combination of the costs in (1) and (2). In addition, there is an additional restriction that proceeds under this program must not be used as general revenue for the sponsor. (See the ERRP regulation at 45 C.F.R. 149.200). The restrictions include using the funds in a manner other than as follows: (1) To reduce the sponsors health benefit premiums or health benefit costs, or (2) To reduce health benefit premium contributions, copayments, deductibles, coinsurance, or other out-of-pocket costs, or any combination of these costs, for plan participants, or (3) To reduce any combination of the costs in (1) and (2). Proceeds under this program must not be used as general revenue for the sponsor. (See the ERRP regulation at 45 C.F.R. 149.200).

Applicant Eligibility:

In order to have been eligible for the ERRP, a plan sponsor must have completed and submitted an ERRP application to the ERRP Center on or before May 5, 2011. In summary, the plan sponsor must be an organization that provides health benefits to Early Retirees, has programs and procedures in place that generate cost savings with respect to participants with chronic and high-cost conditions, use reimbursements appropriately, ensure that policies and procedures are in place to protect against fraud, waste and abuse under ERRP, and agree to the Plan Sponsor Agreement included in the ERRP application.

Credentialed Documentation:

A sponsor must have submitted an application for the program to the ERRP Center on or before May 5, 2011. After approval into the program, in order to receive reimbursement, a plan sponsor must provide the ERRP Center with a list of the Early Retirees and the cost and claims data for which it is requesting reimbursement. This program is excluded from coverage under OMB Circular No. A-87. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 C.F.R. 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

This program is excluded from coverage under 2 C.F.R. 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards.

Award Procedure:

Sponsors must have completed and submitted an application to the ERRP Center on or before May 5, 2011. Reimbursement requests are no longer being accepted. The program ended January 1, 2014.

Deadlines:

May 05, 2011 The ERRP ended January 1, 2014. Administrative activities to close out systems and operations are underway. On May 05, 2011, the program ceased accepting applications from sponsors.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

From 1 to 15 days. Applications were generally processed within 2 weeks of receipt. Applications and reimbursement requests are no longer being accepted. The program ended January 1, 2014.

Appeals:

Sponsors may appeal an adverse reimbursement determination.

Renewals:

Not Applicable.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

Statutory Formula: Title Patient Protection and Affordability Care Act, Part 1102, Subpart c. Statutory Formula: Title Patient Protection and Affordability Care Act, Part 1102, Subpart c. The statute at section 1102(c) of the Affordable Care Act requires the Secretary, upon receipt of a valid claim for health benefits, to make reimbursement in an amount of 80 percent of the portion of the health benefit costs (net of negotiated price concessions) attributable to the claims that exceed $15,000, but are below $90,000, during a plan year for a given early retiree or early retirees spouse, surviving spouse, or dependent. The payment thresholds may be adjusted based on changes in the medical care component of the Consumer Price Index.

Matching Requirements: This program has maintenance of contribution requirements, to ensure that sponsors comply with the prohibition against using ERRP funds as general revenue. A sponsor may demonstrate that it is maintaining its level of contribution in a number of ways: using aggregate spending trends, per-capita spending trends, or other methods subject to Secretarial approval. These options are set forth in a publicly posted Common Question. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

The reimbursement will be available until January 01, 2014. ERRP reimbursement may no longer be requested. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: After (1) the Account Manager and Authorized Representative successfully register via the ERRP secure website; (2) the sponsor provides banking information in the website; and (3) the sponsor provides a list of Early Retirees and the cost and claims data supporting reimbursement requests, the sponsor may submit a reimbursement request (after the authorized representative also affirms sponsor is complying with program rules). The ERRP Center will make a determination of whether the reimbursement is approved or denied. If approved, the reimbursement will be deposited in the bank account chosen by the sponsor. Sponsors may request reimbursement one time, each calendar year quarter, for each plan year.

Reports:
No reports are required.

Audits:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements. Audits of sponsors will be conducted to ensure sponsors are in compliance with ERRP requirements.

Records:
The ERRP does not require specific progress, expenditure, cash reports, or performance monitoring at set intervals. However, the sponsors must comply with record maintenance requirements and provide records upon request in connection with audit or other ERRP integrity related activities. The Sponsors must maintain records for 6 years after the expiration of the plan year in which the costs were incurred, or longer if otherwise required by law. The records that must be retained are as follows (1) All documentation, data, and other information related to the regulations, and (2) Any other records specified by the Secretary. The Secretary may issue additional guidance addressing recordkeeping requirements, including (but not limited to) the use of electronic media. The sponsor must require its health insurance issuer or employment based plan, as applicable, to maintain and produce records upon request.

Account Identification:

93.547 NATIONAL HEALTH SERVICE CORPS
ACA National Health Service Corps - NHSC Loan Repayment Program (LRP), NHSC Scholarship Program (SP), The Students to Service (ST2S) Loan Repayment Program, and State Loan Repayment Program (SLRP).

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Section 331-338I (42 United States Code Section 254d-254q1), as amended by P.L. 111-148; Medicare Access and CHIP Reauthorization Act of 2015 (Public Law 114-10).

OBJECTIVES:
The National Health Service Corps (NHSC) assists Health Professional Shortage Areas (HPSAs) in every State, Territory, and Possession of the United States to meet their primary care medical, oral, and mental and behavioral health service needs by increasing the supply of clinicians through the following programs: National Health Service Corps Loan Repayment Program (LRP), National Health Service Corps Scholarship Program (SP), The Students to Service (ST2S) Loan Repayment Program, and State Loan Repayment Program (SLRP). The NHSC Loan Repayment Program offers fully trained primary care clinicians the opportunity to receive financial assistance to repay their qualifying educational loans in exchange for service in a HPSA. The NHSC Scholarship Program awards scholarships to health professions students committed to a career in primary care and service in underserved communities of greatest need. The Students to Service (ST2S) Loan Repayment Program provides financial assistance to repay qualifying educational loans to medical students in their last year of school in exchange for service in a HPSA. The NHSC State Loan Repayment Program provides matching funds in the form of a grant to States to operate their own loan repayment programs in HPSAs.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Direct Payments for Specified Use; Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
NHSC Loan Repayment Awards provide payments of up to $50,000 towards a participants' qualifying educational loans for 2 years of full time practice (up to $25,000 for 2 years of half time practice) at an approved NHSC Service Site under a written agreement with this program.

NHSC Scholarships pay tuition and required fees to the school, a monthly stipend to students for living expenses, and a single annual payment to the student to assist with other reasonable educational expenses.

Students to Service Loan Repayment Program provides payments of up to $120,000 for the first 3 years of full-time service or 6 years of half-time service.

State Loan Repayment Grant Program funds can only be used to repay the qualifying educational loans of health professionals who have entered into a SLRP contract with the States. Federal grant funds cannot be used to cover the costs of administering the program or as the source of State matching funds. Refer to the individual HRSA Application and Program Guidance or Notice of Funding Opportunity issued under this CFDA for specific requirements for the NHSC Loan Repayment, NHSC Scholarship and State Loan Repayment Programs.

Restricted Uses: As applicable, indirect costs that are allowed for administrative costs incurred as a result of the project, are limited to 8 percent of direct costs. Please see the applicable program funding announcements. Please see the applicable program funding opportunity announcements.

Applicant Eligibility:
For specific program and eligibility requirements, please see: http://nhsc.hrsa.gov/

SLRP: Entities eligible to apply for this grant program include the 50 States, the District of Columbia, Guam, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Northern Mariana Islands, the U.S. Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Republic of Palau. Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Government and Native American Organizations may apply if they are otherwise eligible.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Health professional
U.S. citizen
Education (13+)

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants should review the individual HRSA Application and Program Guidance (NHSC LRP, NHSC SP, NHSC S2S) or Funding Opportunity Announcement (SLRP) issued under this FRA to determine whether any required proof or certifications which must be submitted prior to or simultaneously with submission of an application package. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs.”

An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. HRSA requires SLRP applicants to apply electronically through Grants.gov.

Award Procedure:
NHSC LRP awards are made based on the highest need as determined by descending health professional shortage area scores. Priority will be given to individuals who demonstrate a commitment to practicing in underserved communities and those from disadvantaged backgrounds. In addition, priority may be given to applicants whose training is in a health discipline or specialty determined by the Secretary of Health and Human Services to be needed by the NHSC and who the Secretary determines are committed to serve in health professional shortage areas.

NHSC S2S awards are prioritized based on having a disadvantaged background and characteristics likely to remain in a HPSA as identified by their essays and letters of recommendation.

NHSC SP awards are very competitive; the Program anticipates more applicants for scholarship awards than there are funds available. Qualified applications will be forwarded to an objective review committee and scored numerically. Based on the advice of the objective review committee, the HRSA program official with delegated authority is responsible for final selection and funding decisions.

For SLRP awards, all eligible, qualified applications will be forwarded to an objective review committee and scored numerically. Based on the advice of the objective review committee, the HRSA program official with delegated authority is responsible for final selection and funding decisions. Notification is made in writing by a Notice of Award.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
NHSC LRP, NHSC S2S, and SP: Notification to all applicants are made no later than September 30th of the application year.

SLRP: approximately 120-180 days after receipt of applications.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
NHSC LRP and S2S: continuation contracts will be considered according to the availability of appropriated funds and eligibility criteria applied to the individual and the site at which that individual is employed.

NHSC SP: Renewal applications are not necessary for students in compliance; contracts may be multi-year funded through graduation (1 to 4 years, if the applicant signs the contract through the graduation date).

SLRP: Depending on Agency priorities and availability of funding, during the final budget year of the approved project period competing continuation applications may be solicited from interested applicants.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula.

Matching Requirements:
Matching requirement does not apply to NHSC LRP, NHSC SP and NHSC S2S.

SLRP Matching Requirements: States must agree to make available (directly or through donations from public or private entities) non-Federal contributions in cash toward SLRP contracts in an amount not less than $1 for each $1 of Federal funds provided in the grant. A State may not use any Federal funds or in-kind contributions to satisfy the non-Federal match requirement. A State must verify that contributions from sources other than State appropriated funds are non-Federal. States may use non-Federal funds in excess of the $1 for $1 minimum match to supplement the repayment of qualifying loans of health professionals.

The Federal share must be used to repay the government and commercial loans of health professionals for tuition, educational expenses and living expenses described in Section 338B(g)(1) of the Public Health Service Act. States must assume administrative costs.

This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

NHSC LRP: Loan repayments for 1 year of obligated service will be made no later than the end of the fiscal year in which the individual completes such year of service.

NHSC S2S: Loan repayments for 3 years of obligated service will be made no later than the end of the fiscal year in which the individual completes such year of service.

NHSC SP: Each award covers 1 to 4 years of support, as requested. No awardees may receive more than 4 years of support.

SLRP: Applicants may propose a project period of up to 4 years. However, funds are distributed in yearly budget periods subject to the availability of funds. States are asked to commit the full amount of funding for their loan repayment awards to practitioners in the current fiscal year to avoid out-year commitments for additional Federal funds. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Recipients drawdown funds, as necessary, from the Payment Management System (PMS), the centralized web based payment system for HHS awards.

Reports:

NHSC SP: Annual reports by schools indicating average student educational expenses. The academic institution where the student is enrolled must complete and submit a Verification of Enrollment Form each semester as a full-time student pursuing the program for which the scholarship was awarded.

NHSC SP, NHSC LRP, and S2S LRP: The employing facility must complete and send a semi-annual In-Service Verification form verifying that the participating health professional is providing full-time or half-time service. The certification includes a signature by an appropriate official of the facility.

SLRP: Both program and financial reports are required. Recipient States must submit: (1) a Financial Report within 90 days of the end of each budget period; (2) Semi-Annual Field Strength Reports through the HRSA Electronic Handbooks System (EHBs); (3) annual performance and non-competitive

93.550 TRANSITIONAL LIVING FOR HOMELESS YOUTH
Transitional Living Program (TLP) and Maternity Group Homes (MGH)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Reconnecting Homeless Youth Act of 2008
Runaway and Homeless Youth Act , Title III, Part B, Section 321, Public Law 110-378, 42 U.S.C 5701-5752.

OBJECTIVES:
The primary goal of the Transitional Living Program (TLP)/Maternity Group Home (MGH) is to help runaway and homeless youth between the ages of 16 to under 22 establish sustainable living and well-being for themselves and if applicable, their dependent child(ren). Through the provision of residential stay up to 540 days and comprehensive services, TLP youth between the ages of 16 to under 22 will realize improvements in four core outcome areas: stable housing, education/employment, permanent connections, and well-being.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Transitional Living Programs are required to provide youth with safe, stable, and appropriate shelter, and comprehensive services designed to help young people who are homeless make a successful transition to sustainable living. Living accommodations may be host family homes, group homes, Maternity Group Homes, or "supervised apartments." (Supervised apartments are either agency-owned apartment buildings or "scattered site" apartments, which are single-occupancy apartments rented directly by young people with support from the agency.) Comprehensive services may include case management, transitional living plan, basic life skills resources, counseling services, educational advancement, job attainment skills, and physical and behavioral health care, and aftercare services. These services are designed to help youth who are homeless develop the skills necessary to make a successful transition to self-sufficient living.

Applicant Eligibility:
States, localities, private entities, and coordinated networks of such entities are eligible to apply for a Transitional Living Program grant unless they are part of the law enforcement structure or the juvenile justice system. Federally recognized Indian organizations are also eligible to apply for grants as private, nonprofit agencies. Faith-based organizations and small community-based organizations are eligible to apply.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Homeless youth (ages 16 to under 22) are the beneficiaries.

Credentials/Documentation:
Nonprofit organizations must submit proof of nonprofit status. Applicable costs and administration procedures will be determined in accordance with Part 75 of Title 45, Code of Federal Regulations. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Application for Federal Assistance, Standard Form 424 must be submitted. Specific instructions are published via the Internet under the Form section at the following website address: http://www.acf.hhs.gov/grants.

Award Procedure:
All applications are reviewed by panels of nonfederal experts, which assigns scores according to the published criteria in the funding opportunity announcement. The panels' scores are factored into the recommendations for funding. Scores and recommendations are reviewed by the Associate Commissioner of the Family and Youth Services Bureau, who makes recommendations to the ACF Commissioner, who makes the final funding decisions.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 60 to 90 days.

93.556 PROMOTING SAFE AND STABLE FAMILIES
FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Social Security Act, Title IV, Part B, Section Subpart 2.

OBJECTIVES:
The objectives of the Promoting Safe and Stable Families program are: 1) to prevent child maltreatment among families at risk through the provision of supportive family services; 2) to assure children's safety within the home and preserve intact families in which children have been maltreated, when the family's problems can be addressed effectively; 3) to address the problems of families whose children have been placed in foster care so that reunification may occur in a safe and stable manner; 4) to support adoptive families by providing support services as necessary to that they can make a lifetime commitment to their children. This is accomplished through issuance of grants to state child welfare agencies, territories, and eligible Indian tribes to serve families at risk or in crisis, to develop or expand and operate coordinated programs of community-based family support services, family preservation services, time-limited reunification services, and adoption promotion and support services.

In addition, a portion of funds is reserved for a separate formula grant for states and territories to support monthly caseworker visits with children who are in foster care. A small proportion of appropriated funds are reserved for research, evaluation, and technical assistance, which may be awarded competitively through contracts or discretionary grants.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
FORMULA GRANTS; PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
For the main Promoting Safe and Stable Families Formula Grants, states must spend a significant portion of funds (approximately 20 percent) on each of the service categories of family preservation, family support services, time-limited family reunification services and adoption promotion and support services.
State grantees must limit administrative costs to 10 percent of the Federal funds.

Case worker visit formula grants: States and territories are required to spend funds to improve the quality of monthly case worker visits with children in foster care under the responsibilities of the state, with an emphasis on improving case worker decision making on the safety, permanency, and well-being of foster children, and on activities designed to increase retention, recruitment, and training of caseworkers.

Discretionary Grants: Grants are awarded for research, evaluation, and technical assistance activities relating to family support, family preservation, time-limited family reunification, and adoption promotion support. Project funds may not be used for construction.

Applicant Eligibility:
(1) Formula Grants: States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Northern Mariana Islands, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, and Federally-recognized Indian tribes are eligible applicants. For case worker visit funds, only states and territories are eligible applicants. (2) Discretionary Grants: States, local governments, tribes, public agencies or private agencies or organizations (or combinations of such agencies or organizations) with expertise in providing, evaluating and/or providing technical assistance related to family preservation, family support, time-limited family reunification and adoption promotion and support.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Families and children who need services to assist them to stabilize their lives, strengthen family functioning, prevent out-of-home placement of children, enhance child development and increase competence in parenting abilities, facilitate timely reunification of the child, and promote appropriate adoptions.

Credentials/Documentation:
Formula Grants: The state agency which administers the social services program under Title XX of the Social Security Act (Social Services Block Grant) must also be the agency which administers the Title IV-B program. Discretionary Grants: Nonprofit agencies must submit proof of nonprofit status. Applicable costs and administrative procedures will be determined in accordance with 45 CFR Part 75. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, “Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs.” An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Application Procedure (1) Formula Grants: A 5-year agency plan must be submitted. A full plan (every five years) or a plan update is due for submission by June 30th of each year. The plan must be jointly developed by the Secretary and the state or Indian tribe and written after consultation by the agency with appropriate public and non-profit private agencies and community-based organizations. The plan must coordinate the provision of services under Title IV-B with services under other Federal or federally-assisted programs serving the same populations. (2) Discretionary Grants: Announcement of availability of funds is posted on the www.grants.gov website and on the ACF website at: http://www.acf.hhs.gov/grants/open/foa. Eligible applicants submit applications by specified deadlines.

Award Procedure:
Formula Grants: Funds will be approved after the agency plan, or annual update is submitted and approved.

Discretionary Grants: Applications for funding are reviewed and scored by panels of at least three non-federal subject matter experts. Final funding decisions will be made by Commissioner, ACYF.

Deadlines:

Contract the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Formula Grants: The agency plan or its annual update is due June 30 of each year. Approval/disapproval is due September 30 of each year.

Discretionary Grants: From three to six months.

Appeals:
Appeals are processed in accordance with Departmental regulations at 45 CFR 16.

Renewals:
Discretionary Grants: Grants are generally available for a 12-, 24-, or 36-month period. Some may be renewed for up to a total of 5 years. Multiple year projects are funded on an annual basis through submission of a non-competing continuation application. Continuation funding is subject to availability of funds, submission of program and financial reports, and grantee performance.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

Marianas, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, and Matching Requirements: Percent: 25%. (1) Formula Grants: State allotments are based on the number of children receiving food stamps over a three year rolling average. Allotments to Indian tribes, including tribal consortia are based on a percent set aside of the total appropriation in each fiscal year and computed based on the number of children in the tribe compared to the total number of children in eligible Indian tribes. However, grants will not be made to Indian tribes whose allotment is less than $10,000. Allotments to territories are based on the formula in subpart 1 of Title IV-B. Matching Requirements: FFP is available up to the full allotment at the rate of 75 percent for allowable program expenditures made by the grantee. Grantees must provide a 25 percent match for these expenditures.

(2) Discretionary Grants: The funding formula and matching requirements are described in each program announcement. This program has MOE requirements, see funding agency for further details. A MOE requirement is applicable to the formula grants to states. Specifically, states may not use the Federal funds under title IV-B, subpart 2, to supplant Federal or non-Federal funds for existing family preservation and family support services as of 1992 (base year). The discretionary grants component of this program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
(1) Formula Grants: Grants are available for obligation and liquidation in the FY granted and in the subsequent FY. Grant awards will be made quarterly on a fiscal year basis through a letter of credit. An electronic fund transfer system will be used for monthly cash draws from Federal Reserve Banks.

(2) Discretionary Grants: Grants are generally available for a 12, 24, or 36-month period. Some may be renewed for up to a total of 5 years. Renewal funding for multiple-year grants is dependent upon grantee performance and availability of funds. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/releases: Discretionary grant awards are managed by a payment management system that manages grant payment requests, drawsdowns, and disbursements.

Reports:
(1) Formula Grants: After the end of each of the first four fiscal years, the states, territories, and Indian tribes must submit an interim review of progress toward accomplishment of the goals in the state or tribal plan. After the end of the fifth fiscal year, the states, territories, and Indian tribes must perform a final review of progress toward accomplishment of the goals. An SF-425 financial status report must be submitted for the funds awarded in each Federal fiscal year (FFY) within three months after the close of the FFY in which the funds were granted (interim report) and again within three months after the close of the subsequent FFY (final report). Performance monitoring of state agencies is conducted through the Child and Family Services Review (CFSR) process in accordance with 45 CFR 1355.31 - 1355.37.

(2) Discretionary Grants: Grantees are required to submit semi-annual program reports. Final reports are due 90 days after completion of the grant.

93.558 TEMPORARY ASSISTANCE FOR NEEDY FAMILIES (TANF)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Social Security Act, Title IV, Part A, 42 U.S.C 601 et seq.

OBJECTIVES:
To provide grants to States, Territories, the District of Columbia, and Federally-recognized Indian Tribes operating their own Tribal TANF programs to assist needy families with children so that children can be cared for in their own homes; to reduce dependency by promoting job preparation, work, and marriage; to reduce and prevent out-of-wedlock pregnancies; and to encourage the formation and maintenance of two-parent families.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Dissemination of Technical Information; Formula Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
TANF funds monthly cash assistance payments to low-income families with children, as well as a wide range of services that are reasonably calculated to address the programs four broad purposes. States, Territories, the District of Columbia, and Federally-recognized Indian Tribes operating their own TANF programs have flexibility to use the grant funds in any manner that meets the purposes of the program and in ways that States and Territories were authorized to use funds received under the predecessor Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), Job Opportunities and Basic Skills Training (JOBS), and Emergency Assistance (EA) programs. States and Territories may also transfer a limited portion of their assistance grant funds to the Child Care and Development Block Grant (CCDBG) and Social Services Block Grant (SSBG) Programs. Not more than 15 percent of any State grant may be spent on... administrative costs, exclusive of certain computerization and information technology expenses. Cash grants, work opportunities, and other services are made directly to needy families with children. For Tribal programs, ACF will negotiate a limitation on administrative costs for the first year of the program's operation not to exceed 35 percent, for the second year of the program's operation not to exceed 30 percent, and then for the third and subsequent years of the program's operation not to exceed 25 percent. For the TANF program, there are certain prohibitions, restrictions, and limitations on the provision of assistance. For example, families may only receive Federally-funded assistance for five years. In addition, Federal funds may not be used to provide medical services, unless they are pre-pregnancy family planning services (Tribes, however, may use Federal funds for medical services if they are job-related).

Applicant Eligibility:
In general, all States, Territories, the District of Columbia, and all Federally-recognized Tribes in the lower 48 States and 13 specified entities in Alaska are eligible. State and local agencies and Tribes that operate TANF programs must do so under plans determined to be complete (or for Tribes approved) by the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). For Contingency Funds, all States and the District of Columbia are eligible if they are determined to be a "needy State" by satisfying criteria related to the state's unemployment rate or the average number of participants in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (or SNAP, formerly known as food stamps). Territories and Tribes are not eligible for Contingency Funds.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Needy families with children, as determined eligible by the State, Territory, or Tribe in accordance with the State or Tribal plan submitted to HHS.

Credentials/Documentation:
Federal funds go to the State, Territory, or Tribal agency certified by the Chief Executive Officer. Needy families must meet State or Tribal eligibility requirements. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Each State, Territory, and the District of Columbia must develop a State plan and include the certifications signed by the Executive Officer (Governor). Applicants must consult with local governments and private organizations and provide them 45 days to comment on the plan. The State plan and certifications must be submitted to the Secretary of HHS. Tribes may apply to the Secretary to receive funds and to administer the TANF block grant. Tribes would submit a 3-year family assistance plan. The Secretary, in consultation with the Tribe, would set program requirements and time-limits for receipt of welfare-related services, consistent with the purposes of the program and economic conditions/resources of each Tribe. Tribes should contact the OPA Regional TANF Program Manager for further Tribal plan submittal procedures. For Contingency Funds, each State must request these funds monthly for each month they meet either the unemployment or SNAP triggers.

Award Procedure:
Once a plan is determined complete, or in the case of a Tribe the plan is approved, by HHS, Family Assistance Grants are awarded in quarterly payments. Supplemental Grants are also awarded in quarterly payments. Contingency Fund awards will be made monthly.

Deadlines:
Not Applicable.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
States, Territories, the District of Columbia, and Tribes implement their assistance programs according to their State and Tribal plans. The Secretary does not have authority to approve or disapprove a State plan, only to determine its completeness. Tribal plans are subject to approval by the Secretary.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
States, Territories, and the District of Columbia must periodically (every 2 or 3 years) renew their funding status by submitting their TANF plan. Tribes must renew their funding status every 3 years. For Contingency Funds, requests for additional funding must be made monthly.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory Formula: Title 45 CFR, Chapter 2, Part 260; 286. This program has no matching requirements. This program has MOE requirements, see funding agency for further details.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
States, Territories, the District of Columbia, and Tribes are awarded their assistance grants in quarterly payments. They may reserve grant moneys, without fiscal year limitation, to provide any allowable benefits and services that are consistent with the purposes of the TANF program. With certain exceptions, most families are limited to no more than 5 years of assistance under the Federal grant. Tribes have the flexibility to establish time limits on receipt of assistance. For Contingency Funds, grant awards are issued monthly to States meeting the eligibility criteria stipulated under Section 101. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly.

Reports:
States, Territories, the District of Columbia, and Tribes operating their own Tribal TANF programs are required to collect and report to the Secretary on a quarterly basis case record information on the families receiving assistance.
They are also required to report financial data and work participation rate data. Public Law 112-96 added new reporting requirements, as states must report on the implementation of policies and practices related to restricting recipients from using their TANF assistance in electronic benefit transfer transactions at specified locations and must include in their state plans information on how the state will ensure that recipients have adequate access to their cash assistance.
No cash reports are required. No progress reports are required. Quarterly financial reports. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. Audits shall be conducted by the Inspector General under Chapter 75 of Title 31, United States Code. If a State or Territory is found to have used funds from the State Family Assistance Grant in violation of the statute, the Secretary shall reduce the grant payable to them for the immediately succeeding fiscal year by that same amount. For Tribes, the Secretary will have the ability to maintain program funding accountability consistent with generally accepted accounting principles and the requirements of the Single Audit Act of 1984 and 2 CFR 200 (Chapter II Part 200).

Records:
States, Territories, the District of Columbia, and Tribes must maintain records containing information the Secretary may require by regulation.

Account Identification:
75-1552.6-1-609.

Obligations:
(Formula Grants) FY 16 $583,000,000; FY 17 est $608,000,000; and FY 18 est $0 - TANF Contingency Fund. (Formula Grants) FY 16 $77,675,000; FY 17 est $77,618,000; and FY 18 est $70,205,000 - (Territory Assistance Grants). (Formula Grants) FY 16 $16,488,607,000; FY 17 est $16,434,255,000; and FY 18 est $14,864,683 - (State and Tribal Family Assistance Grants).

Range and Average of Financial Assistance:
State and Tribal Family Assistance grants are estimated from $77,195 to $134,687,331.21.

TAFS Codes:
75-1522; 75-1552.

Program Descriptions 2.552 October 2017

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Eligible individuals should apply directly to their Territorial or local welfare agency. The Territories should contact the Regional Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program managers for application forms. (See Appendix IV of the Catalog for addresses.) Territories contact the Regional TANF program manager for applications for administrative funds. OFA/Regional TANF program managers have authority to approve applications and amendments; disapproval authority is held by the Director of the Office of Family Assistance, in the Administration for Children and Families.

Award Procedure:

Once an application is approved, Territories are awarded funds quarterly based on ACF-approved estimates of maintenance assistance and administrative costs. Notification of awards must be made to the designated Territorial agency. Eligible individuals receive monthly subsistence checks from Territorial welfare agencies.

Deadlines:

Not Applicable.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

From 30 to 60 days. Welfare agencies must have a time standard for notifying applicants of approval/disapproval; not over 45 days after application, except 60 days for aid to the disabled.

Appeals:

From 90 to 120 days. Individuals denied assistance must be given a fair hearing on appeal (45 CFR, Chapter 2, Section 205.10). Territorial agencies may request a hearing before the Assistant Secretary for Family Support regarding adverse decisions (45 CFR, Chapter 2, Section 201.14; 45 CFR, Part 16).

Renewals:

> 180 Days. The agency must conduct periodic reviews to determine whether conditions justifying eligibility still exist.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

Statutory Formula: Title XVI. Matching Requirements: Program funds are provided based on a formula linked to the number of recipients receiving benefits each month. Administrative costs are matched at 50%. This program does not have MOE requirements.

93.563 CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT

FEDERAL AGENCY: Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION: Social Security, Title IV, Part D, 42 U.S.C 1673-6103-6.

OBJECTIVES:

To enforce the support obligations owed by absent parents to their children, locate absent parents, establish paternity, and obtain child, spousal and medical support.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE: FORMULA GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

States and some Tribes provide support enforcement services directly to individuals who are receiving federally-funded Foster Care Maintenance Payments, Medicaid, Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) (or those who cease to receive TANF), and to individuals not otherwise eligible for such services. TANF, Medicaid, and certain federally-funded Foster Care applicants or recipients must have assigned support rights to the State. Non-TANF individuals other than those who cease to receive TANF and/or who provide authorization to the IV-D agency to continue support enforcement services, must have signed a written application for support enforcement. services. The State must provide services to locate absent parents, establish paternity and enforce support obligations.

Applicant Eligibility:
All States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, and Guam. Each of these jurisdictions is required to establish or designate a single and separate State Child Support Enforcement Agency. Tribes are eligible and we currently have fifty-nine tribal child support programs and four in the start-up phase.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
The State must provide support enforcement services to: (1) All applicants for, or recipients of TANF, Foster Care Maintenance Payments, and Medicaid, for whom an assignment to the State of support rights has been made and who are in need of such services; (2) all individuals who cease to receive TANF; (3) individuals who provide authorization to the IV-D agency to continue support enforcement services; and (4) any other individual who is in need of such services and who has applied for them.

Credentials/Documentation:
No Credentials or documentation are required. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
State officials prepare and review state plans and amendments. Regional Office staff are available for consultation or assistance in preparation of State plans and amendments. The standard application forms, as furnished by Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) and required by Chapter II Part 200, must be used for this program. High level State officials review State Plans and amendments before they are submitted. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Applications are made in the form of a State Plan, prepared in the format provided by the Office of Child Support Enforcement.

Award Procedure:
States are awarded funds quarterly based on their estimates of funds needed to provide support enforcement services to individuals eligible under an approved Title IV-D State plan. These awards are made up of matching funds (Federal Financial Participation FFP), and incentive funds that states earn based on good or improved performance.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 60 to 90 days. State Plans and amendments submitted as new State Plans, and Plan amendments may require up to 90 days for approval.

Appeals:
From 30 to 60 days. The State may request reconsideration of plan disapproval or plan amendment disapproval within 60 days after that disapproval.

Renewals:
Once approved, State IV-D plans remain in effect until amended or revised.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Matching Requirements: States receive a 66 percent Federal Financial Participation (FFP). Federally recognized Indian tribes and Alaska Native organizations are eligible to apply for direct funding for child support programs. Those with approved applications receive 90 percent FFP of their program costs during the first three years and 80 percent FFP thereafter. Tribes also may apply for two-year start-up grants. There are currently fifty-nine tribal child support program grantees and four tribes receiving two-year start-up funding.

This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Federal funds are awarded quarterly on a fiscal year basis. The Electronic Transfer System is used for monthly cash draw from Federal Reserve Banks based on quarterly awards. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: by letter of credit.

Reports:
Periodic audits are made as part of recipient's systems of financial management and internal control in accordance with Public Law 98-502, the single Act of 1984. Cash reports are done on Form SF-425. Periodic reports are required on the progress of the programs. Quarterly financial reports of administrative expenditures and child support collections and annual program reports including caseload data are required by OCSE. Periodic audits are conducted.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. In addition, grants and cooperative agreements are subject to inspection and audits by DHHS Inspector General and State Audit (private groups) and other Federal government officials. OCSE conducts data reliability of variables used to compute performance measures. These audits were mandated by The Child Support Performance and Incentive Act of 1998 (CSPIA).

APPLICATION PROCEDURES:

Preapplication Coordination:
Section 1115 grants may be made only to State or Tribal Child Support Enforcement agencies or their umbrella agencies.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Only Title IV-D Child Support agencies or Tribal Child Support Program operating a comprehensive program.

Credentialed/Documentation:
When appropriate, applicants should present written evidence of other agencies' willingness to cooperate when the project involves their cooperation in the utilization of their facilities or service. Costs will be determined in accordance with 2 CFR 225 for State governments. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. The standard application forms, as furnished by DHHS and must be used for this program. Application kits which contain the prescribed application forms and supplemental descriptive information on the priority projects are available from: Administration for Children and Families, Office of Grants Management, Director, Division of Discretionary Grants, 5th Floor, 330 C. Street SW., Washington, DC 20201. Telephone: (202) 401-4577. Contact: Daphne Weeden, Director, Division of Discretionary Grants. Eligible interested parties are encouraged to submit applications on grants.gov. To be considered for a grant award, all applications must be submitted on the prescribed application forms and submitted to the Division of Grants Management. The application shall be executed by an individual authorized to act for the applicant agency or organization and to assume for the agency or organization the obligations imposed by the terms and conditions of the grant. As part of the project title (page 1 of the application form, Form SF-424) the applicant must clearly indicate whether the application submitted is in response to a priority project identified in a program announcement and must reference the unique project identifier (e.g., HHS-2010 - ACF - OCSE-FD-0113) for which the application is to compete. Applications are initially screened for relevance to program interests of the Office of Child Support Enforcement (OCSE). Ineligible applications will be returned to the applicant. Eligible applications are reviewed and evaluated by a review panel of not fewer than three knowledgeable people. A limited number of projects may be approved pending available funds and will compete with other nonpriority projects. Written assessment of each application is made.

Award Procedure:

Official notice of approved grant applications is made through issuance of a Notice of Grant Award. This provides the amount of funds awarded, the purpose of the award, the term and conditions of the award, the budget period for which support is given, the total project period for which support is contemplated, and the total grantee participation.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 60 to 120 days. Generally, solicited grants will be acted upon within 90 days.

Appeals:
There are no formal appeals procedures. If an application for a grant is disapproved, the reasons for disapproval will be fully stated, applicants may request the reasons for disapproval. In the case of unsolicited proposals, applicants are free to resubmit applications with attention to the changes suggested by the reasons for disapproval in the future.

Renewals:
Extensions and continuations of grants with 1-year project periods are generally not available except under extreme circumstances. If an application is recommended for approval for 2 or more years, the grantee must submit a formal request for continuation each year accompanied by a progress report which will be evaluated prior to a recommendation of continuation.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. But may require an administratively imposed non-federal match.

LENGTH AND TIME PHASING OF ASSISTANCE:
Section 1115 grants are typically five years in length. For multi-year projects, support beyond the first year is contingent upon acceptable evidence of satisfactory progress and availability of funds. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: by letter of credit.

Program:
Program narrative reports and quarterly expenditure reports are required. Periodic monitoring is conducted by the federal project office when progress reports are reviewed. Quarterly expenditure reports are required. Progress reports are required. Quarterly expenditure reports are required. 93.568 LOW-INCOME HOME ENERGY ASSISTANCE
FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
OBJECTIVES:
To make Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) grants available to States and other jurisdictions to assist eligible households to meet the costs of home energy. Supplemental Leveraging Incentive funds may be awarded to reward States and other jurisdictions that provide additional benefits and services to LIHEAP-eligible households beyond what could be provided with Federal funds. The leveraging incentive funds may be set aside for LIHEAP grantees that provide services through community-based nonprofit organizations to help LIHEAP-eligible households reduce their energy vulnerability under the Residential Energy Assistance Challenge Program (REACH). Training and Technical Assistance funds are authorized to provide training and technical assistance to States and other jurisdictions administering the LIHEAP block grant program.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
FORMULA GRANTS
Energy Assistance Block Grants: Funds are awarded to States, eligible Tribes and Tribal Organizations, and Territories, which then make payments directly to an eligible low-income household or, on behalf of such household, to an energy supplier to assist in meeting the cost of home energy. Up to 10 percent of these funds may be used for State and local planning and administration. Up to 15 percent may be used for low-cost residential weatherization. Grantees may request that HHS grant a waiver for the fiscal year that increases above funds that can be allotted for residential weatherization. Depending upon specific appropriations, HHS may allocate supplemental LIHEAP leveraging incentive funds to grantees that have acquired nonfederal leveraged resources in order to provide additional benefits and services to LIHEAP-eligible households to help them meet their home heating and cooling needs. Leveraging Incentive Funds may be allocated by HHS to LIHEAP grantees that provide services through community-based nonprofit organizations to LIHEAP-eligible households to reduce their energy vulnerability, under the Residential Energy Assistance Challenge Program (REACH). Additional funds may be authorized and distributed as emergency contingency funds to be used to meet needs arising from a natural disaster or other emergency. Such funds will be made available only after submission to Congress of a formal budget request for all or part of the funds by the President that designates the amount of the request as an emergency under the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985. Training and Technical Assistance: the Secretary has authority to set aside up to $300,000 from each years appropriation for training and technical assistance relating to the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program. These training and technical assistance activities are accomplished through: grants, contracts, or jointly financed cooperative or interagency agreements with States, Indian tribes, tribal organizations, public agencies, private companies, and private nonprofit organizations; through interagency agreements, including with Federal agencies, or through on-site compliance reviews of LIHEAP grantees. The nature of and amount awarded for training and technical assistance vary from year to year.

Applicant Eligibility:
Energy Assistance Block Grants: All States, the District of Columbia, federally- and State-recognized Indian Tribal governments which request direct funding, and specified Territories may receive direct grants. The prospective grantee must submit an annual application. Grantees desiring Leveraging Incentive Funds and REACH funds must submit special applications each year, if funding is available. Instructions will be issued if emergency contingency funds are released. Training and Technical Assistance: States, Indian tribes or tribal organizations, Territories, public agencies, and private nonprofit organizations may apply. Nothing in the statute precludes a business concern that applies separately or jointly with a private nonprofit organization from receiving a training and technical assistance grant.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Energy Assistance Block Grants: All States, the District of Columbia, federally- and State-recognized Indian Tribal governments that request direct funding, and specified Territories may provide assistance to households with incomes up to the greater of 150 percent of the poverty level or 60 percent of the State median income. Grantees may establish lower income eligibility levels, but they may not set the limit below 110 percent of the poverty level. Training and Technical Assistance: States, Indian tribes or tribal organizations, Territories, public agencies, and private nonprofit organizations may apply. Nothing in the statute precludes a business concern that applies separately or jointly with a private nonprofit organization from receiving a training and technical assistance grant.

CREDENTIALS/DOCUMENTATION:
Energy Assistance Block Grants: The chief executive officer of the State, Tribe or Territory or his designee must certify to 16 assurances required by law. Households must meet beneficiary eligibility requirements. Grantees desiring Leveraging Incentive Funds or REACH funds must submit annual applications. Instructions will be issued if emergency contingency funds are released. Training and Technical Assistance: Requirements vary and are at www.grants.gov or www.fedbizopps.gov. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E-Cost Principles. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirement, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards.

Award Procedure:
Energy Assistance Block Grants: Grants are made upon receipt of a complete application by the Administration for Children and Families, Office of Community Services Headquarters Office. Leveraging Incentive Funds or REACH funds can be awarded based on applications submitted by grantees. Instructions will be issued if emergency contingency funds are released. Training and Technical Assistance: Procedures that apply for proposals vary and are at www.grants.gov or www.fedbizopps.gov.

Deadlines:
Sep 01, 2017 Energy Assistance Block Grants: States and Territories must submit their applications by September 1, prior to the fiscal year for which funds are sought, unless the Department agrees to a later date in form of approved extension. All applications must be completed by December 15, of the fiscal year for which funds are sought, unless the Department (in the case of States and Territories) or the State (in the case of tribal grantees) agrees to a later date on form of approved extension. Leveraging incentive fund reports are due by November 30 of each year, if funding is available. REACH applications are due by March 30 of each year, if funding is available.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Energy Assistance Block Grants: The Department reviews plans for completeness and will act on the plans submitted as quickly as possible. Leveraging Incentive and REACH applications will be reviewed and acted upon within deadlines. Training and Technical Assistance: Range of time varies, depending upon the nature and complexity of a request for proposals and as specified by the Department.

Appeals:
Energy Assistance Block Grants: Grantees may request a hearing regarding repayment of funds or withholding of funds under Section 2608 of the authorization.

Training and Technical Assistance: Not applicable for unsuccessful applicants for grants or cooperative agreements. For contracts, prospective applicants may object to a contract award by filing a protest with the contracting officer or higher authority. The notification issued by the contracting office to unsuccessful bidders contains the procedures and time frame for filing a protest.

Renewals:
Energy Assistance Block Grants: Annual applications are required. Separate annual applications are also required for Leveraging Incentive Funds and REACH funds. Instructions will be issued if emergency contingency funds are released. Training and Technical Assistance: Award periods may vary and are at www.fedbizopps.gov.

Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) Act.

OBJECTIVES:
To provide assistance to States and local communities, working through a network of community action agencies and other neighborhood-based organizations, for the reduction of poverty, the revitalization of low-income communities, and the empowerment of low-income families and individuals in rural and urban areas to become fully self-sufficient (particularly families who are attempting to transition off a State program carried out under part A of title IV of the Social Security Act) and (1) To provide services and activities having a measurable and potential major impact on causes of poverty in the community or those areas of the community where poverty is a particularly acute problem; (2) to provide activities designed to assist low-income participants, including the elderly poor, to: (a) secure and retain meaningful employment; (b) attain an adequate education; (c) make better use of available income; (d) obtain and maintain adequate housing and a suitable living environment; (e) obtain emergency assistance through loans or grants to meet immediate and urgent Statutory Formula: Section 2604 of the LIHEAP statute addresses this issue. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Energy Assistance Block Grants: Grant awards are made to grantees with complete applications for carrying out the program within the fiscal year. Up to 10 percent of a fiscal year’s grant may be held available for obligation in the subsequent fiscal year. For Leveraging Incentive Funds or REACH funds, obligation must occur by the end of the fiscal year following the year in which the funds are appropriated, without regard to the 10 percent carryover limit. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Section 2607 of the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program, as amended.

Reports:
Energy Assistance Block Grants: Grantees must submit an annual report (SF-425) within 90 days of the end of the fiscal year on the amount of funds obligated during the fiscal year and the last date of obligations of funds. Grantees are required to submit an annual LIHEAP Model Plan in applying for regular LIHEAP block grants. The annual plan must include 16 statutory assurances to be signed by the Chief Executive Officer. A LIHEAP Household Report is required annually on the number and income levels of households served during the previous year, on those households that are served that have members who are elderly, disabled, or young children, and on the number and income levels of all households that apply for assistance whether or not they are served. This report must be included as part of the annual plan before funds are released. A report on the amount of funds that the grantee desires to carry over for obligations in the succeeding fiscal year, the reasons any such funds will not be used during the first fiscal year, the types of assistance to be provided with funds carried over and the amount of funds, if any, to be subject to reallocation must be submitted by August 1 annually. Grant awards for the following fiscal year will not be released until this report is received. State grantees are required to complete the annual LIHEAP Data Form which consists of two modules. The first module includes grantee information on sources and uses of LIHEAP funds, average LIHEAP household benefits, and the maximum income cutoff for 4-person households for each type of LIHEAP assistance provided by each state. LIHEAP granter for the fiscal year. The second module includes state grantee developmental data on home energy burden targeting, restoration of home energy services, and prevention of loss of home. No cash reports are required. Training and Technical Assistance: Grantees are required to submit quarterly financial reports and a final progress report. For contracts, contractors are required to submit quarterly financial reports form HHS-646, Financial Report of Individual Project (Contact). A report is required from those grantees expending up to 5 percent of funds under section 2605(b)(16) for services that encourage and enable households to reduce their home energy needs. A report is due by November 30 of each year for those grantees that which to receive Leveraging Incentive Funds, reporting the amount value of leveraged resources they added to the program in the previous fiscal year. For REACH, a financial status report is due 90 days after the end of the program year and a final evaluation is due six months after the end of the federal fiscal year. Performance monitoring is required for Leveraging Incentive Funds.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. However, according to 45 CFR 96.31(a), LIHEAP grantees and sub-grantees are responsible for obtaining audits in accordance with the Single Audit Act Amendments of 1996 (31 U.S.C. 7501-7507). An independent auditor in accordance with generally accepted Government auditing standards covering financial audits shall make the audits. State cost principals requirements apply.
individual and family needs, including health services, nutritious food, housing, and employment-related assistance; (f) remove obstacles and solve problems which block the achievement of self-sufficiency; (g) achieve greater participation in the affairs of the community; and (h) make more effective use of other related programs; (i) to provide on an emergency basis for the provision of such supplies and services, nutritious foodstuffs, and related services, as may be necessary to counteract conditions of starvation and malnutrition among the poor; and (4) to coordinate and establish linkages between governmental and other social services programs to assure the effective delivery of such services to low-income individuals.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

FORMULA GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

(1) States receive block grants to ameliorate the causes of poverty in communities. The block grant approach gives the States flexibility to tailor their programs to the particular services needs in their communities. (2) States are required to use at least 90 percent of their allocations for grants to “eligible entities” as defined in the Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) Act, as amended; this includes primarily locally-based community action agencies and/or organizations that serve seasonal or migrant farm workers. (2) No more than the greater of $55,000 or 5 percent of each State’s allocation may be used for administrative expenses at the State level.

Applicant Eligibility:

The Secretary is authorized to make grants to States. This includes each of the 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Guam, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands. The Secretary also provides assistance directly to the governing body of an Indian Tribe or Tribal organization upon application by the tribe. Only State-recognized tribes, as evidenced by a statement to that effect by the Governor, or tribes formally recognized by the Secretary of the Interior, under the procedure for such recognition in 25 CFR 54, are eligible to receive direct grants.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

States make grants to qualified locally-based nonprofit community antipoverty agencies and other eligible entities which provide services to low-income individuals and families. The official poverty line, as established by the Secretary of Health and Human Services, is used as a criterion of eligibility in the Community Services Block Grant program. When a State determines that it serves the objectives of the block grant, it may revise the income limit, not to exceed 125 percent of the official poverty line.

Credentials/Documentation:

No Credentials or documentation are required. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Each State desiring to receive an allotment for a fiscal year is required to submit an application to the Secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS). Each application must contain assurances by the appropriate State designee that the State will comply with Section 676 of the Community Services Block Grant Act and also meet conditions enumerated in Sections 678(B-D). The State is required to hold at least one legislative hearing every three years in conjunction with the development of the State Plan (Section 678(a)(3)). States are also required to conduct public hearings on the proposed use and distribution of funds to be provided under the Act. The latter sets forth the general purpose for which funds will be used, restrictions on administrative expenses, eligible recipients, board requirements for community action agencies and other nonprofit organizations, fiscal control, monitoring, and Federal investigation provisions, coordination between antipoverty programs in each community and certain prohibitions on political activities. The State Director of CSBG Programs of each State is also required to designate a lead agency to prepare and submit a plan to the Secretary of HHS describing how the State will carry out the assurances in Section 676. This program is excluded from coverage under 45 CFR, Part 1050.

Award Procedure:

HHS determines the amount of funds to be allocated as block grants to each State in accordance with the formula set forth in the Community Services Block Grant Act. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has the authority to apportion to the HHS through the course of a year the Congressional appropriation for block grants. Consistent with OMB’s apportionment of funds, HHS will assign allotments to the States through individual awards or a series of awards, normally on a quarterly basis.

Deadlines:

Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

Not Applicable.

Appeals:

Funds may be withheld from any State which does not utilize its allotment substantially in accordance with the provisions of the Community Services Block Grant Act and the assurances provided in its application. This may be done only after adequate notice and an opportunity for a hearing is conducted within the affected State.

Renewals:

Not Applicable.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

Statutory Formula: Title 45, Chapter 96.71, Part 96, Subpart G, Public Law 97-35. Section 674 of the CSBG Act authorizes the Secretary to use one and one-half of one percent of the amount appropriated to be reserved for corrective action activities, training, technical assistance, planning, evaluation, and data collection activities related to programs or projects carried under this subtitle. Such activities may be carried out through grants, contracts, or cooperative agreements with eligible entities or with organizations or associations whose membership is composed of eligible entities or agencies that administer programs for eligible entities. One-half of one percent of the amount appropriated is apportioned on the basis of need among Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, and the Northern Mariana Islands. Of the remaining amount, each state, (excluding the above, but including the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico) is allotted an amount which bears the same ratio as the amount received by the state for fiscal year 1981 under Section 221 of the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 bore to the total amount received by all states for fiscal year 1981 under Section 221. However, if the appropriation exceeds $345,000,000 after the amount necessary for purposes of discretionary funding under Section 680 and the one-half of one percent set-aside for territories and insular areas under Section 675(A) are determined, no state receives less than one-half of one percent of the amount appropriated. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

Entitlement amounts are for a specific fiscal year and the grant funds allotted to the State will be awarded in accordance with apportionment of funds from the Office of Management and Budget. Amounts unobligated by the State at the end of a fiscal year remain available for obligation during the succeeding fiscal year. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Each fiscal year.

Reports:

All grantees shall participate in a performance measurement system in accordance with Section 678(E) of the CSBG statute, which includes state-established performance standards and participation in a Result Oriented Management and Accountability (ROMA) process or a comparable process approved by HHS. Grantees shall also prepare and submit an annual report on the measured performance of the State and the eligible entities within the State. The annual report submitted to the Office of Community Services contains accomplishments and results resulting from the implementation of the plan submitted at the beginning of the fiscal year. Expenditure and program reports may be requested by the Office of Community Services as part of a monitoring review of eligible entities. No cash reports are required. No progress reports are required. No expenditure reports are required. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:
States are required to keep records sufficient to permit preparation of the required reports and to permit tracing of funds to a level of expenditure adequate to insure that funds have not been spent unlawfully.

93.570 COMMUNITY SERVICES BLOCK GRANT DISCRETIONARY AWARDS
Community Economic Development & Rural Community Facilities Programs

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) Act.

OBJECTIVES:
To support program activities to alleviate the causes of poverty in distressed communities which: (1) assist businesses in creating jobs for low-income individuals, i.e., develop employment and business development opportunities for low-income individuals; (2) a better standard of living for rural low-income individuals in terms of water and waste water treatment.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Federal funds awarded under the Secretary's Discretionary Authority may be used for activities that: improve the quality of the economic and social environment of low-income residents by providing resources to eligible applicants, by arresting tendencies toward dependency, chronic unemployment and community deterioration in urban and rural areas; and by addressing needs of water and wastewater treatment in rural communities. Community Economic Development (CED) grants are awarded to cover project costs for (1) startup or expansion of business, physical improvements, or commercial activities. (2) capital expenditures such as the purchase of equipment or real property; (3) allowable operating expenses; and (4) loan or equity investments. Expenditures must result in the creation of employment or business opportunities for low-income individuals. Generally, the project must be completed within 36 months for non-construction projects and 60 months for construction projects. Projects must document public/private partnership mobilizing cash and/or in-kind contributions; and be located in areas characterized by poverty and other indicators of socioeconomic distress, such as high levels of unemployment. Grant funds may cover project costs for business start-up or expansion and the development of new products and services. Rural Community Development (RCD), also referred as Rural Community Facilities (RCF) grants are awarded to provide training and technical assistance to small, rural communities concerning their water and waste water treatment needs. RCD grants focus on the development and upgrading of small water and wastewater systems in low-income rural areas. Types of services provided included training of persons responsible for community water and wastewater facilities; assisting communities with problem-solving and planning for facilities; producing and disseminating publications, newsletters, videos, and training manuals about rural waste and wastewater systems; and assisting rural communities in leveraging Federal, State, local, and private sector financing for facilities.

Applicant Eligibility:
For Community Economic Development, eligibility is restricted to private, locally initiated, nonprofit community development corporations (or affiliates of such corporations) governed by a board consisting of residents of the community and business and civic leaders. This includes faith based community development corporations. For Rural Community Development Activity projects, eligibility is restricted to multi-state, regional private, non-profit organizations that can provide training and technical assistance to small, rural communities interested in safe water and waste water treatment needs.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
A project must be targeted to address the needs of a specific segment of low-income individuals or families. The official poverty line established by the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, published annually by the Department of Health and Human Services is used as a criterion of eligibility in the Community Economic Development Discretionary Grant program.

Costs will be determined in accordance with the provisions of Title 45 CFR 75 Subpart E. This program is eligible for Federal administrative costs and audit requirements.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Interagency Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Awards are granted... on a competitive basis. Announcements concerning the availability of funds, requests for applications, along with application form and assurance documents, are on www.grants.gov website. Applications to the Office of Community Services for grants under the announcement should be submitted through the grants.gov website. Applicants are urged to inform and coordinate application submissions with State and local governments where such information and coordination is appropriate or necessary for the success of the program. This program is subject to the provisions of Title 45 CFR Part 75 (non-governmental entities). All applications for assistance under this program must contain: (1) SF-424, Application for Federal Assistance; (2) SF-424A, Budget Information; (3) SF-424B, Assurances-Non-Construction Programs; (4) Certificate Regarding Drug Free Workplace Requirements; (5) Certification regarding environmental tobacco smoke; (6) Certification Regarding Debarment, Suspension, and Other Responsibility Matters; and (7) Certification Regarding Lobbying. These must be accompanied by a detailed budget, and a program narrative submitted in accordance with the format detailed in the Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA).

Award Procedure:
The Director, Office of Community Services, Administration for Children and Families (ACF), will make the final decision on all grant awards. Selection of applicants will be determined based on the review criteria outlined in the Funding Opportunity Announcement.

Deadlines:

April 27, 2018 Deadlines for Community Economic Development awards are posted annually in the Funding Opportunity Announcement, founded on www.grants.gov.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

Generally, solicited grants will be acted upon within 60 to 120 days.

Appeals:

Not Applicable.

Renewals:

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

FORMULA GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

In the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2017, Congress directs that funds appropriated for the Child Care and Development Block Grant (CCDBG or Discretionary Funds) must be used to supplement, not supplant, State general revenue funds for child care assistance for low-income families. Lead Agencies must use Discretionary Funds for child care services on a sliding fee scale basis and for quality improvement activities. A portion of the Discretionary Funds is also used for the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services to carry out research, demonstration, and evaluation projects, provide technical assistance, and operate a national toll-free hotline and website. Not more than five percent of the aggregate amount of CCDF Funds expended by the State or Territory (15 percent for Tribes or tribal organizations) may be expended for administrative costs incurred by the State or Territory to carry out all of its functions and duties. The term "administrative costs" does not include the costs of providing direct services. In FY 2017, a State or Territory shall use not less than seven percent of the CCDF Funds to improve child care quality and availability including comprehensive consumer education, activities to increase parental choice, and other activities such as resource and referral services, provider grants and loans, monitoring and enforcement of requirements, training and technical assistance, and improved compensation for child care staff. In FY 2018, the amount a State or Territory must spend on quality activities increases to eight percent, in accordance with the CCDBG law. The law requires an increase in the minimum quality spending requirement to nine percent of a State or Territory's CCDF Funds phased-in over 5 years. In addition, starting in FY 2017, States and Territories are required to spend no less than three percent of their CCDF award on activities to improve the quality of infant and toddler care.) Except for approved construction or renovation of child care facilities by tribal grantees, no Discretionary Funds may be used for the purchase or improvement of land, or for the purchase, construction, or permanent improvement of any building or facility (other than for minor remodeling and for upgrading facilities to meet State and local child care standards). No Discretionary Funds provided directly to child care providers through grants or contracts may be expended for any sectarian purpose or activity, including sectarian worship or instruction. However, Grantees must give parents the option of receiving vouchers or certificates to allow parents the choice of child care provider, including faith-based or community providers. No Discretionary Funds may be provided for any services provided to students enrolled in grades 1 through 12 during the regular school day; for any services for which such students receive academic credit toward graduation; or for any instructional services which supplement or duplicate the academic program of any public or private school. Lead Agencies shall assure that a substantial portion of the Discretionary Funds will be used to provide assistance to low-income working families.

Applicant Eligibility:

Eligibility: All 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and Federally recognized Tribal Governments and consortia.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Children under age 13 (or, at the option of the grantee, up to age 19, if physically or mentally incapable of self-care or under court supervision), who (1) reside with a family whose income does not exceed 85 percent of the State median income for a family of the same size, and (2) who reside with a parent (or parents) who is working or attending job training or educational program, or who are in need of, or are receiving, protective services. A Lead Agency shall re-determine a child's eligibility for child care services no sooner than 12 months following the initial determination or most recent re-determination. Once determined eligible, children are expected to receive a minimum of 12 months of child care services, unless family income rises above 85% of SMI or, at Lead Agency option, the family experiences a non-temporary cessation of work, education, or training.

Credentia/Document/ation:

Lead Agencies must operate under a CCDF plan approved by the Administration for Children and Families, and must provide assurances that the Grantee will comply with the requirements of the CCDBG Act and all applicable Federal law. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Prequalification Coordination:

Each Grantee must designate a Lead Agency to which grants are awarded and that is accountable for the use of the Discretionary Funds provided, the duties of which shall include developing a CCDF plan. In conjunction with the development of the CCDF plan, the Lead Agency must hold at least one public hearing no earlier than nine months before the CCDF plan becomes effective and after at least 20 days of statewide public notice, to provide the public an opportunity to comment on the provision of child care services under the plan. In advance of the hearing, the Lead Agency must make the content of the plan available to the public. The Lead Agency must also coordinate the provision of services under the program with other Federal, State, and local child care and early childhood development programs. Also, the Lead Agency must consult with appropriate representatives of local governments. Tribal Lead Agencies submitting applications for construction must submit an environmental impact assessment. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. 93.579 U.S. Repatriation

Repatriation Program

Federal Agency:

Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

Authorization:

Objectives:

The United States (U.S.) Repatriation Program was established by Title XI, Section 1113 of the Social Security Act (Assistance for U.S. Citizens Returned from Foreign Countries) to provide temporary assistance to U.S. citizens and their dependents who have been identified by the Department of State (DOS) as having returned, or been brought from a foreign country to the U.S. because of destitution, illness, war, threat of war, or a similar crisis, and are without available resources immediately accessible to meet their needs. The Program was later expanded in response to legislation enacted by Congress to address the particular needs of persons with mental illness (24 U.S.C. Sections 321 through 329) In addition, through Executive Order (E.O.) 12656 (53 CFR 47491) as amended, HHS was given the lead to develop plans and procedures, in coordination with the heads of Federal departments and agencies, for assistance to United States citizens or others evacuated from overseas areas.

Types of Assistance:

Cooperative Agreements

Uses and Use Restrictions:

The Repatriation Program is to provide temporary assistance which is defined by legislation as money payments, medical care, temporary billeting (e.g. shelter), transportation, and other goods and services necessary for the health or welfare of individuals (including guidance, counseling, and other welfare services) furnished within the U.S. to repatriates who are referred or brought back to the U.S. by the U.S. Department of State, and who are determined eligible under Program regulations. This temporary assistance is given in the form of a loan and must be repaid to the U.S. Government. Repatriates sign repayment agreements in which they agree to repay all repatriation costs to the Federal government.

Applicant Eligibility:

Social service organizations with expertise in mental health, child welfare, the criminal justice system, and emergency assistance.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

ORR authorized staff determines eligibility for citizens and their dependents who have been identified by the Department of State (DOS) as having returned, or been brought from a foreign country to the U.S. because of destitution, illness, war, threat of war, or a similar crisis, and are without resources.

Authorization:
The Native American Programs Act of 1974 (NAPA), as amended. , Section 803(d), Public Law 93-644, 42 U.S.C 2991b(d).

Objectives:
The purpose of the Environmental Regulatory Enhancement (ERE) program is to provide funding for the costs of planning, developing, and implementing programs designed to improve the capability of tribal governing bodies to regulate environmental quality pursuant to federal and tribal environmental laws. The ERE program supports the principle that projects must follow tribal cultural preservation and natural resource management priorities in order to achieve environmentally healthy, sustainable Native American and Alaska Native communities. The Administration for Native Americans (ANA) is therefore interested in supporting locally designed projects that strengthen tribal environmental regulatory programs in a manner consistent with the goals of native communities.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Grantees may apply for non-competitive continuation support within a project period. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released. Annually.

Reports:
Program reports are not applicable. Cash reports are not applicable. ANA grants are required to report project progress using the Objective Progress Report (OPR) (OMB No. 0970-0452, expiration date 06/30/2018) and the SF-429 on a semi-annual basis which are submitted electronically. In addition, grantees will be required to submit an Annual Data Report (ADR) (OMB No. 0970-0475, expiration date 03/31/2019) to report project data once a year and at the end of the project period. The SF-425 is also required to be submitted annually and at the end of the project period. ANA reviews grantees semiannual and annual reports to determine whether the grantee is meeting its project goal and objectives and completing activities identified in the Objective Work Plan (OWP) as well as to evaluate project effectiveness. If progress concerns are identified, ANA may require quarterly reports. In addition, ANA is required to describe and measure the impact of funded projects, their effectiveness in achieving stated goals, their impact on related programs, and when feasible, to obtain the views of persons participating in and served by funded projects. ANA carries out this requirement through review of grantee annual reports and through the use of structured on-site interviews using a data collection tool (OMB No. 0970-3579, expiration date 07/31/2019). The Federal Financial Report (FFR), also known as SF-425, is required to be submitted on a semi-annual basis. ANA reviews grantee semiannual and annual reports to determine whether the grantee is meeting its goal and objectives and completing activities identified in the OWP. If progress concerns are identified, ANA may require quarterly reports. In addition, ANA is required to describe and measure the impact of funded projects, their effectiveness in achieving stated goals, their impact on related programs, and when feasible, to obtain the views of persons participating in and served by funded projects.

APPLICABLE LAWS AND REGULATIONS:
Federal laws; developing tribal laws, regulations, and ordinances to protect the environment; enforcing and monitoring environmental quality laws, regulations, and ordinances; establishing baseline condition for regulatory purposes; informing the community about regulations and environmental stewardship; building the technical and program capability of the tribe or organization to perform essential environmental program functions to meet tribal and federal regulatory requirements; and establishing demonstration projects to exhibit technologies, which can lead to compliance with environmental regulations. This is a discretionary grant program. Funding cannot be used for the following purpose or activities: purchase of real property; costs of organized fundraising, reimbursement of pre-award costs, and activities that qualify as major renovations and alterations. Further details regarding ineligible applicants and activities can be found in the ANA regulations at 45 CFR 1336.35. In addition, activities in support of any foreseeable litigation against the United States Government are unallowable per 45 CFR 75.435.

Applicant Eligibility:

93.583 REFUGEE AND ENTRANT ASSISTANCE WILSON/FISH PROGRAM

Wilson-Fish Program

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To develop alternative projects which promote early employment of refugees, certain Amerasians from Viet Nam, Cuban and Haitian entrants, asylees, certified victims of a severe form of trafficking, and special immigrants from Iraq and Afghanistan. Wilson-Fish grantees may develop innovative approaches for the provision of refugee cash and medical assistance, otherwise available through the State-administered program. The purpose of the Wilson-Fish program is to provide integrated assistance (cash and medical) and services (employment, case management, English as a Second Language/ESL and other social services) in order to increase refugees' prospects for early employment and self-sufficiency, reduce their level of welfare dependence, and promote coordination among service providers. Additionally, the Wilson-Fish program enables refugee assistance programs to exist in every State where refugees are resettled.

Wilson-Fish projects comprise two types of projects. (1) Nine projects currently establish or maintain a refugee program in a State where the State is not participating in the refugee program or has withdrawn from the refugee program or a portion of the program. (Alabama, Alaska, Idaho, Kentucky, Louisiana, Nevada, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Tennessee). (2) Four projects currently provide an alternative to the existing system of assistance and services to refugees (Colorado, Massachusetts, Vermont and San Diego). No separate funding is appropriated for Wilson-Fish demonstration projects. Funds are drawn instead from funds earmarked for refugee cash and medical assistance grants and social services allocations for the State-administered program (93.566) according to ORR projections.

Applicant Eligibility:
Beginning in FY2015/2016, funding under this program is open only to those agencies that currently administer a Wilson-Fish program. ORR requires that appropriate proposals and applications are submitted and that a determination is made that the grantees are the ones that can best perform the services in accordance with 8 U.S.C. 1522(a)(4)(A). Wilson-Fish grantees include States, voluntary resettlement agencies (local and national), and a private non-profit agency that oversees a local voluntary resettlement agency administer 12 state-wide Wilson-Fish programs in the following States: Alabama, Alaska, Colorado, Idaho, Kentucky, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Nevada, North Dakota, South Dakota, Tennessee and Vermont, plus one county-wide program in San Diego County, California.
victims of a severe of trafficking, and Iraqi and Afghan Special Immigrants are eligible for services and assistance through funded projects in a community. Cash assistance is transitional for up to 8 months; services may be provided for up to five years.

Credentials/Documentation:
Proof of immigration status or a certification or eligibility letter issued by HHS/ORR for victims of a severe form of trafficking. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Awards are granted through a sole source process, as specified in the program announcements. Each agency desiring to respond to a program announcement is required to submit an application. Applications are reviewed and evaluated pursuant to criteria specified in the program announcement. It is expected that ORR will continue to provide awards to the same grantees for a 4-year project period with 12-month budget periods. The grantees will be required to submit applications for noncompetitive awards in the subsequent years during the project period. Future awards will be based on the grantees performance, the availability of funds, and the best interest of the Federal Government.

Award Procedure:
Eligible applicants submit an application to HHS. Subsequent to review by ORR, the Director of ORR makes the funding decision on all grant awards.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 60 to 90 days.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Contingent upon funding availability, grantee performance, and the best interest of the government.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Funds are made available for this program for one-year budget period. The project period is up to four years. Funds are awarded incrementally within each budget period. If refugee arrivals and refugee cash and medical assistance recipients exceed those that were estimated at the time of application, a grantee can submit a request for supplemental funding to meet the unanticipated need for refugee cash and medical assistance. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Incremental funding.

Reports:
Program Performance reports summarizing the activities and accomplishments of the project in relation to the approved goals and objectives are required every four months. Cash reports are not applicable. No progress reports are required. Financial reports are required on a quarterly basis. During the monitoring visits, a representative collection of case files are reviewed to ensure clients are receiving appropriate services. Specifically, the ORR WF team reviews client, legal, financial, categorical and time eligibility, the Family self-sufficiency plan, receipt of cash and if applicable medical assistance, case management and employment service and outcomes. Also the ORR WF team interviews agency staff and clients to ensure that information gleaned from the case-file, agency staff and clients corroborates with one another. In addition to program monitoring quarterly performance reports, Federal Financial Reports (OFR-2) and Annual goal plans are reviewed to ensure W-F agencies are spending funds appropriately and are performing in a manner consistent with the approved application and cooperative agreement.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:
Grant recipients are required to keep all financial, business and program reports necessary for program review and audit for the project period and for 3 years following the end of the project period to ensure that funds have been expended in accordance with the regulations, grant terms, and conditions of the program.

93.586 STATE COURT IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM
State and Tribal Court Improvement Programs
FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Social Security Act, Title IV-B, Part 2, Section 438.

OBJECTIVES:
The program provides three grant opportunities: a state court improvement program; a federal court improvement program; and a Tribal Court Improvement Program. The program provides grants to states and territories to improve court processes, enhance the well-being of children, and promote continuous quality improvement through a system of assessments and improvements.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Grants under the State Court Improvement Program may be used for: assessment and improvement activities, broadly defined, of the child welfare functions of a court system to promote continuous quality improvement, and to make improvements to court processes to provide for the safety, permanency, and well-being of children, enhance engagement of the entire family in court processes, and provide for training of judges, attorneys, and legal personnel in child welfare cases.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES:
Preapplication Coordination: Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Program instructions can be obtained from the Children's Bureau, ACYF and the appropriate Health and Human Services (HHS) Regional Offices. Funding opportunity announcements for the tribal program are published on www.grants.gov website as available.

Award Procedure:
Awards to approved applicants will be made from the Administration for Children and Families, Office of Administration, Office of Grants Management.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Federal approval time will be between 30 and 120 days.

Appeals:
Appeals are processed in accordance with HHS Departmental regulations at 45 CFR Part 16.

Renewals:
Renewal applications will be accepted every four years for the State Court Improvement Program with the option to apply annually for any grant not previously received. The Tribal Court Improvement Program will be reconducted after 36 months, by the Children's Bureau.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory Formula:
Matching Requirements: Percent: 25%. Each state court with an approved application is allotted $85,000. In addition to this base amount, the remainder of the amount appropriated for all state courts will be divided among those courts with approved applications according to each state’s proportionate share of children under the age of 21. If any state courts do not apply for their share of these funds, the unclaimed amount will be reallocated each year to all other state courts with approved applications. Non-federal share (or match) is required at the rate of 25 percent of the total budget. The same formula and match requirements apply to each of the three CIP grants.
This program does not have MOE requirements. There is no match requirement for the tribal Court Improvement Program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
The Treasury will provide funds for this program. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: by letter of credit.

Reports:
Annual self-assessment reports are due on June 30th. No cash reports are required. No progress reports are required. Fiscal reports are required annually and are due 90 days after the close of the grant year. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

93.587 PROMOTE THE SURVIVAL AND CONTINUING VITALITY OF NATIVE AMERICAN LANGUAGES
Native American Language Preservation and Maintenance (P&M) and the Esther Martinez Immersion (EMI)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
The Native American Programs Act of 1974, as amended by the Esther Martinez Native American Languages Preservation Act of 2006, as amended, Section 803(a) and (c), Public Law 93-644, 42 U.S.C. 2991b-3.

OBJECTIVES:
To provide financial assistance to eligible applicants for the purpose of promoting the survival and continued vitality of native languages. This program area is divided into two categories: (1) Native Language Preservation and Maintenance and (2) Esther Martinez Immersion. The Language Preservation and Maintenance Grants are 12, 24 or 36-month projects that enable communities to conduct a broad range of projects including teacher credentialing, language instruction, language resource developments, language assessments, and other projects that support the communities long-term language preservation goals. The Esther Martinez Initiative Grants are 36-month projects that will be awarded to applicants that meet the statutory requirements for immersion projects with language nests or language survival schools in accordance with P.L. 105-399.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Grant awards under this program are for projects that contribute to the social development and self-sufficiency of native communities through the preservation and maintenance of Native American languages. ANA recognizes that applicants have varying levels of capacity and knowledge for language preservation and maintenance techniques and programs. Funds may be used for activities related to the preservation of Native American languages including: collecting and organizing data to assess a community’s Native American language status; planning and implementing an immersion, master/apprentice, or distance learning model; training and certifying teachers, interpreters, or translators in a Native American language; developing, printing, and disseminating materials to be used for the teaching and enhancement of a Native American language. This is a discretionary grant program. Funding cannot be used for the following purposes or activities: purchase of real property, costs of organized fund raising, including financial campaigns, endowment drives, solicitation of gifts and bequests, similar expenses incurred solely to raise capital or obtain contributions, reimbursement of pre-award costs, and activities that qualify as major renovations and alterations. Further details regarding ineligible applicants and activities can be found in the ANA regulations at 45 CFR 1336.33. In addition, activities in support of any foreseeable litigation against the United States Government are unallowable per 45 CFR 75.435.

Applicant Eligibility:

Non-profit Alaska Native Regional Corporations/Associations in Alaska with village-specific projects
Non-profit Alaska Native community entities or tribal governing bodies (Indian Reorganization Act or Traditional Councils) as recognized by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Public and nonprofit private agencies serving Native Hawaiians, National or regional incorporated nonprofit Native American organizations with Native American community-specific objectives, Public and nonprofit private agencies serving native peoples from Guam, American Samoa, or the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Tribal Colleges and Universities, and colleges and universities located in Hawaii, Guam, American Samoa, or the Tribal Colleges and Universities, and colleges and universities located in Hawaii, Guam, American Samoa, or the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands

Beneficiary Eligibility:
American Indians, Alaska Natives, Native Hawaiians, and Native American Pacific Islanders will benefit.

Credentials/Documentation:
Non-profit organizations must submit proof of non-profit status. For applicants that are not Tribes or Native Alaska villages, organizations applying for funding must show that a majority of board members are representative of a Native American community to be served. Applicants must submit documentation that identifies each board member by name and indicates his/her affiliation or relationship to at least one of ANAs four categories of community representation, which include: (1) members of federally or state-recognized tribes; (2) persons eligible to be a participant in, or beneficiary of, the project to be funded; (3) persons who are recognized by members of the eligible Native American community to be served as having a cultural relationship with that community; or (4) persons considered to be Native American as defined in 45 CFR 1336.10 and Native American Pacific Islanders as defined in Section 815 of the Native American Programs Act. Applicants that do not include this documentation will be considered non-responsive, and the application will not be considered for competition. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
All applicants must submit documentation demonstrating that the governing body of the organization on whose behalf the application is submitted approves the applications submission to ANA for the current grant competition period. Please see the funding opportunity announcement for more information.

Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

93.590 COMMUNITY-BASED CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION GRANTS

FEDERAL AGENCY: Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services.

AUTHORIZATION:
Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (CAPTA), as amended by P.L.111-320, enacted on December 20, 2010, 42 U.S.C 5116 et seq.

OBJECTIVES:
(1) To support community-based efforts to develop, operate, expand, and enhance, and coordinate initiatives, programs, and activities to prevent child abuse and neglect; and to support the coordination of resources and activities to better strengthen and support families to reduce the likelihood of child abuse and neglect; and (2) to foster understanding, appreciation and knowledge of diverse populations in order to effectively prevent and treat child abuse and neglect.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
FORMULA GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funds are used to develop, operate, expand, and enhance community-based, prevention focused programs and activities designed to strengthen and support families to prevent child abuse and neglect. One percent is set aside for discretionary grants to migrant and tribal populations and an additional amount to fund a national resource center to provide training and technical assistance to state lead agencies. To receive funds, states must meet eligibility requirements stated in the authorizing legislation.

Applicant Eligibility:
States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands are eligible. Before a state can apply, the Governor must designate a lead entity to administer the funds for the implementation of community-based child abuse and neglect prevention programs and activities. Tribes may participate through application for grants made available by a 1% of the entire CBCAP apportionment, of both mandatory and discretionary funds) annual funds set aside, legislated for tribes, tribal organizations and migrant programs. These are discretionary competitive grants, awarded every five years. Complete information regarding these grants may be found on the Federal website, www.grants.gov. Should you wish to speak to someone about this set-aside, see the contact information provided here in section 152.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
There are no eligibility requirements. Beneficiaries, which include children and their families, are organizations dealing with community-based, prevention focused programs and activities designed to prevent child abuse and neglect.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applications require certification and/or documentation that the state meets the eligibility requirements described in the Act, requiring that: (1) the Governor of the State has designated a lead entity to administer funds under this title for the purposes identified under the authority of this title; (2) the Governor of the State has provided assurances that the lead entity will provide, or be responsible for providing, community-based, prevention-focused programs and activities designed to strengthen and support families to prevent child abuse and neglect; composed of local, collaborative, public-private partnerships directed by interdisciplinary structures with balanced representation from public and private sector members, parents, and public and private nonprofit service providers, individuals and organizations experienced in working in partnership with families with children with disabilities; and (3) the Governor of the State has provided additional assurances that the lead entity has demonstrated certain capacities that ensure the state's ability to meet the purposes of this authority. Applicable costs and administrative procedures will be determined in accordance with 45 CFR 74 and 92. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. States and territories respond to an annual Program Instruction (PI) which announces availability of funds. Applications must include assurance and information required in the PI, as well as completed forms from the PI.

Award Procedure:
Applications are reviewed against all eligibility requirements at the headquarters level. Approval/disapproval is decided by the Commissioner of the Administration on Children, Youth and Families (ACYF).

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days. Deadlines will be provided in the annual Program Instruction (PI). Contact the headquarters office listed below for future deadlines.

Appeals:
Appeals are processed in accordance with Health and Human Services (HHS) regulations in 45 CFR, part 16.

Renewals:
Grants are made annually. A new application is required each year.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program. Matching Requirements: States that meet all of the eligibility requirements will be awarded funds based on the following statutory formula: (a) 70 percent of the total amount appropriated is allotted among the states based on the number of children under the age of 18 in each such state, except that each state shall receive not less than $175,000; and (b) the remaining 30 percent of the total amount appropriated is allotted in an amount that bears the same proportion to such amount appropriated as the amount leveraged by the state from private, state, or other non-federal sources, and directed through the state lead agency in the preceding fiscal year bears to the aggregate of the amount leveraged by all states from private, state, or other non-federal sources, and directed through the lead agency of such states in the preceding fiscal year. There is also a required 20 percent state match. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Grants are awarded by the Director of the Office of Mandatory Grants to the state on an annual basis, as described by the formula information Section. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:
Financial and program progress reporting requirements are described in Program Instructions. A state receiving a grant under this title, through reports provided to the Commissioner of the Administration on Children, Youth and Families, should include the following:

1) Community-based child abuse and neglect prevention programs and activities designed to strengthen and support families to prevent child abuse and neglect (through networks where appropriate) composed of local, collaborative, public-private partnerships directed by interdisciplinary structures with balanced representation from private and public sector members, parents, adult former victims of child abuse and neglect, and public and private nonprofit service providers and individuals and organizations experienced in working in partnership with families with children with disabilities (section 202(2)(A));

2) Direction to an interdisciplinary, collaborative, public-private structure with balanced representation from private and public sector members, parents, adult former victims of child abuse and neglect, public sector and private nonprofit sector service providers, and parents with disabilities (section 202(2)(B));

93.595 WELFARE REFORM RESEARCH, EVALUATIONS AND NATIONAL STUDIES

Welfare Research

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To support research on the benefits, effects, and costs of operating different State welfare programs, including studies on the effects of different programs and the operation of such programs on welfare dependency, employment rates, child well-being, family formation and healthy marriage, illegitimacy, teen pregnancy, and others; to assist States in developing and evaluating innovative approaches for reducing welfare dependency and increasing the well-being of minor children living at home.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Grants, cooperative agreements, and contracts are awarded for innovative research, demonstrations, and evaluations that are responsive to the Administration for Children and Families (ACF) program priorities. All applications must meet standards of excellence in research, demonstration, or evaluation design. Construction or the purchase of real estate are not allowable under these grants. Further, these funds may not be used to supplement the cost of program operations otherwise capped under the law. Organizations may not use funds under these grants to engage in inherently religious activities, such as worship, religious instruction, or proselytizing. In addition, an organization receiving ACF funds shall not, in providing ACF-funded services, discriminate against a program beneficiary or prospective program beneficiary on the basis of religion or religious belief. Regulations pertaining to the Equal Treatment for Faith-Based Organizations, which include the prohibition against Federal funding of inherently religious activities, as well a provisions related to nondiscrimination against religious organizations and the ability of religious organizations to maintain their religious character, can be found at either 45 CFR 87.1 or the HHS web site at http://www.hhs.gov/partnerships/about/regulations. Funds may be used for research on the benefits, effects, and costs of operating different State programs funded under the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families Program and evaluations of innovative approaches to reducing welfare dependency and Increasing child well-being.

Applicant Eligibility:
Grants and cooperative agreements may be made to or with governmental entities, colleges, universities, nonprofit and for-profit organizations (if fee is waived), and faith- and community-based organizations. Grants or cooperative agreements cannot be made directly to individuals.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Children, youth, and families, especially low-income families, will benefit.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants must present written evidence of other agencies’ willingness to cooperate when the project involves the use of other agencies, facilities, or services. Nonprofit organizations which have not previously received ACF program support must submit proof of nonprofit status. For State and local governments, costs will be determined in accordance with Chapter II Part 200 and Chapter III Part 300. 45 CFR 75 and other grantees, applicable costs and administrative procedures will be determined in accordance with 45 CFR Part 75.

2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, “Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs.” An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Applicants will be able to find a synopsis of grant or cooperative agreement opportunities and apply electronically for opportunities via: www.grants.gov. Applicants will also be able to find the complete text of grant announcements on the ACF’s web site located at: http://www.acf.hhs.gov/grants/index.html.

Award Procedure:
Official notice of approved grant applications is made through issuance of a Notice of Award (NOA). This provides the amount of funds awarded; the purpose of the award, the terms and conditions of the award, the budget period for which support is given, the total project period for which support is contemplated, and the total grantee participation.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 60 to 365 days. Generally, solicited grants and cooperative agreements will be acted upon within 120 days.

Appeals:
Appeals are processed in accordance with HHS regulations in 45 CFR Part 16.

Renews:
Grant extensions and continuations are available if formally applied for and approved. If an application is recommended for approval for 2 or more years, the grantee must submit a formal request for a non-competitive continuation application each year accompanied by a progress report which will be evaluated prior to a recommendation of continuation.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. Matching Requirements: Grantees are often required to share in the cost of projects. Cost sharing may range up to 25 percent of the total approved project cost for grants or cooperative agreements. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Funds are granted on a 1- to 5-year basis, with support beyond the first year contingent upon acceptable evidence of satisfactory progress, continuing program relevance, and availability of funds. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Post award, our Division of Payment Management will establish an account from which a grantee may draw down awards. For additional information on this process see: http://www.dpm.psc.gov/grant_recipient/new_grantee_information/hhs_grantee_info.aspx?explorer.event=true.

Reports:
No program reports are required. No cash reports are required. Grantees are required to submit performance progress reports (ACF-OGM-SF-PPR) throughout the project period. Performance progress reports are due 30 days after the reporting period. Final performance progress reports are due 90 days after the close of the project period. Reporting forms are available at http://www.acf.hhs.gov/grants/grants_resources.html. Grantees are required to submit program financial expenditure reports throughout the project period. Financial reports are due 30 days after the reporting period. Final financial reports are due 90 days after the close of the project period. Grantees will use the Financial Status Report (FSR) SF-425 for required financial reporting. Reporting forms are available at http://www.acf.hhs.gov/grants/grants_resources.html. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. All fiscal transactions identifiable to Federal financial assistance are subject to audit by the HHS audit agency, and other Federal officials.

Records:
Proper accounting records, identifiable by grant number and including all receipts and expenditures, must be maintained for 3 years in accordance with 45 CFR 75.361. Subsequent to audit, they must be maintained until all questions are resolved, or at the end of the regular 3-year period, whichever is later.

RELATED PROGRAMS:
93.558 Temporary Assistance for Needy Families; 93.647 Social Services
The purposes of the CCDF program are to: 1) allow each State maximum flexibility in developing child care programs and policies that best suit the needs of children and parents within that State; (2) promote parental choice to empower working parents to make their own decisions regarding the child care services that best suits their family's needs; (3) encourage States to provide consumer education information to help parents make informed choices about child care services and to promote involvement by parents and family members in the development of their children in child care settings; (4) assist States in delivering high-quality, coordinated early childhood care and education services to maximize parents options and support parents trying to achieve independence from public assistance; (5) assist States in improving the overall quality of child care services and programs by implementing the health, safety, licensing, training, and oversight standards; (6) improve child care and development of participating children; and (7) increase the number and percentage of low-income children in high-quality child care settings.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

FORMULA GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Title IV of the Social Security Act appropriates funds (Mandatory and Matching Funds) for the purpose of providing child care assistance. Lead Agencies must use Mandatory and Matching Funds for child care services on a sliding fee scale basis, activities that improve the quality or availability of such services, and other activities that realize the goals of the CCDBG Act. Lead Agencies must ensure that not less than 70 percent of the total amount of Mandatory and Matching Funds are used to provide child care assistance to families who are receiving assistance under the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families program, families who are attempting through work activities to transition off of temporary assistance programs, and families who are at risk of becoming dependent on temporary assistance programs. No more than 5 percent of the aggregate amount of CCDF Funds expended by the State (15 percent for Tribes or tribal organizations) may be expended for administrative costs incurred by the State to carry-out all of its functions and duties. The term "administrative costs" does not include the costs of providing direct services. In FY 2017, a State or Territory shall use not less than seven percent of the CCDF Funds to improve child care quality and availability including comprehensive consumer education, activities to increase parental choice, and other activities such as resource and referral services, provider grants and loans, monitoring and enforcement of requirements, training and technical assistance, and improved compensation for child care staff. In FY 2018, the amount a State or Territory must spend on quality activities increases to eight percent, in accordance with the CCDBG law. The law requires an increase in the minimum quality spending requirement to nine percent of a State or Territory's CCDF Funds phased-in over 5 years. In addition, starting in FY 2017, States and Territories are required to spend no less than three percent of their CCDF award on activities to improve the quality of infant and toddler care. Except for approved construction or renovation of child care facilities by tribal grantees, no Mandatory or Matching Funds may be used for the purchase or improvement of land, or for the purchase, construction, or permanent improvement of any building or facility (other than for minor remodeling and for upgrading of facilities to meet State and local child care standards.) No Mandatory or Matching Funds provided directly to child care providers through grants or contracts may be expended for any sectarian purpose or activity, including sectarian worship or instruction. However, Grantees must give parents the option of receiving vouchers or certificates to allow parents the choice of child care providers, including faith-based or community providers. No Mandatory or Matching Funds may be provided for any services provided to students enrolled in grades 1 through 12 during the regular school day; for any services for which such students receive academic credit toward graduation; or for any instructional services which supplant or duplicate the academic program of any public or private school.

Applicant Eligibility:

Eligibility: All 50 States, the District of Columbia, and Federally recognized Tribal Governments, including Alaska Native Corporations.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Children under age 13 (or, at the option of the grantee, up to age 19, if physically or mentally incapable of self-care or under court supervision), who (1) reside with a family whose income does not exceed 85 percent of the State...

This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Preapplication Coordination:
Each Grantee must designate a Lead Agency to which grants are awarded and that is accountable for the use of the Mandatory and Matching Funds provided, the duties of which shall include developing a CCDF plan. In conjunction with the development of the CCDF plan, the Lead Agency must hold at least one public hearing no earlier than nine months before the CCDF plan becomes effective and after at least 20 days of statewide public notice, to provide the public an opportunity to comment on the provision of child care services under the plan. In advance of the hearing, the Lead Agency must make the content of the plan available to the public. The Lead Agency must also coordinate the provision of services under the program with other Federal, State, and local child care and early childhood development programs. Also, the Lead Agency must consult with appropriate representatives of local governments. Tribal Lead Agencies submitting applications for construction must submit an environmental impact assessment. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Sections 2 CFR 200.101 and 45 CFR 75.101 on Applicability indicates that only the following requirements apply to CCDF.
* 75.101 English language
* 2 CFR 200.111 and 45 CFR 75.111, English language
* 2 CFR 200.112 and 45 CFR 75.112, Conflict of interest
* 2 CFR 200.113 and 45 CFR 75.113, Mandatory disclosures
* 2 CFR 200.202 and 45 CFR 75.202, Requirement to provide public notice of Federal financial assistance programs (Note: this requirement applies to Federal agencies rather than grantees)

* 2 CFR 200.331 and 45 CFR 75.352, Requirements for pass-through entities
* 2 CFR 200.332 and 45 CFR 75.353, Fixed amount subawards

A Lead Agency desiring to receive an allotment for a fiscal year is required to submit a three-year CCDF plan to the Administration for Children and Families, as well as financial and other information necessary for the grants process. Each plan must contain certifications and assurances by the Lead Agency that it will comply with the requirements of the Child Care and Development Block Grant Act (CCDBG). The plan must also include: the designation of a Lead Agency; the provision of assurances regarding policies and procedures as stated in Section 658E(c)(4) of the CCDBG; and the establishment of a sliding fee scale. Additional requirements are specified by 45 CFR Parts 98 and 99.

Award Procedure:

Grants are awarded after the receipt and approval of an application and plan by the Administration for Children and Families.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
The Administration for Children and Families will review the CCDF plans for approval and will act on the plans within 90 days.

Appeals:
Guidelines for appealing disapprovals of CCDF plans are specified in regulations at 45 CFR Part 99.

Renewals:
CCDF plans must be submitted every three years.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

Statutory Formula: Title 45 CFR, Part 98.53.
Matching Requirements: Statutory/Regulatory Formula: Section 658O of the CCDBG Act; Title 45 CFR, Part 98.53.
Matching Requirements: The Mandatory Funds are based on a State's Federal share of the expenditures for the now-repealed AFDC-linked child care programs (AFDC/JOBS Child Care, Transitory Child Care, and At-Risk Child Care) in 1994 or 1995, or the average of 1992 through 1994, whichever was greater. A State is not required to expend any State funds in order to receive its share of the Mandatory Funds. The remaining funds are Matching Funds and are distributed based on the number of children under age 13 in a State compared with the national total of children under age 13. To access Matching Funds, a State must obligate all of its Mandatory Funds allotted in a fiscal year and maintain 100 percent of the State's share of expenditures for the former programs in fiscal year 1994 or fiscal year 1995, whichever is greater. Matching Funds must be matched at the applicable FMAP rate, which is the Medicaid Program matching rate. Not less than one percent, but not more than two percent of the total Mandatory and Matching Funds are reserved for Tribes and tribal organizations based on the number of children living on or near tribal reservations or other appropriate area served by the tribal grantee. Tribes and tribal organizations are not required to provide matching funds. The District of Columbia is treated as a State for purposes of receiving its share of Mandatory and Matching Funds. Territories are not eligible to receive Mandatory or Matching Funds. This program has MOE requirements, see funding agency for further details.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

Grant awards are made to Lead Agencies with approved CCDF plans. If Matching Funds are requested, Mandatory Funds must be obligated by the end of the first fiscal year. There is no time limit on liquidation of Mandatory Funds and no time limit on obligation of Mandatory Funds if no Matching Funds are requested. Matching Funds must be obligated by the end of the first fiscal year and liquidated by the second fiscal year. State funds expended toward the Maintenance of Effort requirement must be both obligated and expended by the end of the first fiscal year. Mandatory and Matching Funds awarded to Tribes and tribal organizations must be obligated by the end of the second fiscal year and liquidated by the end of the third fiscal year. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly.

Reports:
As specified in 45 CFR Part 98, States must report to the Administration on Children and Families on an annual basis aggregate data on families, children in care, providers, payment methods, and consumer education. Quarterly case-level reports are required to provide data on families, children, and providers, and payment information. Tribes must also provide annual aggregate data on children and families served through CCDF. No cash reports are required. No progress reports are required. States must also submit quarterly expenditure reports. Territories are required to report estimates and expenditures for the Discretionary Fund only on a quarterly basis. States, DC, and Puerto Rico are required to measure, calculate, and report improper authorizations for payments as well as identify strategies for reducing future improper authorizations for payments. One-third of the 50 States, DC, and Puerto Rico must report annually on a three-year cycle. Tribes report expenditures for the Tribal Mandatory, Discretionary, and Construction/Renovation funds. Monitoring is in accordance with 45 CFR 98.90. Monitoring is in accordance with 45 CFR 98.90.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. Additional auditing may be necessary.

93.598 SERVICES TO VICTIMS OF A SEVERE FORM OF TRAFFICKING

Anti-Trafficking in Persons Program

FEDERAL AGENCY:

Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:

To provide outreach to, identification of, and service referrals to individuals who may be victims of a severe form of trafficking. To provide comprehensive case management services to alien victims of a severe form of trafficking. To enhance anti-trafficking efforts in the U.S. by building regional capacity, developing regional coalitions, conducting public awareness, and providing training and technical assistance on human trafficking issues.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Direct Payments for Specified Use; PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

The Administration for Children and Families (ACF) leads the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) efforts to combat human trafficking and modern forms of slavery by administering anti-trafficking programs through grants and contracts and collaborating with federal, state, tribal, and local government and non-government organizations. The Office on Trafficking in Persons (OTIP) is responsible for the overall leadership of anti-trafficking programs and services under the purview of ACF, including, but not limited to implementing provisions of relevant federal legislation and advising the Assistant Secretary in the development of anti-trafficking strategies, policies, and programs.

The Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 (TVPA) and subsequent reauthorizations authorize HHS to assist foreign national and domestic (United States citizen and lawful permanent resident) victims of human trafficking through a number of efforts including screening and identifying victims; providing victims benefits and services; conducting research; training for the identification of trafficking survivors; and raising awareness and preventing human trafficking. Funds may be used only for the purposes set forth in the funding opportunity announcements.

Applicant Eligibility:

State and local governments and private organizations.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Under the TVPA, as amended, alien victims of a severe form of trafficking in persons are eligible for benefits and services to the same extent as refugees. Beneficiaries are adult alien victims of a severe form of trafficking who have been certified by HHS/ORR. Alien children under 18 years of age subjected to a severe form of trafficking who have received letters of eligibility from HHS/ ORR are considered eligible for services. Certain family members of victims of a severe form of trafficking are eligible for federally funded or administered benefits and services to the same extent as refugees if they hold "derivative T visas" (T-2, T-3, T-4, or T-5 visa). Potential victims of trafficking are also eligible for assistance through discretionary grant programs.

Credentials/Documentation:

No Credentials or documentation are required. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Each application submitted under this program announcement will undergo a pre-review to determine if (1) the application was received by the closing date and submitted in accordance with the instructions in this announcement and (2) the applicant is eligible for funding.

Award Procedure:

Applications that pass the initial Administration for Children and Families (ACF) screening will be evaluated and rated by an independent review panel on the basis of specific criteria that are included Funding Opportunity Announcement. The evaluation criteria are designed to assess the quality of a proposed project and to determine the likelihood of its success.

Deadlines:

Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:

From 90 to 120 days.

Appeals:

Not Applicable.

Renewals:

Not Applicable.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

Funds are generally made available for 3-year project periods with funding on an annual basis. Funds are available to reimburse costs, up to the amount of the award, incurred during the year for which the funds are awarded. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: Lump sum.

Reports:

Performance progress reports are required, usually on a quarterly basis. Final program reports summarizing the activities and accomplishments of the project in relation to the approved goals and objectives are also required. Cash reports are not applicable. SF-425 Federal Financial Reports are due on a quarterly or semi-annual basis. Final financial reports are also required 90 days after the end of the project period. On-site and desk monitoring is done on an ongoing basis. No cash reports are required. No progress reports are required. No expenditure reports are required. No performance monitoring is required. No cash reports are required. No progress reports are required. No expenditure reports are required. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:

In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:

Grant recipients are required to keep all financial, business, and program reports necessary for program review and audit during the project period and for 3 years thereafter to insure that funds have been expended in accordance with the regulations, grant terms, and conditions of this program.

93.599 CHAFEE EDUCATION AND TRAINING VOUCHERS PROGRAM (ETV)
FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Social Security Act, Title IV, Part E, Section 477(b); as amended.

OBJECTIVES:
To provide resources to states and eligible Indian tribes to make available vouchers for postsecondary training and education, to youth who have aged out of foster care or who have been adopted or left for kinship guardianship from the public foster care system after age 16.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
FORMULA GRANTS
USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funds may be used to provide vouchers for postsecondary education and training to youth otherwise eligible for services under the state's or tribe's Chafee Foster Care Independence Program. Vouchers may also be provided to youth who leave foster care for adoption or kinship guardianship after age 16. Vouchers can be provided to youth up to the age of 23, as long as they are participating in the program at age 21 and are making satisfactory progress toward completing their course of study or training. Vouchers provided to individuals may be available for the cost of attending an institution of higher education (as defined in section 472 of the Higher Education Act) and shall not exceed the lesser of $5,000 per grant year or the total cost of attendance as defined in section 472 of the Higher Education Act.

Applicant Eligibility:
State governments, including the 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico (hereafter "states"), U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam and American Samoa, and eligible Indian tribes, Indian tribal organizations, or Indian tribal consortia (hereafter "tribes") with an approved plan.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Youth otherwise eligible for services under a state's or tribe's Chafee Foster Care Independence Program. (This includes youth who have left foster care because they attained 18 years of age, and have not yet attained 21 years of age; youth likely to remain in foster care until 18 years of age, commensurate with the state's or tribe's criteria used to determine eligibility for the program; and former foster care recipients, age 21 and younger.) Vouchers may also be provided to youth who are adopted from foster care or exit foster care to kinship guardianship after attaining age 16 and to youth up to the age of 23, as long as they are participating in the voucher program at age 21 and are making satisfactory progress toward completing their course of study or training.

Credentials/Documentation:
Costs will be determined in accordance with 45 CFR Part 75. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Applications must include the information and assurances required from the state or tribe. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. A 5-year state or tribal plan must be submitted with annual updates. The plan must coordinate the provision of services under the state's or tribe's Education and Training Voucher Program with services under other Federal or Federally-assisted programs serving the same population. Plans are submitted to the appropriate Regional Child Welfare Program Manager in the appropriate ACF Regional Office.

Award Procedure:
Quarterly awards are made up to the amount of one-fourth of the state's or tribe's annual allotment.

Deadlines:
Jun 30, 2017 The plan or its annual update is due June 30 of each year.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Approval/disapproval is due September 30th of each year.

Appeals:
Appeals are processed in accordance with HHS regulations in 45 CFR, Part 16.

Renewals:
Not Applicable.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory Formula: States: Each state is allocated an amount of funds which bears the same ratio as the number of children in foster care in that state bears to the total number of children in foster care in all states in the most recent fiscal year for which such information is available. Date submitted by states to the Adoption and Foster Care Analysis and Reporting System (AFCARS) national database will be used to calculate state allotments.

Tribes: Tribes with an approved title IV-E plan to directly operate a title IV-E program or tribes that have a title IV-E tribal/state cooperative agreement or contract have the option to apply to receive Chafee Foster Care Independence Funds directly from the Secretary. Each tribe with an approved plan is allocated an amount equal to the number of children in foster care under the responsibility of the tribe (either directly or under supervision of the state) in the most recent fiscal year for which such information is available to the sum of the total number of children in foster care under the responsibility of the state within which the tribe is located and the total number of children in foster care under the responsibility of all Indian tribes in the state that have an approved plan.

Matching Requirements: Percent: 20%. The Federal government will pay 80 percent of the total amount of funds expended by the grantee up to the amount of Chafee Education and Training Voucher Program funds allocated. The grantee must provide matching contributions to cover the additional 20 percent of the costs.

This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Grant awards are made quarterly on a fiscal year basis. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: quarterly.

Reports:
Annual updates to the state's or tribe's plan. An SF-425 financial status report must be submitted for the funds awarded in each Federal fiscal year (FFY) within three months after the close of the FFY in which the funds were granted (interim report) and again within three months after the close of the subsequent FFY (final report). Progress reports are not applicable. No expenditure reports are required. Performance monitoring is not applicable.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. Audits are conducted in accordance with the requirements in 45 CFR 75 Subpart F.

93.600 HEAD START
FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To promote school readiness by enhancing the social and cognitive development of low-income children, including children on federally recognized reservations and children of migratory farm workers, through the provision of comprehensive health, educational, nutritional, social and other services; and to involve parents in their children's learning and to help parents make progress toward their educational, literacy and employment goals. Head Start also emphasizes the significant involvement of parents in the administration of their local Head Start programs.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Direct Payments for Specified Use; PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
At least 90 percent of the enrollees in a program must be income eligible; i.e. from families whose income is below the poverty line, from families receiving public assistance, from homeless families or children in foster care. Programs may serve an additional 35 percent of participants with incomes up to 130 percent of poverty if they can demonstrate that they already are meeting the needs of children below the poverty line in the area served. American Indian and Alaska Native programs may enroll additional over-income children if they enroll all children in their service area that are income eligible and predominantly serve children meeting the low income criteria. Training and technical assistance grants are available to Head Start programs.

Applicant Eligibility:
Any government, federally-recognized Indian tribe, or public or private nonprofit or for profit agency which meets the requirements may apply for a grant. However, applications will be considered only when submitted in response to a specific announcement, published via the Internet at the following website address: http://www.grants.gov, which solicits proposals to expand Head Start/Early Head Start programs or establish new ones. Grantee agencies may subcontract with other child-serving agencies to provide services to Head Start children.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Head Start/Early Head Start programs are for children from birth up to the age when the child enters the school system; however, Head Start programs only serve pre-school age children while Early Head Start programs serve children from birth through age three as well as pregnant women. The Early Head Start-Child Care Partnership programs are expanding access to high quality early learning and development opportunities for infants and toddlers from birth through age four. No less than 10 percent of each Head Start program's enrollment shall be for children with disabilities.

Credits/Documentation:
Nonprofit organizations must submit proof of nonprofit status. Applicable costs and administrative procedures will be determined in accordance with Part 75 as applicable of the Code of Federal Regulations. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, “Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs.” An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. The Office of Head Start will provide each applicant agency with a completed check list form showing exactly which items must be completed by each applicant and delegate agency.

Award Procedure:
All funds are awarded directly to grantees. Funds for local Head Start/Early Head Start programs, including a portion of training and technical assistance funds, are awarded by the Office of Head Start's Regional Offices. Funds for the following are awarded by the Central Office of Head Start: American Indian and Alaskan Native programs; Migrant programs; research, demonstration and evaluation efforts and some training and technical assistance efforts.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 90 to 120 days. This, depending on the nature of the proposal, can vary considerably from 90 days to as much as several months.

Appeals:
Grantees who are denied refunding may appeal adverse decisions to the HHS Departmental Appeals Board. There is no appeal for new grants denials.
Renewals:
From 90 to 120 days. OHS Headquarters or Regional Offices will inform grantees of the application procedures for renewal.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory Formula: Title Head Start Act, as amended by the Improving Head Start for School Readiness Act of 2007, Public Law 110-134. Section 640 of the Head Start Act is the statutory formula for how funds must be allocated. This same section also specifies the non-federal share match requirement. Matching Requirements: Percent: 20%. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Funds are available for a 12-month budget period. Funds are released by monthly allowance on an Electronic Transfer System or by monthly check. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: by letter of credit.

Reports:
Annual information on the types of children served and the services provided. No cash reports are required. No progress reports are required. Semi-annual spending reports. Every agency is monitored on different aspects of their program throughout their five-year grant. New grantees are monitored after their first year in operation.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. The Uniform Guidance, applicable to Head Start, requires grantees that expend $750,000 or more during their fiscal year to have an annual audit. Additionally, the Office of Head Start provides the annual Head Start audit supplement, which includes Head Start-specific guidance and procedures. Lastly, there are also audit-type requirements associated with Head Start fiscal monitoring events.

Records:
Grantee must maintain an accounting system adequate to meet the purposes of the grant. Requirements for records are found in 45 CFR Part 75 as applicable.

Account Identification:
75-1536-0.1-506.

Obligations:
(Project Grants) FY 16 $8,934,669,231; FY 17 est $9,370,695,880; and FY 18 est $9,044,301,298

Range and Average of Financial Assistance:
156,000-165,235,000; 4,478,000.

TAFS Codes:
75-1536.

PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS:
Fiscal Year 2016: The Head Start program funded 915,603 early childhood slots in FY 2016. Fiscal Year 2017: We estimate that the Head Start program will fund 918,519 early childhood slots in FY 2017 that will provide comprehensive services to children and families. Fiscal Year 2018: We estimate that the Head Start program will fund 886,319 early childhood slots in FY 2018 that will provide comprehensive services to children and families.

Special Improvement Projects

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
To provide federal funds for information dissemination and technical assistance to states, training of federal and state staff to improve state child support programs, and research, demonstration, and special projects of regional or national significance relating to the operation of child support programs.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
All grants must follow the program requirements and restrictions outlined in the funding opportunity announcement and follow all of the standard terms and conditions for ACF grant awards, not limited to what is described in the HHS Grants Policy Statement.

Applicant Eligibility:
This funding is available to all organizations that meet the program eligibility requirement.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
This funding is available to all organizations that meet the program eligibility requirement.

CREDENTIALS/DOCUMENTATION:
When appropriate, applicants should present written evidence of other agencies' willingness to cooperate when the project involves their cooperation or the utilization of their facilities or service. For other grantees, costs will be determined in accordance with 2 CFR 220 for educational institutions, 2 CFR 230 for nonprofit organizations, and any amendments to the aforementioned. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Application forms and supplemental descriptive information on the priority projects are available from: Administration for Children and Families, Child Support Enforcement Program, 5th floor, 330 C. Street SW., Washington, DC 20201. Applications may be submitted to this address or via grants.gov. See the actual program announcement for details. The application shall be executed by an individual authorized to act for the applicant agency or organization and to assume for the agency or organization the obligations imposed by the terms and conditions of the grant. The application must clearly indicate whether the application submitted is in response to a program announcement (e.g. CFDA 93.601) and must reference the announcement number for which the application is to compete. Applications are reviewed and evaluated by a review panel of not less than three knowledgeable people. Written assessment of each application is made.

AWARD PROCEDURE:
Official notice of approved grant applications is made through issuance of a Notice of Grant Award. This provides the amount of funds awarded, the purpose of the award, the term and conditions of the award, the budget period for which support is given, the total project period for which support is contemplated, and the total grantee participation.

DEADLINES:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

RANGE OF APPROVAL/DISAPPROVAL TIME:
From 60 to 120 days. Generally, solicited grants will be acted upon within 90 days.

APPEALS:
There are no formal appeals procedures. If an application for a grant is disapproved, the reasons for disapproval will be fully stated, applicants may request the reasons for disapproval. In the case of unsolicited proposals, applicants are free to resubmit applications with attention to the changes suggested by the reasons for disapproval in the future. If an applicant is not awarded a grant, the applicant can request a written response that will address: (1) Weak and deficient areas of the proposal; (2) impact of weaknesses or deficiencies in not being selected; and (3) factors that were the basis of the selection of the successful grantee.

RENEWALS:
Generally, project and budget periods vary according to priority area (up to 3 years). Projects of a longer duration will be considered if unique circumstances warrant. If projects are approved for a period longer than 12 months, funding will be provided in discrete 12-month increments, or "budget periods." Funding beyond the first 12- month budget period is not guaranteed. Future funding will depend on the grantee's satisfactory performance and the availability of future appropriations.

FORMULA AND MATCHING REQUIREMENTS:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

LENGTH AND TIME PHASING OF ASSISTANCE:
Generally, project and budget periods vary according to the priority area (up to 3 years). For multi-year projects, support beyond the first year is contingent upon acceptable evidence of satisfactory progress and availability of funds. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: by letter of credit.

REPORTS:
Semi-annual program narrative reports and semi-annual expenditure reports are required. Periodic monitoring is conducted by the federal project office when progress reports are reviewed. Semi-annual expenditure reports are required. Quarterly narrative progress reports are required. Semi-annual reports of expenditures are required. Periodic monitoring is conducted by the Federal Project Officer when progress reports are reviewed.

AUDITS:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, ‘Universal Audit Requirements’, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. All fiscal transactions identifiable to Federal financial assistance are subject to audit by the HHS agency, and other Federal officials.

RECORDS:
Proper accounting records, identifiable by grant and including all receipts and expenditures, must be maintained for 3 years in accordance with 45 CFR Part 75. Subsequent to an audit they must be maintained until all questions are resolved, or at the end of the regular 3-year period, whichever is later.

93.602 ASSETS FOR INDEPENDENCE DEMONSTRATION PROGRAM

AFI Program

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services.

AUTHORIZATION:

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of the Assets for Independence (AFI) program is to demonstrate and evaluate the effectiveness of asset-building projects that assist low-income people in becoming economically self-sufficient by teaching them about economic and consumer issues and enabling them to establish matched savings accounts called individual development accounts (IDAs). The program is demonstrating and evaluating the effects of AFI projects and IDAs in terms of increasing the economic self-sufficiency of low-income families; promoting savings for home ownership, post-secondary education, and small business or micro-enterprise development; and stabilizing families and communities.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
PROJECTGRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
The AFI Act imposes the following limitations on uses of AFI grant funds:

- Entities that receive AFI grants must reserve at least 85% of the Federal AFI grant amount for matching participants' IDA savings. The grantee entities may use no more than 15% of the Federal AFI grant amount for all other costs such as administering the project, reporting, and recruiting and enrolling participants; training participants in such areas as financial education, economic literacy, budgeting, and credit; providing supports that assist participants to achieve economic self-sufficiency; and providing information to organizations evaluating the AFI demonstration.

Applicant Eligibility:
This program supports innovative projects administered by national, State-wide, regional and community-based organizations. Eligible applicants are: (1) Private nonprofit organizations that are tax exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; (2) State or local governments or agencies or Tribal governments submitting applications jointly with; (3) credit unions designated as low-income credit unions by the National Credit Union Administration; or an organization designated as a Community Development Financial Institution by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
The Assets for Independence Act limits eligibility for participation in AFI-funded projects to individuals and families with the following characteristics: 1) Individuals who are members of households that are eligible to receive support under the Federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families program; 2) Individuals whose adjusted gross household income is less than twice the Federal poverty line; taking into consideration the number of household members, and whose household net worth as of the end of the prior calendar year was less than $10,000; and 3) Individuals whose adjusted gross household income enables them to qualify for the Federal Earned Income Tax Credit, taking into consideration the number of household members, and whose household net worth as of the end of the prior calendar year was less than $10,000. When determining the net worth of the household, a household's assets shall not be considered to include the primary dwelling unit and one motor vehicle owned by a member of the household.

Credentials/Documentation:
Low Income Credit Unions must submit official documentation that the National Credit Union Administration has designated the organization as such. Community Development Financial Institutions must submit documentation that the Department of the Treasury has designated the organization as such. Private nonprofit organizations that are tax exempt under Section 510(3) of the Internal Revenue Code must provide documentation of nonprofit status. Applications submitted by credit unions and community development financial institutions must demonstrate a strong collaborative relationship with one or more community-based organization(s) that seek to address poverty and the economic needs of community residents. Title 45 CFR Part 75 applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Awards are granted on a competitive basis. Announcements concerning the availability of funds, requests for applications, along with application form and assurance documents are on the grants.gov website. Applications to the Office of Community Services for grants under the announcement should submit thorough the grants.gov website. Applicants are urged to inform and coordinate application submissions with State and local governments where such information and coordination is appropriate or necessary for the success of the program. All applications for assistance under this program must contain: (1) SF-424, Application for Federal Assistance; (2) SF-424A, Budget Information; (3) SF-424B, Assurances, Non-Construction Programs; (4) Certificate Regarding Drug Free Workplace Requirements; (5) Certification regarding environmental tobacco smoke; (6) Certification Regarding Debarment, Suspension, and Other Responsibility Matters; and (7) Certification Regarding Lobbying. These must be accompanied by a detailed budget, and a program narrative submitted in accordance with the format detailed in the Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA).

Award Procedure:

93.603 ADOPTION AND LEGAL GUARDIANSHIP INCENTIVE PAYMENTS
Adoption and Legal Guardianship Incentive Payments.

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Social Security Act, Title IV, Part E, Section 473A; as amended.

OBJECTIVES:
To provide incentives to States and eligible Tribes to increase annually the number of children in foster care who find permanent homes through adoption or legal guardianship.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
FORMULA GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
State and tribal agencies receiving incentive payments must spend the funds for services (including post-adoption services) and activities allowable under title IV-B and IV-E of the Social Security Act (the Act). Incentive funds may not be used as non-Federal (i.e., state, local or tribal) matching funds for Federal financial participation. Payments must be used to supplement and not supplant Federal or non-Federal funds for services under title IV-B or IV-E of the Act (see section 473A(f) of the Act). Amounts expended by a state or tribe in accordance with the preceding sentence shall be disregarded in determining state or tribal expenditures for purposes of Federal matching payments under Sections 424, 434, and 474 of the Social Security Act.

Applicant Eligibility:

Program Descriptions 2.592 October 2017
Applications are not required. States (including the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam and American Samoa) and tribes that have an approved title IV-E plan and that submit data to the Adoption and Foster Care Analysis and Reporting System (AFCARS) are eligible to receive payments. The Children's Bureau (CB) shall determine an agency's eligibility for funding based on foster care, adoption and guardianship data reported to AFCARS. AFCARS data must be reported and accepted by CB no later than May 15 of the fiscal year subsequent to the fiscal year in which the adoptions or guardianships were finalized (i.e., the "earning year").

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Beneficiaries are those children and families eligible under Title IV-B and Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, as amended.

Credentials/Documentation:
The Children's Bureau (CB) shall determine the number of foster child adoptions, foster child guardianships, pre-adolescent (age 9 - 13) adoptions and guardianships, and older child (age 14 and over) adoptions and guardianships eligible to earn incentive payments, based on data reported by each agency to the Adoption and Foster Care Analysis and Reporting System (AFCARS) data and accepted by CB no later than May 15 of the fiscal year subsequent to the fiscal year in which the adoptions were finalized (i.e., the "earning year"). In addition, if funds remain after making other awards, incentive payments will be made to agencies in which the average number of months from removal of children from their home to finalized adoption is less than 24 months. 2 CFR 200. Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. States, tribes and territories meeting eligibility requirements are automatic applicants.

Award Procedure:
Incentive payments will be issued annually, in the fiscal year subsequent to the earning year. Payment will be based on AFCARS data submitted no later than May 15 of the fiscal year following the earning year. AFCARS data must be accepted and approved by the Children's Bureau.

Deadlines:
May 15, 2017 AFCARS data submissions must be received no later than May 15, for subsequent fiscal years in order to be considered for incentive payments.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Adoption and Legal Guardianship Incentive awards are generally made in August or September each year.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Each "earning year" will be considered on its own merit.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory Formula: The adoption and legal guardianship incentive payment payable to an agency for a fiscal year shall be equal to the sum of (a) $5,000, multiplied by the number of foster child adoptions that exceed the product of a base rate of foster child adoptions and the number of children in foster care under the supervision of the title IV-E agency on the last day of the preceding fiscal year; (b) $4,000 multiplied by the number of foster child guardianships that exceed the product of a base rate of foster child guardianships and the number of children in foster care under the supervision of the title IV-E agency on the last day of the preceding fiscal year; (c) $7,500 multiplied by the number of pre-adolescent (ages 9 - 13) adoptions and pre-adolescent foster child guardianships that exceed the product of a base rate of pre-adolescent child adoptions and pre-adolescent foster guardianships and the number of pre-adolescent children (ages 9 - 13) in foster care under the supervision of the title IV-E agency on the last day of the preceding fiscal year; and (d) $10,000 multiplied by the number of older child (age 14 and older) adoptions and older foster child guardianships that exceeds the product of a base rate of older child adoptions and older foster child guardianships and the number of older children (ages 14 and older) in foster care under the supervision of the title IV-E agency on the last day of the preceding fiscal year. In the event that the total amount of incentive payments earned by title IV-E agencies exceeds the amount of funds appropriated for this purpose, payments to title IV-E agencies will be prorated accordingly.

If the total amount of incentives payable under the above categories are less than the amount of funding appropriated for a fiscal year, then the balance remaining will be used to make awards to agencies in which the average number of months from removal of children from their home to finalized adoption is less than 24 months. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Payments to a title IV-E agency in a fiscal year shall remain available for use by the title IV-E agency for 36 months. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:
Agencies must identify in the Child and Family Services Plan (CFSP) or Annual Progress and Services Report (APSR) as applicable (due June 30 of each year), the services they have provided to children and families as a result of the expenditure of adoption and legal guardianship incentive payments. Should more than one fiscal year's incentive funds be expended during a given reporting period, the report should reflect the services provided and identify the fiscal year's funds expended. Actual expenditures of incentive funds must be reported annually on SF-425, Financial Status Report. No progress reports are required. Standard form (SF) 425, Financial Status Report (FSR), must be completed and submitted utilizing the HHS Payment Management System (PMS). Performance monitoring is not applicable.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend Federal awards of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.903.

93.604 ASSISTANCE FOR TORTURE VICTIMS

Services for Survivors of Torture

Federal Agency: Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

Objectives: The Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) provides funding and technical support to domestic survivors of torture programs. The Services for Survivors of Torture (SOT) program assists persons who have suffered torture in a foreign country to regain their health and independence and build productive lives in the U.S.

Types of Assistance: Direct Payments for Specified Use; Project Grants

Uses and Use Restrictions: The Torture Victims Relief Act (TVRA) of 1998 restricts funding for domestic programs to direct services, research and training. The authorizing legislation uses the definition of torture given in 18 U.S.C. 2340(1). Service providers are restricted to serving individuals who meet the eligibility criteria based on this definition.

Applicant Eligibility: Eligible applicants are public or private non-profit agencies.

Beneficiary Eligibility: Individuals and families, regardless of immigration status, who have suffered torture in a foreign country and are currently residing in the U.S.

Credentials/Documentation: No Credentials or documentation are required. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination: Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures: This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Eligible applicants submit an application to the Administration for Children and Families in accordance with the requirements described in the notice of funding availability.

Award Procedure: Applications are reviewed by a panel of independent experts in accordance with the evaluation criteria included in the notice of funding availability. Funding decisions are made by the Director of ORR based on the review.

Deadlines: Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time: From 90 to 120 days.

Appeals: Not Applicable.

Renewals: Not Applicable.

Formula and Matching Requirements: This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance: Grants are awarded for a three-year project period with one-year budget periods. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

93.606 Affordable Care Act - Preparedness and Emergency Response Learning Centers (PERLC)

Federal Agency:
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services

Authorization:
Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, Title IV, Section 4002, Public Law 111-148; Public Health Service Act, Section 319F(d), 42 U.S.C 247d-6(d)

Objectives:
The purpose of this program is to address legislative requirements, as stated in section 319F(d) of the Public Health Service (PHS) Act (42 USC 247d-6(d)), of the federal funds and preparedness response capacities for emergencies, whether deliberate, accidental, or natural. Accredited schools of public health will collaborate, develop, and deliver a competency-based, evidence-based training and education program that respond to the public health preparedness and response needs of state, local, and tribal public health authorities, and emphasize essential public health security. The intent of this program is to meet the preparedness and response training and educational needs of the U.S. public health workforce by providing assistance to U.S. states, localities, and tribal public health authorities within defined service areas.

Types of Assistance:
Cooperative Agreements

Uses and Use Restrictions:
Funds may be used to support public health approaches to public health preparedness and response described in Section 0.50 above. The use of and use restrictions are as follows:

* Recipients may only expend funds for reasonable public health preparedness and response activities, and program purposes, including personnel, travel, supplies, and services, such as contractual arrangements with educational partners or consultants.
* Recipients may not use funds for research.
* Recipients may not use funds for clinical care.
* Recipients may not generally use funding for construction or the purchase of furniture or equipment. Any such proposed spending must be identified in the budget.
* Reimbursement of pre-award costs is not allowed.
* The recipient must perform a substantial role in carrying out project objectives and not merely serve as a conduit for an award to another party or provider who is ineligible.

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligible applicants for this project are accredited Schools of Public Health, as required by section 319F-2(d) of the Public Health Service Act. Only schools accredited by the Council on Education for Public Health are eligible.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
The general public, federal state, local, and tribal public health preparedness programs that protect the public from all-hazards will benefit from the objectives of this program.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants must provide documentation of current accreditation by the Council on Education for Public Health to confirm eligibility. Applicants must sign and date the proposal that would address stated objectives of the program, outline the research methods to be followed, and provide a budget justification for funds. OMB Circular A-21 applies to this program. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E – Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Information on the submission of applications was obtained from the Grants Management Officer, Grants Management Branch, Procurement and Grants Office, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Telephone: (770) 488-2700. The standard application forms were used for this program as furnished by the Public Health Service and requirement by OMB Circular No. A-21 for educational institutions.

Award Procedures:
All applications that are complete and responsive to the FOA will undergo an objective review process in accordance with the review criteria stated in the FOA. Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Award (NOA) from the CDC Procurement and Grants Office. The NOA shall be the only binding, authorizing document between the recipient and CDC. The NOA will be signed by an authorized Grants Management Officer. Unsuccessful applicants will receive notification of the results of the application review by mail.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 120 to 180 days.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Renewals will be based upon the availability of funding and satisfactory programmatic progress. Project period is for 5 years with 12 month budget periods. Applications must be obtained from Grants Management Officer, Grants Management Branch, Procurement and Grants Office, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Telephone: (770) 488-2700.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Project period is for 5 years with 12-month budget periods. See the following information on how assistance is awarded/released: Notice of Award. Method of awarding/releasing assistance: lump sum.

Reports:
Final financial status and performance reports are required 90 days after the end of a project period. No cash reports are required. Annual and semiannual reports are not required.

THE AFFORDABLE CARE ACT MEDICAID ADULT QUALITY GRANTS

Measuring and Improving the Quality of Maternity Care in Medicaid

FEDERAL AGENCY:

Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:

The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (Pub. L. 111-148) Section 2701 Adult Health Quality Measures.

OBJECTIVES:

To support State Medicaid agencies in testing, collecting, and reporting the Initial Core Set of Health Care Quality Measures for Adults Enrolled in Medicaid to CMS. Additionally, the grant funding will also support States efforts to use this/these data for improving the quality of care for adults covered by Medicaid.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Each participating State Medicaid grantee will be required to implement a grant project with the following three aims:

1. Testing and evaluating methods for collection and reporting of the Initial Core Set Measures in varying delivery care settings (e.g. managed care, fee-for-service, long term care settings such as nursing homes and intermediate care facilities). States are encouraged to demonstrate alignment with existing methods and infrastructures for collection and reporting (e.g., Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health (HITECH), Medicaid Management Information Systems (MMIS));
2. Developing staff capacity to report the data, analyze, and use the data for monitoring and improving access and the quality of care in Medicaid; and
3. Conducting at least two Medicaid quality improvement projects related to the Initial Core Set Measures. States are encouraged to consider alignment with CMS or other Federal quality improvement activities such as the National Quality Strategy, Strong Start Initiative, Partnership for Patients, Million Hearts Initiative, etc. States may not use funds as the State's share of the Medicaid program costs or as supplemental Disproportionate Share Hospital (DSH) payments.

Applicant Eligibility:

Grant applicants are limited to the 51 State Medicaid Agencies and the Medicaid Agencies in the US Territories.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

N/A.

Credentials/Documentation:

No Credentials or documentation are required. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. The standard application form SF-424 and related forms must be used for this program. Applicants are encouraged to submit a non-binding Letter of Intent to Apply. Letters of Intent to Apply are not required and a states submission or failure to submit a letter has no bearing on the scoring of proposals received. Applicants should review the application and submission information in the funding opportunity announcement for specific instructions on applying for this grant program.

Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
OBJECTIVES:

From 60 to 90 days.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Grantee can receive a second year of funding based on first year performance and progress towards meeting the grant project goals outlined in the application as well as in the terms and conditions.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Grants agreements are funded on a 12-month basis, with support for the second year (final year) contingent upon acceptable evidence of satisfactory progress, continuing program relevance, and availability of funds. The maximum time period for funding is 24 months. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/release: Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Award. Unsuccessful applicants will be notified by letter. Applicants should review the award administration information of the funding opportunity announcement issued under this CFDA program for more information.

Reports:
Reports due are: two Semi-annual progress reports; one Annual progress report; performance measurement data submitted to CMS on least 15 Initial Core Measures; and one Final report addressing the entire two year grant. Applicants should review the individual funding opportunity announcement for information on programmatic and evaluation reporting requirements. Submit a quarterly electronic Federal Financial Report (FFR) via the Payment Management System. The quarterly report identifies cash transactions against the authorized funds for the grant. The FFR Cash Transaction Reports must be filed within 30 days of the end of each quarter. Failure to submit the report may result in the inability to access grant funds. Go to - www.dpm.psc.gov for additional information. The final FFR, including both cash transactions and expenditures, must be submitted and received within 90 days of the end of the project period. Applicants should review the individual funding opportunity announcement for information on programmatic reporting requirements. Grantees must include expenditures on the annual FFR (submitted at the end of the budget period). The final FFR must be submitted within 90 days after the end of the project period end date and include both cash transactions and expenditures data. No performance monitoring is required.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:
Recipients are required to maintain grant accounting records 3 years after the date the grant is officially closed. If any litigation, claim, negotiation, audit or other action involving the award has been started before the expiration of the 3-year period, the records shall be retained until completion of the action and resolution of all issues which arise from it, or until the end of the regular 3-year period, whichever is later.

93.610 HEALTH CARE INNOVATION AWARDS (HCIA)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Section 1115A of the Social Security Act (added by Section 3021 of the Affordable Care Act).

OBJECTIVES:
The first round of the Health Innovation Awards (HCIA), announced on November 14, 2011, was a broad solicitation in which CMS welcomed a wide variety of proposals. In HCIA Round One, CMS funded 107 Awarders who proposed compelling new models of service delivery/ payment improvements that showed substantial promise of delivering the Three-Part Aim of better health, better health care, and lower costs through improved quality for Medicare, Medicaid, and Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP) beneficiaries. Successful models included plans to rapidly develop and/or deploy the requisite workforce to support the proposed model. Awards recognized interventions that showed capability to improve care within the first 6 months of the award, while creating a sustainable pathway to net Medicare/Medicare/CHIP savings within two to three years. These models of service delivery and payment improvement are now entering Year Two of the three-year period of performance for Round One of the HCIA.

A second round of the Health Care Innovation Awards (HCIA) was announced on May 15, 2013. In HCIA Round Two, the Center for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) will fund applicant who propose new service delivery models and design corresponding new payment models that show promise of providing better health, better health care, and lower costs through improved quality for Medicare, Medicaid, and Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP) enrollees.

In Round Two, CMS is specifically seeking new payment and service delivery models in four broad Innovation Categories, as follows: Models that are designed to rapidly reduce Medicare, Medicaid, and/or CHIP costs in outpatient and/or post-acute settings. Priority areas are diagnostic services, outpatient radiology, high-cost physician-administered drugs, home-based services, therapeutic services, and post-acute services. While preference will be given to submissions within these priority areas, CMS will consider submissions in other outpatient and/or post-acute areas within this Category. Models that improve care for populations with specialized needs. Priority areas are high-cost pediatric populations, children in foster care, children at high risk for dental disease, adolescents in crisis, persons with Alzheimer’s disease, persons living with HIV/AIDS (in particular, efforts to link and retain patients in care and improve medication adherence that lead to viral suppression), persons requiring long-term support and services, and persons with serious behavioral health needs. While preference will be given to submissions within these areas, CMS will consider submissions that improve care for other populations with specialized needs.

Models that test approaches for specific types of providers to transform their financial and clinical models. Priority areas are models designed for physician specialties and subspecialties (for example, oncology and cardiology), and for pediatric providers who provide services to children with complex medical issues (including but not limited to care for children with multiple medical conditions, behavioral health issues, congenital disease, chronic respiratory disease, and complex social issues); and that include, as appropriate, shared decision-making mechanisms to engage beneficiaries and their families and/or caregivers in treatment choices. While preference will be given to submissions within these areas, CMS will consider submissions in other areas within this Category and from other specific types of non-physician providers.

Models that improve the health of populations defined geographically (health of a community), clinically (health of those with specific diseases), or by socioeconomic class through activities focused on engaging beneficiaries, prevention (for example, a diabetes prevention program or a hypertension prevention program), wellness, and comprehensive care that extend beyond the clinical service delivery setting. These models may include community-based organizations or coalitions and may leverage community health improvement efforts. These models must have a direct link to improving the quality and reducing the costs of care for Medicare, Medicaid, and/or CHIP beneficiaries.

Priority areas are: models that lead to better prevention and control of cardiovascular disease, hypertension, diabetes, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, asthma, and HIV/AIDS; models that promote behaviors that reduce risk for chronic disease, including increased physical activity and improved nutrition; models that promote medication adherence and self-management skills; models that prevent falls among older adults; and broader models that link clinical care with community-based interventions. While preference will be given to submissions within these areas, CMS will consider submissions in other areas within this Category.

These categories were identified as gaps in the current Innovation Center portfolio and as areas that could result in potentially usable models for changes in Medicare, Medicaid, and CHIP payment methods. This round of Innovation Awards encourages a strong focus on Medicaid and CHIP populations. In addition, models that primarily focus on acute hospital inpatient care are excluded from this round and will not be reviewed. (Hospitals are eligible to apply for awards if they propose a model within one of the four Innovation Categories described below.)

In Round Two in contrast to the first round CMS specifically seeks new payment models to support the service delivery models funded by this initiative. Awarded are required to implement the service delivery models at the start of the three-year cooperative agreement period and submit a fully developed new Medicare, Medicaid, or CHIP payment model by the end of the cooperative agreement period. Successful applicants will demonstrate that they can implement a model that improves quality of care and reduces cost within the first six months of the award and delivers net savings to CMS within three years. At its discretion and consistent with the requirements of Section 1115A of the Social Security Act, CMS may further develop one or more of these payment and service delivery models and open them to participation through a subsequent solicitation.

Do not rely on this Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance announcement for complete and precise answers about the Health Care Innovation Awards. The final authority on all matters, including but not limited to application procedures, format of proposals, deadlines, criteria, eligibility, model test requirements, and the nature of the Funding Opportunity, is the appropriate Funding Opportunity Announcement itself, either for Round One or Round Two of the Health Care Innovation Awards.

For specific details about Round Two of the initiative, see the Funding Opportunity Announcement at https://www.grantsolutions.gov/gs/preaward/previewPublicAnnouncement.do?id=17996

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

The funds shall be used to implement models that support system transformation toward higher quality care at lower costs, and to plan and develop complementary payment models. Award dollars may be used for specific components, devices, equipment, software, analytical tools, or personnel provided that are integrated into the service delivery and payment model. Award dollars cannot be used to make permanent improvements to property not owned by the federal government; minor alterations and renovations are permissible under certain circumstances that will be described in the Financial Plan template (to be provided on or about June 14, 2013 on the Innovation Center website at http://innovation.cms.gov). CMS will not fund proposals that duplicate models that CMS is currently testing in other initiatives (see Section I-A) or other proposals being investigated elsewhere in HHS. CMS will not fund the provision of services to non-CMS beneficiaries. CMS will not fund applications that cannot monitor, self-evaluate, and report on the progress and impact of their model in a timely manner. In Round Two, CMS will not fund models that focus primarily on acute hospital inpatient care.

All equipment, staff, other budgeted resources, and expenses must be used exclusively for the project identified in the awardees original cooperative agreement application or agreed upon subsequently with HHS, and may not be used for any prohibited uses.

Award dollars cannot be used:

For specific components, devices, equipment, software, or personnel that are not integrated into the entire service delivery and payment model proposal.

To match any other Federal funds.

To provide services, equipment, or supports that are the legal responsibility of another party under Federal or State law (e.g., vocational rehabilitation or education services) or under any civil rights laws. Such legal responsibilities include, but are not limited to, modifications of a workplace or other reasonable accommodations that are a specific obligation of the employer or other party.

To supplant existing State, local, or private funding of infrastructure or services, such as staff salaries, etc.

To be used by local entities to satisfy state matching requirements.

To pay for the use of specific components, devices, equipment, or personnel that are not integrated into the entire service delivery and payment model proposal. Award dollars cannot be used for specific components, devices, equipment, or personnel that are not integrated into the entire service delivery and payment model proposal. CMS will not fund proposals that replicate models that CMS is currently testing in other initiatives. Finally, given the breadth of models that could be submitted, CMS will not fund proposals that cannot monitor, evaluate, and report on the progress and impact of their program in a timely manner.

Funding Restrictions: Indirect Costs

Indirect costs will be capped at 20% of the applicants Federally negotiated indirect cost rate or the applicants provisional rate, whichever of these is lowest. Applicants may elect to waive their Federally negotiated indirect cost rate. If requesting indirect costs, a Federally negotiated Indirect Cost Rate Agreement will be required.

Funding Restrictions: Direct Services

Cooperative Agreement funds may not be used to provide individuals with services that are already funded through Medicare, Medicaid and/or CHIP. In compliance with the OMB Circulars, which define allowable cost, funding from the Innovation Center may not supplant funding for services that are currently authorized through the Medicaid State Plan. This also applies to funding provided through waivers or other grants, including federal grants. Travel or participation in conferences may require CMS approval.

Funding Restrictions: Reimbursement of Pre-Award Costs

No cooperative agreement funds awarded under this solicitation may be used...
Territories or possessions, academic institutions, research organizations, public-private partnerships, and for-profit organizations. By state, we refer to the definition provided under 45 CFR 74.2 as "any of the several States of the U.S., the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, (or) any territory or possession of the U.S." By territory or possession, we mean Guam, the U.S. Virgin Islands, American Samoa, and the Commonwealth of the Northern Marianas Islands. In addition, certain organizations may apply as conveners that assemble and coordinate the efforts of a group of participants.

Unsuccessful applicants from prior CMS funding competitions are eligible to apply. Technology-based models need to reflect the actual use, not the development, of a product in a broader service delivery or payment model. For specific details on eligibility, see the Funding Opportunity Announcement at https://www.grantsolutions.gov/gs/preaward/previewPublicAnnouncement.do?id=17996.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

The Health Care Innovation Awards initiative will fund applicants who propose the most compelling new service delivery and payment models that will drive system transformation and deliver better outcomes for Medicare, Medicaid, and CHIP beneficiaries. Proposals should be focused on innovative approaches to improving health and lowering costs for high-risk/high opportunity populations, including Medicare, Medicaid, and CHIP beneficiaries. In Round Two, proposals should focus, in particular, on beneficiary care and payment in the four Innovation Categories described under the heading, Objectives (50), above.

Round Two of the Innovation Awards encourages a strong focus on Medicaid and CHIP populations. However, CMS recognizes that in order for providers to have meaningful incentives to change their service delivery models they must engage multiple payers. Therefore, applications must include a feasible approach for securing participation of multiple payers for their proposed models. This could include demonstrable commitments from current payer partners, current contracts, letters of support or commitment from private insurers, state governments, or local governments. Preference will be given to applications that include participation by non-CMS payers at the outset of the models implementation. Funding from CMS can only be used to provide care for beneficiaries of Medicare, Medicaid, and CHIP. For specific details, see the Funding Opportunity Announcement at https://www.grantsolutions.gov/gs/preaward/previewPublicAnnouncement.do?id=17996.

Credentials/Documentation:

Applicants should review the solicitation criteria to determine the required documentation. OMB Circular No. A-87 applies to this program. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. For HCIA Round Two, Letters of Intent to Apply must be received by 3:00 pm Eastern Daylight Time on June 28, 2013. Failure to submit a Letter of Intent to Apply will disqualify the application from that organization from being reviewed. The information specified for the Letter of Intent to Apply must be provided through an online form. In addition to required Standard Forms, as described in the Funding Opportunity Announcement, applications for HCIA Round Two should include a Cover Letter (to be enclosed with the project narrative), a Project Abstract, and a Project Narrative that includes the following sections: Model Design, Organizational Capacity, Return on Investment, which should include a Financial Plan signed by the chief financial officer of the applicant organization, a Model Sustainability Plan, and if $10 million or more is requested an Actuarial Review. Applicants requesting less than $10 million are encouraged but not required to submit an external actuarial review.

Monitoring, Reporting, and Evaluation. Funding and Sustainability, including a Budget Narrative that gives a yearly breakdown of costs for the 3-year model period.
Supplementary Materials, including an Operational Plan, an Executive Overview, and documentation related to financial projections, profiles of participating organizations, relevant letters of endorsement, etc.

For more detail about application requirements, including required registrations and the format, size, structure, and content of the application package, consult the Funding Opportunity Announcement, available online at: https://www.grantsolutions.gov/gs/preaward/previewPublicAnnouncement.do?i

Award Procedure:
There are a number of differences between the criteria and review processes for Round One and Round Two of the HCIA. In Round One, the Innovation Center made 107 awards ranging from approximately $1 million to $26.5 million for a three-year period. Cooperative agreements were awarded with consideration to: (1) available funding; (2) geographic diversity; and (3) the quality of each application and the ability to meet the goals of the project. In the first round, less than 5% of applications were funded. Profiles of Awarders are available on the CMS website at http://innovation.cms.gov/
The CMS Innovation Center announced cooperative agreements for Round One of HCIA in two batches, with the first batch of awardees for Round One of HCIA announced on May 8, 2012 and the second (final) batch for Round One announced on June 15, 2012. Applications in Round One were scored with a total of 100 points available. The following criteria were used to evaluate Round One applications received in response to this solicitation.

Round One Criteria
Design of Project (30 points)
Organizational Capacity and Management Plan (25 points)
Workforce Goals (15 points)
Budget, Budget Narrative, Financial Plan and Sustainability (20 points)
Evaluation and Reporting (10 points)

In Round Two, applications will be scored with a total of 100 points available. The following criteria will be used to evaluate applications received in response to this solicitation.

Round Two Criteria
Design of Proposed Model (25 points)
Organizational Capacity and Management Plan (25 points)
Return on Investment (20 points)
Budget, Budget Narrative, and Model Sustainability (20 points)
Monitoring and Reporting (10 points)

For specific details about criteria for evaluation being used for Round Two of the initiative, see the Funding Opportunity Announcement at https://www.grantsolutions.gov/gs/preaward/previewPublicAnnouncement.do?i

Review Process:
A team consisting of HHS staff from outside CMMI and other outside experts will review all eligible applications. The review process will include the following steps:

Prior to submission of the application to the review panel, a preliminary eligibility screen will be conducted by CMS staff or CMS contractors to ensure that the technical requirements of the application are met.

Applications will be screened again to determine eligibility for further review using criteria detailed in this solicitation and in applicable law, including 2 CFR Parts 180 and 376.

The review panel will assess each application to determine the merits of the proposal and the extent to which the proposed model furthers the purposes of Health Care Innovation Awards Round Two. Reviewers will award points in each area to determine scores. CMS reserves the right to request that applicants revise or otherwise modify their proposals and budget based on the recommendations of the panel.

Concurrently, the CMS Office of the Actuary will assist the GMO in review of the reasonableness of the estimated cost to the government, and will review the potential for federal savings. This review will be one of the criteria for the CMS Approving Official to consider during the application review process.

The CMS Approving Official may utilize information provided by the CMS Actuary's assessment of applicants potential for savings in determining award recipients.

The results of the objective review of the applications by qualified experts will be used to advise the CMS Approving Official. Final award decisions will be made by the CMS Approving Official, guided by recommendations of the review panel and by programmatic concerns.

CMS intends to fund models in communities with a wide variety of geographic and socio-economic characteristics, including underserved urban and rural areas. CMS reserves the right to approve or deny any or all proposals for funding. Note that section 1115A of the Social Security Act states that there is no administrative or judicial review under sections 1869 or 1878 of the Act for the selection of organizations, sites, or participants to test models under section 1115A of the Act.

Interviews may be conducted with applicants prior to selection in order to clarify Application and Submission Information as needed. CMS reserves the right to request that applicants revise or otherwise modify their proposals and budget based on the recommendations of the panel and the review of the CMS Approving Official. Successful applicants will receive one cooperative agreement award issued under this announcement. Unsuccessful applicants may request reviewers comments.

For specific details about the Review Process for Round Two of the initiative, see the Funding Opportunity Announcement at https://www.grantsolutions.gov/gs/preaward/previewPublicAnnouncement.do?i

The Announcement and Award dates for Round Two are:
Anticipated Award Notice Announcement: Phase 1 January 15, 2014; Phase 2 January 31, 2014
Anticipated Notice of Cooperative Agreement Award: Phase 1 and Phase 2 February 28, 2014

Award Notices for Round Two of the HCIA: The Authorized Official of successful applicants will receive an electronic Notice of Award (NoA) signed and dated by the CMS Grants Management Officer that will set forth the amount of the award and other pertinent information. The award will also include standard Terms and Conditions, and may also include additional specific cooperative agreement terms and conditions. Potential applicants should be aware that special requirements could apply to cooperative agreement awards based on the particular circumstances of the effort to be supported and/or deficiencies identified in the application by the review panel. The NoA is the legal document issued to notify the awardee that an award has been made and that funds may be requested from the HHS payment system. Any communication between CMS and awardees prior to issuance of the NoA is not an authorization to begin performance of a model.

Unsuccessful applicants will be notified by letter, sent through the U.S. Postal Service to the applicant organization as listed on its SF 424, within 30 days of announcement of Notice of Award.

The award procedures for Round Two are revised versions of those stipulated for Round One. For more details, see the Funding Opportunity Announcement at https://www.grantsolutions.gov/gs/preaward/previewPublicAnnouncement.do?i

Deadlines:
Jun 28, 2013 to Aug 15, 2013 The deadlines for Round One were: Required Letter of Intent was due: December 19, 2011. Proposals for Round One were due: January 27, 2012.
The deadlines for Round Two were: Required Letter of Intent Due Date: June 28, 2013, by 3:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time Application Due Date: August 15, 2013, by 3:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
For Round One:

The CMS Innovation Center announced cooperative agreements for Round One of HCIA in two batches, with the first batch of awardees for Round One of HCIA announced on May 8, 2012 and the second (final) batch for Round One announced on June 15, 2012.

For Round Two:

Anticipated Notice of Cooperative Agreement Award: Phase 1 and Phase 2
February 28, 2014.

Appeals:

CMS reserves the right to approve or deny any or all proposals for funding. Note that section 3021 of the Affordable Care Act establishes title XI, section 1115A of the Social Security Act, which creates the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Innovations (CMMI). Section 1115A(d)(2) states that there is no administrative or judicial review of the selection of organizations, sites, or participants to test models.

Renewals:

Not Applicable.

Formula and Matching Requirements:

This program has no statutory formula. This program has no matching requirements. N/A.

This program does not have MOE requirements. No MOE Requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:

For Round One, the anticipated period of performance for the 3-year project period is July 1, 2012 through June 30, 2015.

For Round Two, the anticipated period of performance for the 3-year model period is April 1, 2014 to March 31, 2017. The budget period is 12 months. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Awards will be made through Cooperative Agreements.

Reports:

The reporting requirements for Round Two differ in some respects from Round Ones reporting requirements. Round One applicants were expected to include in their proposals a description of their plans for collecting and producing the data and analysis of the model that would be provided to CMS and its evaluation and monitoring contractors. Careful monitoring and reporting of the effect of the model on the quality of care received as well as health care outcomes and costs are expected. Awardees agreed to cooperate with any Federal evaluation of the program and provide quarterly, semi-annual (every 6 months), annual, and final (at the end of the cooperative agreement period) reports in a form prescribed by CMS, and submitted electronically. These reports outline how cooperative agreement funds are used, describe program progress, and describe any barriers encountered and measurable outcomes. CMS provides the format for program reporting and the technical assistance necessary to complete required report forms. Awardees also agreed to respond to requests for information necessary for the evaluation of national efforts and for data on key elements of their own cooperative agreement activities.

For Round Two, the application must include a description of the applicants plan for collecting and producing the data and analysis of the model that will be provided to CMS and its evaluation and monitoring contractors. The application must include detailed information on the self-monitoring plan. Careful monitoring and reporting of the effect of the model on the quality of care received as well as health care outcomes and costs are expected. Awardees also will be required to monitor patient satisfaction with their care experience by using validated tools that measure the patient experience of care. Monitoring reports must be provided to CMS quarterly and they must include information on the use of cooperative agreement funding and an assessment of model implementation, lessons learned, patient experience, quality improvements, clinical outcomes, and estimates of cost savings. Note that awardees will also be required to cooperate fully with the monitoring and evaluation contractors in reporting data that they require for the model evaluations.

CMS plans to conduct rigorous evaluation of each of these models through a separate evaluation contract. This work will entail establishing treatment and control or comparison groups and measuring the model effects on costs and outcomes. Applicants will be expected to facilitate evaluation contractor work in these areas by providing all necessary information and access required for the evaluation. Awardees may be required to report information in standard format and measure and report outcomes in a standardized way, if requested by the evaluation contractor.

Awardees will be measured and monitored on their ability to execute their proposed operational work plan submitted as part of their application. Key components of this monitoring will include, but are not limited to:

- Meeting proposed milestones and deliverables;
- Producing timely and accurate reports with clear progress on quality and cost performance as described above; and
- Building and/or enhancing required infrastructure.

Award recipients will be required to report their actual performance on cost and quality outcomes and operational performance, and CMS will regularly monitor the results. Awardees will be required to provide, or cooperate in providing, as applicable, the necessary data elements to CMS.

In addition to this self-monitoring and self-evaluation, CMS will also collect from awardees a standard minimum set of performance indicators through CMS monitoring and evaluation contractors. CMS will contract with independent entities to assist in monitoring the models and to conduct an independent evaluation.

For specific details on monitoring, reporting, and evaluation requirements for Round Two of the HCIA, see the Funding Opportunity Announcement at https://www.grantsolutions.gov/gs/preaward/previewPublicAnnouncement.sh?di_d=17996. No cash reports are required. CMS plans to collect data elements to be part of monitoring for all of the different models, and these monitoring and surveillance elements will feed into the evaluation. All awardees will be required to cooperate in providing the necessary data elements to CMS or a CMS contractor.

Data for monitoring will include process, safety, and performance measures. It will include, but will not be limited to, data on the background characteristics of the target population and target area, data characterizing the activities of the model, and a battery of follow-up data describing relevant characteristics of the target population or target area and metrics at selected intervals after commencement of the model. This will include detailed information on model participant (i.e., beneficiaries participating in the model) characteristics and outcomes reported in a standard format. Data for monitoring will be collected from awardees and/or CMS claims data sources. The monitoring aspect of this initiative will balance the examination of the extent to which awardees demonstrate fidelity to their proposed models of care and the potential need to make mid-course corrections that improve the models of care based on feedback from the monitoring and evaluation findings. Moreover, the evaluation will assess whether there are unintended consequences as a result of the model. Each proposed model in this portfolio is expected to submit a Financial Plan and supplemental narrative and schedules that provide an explanation of how it expects to meaningfully reduce medical cost trend for their identified population. The Financial Plan requires awardees to provide the following:

Uses of Funds: Awardees should enter proposed use of funds in the Financial Plan template. These funds must match Form SF 424A. Applicants should provide yearly line-item projections on how awarded funds will be allocated. The total use of funds will sum to the requested award.

Savings:

- Data under Current Census should describe services currently provided to program participants. Applicants are requested to provide data on the number of participants in applicant programs, the current baseline Per Beneficiary Per Year (PBPY) Total Cost of Care for Participants touched by programs, and the proposed percent cost reduction the award funding will facilitate in those costs.
- Data under Proposed Expansion should describe the impact on the proposed expansion population that award funding will facilitate. Applicants are requested to provide data on the number of participants targeted, the baseline PBPY Total Cost of Care for participants in targeted expansion area, and the proposed percent cost reduction the award funding will facilitate. Applicants are required to provide supplemental narrative and supporting

93.611 STRONG START FOR MOTHERS AND NEWBORNS
FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, Public Law 111-148, Section 3021, Innovation Center Authority.

OBJECTIVES:
The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS), Center for Medicare and Medicaid Innovation (Innovation Center), is interested in testing new care and payment models that have the potential to improve perinatal outcomes for women enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP who are at high-risk for adverse pregnancy outcomes.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Cooperative agreement awards made to successful applicants will be provided to augment and coordinate with pre-existing State-provided prenatal care services and benefits to test whether more comprehensive prenatal care services, as are to be enabled in these awards, lead to better birth outcomes for high-risk women and infants, per inclusion in a rigorous evaluation study framework and program improvement initiative. States may not use funds as the State's share of the Medicaid program costs or as supplemental Disproportionate Share Hospital (DSH) payments. This funding may not be duplicative of other Federal funding opportunities for information technology capacity building such as assistance provided through Medicaid,ARRA,HITECH,ONC or other CMS initiatives. The intent of this proposal is to complement, not supplant any of these or other Federal programs. States may not use funds as the State's share of the Medicaid program costs or as supplemental Disproportionate Share Hospital (DSH) payments. This funding may not be duplicative of other Federal funding opportunities for information technology capacity building such as assistance provided through Medicaid,ARRA,HITECH,ONC or other CMS initiatives. The intent of this proposal is to complement, not supplant any of these or other Federal programs.

Applicant Eligibility:
The target applicants for this solicitation are providers (e.g., specific service providers, clinician groups and/or hospitals); States applying in partnership with providers; managed care organizations (MCOs) applying in partnership with providers; and conveners applying in partnership with providers. All applicants schedules with detailed information on the specific intervention expected to reduce cost and the estimated reduction in expenditures by funding source resulting from said intervention by service type and by funding source, including estimates for the number of affected individuals. Applicants should provide backup documentation, e.g., research studies, evidence of reduced cost from existing intervention, et cetera, as available. Applicants are encouraged to provide clear, detailed reports to facilitate objective, data-driven reviews. CMS plans to collect data elements to be part of monitoring for all of the different models, and these monitoring and surveillance elements will feed into the evaluation. All awardees will be required to cooperate in providing the necessary data elements to CMS or a CMS contractor. Data for monitoring will include process, safety and performance measures. It will include, but will not be limited to, data on the background characteristics of the target population and target area, data characterizing the activities of the program, and a battery of follow-up data describing relevant characteristics of the target population or target area and metrics at selected intervals after commencement of the program model. Data for monitoring will be collected both from awardees and or CMS claims data sources. The program monitoring aspect of this initiative will balance the examination of the extent to which awardees demonstrate fidelity to or their proposed models of care and the potential need to make mid-course corrections that improve the models of care based on feedback from the monitoring and evaluation findings. Moreover, the evaluation will assess whether there is evidence of harm or unintended consequences as a result of the intervention.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Range and Average of Financial Assistance:
In Round Two of the Health Care Innovation Awards, the Innovation Center expects to make up to $900 million in funding available to support a diverse portfolio of new and innovative payment and service delivery models that will reduce the cost of health care and improve its quality in Medicare, Medicaid, and/or CHIP. CMS intends to fund the best qualified applications within the scope of available funds. CMS estimates that there will be approximately 100 awards, with a range of approximately $1 million to $30 million per award; however CMS is not obligated to fund a minimum number of applicants, or to distribute a minimum amount of funds available for the second round of Health Care Innovation Awards. Cooperative agreements will be awarded with consideration to the criteria listed above under Award Procedure (093). Awardees might not receive the award amount requested and might be asked to adjust the service delivery model, payment model, work plan, budget, or other application deliverable. For specific details, see the Funding Opportunity Announcement at https://www.grantsolutions.gov/grants/award/previewPublicAnnouncement.do?id=17906. In Round One, the Innovation Center made 107 awards ranging from approximately $1 million to $26.5 million for a three-year period. Cooperative agreements were awarded with consideration to: (1) available funding; (2) geographic diversity; and (3) the quality of each application and the ability to meet the goals of the project. In the first round, less than 5% of applications were funded. Profiles of Awardees are available on the CMS website at http://innovation.cms.gov/

TAFS Codes:

PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS:
not directly providing prenatal care services (i.e., States, MCOs, and conveners) are expected to partner with providers of obstetrical care services and proposed enhanced prenatal care services. Included within the definition of State, for the purposes of this FOA are the District of Columbia and the 5 U.S. Territories: American Samoa, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Faith-based organizations, Community-based organizations, and Tribal organizations are also eligible to apply.

States, managed care organizations, and conveners must include letters of agreement from their provider partners who will be carrying out the intervention as described in the proposal. Partnerships with public health organizations are encouraged, as are multi-state collaborations.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Women enrolled in Medicaid and/or CHIP.

Credentials/Documentation:
Not Applicable. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

OMB Circular No. A-110 applies to this program. The standard application form SF-424 and related forms must be used for this program. Applicants should review the application and submission information in the Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) for specific instructions on applying for this cooperative agreement program.

Award Procedure:
CMS will make a decision for each application received. Each applicant will receive written notification of CMS' decision. Applicants approved for an award must submit a letter of acceptance to CMS within 30 days of the date of the award, agreeing to the terms and conditions of the award.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 60 to 90 days.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Cooperative agreements include three years of service delivery and an additional year for data reporting requirements on births of intervention infants. The awardee must annually submit a formal request for continuation accompanied by a progress report which will be evaluated prior to a recommendation of continuation. Upon notification of the award, awardees will receive initial funding for the first year or 12-months of their program, to be used for implementation of the proposed intervention. Non-competing continuation awards will be awarded for each additional year of the award, contingent upon availability of funding, award performance, and demonstrated progress toward the goal of reducing premature births.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. Matching requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Cooperative agreements are generally funded on a 12-month basis, with support beyond the first year contingent upon acceptable evidence of satisfactory progress, continuing program relevance, and availability of funds. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Award. Unsuccessful applicants will be notified by letter. Applicants should review the award administration information in the funding opportunity announcement issued under this CFDA program for more information. 93.612 NATIVE AMERICAN PROGRAMS

Social and Economic Development Strategies (SEDS)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Native American Programs Act of 1974 (NAPA), as amended, Title VIII, Section 803(a), Public Law 102-375, 42 U.S.C 2991b and b-3.

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of the Social and Economic Development Strategies (SEDS) program is to promote economic and social self-sufficiency for American Indians, Alaska Natives, Native Hawaiians, and Native American Pacific Islanders from American Samoa, Guam, and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands. The SEDS program supports the principle that social and economic development are interrelated and essential for the development of thriving Native communities. The Administration for Native Americans (ANA) is interested in supporting community-driven projects designed to grow local economies, increase the capacity of tribal governments, strengthen families, preserve Native cultures, and increase self-sufficiency and community well-being. ANA may use the SEDS program for special initiatives to meet emerging needs in Native communities. ANA funding is meant for projects that identify direct, measurable outcomes which will be achieved within the proposed period.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Grant funding may be used for such purposes as: (1) Social Development-Projects that develop and implement culturally appropriate strategies to meet the social service needs of Native Americans, foster the well-being of Native youth, promote family preservation and responsible parenting, and reconnecting with traditional healing; (2) Economic Development-Projects that promote the creation of a sustainable local economy; (3) Governance- which is defined as increasing the ability of tribal and Alaska Native village governments to exercise local control and decision-making, and to develop and enforce laws, regulations, codes, and policies that reflect and promote the interests of community members. Costs of organized fund raising, including financial campaigns, endowment drives, solicitation of gifts and bequests, and similar expenses incurred solely to raise capital or obtain contributions, are considered unallowable costs. Funding cannot be used for the following purpose or activities: purchase of real property; costs of organized fundraising, reimbursement of pre-award costs, and activities that qualify as major renovations and alterations. Further details regarding ineligible applicants and activities can be found in the ANA regulations at 45 CFR 1334.33. In addition, activities in support of any foreseeable litigation against the United States Government are unallowable per 45 CFR Part 75.

Applicant Eligibility:
Federally-recognized Indian Tribes, as recognized by the Bureau of Indian Affairs;
Incorporated non-federally recognized Tribes;
Incorporated state-recognized Indian Tribes;
Consortia of Indian Tribes;
Incorporated nonprofit multi-purpose community-based Indian organizations;
Urban Indian Centers;
Alaska Native villages as defined in the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANSCA) and/or nonprofit village consortia;
Nonprofit native organizations in Alaska with village specific projects;
Incorporated non-profit Alaska Native multi-purpose, community-based organizations;
Non-profit Alaska Native Regional Corporations/Associations in Alaska with village-specific projects;
Non-profit Alaska Native community entities or tribal governing bodies (Indian Reorganization Act or Traditional Councils) as recognized by the Bureau of Indian Affairs;
Public and nonprofit private agencies serving Native Hawaiians;
National or regional incorporated nonprofit Native American organizations with Native American community-specific objectives;
Public and nonprofit private agencies serving native peoples from Guam, American Samoa, or the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands;
Tribal Colleges and Universities, and colleges and universities located in Hawaii, Guam, American Samoa, or the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands which serve Native American Pacific Islanders.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
American Indians, Alaska Natives, Native Hawaiians, and Native American Pacific Islanders will benefit.

Credentials/Documentation:
Non-profit organizations must submit proof of non-profit status. For applicants that are not Tribes or Native Alaska villages, organizations applying for funding must show that a majority of board members are representative of a Native American community to be served. Applicants must submit documentation that identifies each board member by name and indicates his/her affiliation or relationship to at least one of ANAs four categories of community representation, which include: (1) members of federally or state-recognized tribes; (2) persons eligible to be a participant in, or beneficiary of, the project to be funded; (3) persons who are recognized by members of the eligible Native American community to be served as having a cultural relationship with that community; or (4) persons considered to be Native American as defined in 45 CFR 1336.10 and Native American Pacific Islanders as defined in Section 815 of the Native American Programs Act. Applicants that do not include this documentation will be considered non-responsive, and the application will not be considered for competition. 45 CFR Part 75, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. 45 CFR Part 75, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. ACF requires electronic submission of applications at www.Grants.gov. Paper applications received from applicants that have not been approved for an exemption from required electronic submission will be disqualified from competitive review. Applicants that do not have an Internet connection or sufficient computing capacity to upload large documents to the Internet may contact ACF for an exemption that will allow the applicant to submit applications in paper format.

Program Descriptions 2.605 October 2017
See FOAs for detailed information. For applicants that have received a waiver, Standard Forms, assurances, and certifications are available at the ACF Funding Opportunities Forms webpage at http://www.acf.hhs.gov/grants-forms.

Award Procedure:
All funds are awarded directly to the grantees.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 120 to 180 days. Applicants will receive notice of approval/disapproval approximately 120 days after receipt of application.

Appeals:
Appeals are only available upon a finding of ineligibility for funding and are subject to ANA regulations at 45 CFR 1336.35 and HHS regulations in 45 CFR Part 75.

Renewals:
Other - Not Specified.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
This program has no statutory formula. Matching Requirements: Percent: 20%. The 20% match is required unless waived in accordance with criteria published in 45 CFR 1336.50.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Grantees may apply for non-competitive continuation support within a project period of 1 to 3 years. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Notice of Grant Award (NGA) document-Annually.

Reports:
Program reports are not applicable. Cash reports are not applicable. ANA grantees are required to report project progress semi-annually using the Objective Progress Report (OPR) (OMB No. 0970-0452, expiration date 06/30/2018) and the SF-425 on a semi-annual basis which are submitted electronically. The SF-425 is also required to be submitted annually and at the end of the project period. Grantees will be required to submit an Annual Data Report (ADR) (OMB No. 0970-0475, expiration date 03/31/2019) to report project data once a year and at the end of the project period. ANA reviews grantee semiannual and annual reports to determine whether the grantee is meeting its project goal and objectives and completing activities identified in the Objective Work Plan (OWP) as well as to evaluate project effectiveness. If progress concerns are identified, ANA may require quarterly reports. In addition, ANA is required to describe and measure the impact of funded projects, their effectiveness in achieving stated goals, their impact on related programs, and when feasible, to obtain the views of persons participating in and served by funded projects. ANA carries out this requirement through review of grantee submitted reports and through the use of structured on-site interviews using a data collection tool (OMB No. 0970-0379, expiration date 07/31/2019).

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. Audits are conducted in accordance with the requirements in 45 CFR Part 75 Subpart F.

Records:
Financial records, supporting documents and all other related records pertinent to ANA grants must be maintained for a period of 3 years. If an audit is not completed by the end of the 3-year period, or if audit findings have not been resolved, records shall be retained until resolution of the audit findings.

93.621 AFFORDABLE CARE ACT INITIATIVE TO REDUCE AVOIDABLE HOSPITALIZATIONS AMONG NURSING FACILITY RESIDENTS

Nursing Facility Initiative

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Affordable Care Act, Public Law 111-148, section 3021.

OBJECTIVES:
Under this Initiative, the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) selected eligible organizations to test a series of evidence-based clinical interventions. Eligible organizations will partner with long-term care (LTC) facilities and practitioners to implement and test a new payment model with the goal of improving the health and health care among LTC facility residents and ultimately reducing avoidable hospital admissions. The goal of these interventions is to improve the health and health care among long-stay nursing facility residents and ultimately reduce avoidable inpatient hospital admissions. Successful applicants will implement the payment model along with interventions that will have the following objectives (consistent with Phase I): Reduce the frequency of avoidable hospital admissions and readmissions; Improve resident health outcomes; Improve the process of transitioning between inpatient hospitals and nursing facilities; and Reduce overall health care spending without restricting access to care or choice of providers.
TYPES OF ASSISTANCE: Project Grants

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Under the Cooperative Agreements, CMS funded enhanced care & coordination providers to implement an intervention that meets the objectives of the Initiative. All interventions must include the following activities:

- Hire staff who shall maintain a physical presence at nursing facilities and who shall partner with nursing facility staff to implement preventive services and improve recognition, assessment, and management of conditions such as pneumonia, congestive heart failure, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease and asthma, urinary tract infections, dehydration, skin ulcers, falls, and other common causes of avoidable hospitalizations;
- Work in cooperation with existing providers, including residents primary care providers, nursing facility staff, and families to implement best practices and improve the overall quality of nursing facility care, focusing on quality improvement activities that most directly relate to avoidable hospitalizations;
- Facilitate residents transitions to and from inpatient hospitals and nursing facilities, including facilitating timely and complete exchange of health information among providers and providing support for residents and nursing facility staff to support successful discharge to the community as appropriate;
- Provide support for improved communication and coordination among hospital staff (including attending physicians), nursing facility staff, residents primary care providers and other specialists, and pharmacies; and
- Coordinate and improve management and monitoring of prescription drugs to reduce risk of polypharmacy and adverse drug events for residents, including inappropriate prescribing of psychotropic drugs.

All interventions must also:
- Demonstrate a strong evidence base;
- Demonstrate strong potential for replication and sustainability in other communities and institutions;
- Supplement (rather than replace) existing care provided by nursing facility staff;
- Coordinate closely with State Medicaid and State survey and certification agencies and State public health and health reform efforts, including other CMS demonstrations and waivers; and
- Allow for participation by nursing facility residents without any need for residents or their families to change providers or enroll in a health plan. (Residents will be able to opt-out from participating, if they choose.)

The enhanced care & coordination providers must collaborate with State Medicaid and State survey and certification agencies and participating nursing facilities, with each enhanced care & coordination provider implementing its intervention in at least 15 Medicare- and Medicaid-certified nursing facilities in the same State. In addition to implementing the interventions and executing other activities outlined in the Initiative funding opportunity announcement, enhanced care & coordination providers must also participate in ongoing learning and diffusion activities and cooperate with operations support and evaluation efforts, including adapting models based on needed mid-course corrections. The following standard requirements apply to applications and awards under the Initiative funding opportunity announcement:

Specific administrative requirements, as outlined in 2 CFR Part 225 and 45 CFR Part 92 and OMB Circulars A-87, A-102, A-110, and A-133 apply to cooperative agreement awards under this announcement.

All awardees under this project must comply with all applicable Federal statutes relating to nondiscrimination including, but not limited to:
- Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964;
- Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973; and

All equipment, staff, other budgeted resources, and expenses must be used exclusively for the project identified in the awards original cooperative agreement application or agreed upon subsequently with HHS, and may not be used for any prohibited uses.

Prohibited Uses of Cooperative Agreement Funds
To match any other Federal funds.

To provide services, equipment, or supports that are the legal responsibility of another party under Federal or State law (e.g., vocational rehabilitation or education services) or under any civil rights laws. Such legal responsibilities include, but are not limited to, modifications of a workplace or other reasonable accommodations that are a specific obligation of the employer or other party. To supplant existing State, local, or private funding of infrastructure or services, such as staff salaries, etc.

To be used by local entities to satisfy State matching requirements.

To pay for the use of specific components, devices, equipment, or personnel that are not integrated into the application.

To pay for construction or alteration and renovation of real property (A&R).

To pay for information technology (IT) equipment exceeding 10 percent of the total award. Any equipment, which includes IT, over $5,000 must be approved by CMS.

To pay States for the use of any of their data made available for this Initiative.

Applicant Eligibility:
- Organizations that provide care coordination, case management, or related services;
- Medical care providers, such as physician practices;
- Health plans (although this initiative will not be capped managed care);
- Public or not-for-profit organizations, such as Aging and Disability Resource Centers, Area Agencies on Aging, Behavioral Health Organizations, Centers for Independent Living, universities, or others;
- Integrated delivery networks, if they will extend their networks to include unaffiliated nursing facilities.

Nursing facilities, entities controlled by nursing facilities, or entities for which the primary line of business is the delivery of nursing facility/skilled nursing facility services were excluded from serving as enhanced care & coordination providers under this cooperative agreement.

Legal Status: To be eligible, an organization must have been recognized as a single legal entity by the State where it is incorporated, and must have had a unique Tax Identification Number (TIN) designated to receive payment. The organization must have had a governing body capable of entering into a cooperative agreement with CMS on behalf of its members.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
- The primary target population for the clinical interventions is fee-for-service Medicare-Medicare enrollees in nursing facilities, but fee-for-service long-stay residents who are not yet Medicare-Medicare enrollees will also benefit (i.e., Medicare beneficiaries not yet eligible for Medicare, or Medicaid beneficiaries not yet eligible for Medicare but who represent similar opportunities for inpatient reductions).

Credits/Documentation:
- Six (6) organizations, which fulfilled these requirements (below), have already been selected for this Initiative. LTC facilities must execute a participation agreement with the ECCP prior to participating in the payment model. This agreement must also attest or state the LTC facilities’ commitment to meeting and maintaining the above criteria through the end of the Initiative (we note that a facility’s ability to meet the demographic criteria of an average daily census of greater than 80 residents with greater than 40% of the total LTC facility census as long-stay Medicare enrollees in traditional FFS Medicare, may be outside of the facilities control and may fluctuate throughout the period of performance. CMS will address these fluctuations on a case by case basis).
- Executed agreements between LTC facilities and ECCPs for this phase of the Initiative may be submitted in lieu of a Letter of Intent (executed agreements preferred). For LTC facilities partnering with ECCPs for phase one of the Initiative, agreements for phase two should not supersede the existing agreements for phase one. Rather, these new agreements should supplement what has already been agreed upon. In addition to this documentation, the application is expected to address how the applicant will implement the cooperative agreement program, including how it will meet the clinical intervention requirements, and ultimately, meet the objectives of this Initiative.
- 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.
Preapplication Coordination:
This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. Not Applicable

Award Procedure:
Seven (6) organizations, which completed the review process as outlined below, have already been selected for this Initiative.

The review process included the following:
(1) An independent, objective review of applications will be conducted. The CMS review panel will assess the application based on the review criteria outlined in section V.1 above to determine the merits of the application and the extent to which it furthers the purposes of the Initiative. The review panel comments and recommendations will be condense into a summary statement that will assist CMS in making the final award decision. CMS will use the information to judge the likelihood that the project will be successfully implemented and will have tangible, beneficial outcomes.
(2) A program integrity screening of the applicant, its affiliates, or any other relevant individuals or entities to determine if prior investigations, CMS administrative actions, or claims analysis indicate these entities present a high risk for fraud and abuse under the Initiative.
(3) Applications determined to be ineligible, incomplete, and/or non-responsive based on the initial screening may be eliminated from further review. However, the CMS/OAGM/GMO, in his or her sole discretion, may continue the review process for an ineligible application if it is in the best interest of the government to meet the objectives of the program.

Deadlines:
Mar 21, 2016 to Oct 23, 2020: The period of performance is September 24, 2012 through September 23, 2016. Six (6) organizations, which fulfilled these requirements, have already been selected for this Initiative.

Potential applicants were required to submit a non-binding Notice of Intent to Apply by September 9, 2015. Eastern Standard Time in order to be eligible for a funding award. Applications were due by October 29, 2015, 5:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Cooperative agreement awards were made on September 24, 2012.

Appeals:
None.

Renewals:
Not Applicable.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program. This program has no matching requirements. MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
The project period of performance is 48-months and is expected to last from March 21, 2016 to October 23, 2020: The period of performance is September 24, 2012 through September 23, 2016. No restriction is placed on the time permitted to spend the money awarded. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: Awards were made through cooperative agreements.

Reports:
The six (6) award recipients must comply with the report requirements as outlined below:
Enhanced care & coordination providers will be funded based on their ability to execute their proposed work plan. The components of the work plan include, but are not limited to:

There will be a separate work plan for Group A and Group B. Each work plan will identify key milestones, tasks, interdependencies, and the responsible parties for each, as well as a related timeline. Each work plan should contain, at a minimum, target dates for the following:

In consultation with CMS, finalizing a list of LTC facilities to target for recruitment for Group A (this list should be large enough to form an adequate pool of prospective LTC facilities from which to screen and propose a final list of Group A LTC facilities to CMS). Confirming a primary and secondary contact at each prospective participating LTC facility.

Evaluating the targeted list of LTC facilities on all aspects of the Initiative and finalizing the list of respective practitioners at each LTC facility for both groups (can be different target dates for each group).

Completion of the recruitment of prospective LTC facilities for Group A.

Completion of screening of practitioners to confirm eligibility to participate and for final submission to CMS (for both groups).

Completion of the screening and prioritization of the list of LTC facilities to propose and submit to CMS for Group A.

For both groups, assessing LTC facilities current status as compared to the readiness review requirements (can be different target dates for each group).

This will be tracked using a Readiness Review Tracker (see Appendix D for sample template).

For both groups, completion of requirements in order to pass the readiness review.

For Group B, a plan to implement any changes to the clinical intervention necessary to address any challenges identified to date, improve performance and to better coordinate the clinical intervention with the introduction of facility and practitioner payments.

Obtaining executed agreements for participation from each partnering LTC facility.

Target dates proposed should align with the deliverables described in this FOA. However, ECCPs may choose to propose earlier dates (e.g., obtain primary and secondary contacts for LTC facilities prior to the submission of an application for this FOA). The work plan will be reviewed regularly, as frequently as bi-weekly, and updated and provided to CMS, as needed. CMS may also share it with the State Medicaid agency and State survey and certification agency.

CMS will regularly monitor operations. Award winners will be required to cooperate in providing the necessary data elements to CMS. CMS will contract with independent entities to assist in monitoring the programs and to conduct an independent evaluation. The six (6) award recipients must comply with the report requirements as outlined below:

The enhanced care & coordination provider must submit a semi-annual electronic SF-425 via the Payment Management System. The report identifies cash expenditures against the authorized funds for the cooperative agreement. Failure to submit the report may result in the inability to access funds. The seven (7)six (6) award recipients must comply with the report requirements as outlined below:

Enhanced care & coordination providers will be measured and funded based on their ability to execute their proposed work plan. The components of the work plan include, but are not limited to:

Meeting proposed milestones and deliverables as outlined in the work plan and communications plan;

Satisfying all Enhanced Care & Coordination Provider Activities, including a) submitting quarterly progress reports as scheduled and providing complete and accurate information for all required data fields in those reports and b) submitting timely, complete, and accurate semi-annual funding reports that show efficient use of cooperative agreement funds;

Participating in ongoing learning and diffusion activities, including those offered through the CMS Learning Community; and

Cooperating with operations support and evaluation efforts, including adapting models based on needed midcourse corrections.

CMS will regularly monitor operations. Award winners will be required to cooperate in providing the necessary data elements to CMS. CMS will contract with independent entities to assist in monitoring the programs and to conduct an independent evaluation. The six (6) award recipients must comply with the report requirements as outlined below:
The enhanced care & coordination provider shall detail how cooperative agreement funds were used for each six-month period. This information shall be provided to CMS using the SF 424A form and the Monthly Financial Plan template (Appendix D of the funding opportunity announcement). CMS will use this information, in addition to quarterly progress reports, to monitor operations. Within 30 calendar days of the end of each six-month period, the enhanced care & coordination provider shall provide the completed SF 424A and relevant table from the Monthly Financial Plan. The seven (6) award recipients must comply with the report requirements as outlined below:

Enhanced care & coordination providers will be measured and funded based on their ability to execute their proposed work plan. The components of the work plan include, but are not limited to:

- Satisfying all Enhanced Care & Coordination Provider Activities, including a) submitting quarterly progress reports as scheduled and providing complete and accurate information for all required data fields in those reports and b) submitting timely, complete, and accurate semi-annual funding reports that show efficient use of cooperative agreement funds;
- Participating in ongoing learning and diffusion activities, including those offered through the CMS Learning Community; and
- Cooperating with operations support and evaluation efforts, including adapting models based on needed midcourse corrections.

CMS will regularly monitor operations. Awardees will be required to cooperate in providing the necessary data elements to CMS. CMS will contract with independent entities to assist in monitoring the programs and to conduct an independent evaluation. The seven (7) award recipients must comply with the report requirements as outlined below:

The enhanced care & coordination provider must submit a semi-annual electronic SF 425 via the Payment Management System. The report identifies cash expenditures against the authorized funds for the cooperative agreement. Failure to submit the report may result in the inability to access funds. The seven (7) award recipients must comply with the report requirements as outlined below:

Enhanced care & coordination providers will be measured and funded based on their ability to execute their proposed work plan. The components of the work plan include, but are not limited to:

- Meeting proposed milestones and deliverables as outlined in the work plan and communications plan;
- Satisfying all Enhanced Care & Coordination Provider Activities, including a) submitting quarterly progress reports as scheduled and providing complete and accurate information for all required data fields in those reports and b) submitting timely, complete, and accurate semi-annual funding reports that show efficient use of cooperative agreement funds;

93.622 COORDINATING CENTER FOR INTERPROFESSIONAL EDUCATION AND COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE
CC-IPECP

COORDINATING CENTER FOR INTERPROFESSIONAL EDUCATION AND COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE
Coordinating Center for Interprofessional Education and Collaborative Practice (CC-IPECP)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Health Resources and Services Administration, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Section 747(a) and Section 831 of the Public Health Service Act.

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of the coordinating center for interprofessional education and collaborative practice (CC-IPECP) is to provide an infrastructure for leadership, expertise, and support to enhance the coordination and capacity building of IPECP among health professions across the U.S. particularly in medically underserved areas. Through innovative program coordination, scholarly activities, and analytic data collection, the coordinating center raises the visibility of high-quality, coordinated, team-based care that is informed by best practice models for interprofessional education. The CC-IPECP is a focal point in a growing national effort to foster IPECP among health professions.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Funds may be used for personnel costs, consultant costs, fringe benefits, travel, equipment, supplies, contractual, data collection activities, indirect costs and other expenses.

Restricted Uses: Indirect costs under training awards to organizations other than State, local or American Indian tribal governments will be budgeted and reimbursed at 8 percent of modified total direct costs rather than on the basis of a negotiated rate agreement, and are not subject to upward or downward adjustment. Funds under this announcement may not be used for the following purposes:
- Student support including tuition, stipends, scholarships, fees, bonuses, student salaries and travel;
- Subsidies or paid release time for project trainees/participants;
- Payment of temporary personnel replacement costs for the time trainees/participants are away from usual workload during involvement in project activities; and
- Accreditation, credentialing, licensing, continuing education, and franchise fees and expenses; preadmission costs, student books and fees; promotional items and memorabilia; food and drinks; and animals laboratories.

Applicant Eligibility:
Eligible applicants for this cooperative agreement represent a consortium or a partnership of entities such as a health professions school and a healthcare facility (e.g., between multiple health professions education programs and at least one team-based practice setting as a central partner) identified in the Public Health Service Act, Sec. 747(a) and Sec. 831. Federally Recognized Indian Tribal governments or Native American Organizations may apply if they are otherwise eligible. Please refer to the Notice of Funding Opportunity for additional information.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Please refer to the Notice of Funding Opportunity for additional information on beneficiary eligibility.

Credentials/Documentation:
Applicants should review the individual HRSA funding opportunity announcement issued under this CFDA program for any required proof or certifications which must be submitted with an application package. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:
2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. HRSA requires all applicants to apply electronically through Grants.gov.

All eligible, qualified applications will be forwarded to an objective review committee. Based on the advice of the objective review committee, the HRSA program official with delegated authority is responsible for final selection and funding decisions. Notification is made in writing by a Notice of Award.

Award Procedure:
Notification of award is made in writing (electronic) by a Notice of Award.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Approximately 120 - 180 days after receipt of applications.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Not Applicable.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program.

Matching Requirements:
Percent: 25%. Applicants must provide non-Federal matching funds of not less than twenty-five percent of the federal award to ensure an institutional commitment to the project funded under the grant. Such non-Federal funds may be provided directly by the applicant or through donations from public or private entities and may be in cash or in-kind, fairly evaluated, including plant, equipment, or services.

This program has MOE requirements, see funding agency for further details. The recipient must agree to maintain non-federal funding for grant activities at a level which is not less than expenditures for such activities during the fiscal year prior to receiving the award.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
This funding opportunity provides support for a 5-year project period. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released. Recipients drawdown funds, as necessary, from the Payment Management System (PMS), the centralized web based payment system for HHS awards.

Reports:
Both program and financial reports are required. The recipient will be required to submit annual performance and progress reports. A Federal Financial Report (SF-425) is required according to the schedule in HRSAs Application Guide. A final report is due within 90 days after the project period ends. If applicable, the recipient must submit a Tangible Personal Property Report (SF-428) and any related forms within 90 days after the project period ends. New awards (Type 1) issued under this notice of funding opportunity are subject to the reporting requirements of the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act (FFATA) of 2006 (Pub. L. 109-282), as amended by section 6202 of Public Law 110-252, and implemented by 2 CFR Part 170. Grant and cooperative agreement recipients must report information for each first-tier subaward of $25,000 or more in federal funds and executive total compensation for the recipients and subrecipients five most highly compensated executives as outlined in Appendix A to 2 CFR Part 170 (The FFATA details are available online at http://www.hrsa.gov/grants/ffata.html). Competing continuation recipients may be subject to this requirement and will be so notified in the Notice of Award. Expenditure reports are not applicable. Performance monitoring is not applicable.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that...

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:

Procedures for assessing the technical merit of grant applications have been instituted to provide for an objective review of applications and to assist the applicant in understanding the standards against which each application will be judged. Critical indicators have been developed for each review criterion to assist the applicant in presenting pertinent information related to that criterion and to provide the reviewer with a standard for evaluation. Competing applications are reviewed by non-Federal expert consultant(s) for technical merit recommendations. Applications will be reviewed and evaluated against the following criteria: (1) Purpose and Need; (2) Response to Program Purpose; (3) Impact; (4) Organizational Information, Resources and Capabilities; and (5) Support Requested. See the most recent Notice of Funding Opportunity for detailed selection criteria.

03.623 BASIC CENTER GRANT
Basic Center Program (BCP)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Reconnecting Homeless Youth Act of 2008

OBJECTIVES:
The purpose of Part A of the RHY Act (Runaway and Homeless Youth Grant Program) is to establish or strengthen locally controlled community-based programs that address the immediate needs of runaway and homeless youth and their families. Services must be delivered outside of the law enforcement, child welfare, mental health, and juvenile justice systems. The goals and objectives of the Basic Center Program are to: 1) alleviate problems of runaway and homeless youth; 2) reunite youth with their families, if deemed safe, and encourage the resolution of intra-family problems through counseling and other services; 3) strengthen family relationships and encourage stable living conditions for youth; and 4) help youth decide on constructive courses of action.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
PROJECT GRANTS

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Each Basic Center Program is required to provide outreach to runaway and homeless youth; street-based services to youth victims of trafficking; temporary shelter for up to twenty one (21) days; food; clothing; individual, group and family counseling; aftercare and referrals, as appropriate. Basic Center Programs are required to provide their services in residential settings for no more than twenty (20) youth unless a state or local law or regulation requires a higher maximum to comply with licensure requirements for facilities serving child and youth. Some programs also provide part or all of their shelter services through host homes (usually private homes under contract to the centers), with counseling and referrals being provided from a central location. Basic Center Programs offer shelter to youth who are less than 18 years of age and who are at risk of separation from their family.

Applicant Eligibility:
States, localities, private entities, and coordinated networks of such entities are eligible to apply for a Basic Center Program grant unless they are part of the law enforcement structure or the juvenile justice system. Federally recognized Indian organizations are also eligible to apply for grants as private, non-profit agencies.

Beneficiary Eligibility:
Runaway and homeless youth and their families are the beneficiaries. Services can be provided to youth up to the age of 18.

Credentials/Documentation:
Nonprofit organizations must submit proof of nonprofit status. Applicable costs and administrative procedures will be determined in accordance with Part 75 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations. This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles.

Preapplication Coordination:
Preapplication coordination is required. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is eligible for coverage under E.O. 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs." An applicant should consult the office or official designated as the single point of contact in his or her State for more information on the process the State requires to be followed in applying for assistance, if the State has selected the program for review.

Application Procedures:
This program is excluded from coverage under 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Application for Federal Assistance, Standard Form 424 must be submitted. Specific instructions are published via the Internet under the Form section at the following website address: http://www.acf.hhs.gov/grants.

Award Procedure:
All applications are reviewed by panels of nonfederal experts which assigns scores according to the published evaluation criteria. The panels’ scores are factored into the recommendations for funding. Scores and recommendations are reviewed by the Associate Commissioner of the Family and Youth Services Bureau, who makes recommendations to the ACYP Commissioner, who makes the final funding decisions.

Deadlines:
Contact the headquarters or regional office, as appropriate, for application deadlines.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
From 60 to 90 days.

Appeals:
Not Applicable.

Renewals:
Awards are generally made for 3-year project periods; funding for the second and third year is dependent upon satisfactory performance and availability of funds.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
The statutory formula: Public Law Reconnecting Homeless Youth Act. The formula contains a formula for allocation of funds by state. It is based on the population of each state under age 18 as a proportion of the current national population under age 18.

Matching Requirements: Percent: 10%. Federal share of grant is up to 90 percent. The nonfederal share may be in cash or in-kind contributions. This program does not have MOE requirements.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Grants are awarded competitively for project periods of up to 3 years. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/release: Method of awarding/release: annually.

Reports:
No program reports are required. Reports are submitted quarterly using the SF-272 Federal Cash Transaction Report through the payment management system. Funded applicants are required to submit semi-annual program narrative reports, a final program narrative at the completion of the three-year funding cycle as well as Runaway and Homeless Youth Homeless Management Information System (RHY-HMIS) client service data reports. Funded applicants are required to submit semi-annual SF-425 financial reports as well as a final SF-425 financial report 90 days after the completion of the three-year funding cycle. Federal program specialists conduct on-site monitoring visits in concert with the information from RHY-HMIS to assess performance.

Audits:
In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503.

Records:
All financial records are to be maintained 3 years after termination of the project or until an audit is completed, whichever occurs first.

Account Identification:
75-1536-0-1-506.

Obligations:
(Project Grants) FY 16 $51,310,582; FY 17 est $50,912,164; and FY 18 est $51,401,960.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:
An assessment is made on the basis of the degree to which: (1) the likelihood that the proposal will provide necessary services including emergency shelter, counseling, and aftercare to runaway and other homeless youth and their families; (2) reasonableness of cost of these services; and (3) qualifications of staff. Applications will be evaluated based on the criteria published in the Funding Opportunity Announcement located on the following website address:

93.624 ACA - STATE INNOVATION MODELS: FUNDING FOR MODEL DESIGN AND MODEL TESTING ASSISTANCE
State Innovation Models (SIM)
FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Human Services
AUTHORIZATION:
Section 1115A of the Social Security Act (Added by Section 3021 of the Affordable Care Act).

OBJECTIVES:
The Center for Medicare and Medicaid Innovation (Innovation Center) announces the second round of funding for the State Innovation Models (SIM) program. SIM is based on the premise that state innovation with broad stakeholder input and engagement, including multi-payer models, will accelerate delivery system transformation to provide better care at lower costs. SIM is focused on public and private sector collaboration to transform the states delivery system. SIM provides financial and technical support to states to test the ability of state governments to use their regulatory and policy levers to accelerate health transformation. In Round 1, CMS partnered with 6 Model Test states to implement state-wide health transformation strategies and 19 Model Design states to develop and refine State Healthcare Innovation Plans to guide future implementation efforts.

Drawing on lessons from the funding opportunity released in Round 1, State Innovation Models: Funding for Model Design and Testing Assistance (CMS-1G1-12-001) (Round 1 FOA), Round 2 of SIM specifies additional parameters that CMS believes correlate with successful state-wide health transformation. These parameters are described in this Funding Announcement in the form of requirements for Round 2 applications. CMS will fund up to 12 Model Test states with approximately $20-100 million grants per state, with funding based in part on the size of the state population and the scope of the transformation proposal. Additionally, CMS will provide up to $3 million per state for up to 15 Model Design cooperative agreements to design new State Health System Innovation Plans or enhance existing plans developed in Round 1. All Round 1 Model Design states must apply for Round 2 of SIM. The Round 1 FOA indicated that states receiving Round 1 Model Design awards must submit a Model Testing proposal for the Round 2 FOA. CMS is amending that requirement to submit a testing proposal in Round 2, so that a Model Design state may either apply for a Model Test award or may apply for a second Model Design award in order to enhance their State Health System Innovation Plan for future testing.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:

Illustrative List of Allowable Model Test Costs

Allowable costs associated with state Model Test work could include:

- Technical resources necessary to implement new models
- Model performance data collection, analysis, reporting cost
- Data center costs, and system information processing associated with the Model Test
- Provider costs for data collection
- Coordination with Innovation Center rapid cycle evaluation, and costs for collecting and preparing data for Innovation Center evaluator and/or state evaluator
- Staff resources associated with model management and project management, including travel to SIM workshops and conferences
- Simulation and modeling cost
- Provider and beneficiary data management system cost
- Costs of certified EHR technology/applications to support the states health transformation plan for providers ineligible for the Medicare/Medicaid EHR Incentive Programs.
- Health information exchange costs associated with the model
- Infrastructure costs to build or expand telemedicine system
- Model beneficiary assignment or reconciliation cost
- Web and internet collaborative learning and communication cost
- Project management and reporting cost
- Business operation associated with the model
- Model contract management and administration
- Building a statewide allpayer database
- Impact model evaluation data collection, reporting, beneficiary and provider survey data, and other costs associated with final model evaluation
- Other activities necessary to implement the overall State Health System Innovation Plan that will further the testing of payment and service delivery models and improve outcomes for Medicare, Medicaid and CHIP beneficiaries.

Allowable costs associated with state Model Design work could include:

- State staff costs to engage in model design
- Staff participation and travel to relevant learning collaboratives and workshops and other relevant learning and diffusion opportunities
- Investments in State data collection and analysis capacity and cost and utilization pattern analysis
- Consumer and provider engagement and focus group costs
- Actuarial modeling
- Performance measure development and evidence-based improvement research
- Business process analysis and requirement system analysis
- Policy, legal, and regulatory research to address legislative and legal frameworks for models
- Planning and convening for creating a statewide allpayer data-base
- Planning work relating to public health programs including the states
- Healthy People 2020 plan, and meeting goals for the National Quality Strategy and/or National Prevention Strategy
- Model Design costs, including:
  - Model scope development
  - Theory of action development
- Target population research
- Setting performance targets
- Financial analysis and analysis of health care trend impacts
- Budget planning
- Travel to SIM workshop and conferences

The following are areas that are out of scope and were not be considered under the state Innovation Models initiative:

- Medicare eligibility changes;
- Coverage or benefits reductions in Medicare or Medicaid or any changes that would have the effect of rationing care;
- Increases in premiums or cost sharing;
- Changes to the EHR incentive program for eligible professionals and eligible hospitals;
- Changes in State Financial Alignment Models;
- Reductions in Medicare beneficiary choice of provider or health plan, or Medicaid choice of provider or health plan beyond those allowed today, or changes to maintenance of effort requirements;
- Changes to CMS sanctions, penalties, or official denial of participation currently in effect.

CMS will not fund proposals that duplicate models for populations that are already being funded and tested as part of any other CMS and/or HHS initiatives. For example, if the state receives a Strong Start for Mothers and Newborns cooperative agreement, SIM funding will only be used in a coordinated manner to complement and not to duplicate or supplant funding for Strong Start for Mothers and Newborns. SIM funding may not supplant existing federal or state funding. States may propose the use of SIM test funds to support additional costs associated with or created by testing a SIM model. States may not use SIM funds as state match under the Medicaid or CHIP programs or use funds to substitute for currently funded Medicaid or CHIP services or administrative activities.

Indirect Costs

If requesting indirect costs, an Indirect Cost Rate Agreement will be required. For this Cooperative Agreement funding opportunity indirect costs are limited to 10%.

The provisions of 2 CFR Part 225 (previously OMB Circular A-87) govern reimbursement of indirect costs under this solicitation. A copy of these cost principles is available online at: http://www.ecfr.gov/cgi-bin/text-idx?c=ecfr&tpl=/ecfrbrowse/Title02/2cfr225_main_02.tpl.

Direct Services

Cooperative Agreement funds may not be used to provide individuals with services that are already funded through Medicare, Medicaid, and/or CHIP programs.

Reimbursement of Pre-Award Costs

No cooperative agreement funds awarded under this solicitation may be used to reimburse pre-award costs.

Prohibited Uses of Cooperative Agreement Funds

To match any other Federal funds.

To provide services, equipment, or support that are the legal responsibility of another party under Federal or state law (e.g., vocational rehabilitation, criminal justice, or foster care) or under any civil rights laws. Such legal responsibilities include, but are not limited to, modifications of a workplace or other reasonable accommodations that are a specific obligation of the employer or other party.

To supplant existing Federal state, local, or private funding of infrastructure or services.

To be used by local entities to satisfy state matching requirements.

To pay for the use of specific components, devices, equipment, or personnel that are not integrated into the entire service delivery and payment model proposal.

To lobby or advocate for changes in Federal and/or state law. CMS will not fund proposals that duplicate models for populations that are already being funded and tested as part of CMS or HHS initiatives. For example, if the state receives a Strong Start for Mothers and Newborns cooperative agreement, SIM funding will only be used in a coordinated manner and not to supplant funding for Strong Start for Mothers and Newborns. States may propose the use of SIM testing funds to support additional costs associated with or created by testing a SIM model.

Applicant Eligibility:

CMS invites the 50 state Governors Offices, United States Territories Governors Offices (American Samoa, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin islands), and the Mayors Office of the District of Columbia to apply.

Only one application from a Governor per state is permitted for either a Model Design or a Model Test award (assuming the state applied and was not selected for funding under the first round of Model Test awards).
A state cannot receive multiple Round 2 Model Design or Model Test awards.
A state cannot receive both a Round 2 Model Design award and a Round 2 Model Test award.
Each application must include a letter from the Governor (or the Mayor, if from the District of Columbia) officially endorsing the application for a Model Design award or for a Model Test award.
States currently engaged in a Model Test award with CMS are NOT eligible to apply for funding under Round 2.

A state may propose that an outside organization focused on quality and state delivery system transformation, such as a non-profit affiliated with the State Department of Health or a public-private partnership supported by the Governors Office, receive and administer funds through a Model Design or Model Test award. The Governors Office must submit such requests in writing to CMS with its Letter of Intent and include a justification for the request and an attestation that the state will actively participate in all activities described in its proposal. Approval of such requests will be at the sole discretion of CMS.
Only one such request supported by the Governor will be allowed per state. A state pursuing this approach will still be expected to address all of the required areas described in this FOA.

Eligibility Threshold Criteria:
All applicants must have submitted a required letter of intent to the programmatic point of contact in Section VI. Agency Contacts by June 6, 2014. If a letter of intent has not been submitted by the required due date, any subsequent application submitted by the entity will be ineligible. See Section IV.2.A, Letter of Intent to Apply, for more information.

Application deadline: Applications not received by the application deadline (TBD) through www.grants.gov will not be reviewed.

Application requirements: Applications will be considered for funding only if the application meets the requirements outlined in Section III, Eligibility Information and Section IV. Application and Submission Information.

Page limits: Model Test applications shall not be more than 55 pages in length. Model Design applications shall not be more than 27 pages in length. Both types of applications must be limited to the page maximums, sequence of sections, and section content specified in Section IV.2 Content and Form of Application Submission, parts C & D.

In addition, applications should include attestations of support from key stakeholders. The letters of support will not be included in the page limits for applications. The letters should attest to stakeholders active engagement in the model and must contain specific information about how the stakeholders will contribute to the SIM process.

The standard forms, project abstract, Governors endorsement, and curriculum vitae are also not included in these page limits. States are strongly encouraged to review the criteria information provided in Section V of the FOA, Application Review Information, to help ensure that the proposal adequately addresses all the criteria that will be used in evaluating applications and determining appropriate funding levels for each award.

Beneficiary Eligibility (082):
The emphasis is on targeting Medicare, Medicaid, and CHIP populations.

Proposals will describe the target populations, geographic areas, or communities that will be the focus of service delivery and payment model testing, the current quality and beneficiary experience outcomes including current health population status, and the specific improvement targets expected...
Preapplication Coordination: state-wide transformation. Awards will range from $20-100 million per state technical support to implement fully developed proposals for successful. The Innovation Center will award up to 12 Model Test awards to states through Announcement offers two separate funding opportunities: (1) Model Test 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit coverage under E.O. 12372. information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from Cost Principles applies to this program. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program. The Grants Management Specialist assigned to monitor the subaward and information on FFATA. numbers. See Section VI, Award Administration Information, for more information about SAM is available at https://www.sam.gov/portal/public/SAM/. Applicants must successfully register with SAM prior to submitting an application or registering in the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act Subaward Reporting System (FSRS) as a prime awardee user. Organizations must report executive compensation as part of the registration profile at https://www.sam.gov/portal/public/SAM by the end of the month following the month in which this award is made, and annually thereafter (based on the reporting requirements of the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act (FFATA) of 2006 (Pub. L. 109-282), as amended by Section 6202 of Public Law 110-252 and implemented by 2 CFR Part 170)). Primary awardees must maintain a current registration with the SAM database, and may make subawards only to entities that have DUNS numbers. See Section VI, Award Administration Information, for more information on F FATA. Selected applicants will be invited and strongly encouraged to present their Round 2 proposals. Cooperative agreements will be required to present their Round 2 proposals. The state must produce a detailed and fully developed plan to improve population health during the project period. The state will be provided an opportunity to obtain technical support from the Centers for Disease Control in developing the plans. The plans should include integration of population health strategies with public health officials and health care delivery systems for all populations. At a minimum, plans should address the core measures identified in the population health metrics document, namely: tobacco use and the incidence of obesity, and diabetes. (See Appendix 1.) In addition, states should consider integrating state strategies to address child wellness and prevention priorities, as applicable, including such factors as reducing childhood obesity, preventing early childhood dental caries, and addressing maternal depression to foster healthy child development. (2) Health Care Delivery System Transformation Plan, CMS has identified the following characteristics to be closely associated with transformed health care delivery systems: (1) Plan for improving Population Health. The state must develop a state-wide plan to improve population health during the project period. The state will be offered the opportunity to obtain technical support from the Centers for Disease Control in developing the plans. The plans should include integration of population health strategies with public health officials and health care delivery systems for all populations. At a minimum, plans should address the core measures identified in the population health metrics document, namely: tobacco use and the incidence of obesity, and diabetes. (See Appendix 1.) In addition, states should consider integrating state strategies to address child wellness and prevention priorities, as applicable, including such factors as reducing childhood obesity, preventing early childhood dental caries, and addressing maternal depression to foster healthy child development. (2) Health Care Delivery System Transformation Plan, CMS has identified the following characteristics to be closely associated with transformed health care delivery systems: a. Providers across the state and across the care continuum participate in integrated or virtually integrated delivery models; b. Over 80% of payments to providers from all payers are in fee-for-service population and the scope of the proposal. If a Model Test applicant is not selected for a Model Test award, CMS may select the state/entity for a Model Design award if (1) after all possible states/entities which applied for Model Design awards are selected and funding is still available to issue additional Model Design awards (not to exceed overall maximum of 15 Model Design awards); and (2) CMS determines the state/entity is not ready for a Model Test award and would benefit from Model Design funding. States currently engaged in a Model Test award with CMS will not be eligible to apply for funding in Round 2. The selection criteria for the Round 2 Model Test application will be based on states ability to successfully apply policy and regulatory levers over the award performance period to address three focus areas: (1) improving population health; (2) transforming health care delivery systems; and (3) decreasing per capita total health care spending. During the selection process, CMS will require additional discussions with applicants regarding their proposals. Selection for a Round 2 Model Test will not constitute nor guarantee approval of a request for a Medicaid State Plan Amendment (SPA) or a Medicaid 1115 Waiver. States seeking a Medicaid SPA or Medicaid 1115 waiver may do so under established processes. In addition to an expert panel review, selected applicants for Model Test cooperative agreements will be required to present their Round 2 proposals. Selected applicants will be invited and strongly encouraged to present their proposal in person, or conversely can present virtually to a panel comprised of external experts as well as HHS leadership. The states presentation must be led by a cabinet-level health official, such as the Secretary of Health, and include providers and commercial payers who have committed to actively participate in the model. In the case of public-private partnership entities applying for a state innovation model test, senior leaders from the private and public sector, including senior leaders of the applicant entity, shall be present. All travel expenses incurred by applicants will not be reimbursed by CMS nor can they be reimbursed by any funding awarded under this FOA. In addition, if a state does not participate in the required presentation, it will not be eligible for funding. Model Test applications must address the following required areas: A. Model Test Project Narrative. The state must produce a detailed and fully developed proposal capable of creating state-wide health transformation for the preponderance of care within the state. For each individual element and/or program in the test proposal, the state must highlight how the element or program will (1) improve population health; (2) transform the health care delivery system; and/or (3) decrease per capita health care spending, drawing on a supporting evidence base. B. While Round 2 provides states with significant flexibility to design contextually-specific plans for state-wide health transformation, each proposal must also include the following core elements: (1) Plan for improving Population Health. The state must develop a state-wide plan to improve population health during the project period. The state will be offered the opportunity to obtain technical support from the Centers for Disease Control in developing the plans. The plans should include integration of population health strategies with public health officials and health care delivery systems for all populations. At a minimum, plans should address the core measures identified in the population health metrics document, namely: tobacco use and the incidence of obesity, and diabetes. (See Appendix 1.) In addition, states should consider integrating state strategies to address child wellness and prevention priorities, as applicable, including such factors as reducing childhood obesity, preventing early childhood dental caries, and addressing maternal depression to foster healthy child development.
c. Every resident of the state has a primary care provider who is accountable both for the quality and for the total cost of their health care;

b. Care is coordinated across all providers and settings;

e. There is a high-level of patient engagement and quantifiable results on patient experience;

f. Providers leverage the use of health information technology to improve quality;

g. There is an adequate health care workforce to meet state residents needs;

h. Providers perform at the top of their license and board certification;

i. Performance in quality and cost measures is consistently high;

j. Population health measures are integrated into the delivery system; and

k. Data is used to drive health system processes.

The state must describe in detail how it will engage providers in health care delivery system transformation across the state, working towards the goals described above.

CMS recognizes that individual state proposals will vary considerably. However, in reviewing the Health Care Delivery Transformation Plan, and the proposed cost and quality targets, CMS will consider state, regional, and national demographics, proposal parameters, alignment/overlap of existing CMS programs, and other factors that impact health.

One or more specific payment and/or service delivery models that include, but are not limited to, the states Medicaid population, state employee population, and/or commercial payers populations. The payment and/or service delivery models must identify the targeted populations, the number of beneficiaries served, the number of participating providers, and the services to be delivered. CMS encourages applicants to propose payment models that directly align with one or more existing Medicare programs, demonstrations, and/or models, such as accountable care organizations (ACOs), primary care medical homes, and bundled payment programs. Medicare participation is not guaranteed and will be assessed on a case-by-case basis after thorough review of the proposed model.

As SIM aims to reach a preponderance of a states population and Medicaid can serve as an important lever for driving health care delivery system transformation, the state should describe any Medicaid expansion activities and the percentage of the states population that is covered by Medicaid.

The state must commit to using multiple regulatory authorities to influence the structure and performance of the states health care system. Regulatory authorities whose uses are envisioned under SIM include, but are not limited to the following:

a. Aligning certificate of need processes and criteria (if applicable) to reinforce accountable care and delivery system transformation or developing alternative approaches to certificate of need programs, such as community-based approaches that could include voluntary participation by all providers and payers;

b. Developing regulatory approaches to improve the effectiveness, efficiency and appropriate mix of the health care work force, such as through professional licensure/accreditation of providers and/or expanding scope of practice statutes;

c. Creating opportunities to align state regulations and requirements for health insurers with the broader goals of multi-payer delivery system and payment reform;

d. Integrating value-based principles into health insurance exchange Qualified Health Plan (QHP) certification processes, state employee plans, or Medicaid managed care plans including through selective contracting with carriers to provide health care coverage plans that provide the most competitive combination of value, quality, and choice; and

e. Requiring academic medical centers and professional schools to integrate transformation-based teachings into medical education programs.

f. This list is not intended to be exhaustive. States may propose alternative regulatory authorities that support delivery system transformation to satisfy this requirement in consultation with CMS.

CMS recognizes that health information technology and data analytics will be important to achieving optimal efficiency and improved outcomes in state-wide health care delivery. States may propose to use SIM funds for the implementation of specific technology, software, applications, or other analytical tools as part of state infrastructure development to support the Model Test as long as the state provides a clear strategy for how, if applicable, the technological approach will be financed in addition to SIM, how it will not supplant other funding sources, and how it will be sustained after the cooperative agreement period has ended. Proposals must document the current state of health information technology adoption and utilization in the state, including current EHR adoption levels, percentage of providers meeting Meaningful Use requirements in the EHR Incentive Programs, and use of technology to support HIE activities. The Model Test proposals must also provide detailed descriptions for health information technology plans in the following domains:

a. Governance: Describe how state leadership will direct the planning and oversight of implementation; supply a comprehensive plan to implement infrastructure to support the Model Test that leverages existing assets and aligns with federally-funded programs and state enterprise IT systems; and explain how the governance structure will incorporate and expand existing public/private health information exchanges, including those operated by ACOs.

b. Policy: Describe policy and regulatory levers that will be used to accelerate standards based health information technology adoption to improve care in the state Model Test; describe methods to improve transparency and encourage innovative uses of data; offer a plan for promotion of patient engagement and shared-decision making; and propose multi-payer strategies to enable and expand the use of health information technology.

c. Infrastructure: Describe how the state will implement analytical tools and use data driven evidence based approach to coordinate and improve care across the state Model Test; offer plans to utilize telehealth and perform remote patient monitoring to increase access to care and the timeliness of care; articulate plans to use standards based health IT to enable electronic quality reporting; explain how public health IT systems (such as clinical registry systems) will be integrated; and describe how support of electronic data will drive quality improvement at the point of care.

d. Technical Assistance: Define how the state will provide technical assistance to providers; identify targeted provider groups that will receive assistance and what services will be delivered; and identify how the state intends to extend resources to providers ineligible for Meaningful Use incentive payments, if applicable.

This list is not intended to be exhaustive. States may propose alternative approaches to data analytics and health information technology that support delivery system transformation. States will be offered the opportunity to obtain technical support from the Office of the National Coordinator for Health IT in developing the plans.

In addition to explaining the individual components of the test, the State must address its rationale for how the specified elements and/or programs, in combination, will achieve state-wide health transformation.

States may elect to focus on select areas of the state and/or to sequence elements or programs in the test geographically or temporally. The State should identify the tests geographic scope in this section and address any sequencing of individual elements and/or programs in its response to Section I.A.iv., Operational Plan, below.

The state must demonstrate how it will use its unique role as a stakeholder convener to accelerate state-wide health transformation. The state must (1) demonstrate that there are a significant number of key stakeholders representative of the entire state population engaged and actively committed to the implementation of the states Model Test proposal and (2) present a clear and pragmatic strategy for maintaining stakeholder commitment throughout implementation of the proposed test. Stakeholders must include health care providers/systems, commercial payers/purchasers, state hospital and medical associations, community-based and long term support providers, consumer advocacy organizations, and, as applicable, tribal communities.

The state must submit attestations of support from each identified stakeholder as part of its application (template provided in Appendix 3). Notwithstanding the above, representatives from stakeholder organizations must be prepared to travel to CMS or participate in a virtual teleconference during the selection process to discuss their commitment to the states proposal.

The state must provide plans to develop a state-wide plan to align quality measures across all payers in the state. If the state and key stakeholders have not yet reached consensus on such a plan at the time of submission, the proposal must describe in detail any progress to date on quality measure alignment, including the successes and challenges faced, and must articulate a path for developing a realizable plan by the conclusion of the up to 12 month pre-implementation period. The plan should also demonstrate the payers commitment to reducing the administrative and/or non-clinical burden to providers in the state.

The state must provide quantifiable measures for regularly monitoring the impact of its proposed model, including the effectiveness of the policy and regulatory levers applied under the Model Test, on the three key outcomes of (1) strengthening population health; (2) transforming the health care delivery system; and (3) decreasing per capita health care spending. Measures should be selected with a focus on the particularized state health demographics and health needs the Model Test proposal aims to address. All quality and cost measures must use the states entire population in the denominator. Examples of measure domains that may apply include:

- Population health: percentage of state residents using tobacco
- Health care delivery system transformation: percentage of state residents attributed to a primary care doctor
- Per capita cost spending: per capita Medicare inpatient costs

Final measures will be refined in conjunction with CMS during the up to 12 month pre-implementation period.

The state also will be responsible for monitoring and reporting to CMS on the progress and impact of its Model Test at regular intervals. In addition, CMS will conduct an independent evaluation of funded proposals in accordance with the requirements set forth in Section 1115A of the Social Security Act (added by Section 3021 of the Affordable Care Act).

The state must identify all existing health care innovation initiatives occurring within the state, including CMS, HHS, federal, and external initiatives (e.g., the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Aligning Forces for Quality program), and demonstrate how the proposal aligns with these health care innovation efforts. The state must describe how the proposal will (1) coordinate with and build upon existing initiatives and (2) ensure that federal funding will not be used for duplicative activities, or to supplant current federal or state funding. For example, if a state is participating in the State Financial Alignment Model, the state should describe how the State Financial Alignment Model complements the states proposed SIM model.

As part of its application, the state must submit a SF-424A and a budget narrative. The budget narrative must be consistent with the SF-424A and Model Test requirements as well as limit overhead and administrative costs to no more than 10% of direct costs. States should indicate other resources that will aid in implementing the Model Test plan. See Section IV. 2. Content and Form of Application Submission for more information.

As part of its application, the state must submit a Financial Analysis. The Financial Analysis must estimate the proposals return on investment for the Model, and specifically for Medicare, Medicaid, and/or CHIP populations, over the performance period of the award as well as on a projected annualized basis after the term of the award is finished. The state must explain how its interventions will reduce total cost of care for the beneficiaries its model serves. The Financial Analysis also must provide financial models explaining the logic driving their forecasted cost of care savings.

The state must obtain and submit an external actuarial certification of their Financial Analysis with their application. A qualified actuary who is a member of the American Academy of Actuaries must complete the external certification. The CMS Office of the Actuary will assist in reviewing the reasonableness of the estimated cost to the government, and will review the potential for federal savings. The external actuarial certification, as well as the review of the CMS Actuary, will be considered in final selection of Model Test awards.

The state must submit a detailed Operational Plan that describes the activities and budgets for each year of the model and provide a detailed timeline for implementation and major milestones for successfully executing the Plan. The Operational Plan must show how the applicant plans to scale implementation activities to ramp up to an operational start within twelve months of receiving funding. The applicant must also establish accountability targets for the project, including specific quarterly milestones and metrics associated with each investment or activity that would be financed in whole or in part by this award. Projected quarterly targets for the test period should indicate the number and/or proportion of health care providers, hospitals, and beneficiaries that will be engaged by each Model Test component. The Operational Plan must also address any assumptions made and risks to the operational timeline, probability and impact of identified risks actually occurring, and projected strategies for mitigating identified risks.

In addition, the application should show that the applicant has the resources and track record needed to operate the model and report on the progress it is making during the operation. Applicants shall include a list of key personnel; and for each person on this list, applicants should describe their relevant background, their roles, and overall responsibility. Applicants should address the Governors existing and future involvement in the models design and implementation, and the state agencies and/or departments that will be actively involved in executing the model.

Applicants may also propose an operational plan that implements their State Health System Innovation Plan through a public-private partnership. Under such an approach, the state must demonstrate active engagement and participation in the public-private partnership.

Model Design: Proposal Requirements

The Innovation Center will award up to 15 Model Design states through this Funding Announcement. Model Design awards will provide financial and technical support to design proposals for successful state-wide transformation. Awards will range from $1-$3 million over a one-year project period.

Eligible states include both those that did not participate in Round 1, as well as Round 1 Model Design states that met the terms and condition of the Round 1 project but require additional design work in order to implement the plan (i.e. increased stakeholder engagement, measurable public health value, cost and quality targets). Round 1 Model Design state proposals shall include the extent to which the state will develop a design that enhances the existing state plan for delivery transformation. To the extent feasible, Round 2 Model Design awardees will be required to implement and test the plans they develop.

Model Design applications must address the following required areas:

The state must demonstrate a clear process for designing or refining a plan with the engagement of multiple components of state government. The state should address the elements detailed in Section I.A.1, Model Test Project Narrative, and listed by name below, including specifically identifying the levers the state will aim to incorporate into a comprehensive state plan, such as the states Medicaid program, state employee health plans, and student-owned academic medical centers. In their design plans, states must explain the unique features of their design efforts and their strategies for designing a plan that aligns with existing CMS efforts. Further, state plans must include multiple payers. This narrative must include a modified stakeholder engagement strategy, as outlined in Section I.A.1.b.6 below.

Plan for Improving Population Health
As part of its application, the state must submit a SF-424A and a budget narrative. The budget narrative must be consistent with the SF-424A and Model Design requirements as well as limit overhead and administrative costs to no more than 10% of direct costs. States should indicate other resources that will aid in designing the State Health System Innovation Plan. See Section IV. 2. Content and Form of Application Submission for more information.

As part of its application, the state must submit a Financial Analysis. The Financial Analysis must, at minimum, describe the populations being addressed and their respective total medical and other services costs as per member per month and population total. If known, the Financial Analysis should also describe (1) anticipated cost savings resulting from specified interventions, including the types of costs that will be affected by the model and the anticipated level of improvement by target population and (2) expected total cost savings and return on investment for the overall state model and basis for expected savings (previous studies, experience, etc.).

The state must submit a detailed Operational Plan that describes the activities and budgets for the performance period of the award and a detailed timeline for the design process with major milestones. The plan should also include roles and responsibilities of key partners and payer participants (if applicable) and major milestones and dates for successfully executing the Operational Plan. Applicants also should include a list of key personnel; for each person on this list, applicants should describe their relevant background, their roles, and overall responsibility. Applicants should address the Governors existing and future involvement in the models design and implementation, and the state agencies and/or departments that will be actively involved in designing the model.

Applicants may also propose an operational plan that seeks to design the State Health System Innovation Plan through a public-private partnership. Under such an approach, the state must demonstrate active engagement and participation in the public-private partnership.

The operational plan must also address any assumptions made and risks to the operational timeline, and projected strategies for mitigating identified risks.

The Funding Opportunity Announcement serves as the application package for this cooperative agreement and contains all the instructions to enable a potential applicant to apply. The application should be written primarily as a narrative with the standard forms required by the Federal government for all cooperative agreements. A separate and complete application must be submitted for each type of submission and for each round of submission.

A non-binding letter of intent to apply must be submitted to the CMS programmatic contact listed in Section VI. Agency Contacts by June 6, 2014. Entities which do not submit a letter of intent by this deadline will be ineligible to apply. As explained in Section III. Eligibility Information, a Governor must submit an official request, along with its letter of intent, if it plans to propose that an outside organization focused on quality and state delivery transformation, such as a non-profit affiliated with the State Department of Health or a public-private partnership supported by the Governors Office, receives and administers funds through a Model Design or Model Test award. A justification must be included with the request as well as an attestation that the state will actively participate in all activities described in the proposal.

Approval of such requests will be at the sole discretion of CMS. Only one application supported by the Governor will be allowed per state.

Application materials will be available for download at http://www.grants.gov. Please note that HHS requires applications for all announcements to be submitted electronically through http://www.grants.gov. For assistance with Grants.gov, contact support@grants.gov or call 1-800-518-4726. The Funding Opportunity Announcement can also be viewed on the Innovation Center website at http://innovations.cms.gov.

Specific instructions for applications submitted via http://www.grants.gov: You can access the electronic application for this project at http://www.grants.gov. You must search the downloadable application page by the CFDA number shown on the cover page of this announcement.

At the http://www.grants.gov website, you will find information about submitting an application electronically through the site, including the hours of operation. HHS strongly recommends that you do not wait until the application due date to begin the application process through http://www.grants.gov, because of the time needed to complete the required registration steps.

All applicants under this announcement must have an Employer Identification Number (EIN) to apply. Please note, the time needed to complete the EIN registration process can be substantial, and applicants should therefore begin the process of obtaining an EIN immediately upon posting of this FOA to ensure the EIN is received in advance of application deadlines.

All applicants, as well as sub-recipients, must have a Dun and Bradstreet (D&B) Data Universal Numbering System (DUNS) number at the time of application in order to be considered for a grant or cooperative agreement. A DUNS number is required for using the Government-wide electronic portal, www.grants.gov. The DUNS number is a nine-digit identification number that uniquely identifies business entities. To obtain a DUNS number, access the following website: www.dunandbradstreet.com or call 1-866-705-7511. This number should be entered in the block with the applicants name and address on the cover page of the application (Item 8c on the Form SF-424, Application for Federal Assistance). The name and address in the application should be exactly as given for the DUNS number. Applicants should obtain this DUNS number as soon as possible after the announcement is posted to ensure all registration steps are completed in time.

Authorized Organizational Representative: The Authorized Organizational Representative (AOR) who will officially submit an application on behalf of the organization must register with Grants.gov for a username and password. AORs must complete a profile with Grants.gov using their organizations DUNS Number to obtain their username and password, at http://grants.gov/applicants/get_registered.jsp. AORs must wait one business day after registration in SAM before entering their profiles in Grants.gov. Applicants should complete this process as soon as possible after successful registration in SAM to ensure this step is completed in time to apply before application deadlines.

When an AOR registers with Grants.gov to submit applications on behalf of an organization, that organizations E-Biz point-of-contact will receive an e-mail notification. The e-mail address provided in the profile will be the e-mail used to send the notification from Grants.gov to the E-Biz POC with the AOR copied on the correspondence.

The E-Biz POC must then login to Grants.gov (using the organizations DUNS number for the username and the special password called M-PIN) and approve the AOR, thereby providing permission to submit applications. Any files uploaded or attached to the Grants.gov application must be PDF file format and must contain a valid file format extension in the filename. Even though Grants.gov allows applicants to attach any file format as part of their application, CMS restricts this practice and only accepts PDF file formats. Any file submitted as part of the Grants.gov application that is not in a PDF file format, or contains password protection, will not be accepted for processing and will be excluded from the application during the review process. In addition, the use of compressed file formats such as ZIP, RAR, or Adobe Portfolio will not be accepted. The application must be submitted in a file format that can easily be copied and read by reviewers. It is recommended that scanned copies not be submitted through Grants.gov unless the applicant confirms the clarity of the documents. Pages cannot be reduced in size, resulting in multiple pages on a single sheet, to avoid exceeding the page limitation. All documents that do not conform to the above constraints will be excluded from the application materials during the review process. After you electronically submit your application, you will receive an automatic email from http://www.grants.gov that contains a Grants.gov tracking number. Please be aware that this notice does not guarantee that the application will be accepted by Grants.gov. Rather, this email is only an acknowledgement of receipt of the application by Grants.gov. All applications must be validated by Grants.gov before they will be accepted. Please note, applicants may incur a time delay before they receive acknowledgement that the application has been validated and accepted by the Grants.gov system. In some cases, the validation process could take up to 48 hours. If for some reason the application is not accepted, then the applicant will receive a subsequent notice from Grants.gov indicating that the application submission has been rejected. Applicants should not wait until the application deadline to apply because notification by Grants.gov that the application is incomplete may not be received until close to or after the application deadline, eliminating the opportunity to correct errors and resubmit the application. Applications submitted after the deadline because the original submission failed validation and is therefore rejected by Grants.gov, as a result of errors on the part of the applicant, will not be accepted by CMS and/or granted a waiver. For this reason, CMS recommends that applicants apply in advance of the application due date and time. After HHS retrieves your application package from Grants.gov, a return receipt will be e-mailed to the applicant contact. This will be in addition to the validation number provided by http://www.grants.gov. Each year organizations and entities registered to apply for Federal grants and cooperative agreements through http://www.grants.gov will need to renew their registration with the System for Award Management (SAM). You can register with SAM online; registration will take about 30 minutes to complete (https://www.sam.gov/portal/public/SAM/). Failure to renew SAM registration prior to application submission will prevent an applicant from successfully applying via Grants.gov. Similarly, failure to maintain an active SAM registration during the application review process can prevent HHS from issuing your agency an award under this program. Applications cannot be accepted through any email address. Full applications can only be accepted through http://www.grants.gov. Full applications cannot be received via paper mail, courier, or delivery service. All applications for the awards must be submitted electronically and be received through http://www.grants.gov by the deadlines listed below. All applications will receive an automatic time stamp upon submission and state applicants will receive an e-mail reply acknowledging the applications receipt. Please be aware of the following: 1) Search for the application package in Grants.gov by entering the CFDA number. This number is shown on the cover page of this announcement. 2) If you experience technical challenges while submitting your application electronically, please contact Grants.gov Support directly at: www.grants.gov/customersupport or (800) 518-4726. Customer Support is available to address questions 24 hours a day, 7 days a week (except on Federal holidays). 3) Upon contacting Grants.gov, obtain a tracking number as proof of contact. The tracking number is helpful if there are technical issues that cannot be resolved. To be considered timely, applications must be received by the published deadline date. However, a general extension of a published application deadline that affects all state applicants or only those in a defined geographical area may be authorized by circumstances that affect the public at large, such as natural disasters (e.g., floods or hurricanes) or disruptions of electronic (e.g., application receipt services) or other services, such as a prolonged blackout. Grants.gov complies with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. If an individual uses assistive technology and is unable to access any material on the site, including forms contained with an application package, he or she can e-mail the Grants.gov contact center at support@grants.gov for help, or call 1-800-518-4726. Each application must include all contents described below, in the order indicated, and in conformance with the following specifications: Use 8.5 x 11 letter-size pages with 1 margins (top, bottom, and sides). Other paper sizes will not be accepted. This is particularly important because it is often not possible to reproduce copies in a size other than 8.5 x 11. All pages of the project narrative must be paginated in a single sequence. Font size must be 12-point with an average character density no greater than 14 characters per inch. The budget and project narrative portions of the application must be double-spaced. The project abstract is restricted to a one-page summary, which can be single-spaced. Applications and attached proposals must not be more than 55 pages in length for Model Test awards, and no more than 27 pages for Model Design awards. For Model Test applications this total includes the project narrative, budget narrative, financial analysis, and operational plan. For Model Design, this total includes the project narrative, budget narrative, financial analysis, and operational plan. The maximum page limit includes all supporting materials, including documentation related to financial projections, profiles of participating organizations, etc. In addition, states should submit letters of support from other payers and stakeholders. The standard forms, project abstract, Governors letter of endorsement, and attestations of support from other payers and stakeholders are NOT included in the page limits. The state must ensure that its submission meets the technical requirements outlined above. Failure to adhere to these technical requirements may exclude an application from consideration for a cooperative award. The following standard forms must be completed with an electronic signature and enclosed as part of the proposal. Failure to submit these forms will result in the application not being reviewed: a. SF-424: Official Application for Federal Assistance (see note below) b. SF-424A: Budget Information Non-Construction c. SF-424B: Assurances-Non-Construction Programs d. SF LLL: Disclosure of Lobbying Activities All applicants must submit this document. If your agency does not engage in lobbying, please insert Non-Applicable on the document and include the required Authorized Organizational Representative (AOR) name, contact information, and signature e. Project Site Location Forms(s) f. Project Abstract Summary (see description below) Note: On SF 424 Application for Federal Assistance: a. On Item 11 Descriptive Title of Applicants Project, state the specific cooperative agreement opportunity for which you are applying: State Innovation Models. b. For Item 15 please provide a succinct descriptive title of the applicants project. Please do not add attachments in Item 15. c. Check No to item 16b, as Review by State Executive Order 12372 does not apply to these cooperative agreements. A letter from the Governor (or Mayor, if from the District of Columbia) endorsing the project and identifying the title of the project, the principal contact person and the major partners, departments, and organizations collaborating on the project. The letter (addressed as below) must be uploaded in the application. The original signed letter must be sent to the following address: Gabriel Nah Grants Management Specialist Office of Acquisition and Grants Management Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Mailstop # 7700 Bethesda 5600 Fishers Lane Rockville, MD 20857 The one-page abstract (single-spaced) must succinctly describe the proposal and should include the goals of the proposal; the total budget; the number of included beneficiaries, providers, and payer participants; the projected total cost of care savings; and a description of how the funds will be used. The abstract is often distributed to provide information to the public and Congress, so it must be written in a manner that it is clear, accurate, concise, and without reference to other parts of the application. Personal identifying information should be excluded from the abstract. Award Procedure: Successful applicants will receive a Notice of Award (NoA) signed and dated by the CMS Grants Management Officer. The NoA is the document authorizing the cooperative agreement award and will be sent through electronic mail to the applicant organization as listed on the SF-424. Any communication between CMS and applicants prior to issuance of the NPA is not an authorization to begin performance of a project. Unsuccessful applicants are notified within 30 days of the final funding decision for each cooperative agreement and will receive a disapproval letter via the U.S. Postal Service and/or electronic mail.

Deadlines:
- Oct 31, 2012 to Dec 31, 2018: Please see "Other Deadline Information". Oct 31, 2014 to Dec 31, 2018: Please see "Other Deadline Information". Anticipated Notice of Cooperative Agreement Announcement Dates:
  - Round Two Model Design: October 31, 2014
  - Round Two Model Test: October 31, 2014

Anticipated Cooperative Agreement Period of Performance:
- Round Two Model Design: January 1, 2015 to December 31, 2015
- Round Two Model Test: January 1, 2015 to December 31, 2018 (inclusive of a pre-implementation period of up to 12 months).

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time:
Anticipated Notice of Cooperative Agreement Award Dates:
- Model Design Phase: Award Date: November 15, 2012
- Round One Model Testing: Award Date: November 15, 2012.

Appeals:
CMS reserves the right to approve or deny any or all proposals for funding.
Note that section 1115A of the Social Security Act states that there is no administrative or judicial review of the selection of organizations, sites, or participants to test models.

Renewals:
CMS reserves the right to approve or deny any or all proposals for funding.
Note that section 1115A of the Social Security Act states that there is no administrative or judicial review of the selection of organizations, sites, or participants to test models.

Formula and Matching Requirements:
Statutory formulas are not applicable to this program.
Matching requirements are not applicable to this program.
MOE requirements are not applicable to this program.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance:
Initial funding of Model Test and Model Design awards is contingent upon the states acceptance of the awards terms and conditions through the initial drawdown of funds and, in the case of Model Test awards, explicit CMS approval of an operational plan submitted by the state.

States that received Model Design awards had twelve months from the award start date to complete their State Health System Innovation Plans and Model Designs. The project period and budget period for Model Design was one year, anticipated to be until December 31, 2015. See the following for information on how assistance is awarded/released: The 48-month project period for Round 2 Model Test is divided into four budget periods, with an initial budget period of twelve months for pre-implementation work followed by three budget periods of 12 months each. Following the initial twelve-month budget period, non-competing continuation awards have been/will be granted for each additional year of the cooperative agreement contingent upon availability of funding, state performance, and demonstrated progress towards the goals and objectives of this FOA. The anticipated test completion date for states receiving Model Test Round 2 awards is January 31, 2019. The specific period of performance for each state model will be included in the cooperative agreement and be executed upon the initial drawdown of funds by the recipient.

Reports:
The Innovation Center takes an active and substantial role in the evaluation and monitoring of the SIM Model Test awards. The activities funded under the cooperative agreement and their resulting State responsibilities are part of performance tracking, measuring, and evaluation responsibilities of CMS and the Innovation Center. For Model Test states CMMI will examine the extent to which states plans are being implemented, whether health care spending in those states changed over time, and the impact on health care quality.

Performance assessment, monitoring, and evaluation for Model Test awards focus on:
- Impact on quality of care, patient experience, and health status
- Impact on health care costs
- Implementation and test performance, including:
  - Meeting proposed design and planning or implementation and test milestones.
  - Demonstrating readiness to carry out design and planning work or implementation activities required to test the proposed model.
  - Producing timely and accurate reports showing clear progress on design and planning activities or providing the required data, and/or reports on health care cost, quality, and population health performance, as delineated in the cooperative agreement.
- Community integration of health care

Awardees must agree to cooperate with any federal evaluation of the model and performance results and provide required quarterly, semi-annual (every six months), annual and final (at the end of the cooperative agreement period) reports in a form prescribed by CMS. Reports are submitted electronically and include information on how cooperative agreement funds were used, describe project or model progress, and describe any barriers, delays, and measurable outcomes. CMS provides the format for project and model reporting and technical assistance necessary to complete required report forms.

States must also agree to respond to requests that are necessary for the evaluation of their Model Test efforts and provide data on key elements of model performance and on results from the cooperative agreement activities. CMS will continue to make requests for data related to its evaluation beyond the end of the states performance period. The period for which CMS may continue to make such requests is further clarified in the terms and conditions of award.

CMS has enlisted a third party entity to assist in evaluating the model implementation and testing performance results and outcomes. All awardees are required to cooperate in providing the necessary data elements to CMS or CMS contractor. The contractor assists CMS in developing cost, quality, beneficiary experience, and population health monitoring and review model performance to ensure model requirements are met; tracking performance across awardees and providing for monitoring and early detection of model performance issues; developing a system to collect, store, and analyze data to assess health care cost and utilization, quality performance, beneficiary experience, and population health improvements and assisting with state implementation, including coordination between states and CMS and its other contractors.

Data for monitoring includes process, safety, and performance measures including beneficiary experience. It includes, but is not limited to, data on the background characteristics of the target population and target area, data characterizing the activities of the Model Test and a battery of follow-up data describing relevant characteristics of the target population or target area and metrics at selected intervals after commencement of the delivery system and/or payment model. This will include detailed information on participant characteristics and outcomes reported in a standard format. Data for monitoring is collected from awardees and/or CMS claims data, electronic health record, public health or other sources. The model monitoring aspect of this initiative balances the examination of the extent to which awardees demonstrate fidelity to their proposed delivery system and payment models and the potential need to make mid-course corrections that improve or optimize performance of the delivery system or payment models based on feedback from the monitoring and rapid cycle evaluation findings. The evaluation also assess whether there is
The evaluation strategy for this initiative includes an overall design and data collection phase and an impact evaluation.

Broadly, CMS evaluates each state model and then compares all models to identify themes related to improved care and health outcomes and reduced costs. CMS has ultimate responsibility for the evaluation process and reports. An external evaluation contractor supports the Innovation Center during the Implementation and Test process. This Innovation Center evaluator works with each state to develop standards for data collection and use and for data reporting, as well as requirements for those data elements that will be collected by the states and reported to CMS. The Innovation Center evaluator also defines the measures to be used and evaluation methods to be employed. Data collection is central to the success of the evaluation. Adhering to the data collection requirements is a condition of participating in this initiative.

The Innovation Center evaluation will assess the impact of the models on the quality of care, health outcomes, community health, and net saving in total costs. Towards the end of the Model Test, the Innovation Center evaluation contractor will conduct impact evaluations of the effectiveness of each state model on key outcomes for target Medicare, Medicaid, and CHIP beneficiaries. This Innovation Centers impact evaluation should provide key messages about the most effective models to inform future policy making around improving beneficiary care, improving beneficiary health, and reducing costs.

The evaluation results will identify and characterize the most effective models to inform future policy making around improving beneficiary care, improving beneficiary health, and reducing costs. The State self-evaluation contractor creates State-specific evaluations relevant to all populations and payers involved in their SIM initiative; data collection, storage, cleaning and creation of analytic datasets; continuous quality improvement and analysis of evaluation metrics on a quarterly basis; and working with the Innovation Center evaluator to supply necessary data. The State self-evaluation contractor needs to be an independent entity. The goal is for states to continue these evaluations once the SIM initiative is complete. The States agreement with their evaluation contractor will be reviewed by CMS to ensure the evaluators capabilities. This State self-evaluation contractor will provide data to both CMS evaluators and the Innovation Center external evaluation contractor(s).

The Federal Financial Report (FFR or Standard Form 425) has replaced the SF-269, SF-269A, SF-272, and SF-272A financial reporting forms. All grantees must utilize the FFR to report cash transaction data, expenditures, and any program income generated.

States must report on a quarterly basis cash transaction data via the Payment Management System (PMS) using the FFR in lieu of completing a SF-272/SF272A. The FFR, containing cash transaction data, is due within 30 days after the end of each quarter. The quarterly reporting due dates are as follows: 4/30, 7/30, 10/30, 1/30. A Quick Reference Guide for completing the FFR in PMS is at: www.dpm.psc.gov/grant_recipient/guides/forms/ffr_quick_reference.aspx.

In addition to submitting the quarterly FFR to PMS, states must also provide, on an annual basis, a FFR to CMS which includes their expenditures and any program income generated in lieu of completing a Financial Status Report (FSR) (SF269/SF269A). Expenditures and any program income generated should only be included on the annually submitted FFR, as well as the final FFR.

Annual FFRs must be submitted within 90 calendar days of the applicable year end date. The final FFR must be submitted within 90 calendar days of the project period end date.

Expenditures and any program income generated should only be included on the annually submitted FFR, as well as the final FFR. Annual hard-copy FFRs should be mailed and received within 30 calendar days of the applicable year end date. The final FFR should be mailed and received within 90 calendar days of the project period end date. More details are outlined in the Notice of Award.

Awards issued under this FOA are subject to the reporting requirements of the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act of 2006 (Pub. L. 109-282), as amended by section 6202 of Public Law 110-252 and implemented by 2 CFR Part 170. Grant and cooperative agreement recipients must report information for each first-tier sub-award of $25,000 or more in Federal funds and executive total compensation for the recipients and sub-recipients five most highly compensated executives as outlined in Appendix A to 2 CFR Part 170 (available online at www.fsrs.gov).

Non-Competing Continuation awardees may be subject to this requirement and will be so notified in the Notice of Award. States must submit a quarterly electronic SF-425 via the Payment Management System. The report identifies cash expenditures against the authorized funds for the cooperative agreement.

Failure to submit the report may result in the inability to access funds. CMS will enlist a third party entity to assist us in monitoring the model implementation and testing performance results and outcomes. CMS plans to collect data elements to be part of monitoring for all of the different state models, and these monitoring and surveillance elements will feed into the evaluation. All awardees will be required to cooperate in providing the necessary data elements to CMS or a CMS contractor. The contractor will assist CMS in developing a detailed performance model that is to be used to measure the beginning, mid-course, and end performance of the delivery system or payment models based on feedback from the potential need to make mid-course corrections that improve or optimize performance of the delivery system and/or payment model. The evaluation will include detailed information on participant characteristics and outcomes reported in a standard format. Audits:

In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $750,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in 2 CFR 200.503. In accordance with the provisions of 2 CFR 200, Subpart F - Audit Requirements, non-Federal entities that expend financial assistance of $750,000 or more in Federal awards will have a single or a program-specific audit conducted for that year. Non-Federal entities that expend less than $500,000 a year in Federal awards are exempt from Federal audit requirements for that year, except as noted in Circular No. A-133.

Records:

States must comply with the audit requirements of Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-133. Information on the scope, frequency, and other aspects of the audits can be found on the Internet at www.whitehouse.gov/omb/circulars. States must submit a quarterly electronic SF-425 via the Payment Management System. The report identifies cash expenditures against the appropriated funds for the cooperative agreement. Failure to submit the report may result in the inability to access funds. The SF-425 Certification page should be faxed to the PMS contact at the fax number listed on the SF-425, or it may be submitted to:

Model Test: 11 Model Test cooperative agreements were awarded under this State Innovation Models initiative. Awards for Model Test states range from $20-100 million per state, based on the size of the state population and the scope of the proposal. The amount awarded will include any state cost of testing the model and meeting state and federal evaluation requirements as specified in Section V.3 below. While the Innovation Center is responsible for the evaluation of each Model Test, states must also develop their own model evaluation process, under the guidance of the Innovation Center. The state evaluations should include an evaluation of the entire state population. In general, CMS expects that Model Test awards will cover only costs that are not normally part of a states operational cost, data collection cost, or administrative cost.

REGULATIONS, GUIDELINES, AND LITERATURE:

Cooperative agreements issued under this FOA are subject to the Health and Human Services Grants Policy Statement (HHS GPS) at http://www.hhs.gov/asfr/oaga/aboutog/hhsgps107.pdf. Standard terms and special terms of award will accompany the Notice of Award. Potential awardees should be aware that special requirements could apply to awards based on the particular circumstances of the effort to be supported and/or deficiencies identified in the application by the HHS review panel. The General Terms and Conditions that are outlined in Section II of the HHS GPS will apply as indicated unless there are statutory, regulatory, or award-specific requirements to the contrary (as specified in the Notice of Award).

The following categories of special terms of award are in addition to, and not in lieu of, otherwise applicable OMB administrative guidelines, OMB cost principles at 2 CFR Part 225 (previously OMB Circular A-87), HHS grant administration regulations at 45 CFR Part 92 (Part 92 is applicable when state and local Governments are eligible to apply), and other HHS and PHS grant administration policies. CMS reserves the right to include any of the terms outlined below in the cooperative agreement with an appropriate level of specific details:

Reporting (financial, quality, operational and accountability targets progress)
Learning and Diffusion (training)
Stakeholders (public notice, tribal consultation)
EXAMPLES OF FUNDED PROJECTS:

Not Applicable.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTING PROPOSALS:

Model Test applications will be reviewed by an expert review panel and scored based on the quality of the proposals. The SIM Round 2 Model Test criteria for selection are as follows:

Model Test Plan (50 points)

a. Model Test applicant must demonstrate the ability to test innovative payment reforms that have the potential to accelerate transformation. The elements of the Model Test plans will be evaluated on the following criteria:

- Improvement in beneficiary experiences and outcomes for Medicaid enrollees
- Improvement in the quality of Medicare and Medicaid services

b. As this initiative is intended to reach a preponderance of a states population, a states decision to expand Medicaid will be an important factor in assessing the states readiness to implement a state-wide plan for improving population health. Additionally, because Medicaid can serve as an important lever for driving delivery transformation, states should describe Medicaid expansion activities and the percentage of a states population covered by Medicaid.

c. The Model Test must offer and clearly demonstrate a pathway to a high potential for success in producing better health, better care and lower costs through improvement for Medicare, Medicaid CHIP, and Medicare-Medicaid enrollee populations as well as other health care consumers within the state.

d. The model must describe in detail the target populations, geographic areas, or communities that will be the focus of Model Testing, the current quality and beneficiary experience outcomes including current health population status, and the specific improvement targets expected from the Model.

e. The state must identify specific implementable plans to collaborate with the CDC to develop a state-wide plan for improving population health. The plans will include developing collaborative approaches to improving population health that engage public health officials and provider organizations. (See Appendix 2: Health Information Technology Plan).

f. The state must demonstrate engagement in HHS initiatives to improve health and health care delivery.

- Payer and Other Stakeholder Strategy (10 Points)

The state must demonstrate a clear, sustained commitment to participation and implementation of the health transformation model of major stakeholders including but not limited to advocacy groups, local governments, social service providers, and providers of acute health care, behavioral/mental health care, long term care (including home and community services as well as long term care facility services) in the state, including but not limited to state-owned entities, providers of acute health care, behavioral/mental health care, long term care (including home and community services as well as long-term care facility services).

The state must also demonstrate participation on the part of commercial payers with respect to both financial and quality measurement alignment. The state should identify a broad group of stakeholders involved in the execution of the Model Test, including but not limited to advocacy groups, local governments and social service providers.

Operational Plan (20 points)

States must demonstrate the organizational and operational capacity, organizational structure, leadership and expertise to successfully implement Model Test processes. The detailed project plan and timeline should be well described and clearly demonstrate how the state will successfully lead health transformation in the state with resources provided. The project leadership must clearly demonstrate the required knowledge, skills, abilities and experience to ensure efficient, smooth and effective implementation. States must also include a sustainability plan for the next 4 years beyond the period of the award that includes changes in personnel or administration as well as a clearly detailed plan for continued financing to support sustained health reform/transformation after CMMI award funding is exhausted.

Model Test Budget Narrative and Financial Analysis (10 points)
The proposed budget is carefully developed, is consistent with the Model Test requirements, and is clearly linked to support of a successful implementation plan. Overhead and administrative costs are limited to 10% of direct costs with funding focused on direct support of the Model Test. States must indicate other specific resources that will aid in implementing the Model Test plan, including descriptions of how these resources directly support health transformation in the state. The proposal must document how the overall Financial Analysis, including population and intervention specific savings, will be developed, how return on investment will be calculated, and how the state will incorporate non-CMMI funding (particularly commitments from the multi-payer collaborators, including but not limited to other state and local government resources) into the overall health transformation plan. Based on scores from the Expert Panel Review, selected applicants will be invited to present in person (in the Baltimore/Washington Metropolitan area) to an HHS Leadership Panel (see Section I.4.A. Model Test: Proposal Requirements for more information). The HHS Leadership Panel members are individuals who possess knowledge or expertise in innovative healthcare payment and service delivery models. They will review the applications prior to the presentations, consult during the presentations, and subsequently provide advice to the approving official. The presentations will help to ensure that only those applications that offer the greatest potential for furthering program purposes are selected for funding. The presentations will include the information from the FOA but will also be expected to highlight the following:

State and Stakeholder Commitment
- States must demonstrate a commitment by a broad coalition of stakeholders, including state leadership, during the in-person presentation. The role and contribution of each stakeholder will be considered.
- Likelihood of Success
  - States must demonstrate that their specific approach, through the joint efforts of stakeholders, will be likely to result in achieve success by reducing costs, improving quality and promoting delivery system transformation.
- Novelty of Payment Model
  - States must demonstrate how their payment model presents a unique approach to delivery reform that would accelerate delivery transformation in a manner that has not been tested on a state-wide scale.
- Ability to Align with Medicare Programs
  - States must articulate how their proposal would align with existing CMS programs. For example, a multi-payer ACO approach could complement and align with the Medicare Share Savings program. State could also demonstrate how this alignment will further delivery transformation and reduces costs and improve care for all-payers, including Medicare.

Model Design applications will be reviewed and scored based on the quality of the proposals. In-person presentations are not required for the Model Design applicants. The criteria for Round 2 Model Design selection as follows:

Model Design Strategy (30 points)
States must demonstrate a clear process for designing a plan with the engagement of multiple components of state government and with key stakeholders. The design strategy should specifically identify the levers the state would seek to develop and incorporate into a comprehensive state plan, such as the states Medicaid program, state employee health plans, state-owned academic medical centers, etc. States must explain the unique features of their design efforts and their strategy for designing a plan that aligns with existing CMS efforts and can be implemented on a multi-payer basis. States should demonstrate efforts to improve access to care to vulnerable populations. States should also include strategies that leverage State Marketplace Exchanges in expanding value-based payment methodologies. As this initiative is intended to reach a preponderance of a states population, a states decision to expand Medicaid will be an important factor in assessing its potential impact. Continuing Round 1 Model Design states must demonstrate progress in developing their design plans and clearly articulate how proposed strategies will enhance their Round 1 efforts.

Provider Engagement Strategy (15 Points)
States must demonstrate the commitment of major providers of health care in the state, including behavioral/mental health care, long term care providers and state-owned entities, behavioral/mental health care, long-term care, and long-term services and supports, to participate in the design of the State Health System Innovation Plan. Continuing Round 1 Model Design states must demonstrate appreciable progress to date in engaging providers.

Payer and Other Stakeholder Engagement Strategy (15 points)
The state must describe its strategy for designing a State Health System Innovation Plan that includes multi-payer payment innovation and measure alignment. The design of these aspects of the plan must include the participation of commercial payers and purchasers as well as various stakeholders, including state health associations and advocacy groups. States are expected to identify a broad group of stakeholders and create a mechanism for their effective participation in planning of the State Health System Innovation Plan and document the development of a multi-payer Model Design with stakeholder input. Round 1 Model Design states must demonstrate results in engaging payers and other stakeholders.

Operational Plan (10 points)
The state must demonstrate the organizational capacity, organizational structure, leadership, and expertise to successfully complete the Model Design process. The project plan and timeline should be detailed and well described. The staff or consultants proposed to lead the planning effort should have the skills and experience needed to ensure smooth and effective implementation.

Model Design Budget Narrative and Financial Analysis (30 points)
The proposed budget is carefully developed and consistent with the Model Design requirements. Overhead and administrative costs are reasonable (limited to 10% of direct costs) with funding focused on supporting the Model Design effort. States should indicate other resources that will aid in designing the State Health System Innovation Plan. The proposal should document how the overall Financial Analysis, including population and intervention specific savings, will be developed. Part of the review process will include an analysis of the readiness of the state to complete the design process within one year after approval of a cooperative agreement award.

SHIP and ADRC Options Counseling for Medicare-Medicaid Individuals in States with Approved Financial Alignment Models

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
This solicitation is being issued under section 1115A of the Social Security Act (added by section 3021 of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (P.L. 111-148)), which authorizes the Innovation Center to test innovative payment and service delivery models to reduce program expenditures under Medicare, Medicaid, and the Childrens Health Insurance Program while preserving or enhancing the quality of care.

OBJECTIVES:
The goal of this Funding Opportunity is to provide funding over a three year period to states that have signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with CMS to implement a CMS-approved State Financial Alignment Initiative. In April 2011, the Medicare-Medicaid Coordination Office awarded design contracts to 15 states to implement State Demonstrations to Integrate Care for Medicare-Medicaid Individuals. Subsequently, CMS released a letter to State Medicaid Directors which discussed two models for integrating care and aligning financial incentives for Medicare and Medicaid as part of CMS Financial Alignment Initiative, a joint initiative of the Innovation Center and the Medicare Medicaid Coordination Office, under which States and CMS will collaborate to integrate care and financing for Medicare-Medicaid individuals. The Financial Alignment Initiative is a unique Federal-state partnership to test aligning the service delivery and financing of the Medicare and Medicaid programs to better serve Medicare-Medicaid individuals. As part of this effort, there is a need for strong beneficiary support education and outreach in each State that is implementing a Financial Alignment model, including options counseling for beneficiaries.

Awarders will develop and implement a coordinated SHIP/ADRC strategy and action plan to provide beneficiaries who are eligible for both Medicare and Medicaid during both the Phase 1 Activities and Ongoing Activities of the program, as described in the funding opportunity announcement - with objective information and one-on-one counseling on the nature of the states Financial Alignment model. Such activities will include, but are not limited to, providing information and counseling as to how and when the project will be implemented, the options these dual eligible beneficiaries will have for receiving their Medicare and Medicaid services in their state, the appeal rights they will have under the model, and what they need to do to participate in the program. The SHIP/ADRC staff assigned to this project must be able to provide this information and counseling in a way that is easy for beneficiaries to understand and is culturally and linguistically appropriate. These activities must be carried out in a SHIP/ADRC. Also, the SHIP/ADRC should possess a basic understanding of all CMS approved State Financial Alignment Initiatives.

93.628 AFFORDABLE CARE ACT IMPLEMENTATION SUPPORT FOR STATE DEMONSTRATIONS TO INTEGRATE CARE FOR MEDICARE-MEDICAID ENROLLEES

ACA Implementation Support for State Demonstrations (ISSD)

FEDERAL AGENCY:
Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Human Services

AUTHORIZATION:
Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, P.L. 111-148, section 3201.

OBJECTIVES:
Through this Funding Opportunity, Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) seeks to fund activities necessary to implement the demonstrations to integrate care for Medicare-Medicaid enrollees, especially those that promote beneficiary engagement and protection of beneficiary rights. The purpose of the cooperative agreement is to provide funding over a two-year period to states that previously had design contracts and also have a signed Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with CMS to implement a CMS-approved demonstration.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE:
Cooperative Agreements

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS:
Awardees will implement the Cooperative Agreement following CMS direction. CMS seeks to fund activities necessary to implement the demonstrations to integrate care for Medicare-Medicaid enrollees, especially those that promote beneficiary engagement and protection of beneficiary rights. Implementation tasks will vary, but could include: Beneficiary and provider outreach and education; Participant ombudsman activities to support individual advocacy and independent systematic oversight with a focus on compliance with principles of community integration, independent living, and person-centered care in the home and community based care context; Independent enrollment broker and information and assistance for beneficiaries; Stakeholder engagement; Provider training; Ongoing monitoring of health plans, care coordination entities, and providers, including network adequacy; Improvement to and execution of grievances and appeals; Ongoing processes to confirm network adequacy; Tracking claims and quality data; Actuarial analysis and rate-setting; State-level IT systems modifications to support beneficiary enrollment and data collection and reporting; and Evaluation activities that do not duplicate those performed by the CMS independent evaluator for the demonstration.

Applicants will develop and submit implementation plans that describe how the awardee will manage the project. Applicants must submit regular progress reports to summarize progress against milestones identified in the implementation plans. The following standard requirements apply to applications and awards under the HHS funding opportunity announcement:
Specific administrative and policy requirements of Grantees as outlines in 45
CFR 92.2 CFR Part 225 (previously OMB Circular A-87) and OMB Circulars
A-102 and A-133 apply to this cooperative agreement opportunity.

All awardees under this project must comply with all applicable Federal statutes relating to nondiscrimination including, but not limited to:
Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964,
Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973,
The Age Discrimination Act of 1975,
Hill-Burton Community Service nondiscrimination provisions, and Title II Subtitle A of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990,
All equipment, staff, other budgeted resources, and expenses must be used exclusively for the project identified in the awardees original cooperative agreement application or agreed upon subsequently with HHS, and may not be used for any prohibited uses.

Prohibited Uses of Cooperative Agreement Funds

To provide services, equipment, or supports that are the legal responsibility of another party under federal or state law (e.g., vocational rehabilitation or education services) or under any civil rights laws. Such legal responsibilities include, but are not limited to, modifications of a workplace or other reasonable accommodations that are a specific obligation of the employer or other party.

To supplant existing state, local, or private funding of infrastructure or services, such as staff salaries, etc.

To be used by local entities to satisfy state matching requirements.

To provide infrastructure for which federal Medicaid matching funds are available at the 90 / 10 matching rate, such as certain information systems projects.

To pay for the use of specific components, devices, equipment, or personnel that are not integrated into the application.

Construction or alteration and renovation of real property (A&R).

Any equipment, (including information technology equipment), over $5,000 must be approved by CMS.

Applicant Eligibility:

Funding under this opportunity is only available to states that were previously awarded a State Demonstration to Integrate Care for Dual Eligible Individuals
- Design Contract in 2011 and associated state designated entities (i.e., those entities designated by those state Medicaid agencies) that are authorized by law to administer cooperative agreements, grants, and contracts in support of state programs. Funding is only available once the state has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with CMS to implement their demonstration design.

Beneficiary Eligibility:

Under this funding opportunity, interventions shall primarily target individuals enrolled in both Medicare and Medicaid.

Credentials/Documentation:

Applicants must be states that were previously awarded a State Demonstration to Integrate Care for Dual Eligible Individuals Design Contract in 2011 and associated state designated entities that are authorized by law to administer cooperative agreements, grants, and contracts in support of state programs.

These States may submit applications, but funding is only available once the state has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with CMS to implement their demonstration design.

Applications must include a cover letter expressing support from the state Medicaid director. If applicable, this letter shall express support for the state designated entity to apply and administer the cooperative agreement.

In addition to this documentation, the application is expected to address how the applicant will implement the cooperative agreement program, including how the implementation activities are necessary to implement the demonstration. 2 CFR 200, Subpart E - Cost Principles applies to this program.

Preapplication Coordination:

Preapplication coordination is not applicable. Environmental impact information is not required for this program. This program is excluded from coverage under E.O. 12372.

Application Procedures:

2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards applies to this program. N/A

Award Procedure:

The review process will include the following:

Applications will be screened to determine eligibility for further review using the criteria detailed in the solicitation. Applications received late or that fail to
